The livestock outlook will be discussed by J. R. Kimber, manager, Cincinnati Livestock Producers Association.

All farmers are invited to attend this meeting. After the business session there will be free refreshments.

Ten Cases of Scarlet Fever Reported To Health Department

Ten cases of scarlet fever were reported to the Boone County Health Department during the past week. The cases have been scattered and there is no reason for alarm.

It is recommended that the school remain open so the children can be observed more closely. There were more new cases during the holidays than while school was open.

Parents should watch for early signs of scarlet fever, which are: fever, sore throat, headache and vomiting; a rash appears within 24 to 48 hours, usually beginning on the neck and upper part of the chest. These symptoms appear in two to seven days after contact with the germ.

If these symptoms appear, see your family doctor because there can be serious complication from scarlet fever. Frequently there may be ear infection, kidney damage or rheumatic fever — these may be prevented by early treatment. Watch for symptoms, keep children out of school and home, and call your doctor if they appear.

It looks high priced

...but it's the '56 Chevrolet!

THE NEW BEL AIR SPORT COUPE—one of 19 high-priced-looking Chevrolet models.

Who wouldn't mistake this handsome new Chevrolet for a high-priced car!

It looks strictly "upper bracket" with its bold new Motoramic styling . . . its longer, lower hood . . . its proud new grille that spans the full front end.

But, even beyond the costly appearance of its Fisher Body, Chevy gives the high-priced cars a run for their money. For it's one of the few great road cars built today!

It brings you the added security of nailed-down stability on turns and lightning acceleration for safer passing. Horsepower now ranges all the way up to 205! All engines now have hydraulic-hushed valve lifters.

Of course, Chevrolet has safety door latches in all models. In addition, you can have seat belts, with or without shoulder harness, and instrument panel padding at extra cost.

There's a new Chevrolet just made for you. So come in and highway-test it.

WHITES TOWER

for News—FL 7-5432

This may be our last news from the Tower as we are thinking of moving from the farm and keeping down all the expense of feed bills, etc.

Bide-A-Wee farm had a very nice Christmas as your writer could not have asked for a nicer time as most of our children and grandchildren were present and helped to eat an 11-pound turkey and all the trimmings which was a very good return for all the presents we received.

We are sorry to be at odds with our old newspaper friend Conrad as we still think he is the best ever in his line but we can't agree that this has been a good year for farmers, when prices must for what they buy but get 30% less for what they sell. These are your customers Mr. Conrad so its up to Mr. Benson to see that we get the same for our work as these men who are working for wages and get a raise, every time the cost of living goes up. Isn't that fair?

We want to make special mention of a gift from Tokyo Japan from our grandson, Richard Dorsey, who is there with his wife Otie and little Sara, their daughter. From Dick we received a pocket knife of sterling silver and pure steel blades and in addition the following tools: punch, screw driver, bottle opener, scissors, cork-screw, reamer, nail file and can opener. You can always depend on Dick to pick out something unusual for a gift.

Rather a quiet New Years eve in the Tower. A few watch parties but most people celebrated at home with their families.

The Stafferdsburg Homemakers will have a white elephant sale at the Stafferdsburg Methodist Church and the date has been changed from the 3rd to the 10th of January. The public is invited from 12 noon for the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. William Howard of Visalia celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Sunday. Many well wishers and relatives called to congratulate them.

Sorry to hear our old friend Charlie Stafford is in the hospital. We hear he is somewhat improved.

Boost Winter Wheat Profits With Fall-Added Fertilizer

Midwestern farmers can make higher profits from winter wheat despite acreage allotments, by effective fertilization this fall, reports the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee, in citing information from college agronomists.

In Illinois, says the committee, wheat yields have been increased from 14 to 40 bushels per acre with applications of fertilizer containing nitrogen, phosphate and potash.

Effective fertilization based on soil tests boosts wheat profits in two ways: 1—Fewer acres are needed to produce the same amount of grain. This, in turn, cuts costly seed bed preparation. 2. By spreading fixed costs of production over a greater output per acre, the net return is increased on each bushel of wheat.

Broadcasting and plowing down the fertilizer gives best results where soil tests show low and extremely low nutrient levels. The plow down method assures an even distribution of a large amount of fertilizer throughout the plow layer.

Where soil tests show medium and higher fertility levels, a row application of fertilizer at planting time with the grain drill will give good results. The row application can also be used to supplement a broadcast and plow-down application to promote vigorous root growth.

Top dressings should be made in the spring, if fertilizer was omitted in the fall, or if only minimum amounts of nitrogen were used.

"The important thing to remember," says the committee, "is to get the fertilizer on."

Illinois results show that the net acre profit of the rotation including the 14 bushel wheat crop was only $38.89. But the acre return jumped to more than $64 where nitrogen, phosphate and potash were used.

Agronomists list these management practices for profitable wheat production: 1—Use treated seed of a recommended variety for the particular area. 2—Observe the fly free date. 3—Use minimum tillage to provide a firm seed-bed. 4—Conserve water and control erosion by earlier plowing and 5—mulch cover in the drier regions.

Higher yields and higher profits come from wheat fertilized with nitrogen, phosphate and potash.

Rebuild Rundown Pastures to Boost Meat, Milk Output

Rundown permanent pastures can be renovated and fertilized this fall to produce higher yields of legumes and grasses at a lower cost per acre next year, reports the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee.

These rebuilt pastures can often carry twice as many livestock per acre as formerly, according to Purdue agronomists. This means more meat and milk and higher returns for livestock and dairy farmers.

The committee suggests three steps in renovating rundown pastures. First, cut the old sod 2 times the soil where needed and build up its fertility by adding fertilizer carrying nitrogen, phosphate and potash. Reseed the pasture with high yielding well adapted strains of legumes and grasses.

The lime and fertilizer needed to produce high yielding pasture can be applied when you plow, or added when you disk or disc with the field cultivator, says the committee.

The entire pasture renovation program including seeding can be completed the fall over most of the South and in Belt, says the committee. But in the more Northern areas you can kill out the old sod this fall, leave the field rough over winter and then work it down and seed it next spring. By applying the lime and fertilizer early, you can keep runoff to a minimum.

Kentucky Farmers Use More Fertilizer

Kentucky farmers used 574,197 tons of fertilizer last year to increase crop yields per acre and cut costs of production, reports the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee, in a statement based on National Plant Food Institute compilations. This was an increase of 24,505 tons compared with the preceding year.

The committee points out that 13 Corn Belt states used a total of 6,709,950 tons of fertilizer in the year ending December 31, 1954.

Fertilizer use in the various states was: Indiana, 1,161,909 tons; Ohio, 1,008,400 tons; Illinois, 897,322 tons; Missouri, 649,750; Iowa, 609,868; Michigan, 575,481; Kentucky, 574,197; Wisconsin, 422,268; Minnesota, 313,238; Kansas, 226,041; Nebraska, 191,452; North Dakota, 48,643; and South Dakota, 31,381 tons.

"Farmers in the Corn Belt today are using six times more fertilizer than they did back in 1939," says the committee. "In that year, fertilizer use in the 13 states totaled only 1,048,362 tons.

"The steady rise in fertilizer use in recent years has been due to an increasing realization by farmers of three important factors. 1. Plant food helps them grow more corn per acre, extra tons of hay and pasture and higher yields of small grains. 2. It enables them to cut costs of production and to boost profits per bushel and per ton. 3. Fertilizer is essential to good soil management or conservation."

several hundred acres of sorghum in Hickman county produced 46 to 83 bushels of grain an acre.

Skids are less likely on CONCRETE

The difference between a deadly skid and a safe, quick stop is often the pavement. You can stop faster, even in the rain, on concrete. That's because concrete's gritty surface gives your tires a firm, tight grip, wet or dry.

Besides permitting better vehicle control, concrete makes nighttime driving safer too! Concrete's light-colored surface reflects up to four times more light than dark colored pavements. You can see farther and have more time to slow down or stop to avoid danger.

Concrete roads also are safer because they're free from hazardous ruts, washboard wrinkles and raveled edges.

It's worth remembering that when the weather is rough you're much safer on skid-resistant concrete.

What's a 3-letter word for $31,855?

RELAX, MISTER! You won't find it in the dictionary. But in our book the answer is "JOB"—for that's the kind of money it takes to create a job opportunity on the Southern Railway today.

This $31,855 is our invested capital per employee—the money that has been put into the equipment, land, facilities and other "tools of the trade," without which there could be no jobs.

Because of the nature of the railroad business, this investment per worker is far higher than in most other industries. But it is money well spent. For our invested capital not only creates employment for many thousands of men and women, it also makes possible a modern, ever-improving transportation service that is constantly adding value to the investment all of us have in the Southland and its future.

Cure for Worry

Lesson for January 8, 1956

"TAKE no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, neither for the body, what ye shall put on." Did Jesus say this? There it stands in Luke 12:22. But how foolish it sounds! Christians do take thought for what they eat, they plan meals, they eat in Grade A restaurants if possible, they make out grocery lists, they store food in freezers. They take thought for the body, too, didn't you get out your winter underwear and your overcoat, and didn't you store those last summer where the moths couldn't get at them? Very good Christians act as if Jesus never said "Take no thought" . . . As a matter of fact, the instinct of such Christians has always been right. Jesus never did say this. The Revised Standard Version gives the w:id of Jesus the right translation which Greek scholars have always known was correct—"Do not be anxious." Thought for the future is not wrong; anxiety about the future is wrong for a Christian, and not good sense for anybody.

Dr. Foreman

"Your Father Knows . . ."

Worry is a kind of disease, and Jesus offers a cure for it. He had tested it in his own life first and countless Christians have discovered that it will work. First and most important ingredient in this cure for worry is trust in God. Many people believe in God, after a fashion, without trusting him. Jesus reminds us that God is our Father; and that he knows what we need. He knows we need food and clothing. He will not see to it that we shall get what we need without our having to lift a finger. He will not promise to give us all we want. But we can be confident that our Father in heaven is nine other than the infinite and All-wise God. What ever is real, is known to him, however small. The needs of the flowers in the meadow, the needs of the birds on the wing, God knows these—and how much more are his children have a right to depend on him! Worry is a sign we have forgotten God, or don't think he is wise enough, or strong enough, to do what is right.

Mountain and Molehill

Most human minds are pretty active. They are like a sweet-pea vine, its tendrils reach out and if they don't find a fence or a trellis they will climb up the nearest weed. So our minds get twisted around weeds and get lost in the high grass when they should be climbing into the sunshine. A second ingredient in Jesus' cure for worry could be expressed in the proverb. Put first things first. Most worries are caused by the things that are least important. Jesus picks out food, drink and clothing, as the things which "all the nations of the world" are seeking. Now these things are important. It is not wrong to buy groceries nor to plan a garden. But when they take first place in our minds, when we are anxious about these things forgetting others more important, we deserve all the trouble our worrying causes us. The preacher who worries more over how he says a thing than about what to say the mother who worries more over her children's clothes than over their minds, the Marthas of the world who are "anxious and troubled about many things" so that they never have time for the Heavenly Guest; these all carry burdens of worry which would drop off if they would put first things first.

The Mind at Work—on What?

Worry is not to be got rid of simply by sitting down in an easy-chair and saying "Worry, go away!" You can't even pray it away, though prayer does help enormously and was was said without trust in God, worry is inevitable. Worry has to be worked away. Jesus' cure for worry includes this: "Seek God's kingdom." Paul writes: "The kingdom of God does not mean food and drink but righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit." (Rom. 14:17.) Any Christian who will really put his mind and his energies to work in the service of God's Kingdom that is, in addition to the four cardinals of righteousness, peace and joy in this world, working for a better earth more like heaven—will find that his worries have mostly evaporated.

A baby doesn't "just happen." He is created through a slow and intricate process designed by God.

Neither does a delinquent "just happen." He, too, is created—gradually—by little wrongs and big all human-caused.

Insecurity, improper associates or environment and lack of love often push a child into developing criminal tendencies.

Neglect, lack of guidance, lack of education and religious training will cause him to weaken and become sick morally and spiritually.

Responsible mothers and fathers will endeavor to protect their children from these evils. They will love a child. They will supervise his activities, and see that he has adequate religious education.

They will see that he goes regularly to Sunday School and Church, and they'll go along with him.

As a responsible parent, be sure that you create a Christian—not a criminal.

KENTUCKIANS

IN WASHINGTON

By Gil Kingsbury

Our Apologies

We dislike starting the New Year on [illegible] tax note, but the Internal Revenue Office has a tax book available for Kentucky farmers. Its a 64 page document called "The Farmers' Tax Guide."

There is one item of special interest to the real farmer. Some of these city folks who farm for a hobby can't deduct their farming losses on their income tax report. Farming is a business, not a hobby, Uncle Sam declares.

Again On Money:

Financial experts report that Kentucky's installment debt is on the increase, more people buying more things on credit. The situation is true all over the country.

All of which brings us to this story from Holland. They've got a law over there which says that no Dutchman may buy more than $520.00 worth of goods at a time on the installment plan. To make sure that the law is obeyed, the government has a bank which keeps track of [illegible] transactions.

Fish Story

Kentuckians are great fishermen but one Kentuckian—who shall be nameless—has one to top 'em all.

Seems that he was driving down to Mt. Vernon a few days ago when—kerplop!—a frozen fish fell out of the sky and smashed his windshield.

Fish experts believe they have an explanation. A sea gull flying over the Potomac River dropped the "weapon" [illegible] the car.

This and That

Senator Clements has received an honorary membership in the Christopher [illegible] Society of Covington a[illegible] result of a recent speech made before that group. . . . A campaign note: Kentuckians received Christmas cards from Estes Kefauver showing a picture of the entire family. . . . Robert Menaugh of Indiana, Superintendent of the House Radio Gallery, is a Kentucky Colonel. . . . Kentucky lawmakers, on their return to the capitol, are preparing for a fight to get federal aid for school construction. They predict the battle will be hot. . . . Reply to Mason County letter writer: Senator Byrd of Virginia is to introduce a pay as you go bill on Federal highway construction. This will bring about another torrid battle.

Miss Lay, the fourth grade teacher at Visalia school, was married to Mr. Stanley Webb. A shower was held Friday, December 9, in the school auditorium. Mr. and Mrs. Webb are residing at Kenton Lakes.

VERONA

The [illegible] wishes the Advertiser staff and all the readers a happy new year.

Mrs. [illegible] Chandler was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital recently. We hope for her [illegible] recovery.

[illegible] Chapman has been home on furlough.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lame entertained with a family dinner recently. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Wolfe, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brown and son, Mr. and Mrs. [illegible] Brown and [illegible], all of near [illegible], Mr. and Mrs. Atwood Brown of Mason, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Reffitt, Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Reffitt, Fred Reffitt and girlfriend, Miss Led[illegible], all of Erlanger.

Mr. and Mrs. Mayo Hayden, Mrs. Allie [illegible] and Mrs. Susie Glore were recent callers on Marion Chandler at the hospital.

Mrs. Ethel Rogers of Georgetown is staying with her sister, Mrs. Allie Chandler, while her husband is in the hospital.

Mrs. Carrie Coleman and son Woods of Cincinnati called on her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Flurion Adams, recently. An [illegible] guest was their father, J. T. [illegible].

Mrs. [illegible] Hughes called on her parents Sunday afternoon recently.

Harry Chapman is improving slowly.

Mrs. Rose Hamilton was a caller in the Chapman home recently.

Exhibits by 4-H Clubs featured the Kiwanis club dairy cattle show in Montgomery county.

The alfalfa acreage in Mason county has increased 2000 acres in the past five years.

Cover crops were seeded on almost 100 percent of the tobacco land in Green county.

Four homemakers clubs in Bullard county planned meetings for men and women for a discussion of the project, "What Every Homemaker Should Know About Kentucky Laws."

High yields of high-quality sorghum molasses were reported by farmers in Hancock county.

Happy New Year

Before we close the books on the old year may we say "thanks" for all you've done for us during the past twelve months.

We hope, too, that in the New Year to come we may play some part in making your hopes and dreams all come true.

F.H.A. Study Baby Sitting

On January 5th the F.H.A. had as its guest speaker, Mrs. Franklin Lipscomb who gave an enjoyable talk on "What I expect in a Baby Sitter." The qualifications for an efficient baby sitter are high spiritual and moral standards, neatness and cleanliness of self and home, trustworthiness, alertness, dependability, ability to assume responsibilities, to follow directions, and to control child, love for children and first aid knowledge.

The advantage of baby sitting is that it "gives" experience to prepare the baby sitter to understand children so that when she becomes a mother she will know or at least have some idea of what to expect of her child and how to care for it.—Reporter.

These payments were listed: Old Age Assistance $4,841; Aid to Dependent Children, $591; Aid to Needy Blind $165.

Total outlay for the month was $3,769,185 including old age grants of $3,263,799. Dependent children outlay $1,191,683 and needy blind grants of $113,703.

$6,500 Blaze Destroys West Home In Walton Early Monday

Mr. West, who was wounded in World War II, uses a wheelchair and crutches to get around. A passing truck driver was the first to discover the blaze, according the Chief Groger who worked the blaze. The driver blew his horn until he attracted neighbors who sent in the alarm at 2:45 a. m.

Assistant Chiefs Worthington and Guy Carlisle and about twenty other firemen brought the blaze under control within an hour, but remained several hours to see that it did not break out again. This was the first fire in which the new two-way radio equipment was used and according to the firemen it worked fine.

The Independence Fire Department had equipment at the fire house in Walton since all Walton's apparatus was in use, and according to the "move-up" system they would have taken any calls that came in from any other source—a very smooth working organization.

The Walton department's women's auxiliary was also on the job serving hot coffee to the firemen and also aiding the destressed ones. All this was done in almost zero weather and firemen had difficult was frozen water on their equipment.

The blaze had already broken thru the roof and was well under way, when the firemen arrived and they saved part of the building and kept it from spreading to other building nearby.

Another saluute to our valiant firemen!

Those who enjoyed the day were Miss Nancy Guilfoil, Mrs. Dora Burchett, Minnie Davis, Ivy West, Lillian Stephenson, Lizzie Noel, Francis McCormick, Virgie Adams, Edith Hamilton and the hostess, Ethel Fooks.

The next meeting will be at the home of Lillian Stephenson.

FARMERS TAX GUIDE

The time of the year has rolled around again and farmers of Boone County have the task of making out their farm income tax for 1955. For many this is a hard task and help is always needed. That help can be gotten through a booklet "Farmer's Tax Guide" which can be gotten at the County Agent's office. In this guide there are questions and answers and examples on how to make out farmer income tax, according to Joe Claxon, County Agent. Anyone desiring the booklet may call the County Agent's office or stop in for it.

Simon Kenton Y-Teen Club Elect Officers; List Activities for Year

The Simon Kenton Y-Teen is made up of all girls who want to join from the tenth through twelfth grades. There are two kinds of memberships, regular and associate. For this year there are 101 paid members.

The club officers for 1956 are: Barbara Rust, president; Jo Ann Heideman, vice president; Donna Richardson, secretary; Donna Schuster, treasurer; Eve Stephenson, reporter; corresponding secretary; Thelma Collett, worship chairman; Sandra Tattershall, historian; Pat Brumbach, social chairman, Norma Elliott cupcake chairman; Donna Lancaster, Tri Hi-Y president.

Some of our activities for the year have been the Fall Area Conference held October 7-8 at Boone County High School. Our club has two Area officers: Joyce Cooper, treasurer, and Shirley Collins, song leader.

The club has given $50 on a new mimeograph machine for the school.

Installation of officers was held under the direction of Shirley Collins. Twenty-six members attended the Cheer Leading Clinic of U. K. November 12. Some members heard Dr. Crane at Y.M.C.A. For Thanksgiving our club took individual pumpkin pies to the Old Ladies Home. The Executive Council has met many times to work out a calendar of work. Each girl brought a covered dish and had a pot luck supper.

Candy and oranges were taken to the Infirmary for Christmas. The White Christmas program was held in the gym. The program was put on by Y-Teens and Hi Y members. Devotion was given by Thelma Collett. 'Why the Chimes Rang' was told by Joyce Cooper. Others in the program were: Shirley Collins, Gayle Stephens, Sandra Tattershall, Bobby Woinscott, Richard Marquette, Clifford Zeff, Garl Sipple. There were Christmas songs by the Glee Club and a solo by Wanda Brandigan.

One Hundred Boone Business Men Receive Annual Financial Form

Each January business concerns in all parts of the United States receive from Dun & Brandstreet requests for their annual financial statements. This year the number of requests going out nationwide will approximate three million, with over 100 going to Boone county businessmen.

The growth and the industrial development of Boone County is reflected in statistics just released by the credit reporting firm. William M. Gordon, district manager at Cincinnati which covers this area, says that this year there will be more requests for financial statements made of business concerns in Boone County than ever before.

The Boone County section of the current issue of the Dun & Bradstreet Reference Book contains listings of 172 local names comprising manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers. It does not include some of the service and "professional" businesses, such as barber and beauty shops, real estate and stock brokers. Thus the figure for business in Boone County would actually be higher than the 172 quoted above.

Speaks softly and packs a powerful wallop!

THE BEL AIR SPORT COUPE—one of 19 high-priced looking Chevrolets, all with Body by Fisher.

Whether idling at curbside or cruising, this new Chevrolet talks in a well-mannered whisper. You scarcely ever hear more than a soft undertone of power from its deep-chested V8. (One reason is the hydraulic-hushed valve lifters now in all Chevrolet engines—V8 or 6.)

Soft-spoken, yes—but this handsome traveler packs a wallop that ranges up to 205 h.p.! It's charged with sheer action!

Action that can save you precious seconds for safer passing on the highway! Action that lets you take steep hills in stride! Action that helps you zoom out of trouble spots almost as quickly as they develop!

And action isn't all. Chevy holds the road like part of the pavement! You feel added assurance in the way it clings to curves.

Of course, Chevrolet brings you the security of safety door latches in all models. Instrument panel padding and seat belts, with or without shoulder harness, are offered at extra cost.

Come in and drive a new Chevrolet. We've got one ready and waiting for you.

WHITES TOWER

for News—FL 7-5432

Bernard (Butch) Niemever has enlisted in the Army and is now stationed in Missouri.

Mrs. Gene Wallace of Plantation Heights suffered a bad fall down the cellar steps at her home last Wednesday fortunately outside of a few bad bruises no serious effects resulted.

Latonia Lake's is progressing rapidly as they now have a physician Dr. Rich who is highly spoken of by those who have had use of his service. A new drug store and a television service shop are in order for business. Congratulations today for the civic spirit you are showing.

Bro. Bob Brumbach, pastor of Amity Baptist Church will start their revival on January 22 to January 28 inclusive with Bro. Jan Fields bringing the message each evening at 7:45. Everyone welcome and wanted.

Last Tuesday night Mrs. Robert Brumbach entertained 11 members of the W. M. U. of Amity church. Lunch was served and a pleasant social time was enjoyed by all.

CARD OF THANKS

Willie and Addie B. Behanan wish to extend their thanks to the various churches, grocers, fraternal organizations, Homemaker clubs, schools and to the many, many people that helped in every way in our sorrow at the loss of the home we were living in and the entire loss of the furnishings. It 2

If you buy a new truck after looking at only one make, it's like making a deal in the dark. You can't be sure of getting the most for your money.

A smarter way to buy is to "spotlight" real truck value—weigh and compare competitive claims with these Dodge truck facts:

★ Highest payload capacities . . . pick-ups providing up to 22% more payload than others. You'll haul bigger, more profitable loads with DODGE.

★ Prices down with the lowest. Comparative facts show that, feature for feature and dollar for dollar, the real value is DODGE.

Next truck you buy, don't deal in the dark. Turn a bright light on the facts—see Dodge before you buy.

BIBLE SPEAKS
International Uniform Sunday School Lessons
BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

How to Repent

Lesson for January 15, 1956

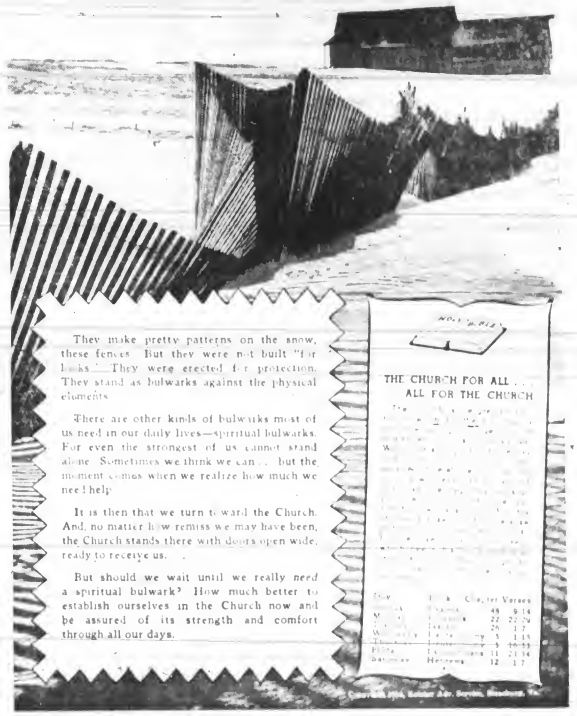
ONCE upon a time, so the story goes, there was a young man who had just come to a church as their preacher. He was barely out of the seminary and his notebooks and his head were well filled. He started out one Sunday morning with a sermon on Repentance. He analyzed the meaning of the word, he traced it through Scripture, he examined it theologically and psychologically—in short, he laid down the Doctrine of Repentance as he had been taught it.

Dr. Foreman

When he sat down an old minister in the congregation got to his feet and up to the pulpit as fast as he could make it. "Young man," he said, "you quit just before you got to the point. You told these people what repentance is, now stand up there and tell 'em to repent!"

Substitutes for Repentance

So, nothing in this column should be taken to mean that knowing what repentance is can be a substitute for repenting. Knowing what fishing is is not fishing, knowing what a doctor does will not make one a doctor. So knowing what repentance is, is not repenting. And still it helps. You can't fish if you've no idea what "fishing" means. You can't be a doctor if you don't know what doctors do. Some people never really repent, only because they have got into the habit of doing something else they call repenting, but is not really that at all. Repentance is not just being sorry for something you have done. You may be sorry for the wrong reason,—because you have been found out, or because your sin has caused you trouble, or because your pride in yourself has been dented. Repentance is being sorry but it is more than that. Repentance in the Bible sense of the word also is more than regretting particular sins. I may be truly sorry I was harsh to a loved one; but next day I may be just as harsh and unkind. The harshness and unkindness are symptoms, they are not the disease; I need to repent of what it is in me that causes me to mistreat others.



Repentance Is Changing the Mind

Don't let any one tell you that Christians do not need to repent. Only those who argue that Christ's commands are not for us can suppose that repentance is not our own duty. As for Paul, he made it about as plain as words can make it: God calls on all men everywhere to repent (Acts 17:30). Beware of "Bible students" who try to evade the plain teaching of Jesus. He certainly taught repentance as well as faith. Now the Greek word used to translate Jesus' word (which no doubt was in Aramaic, the language of Palestine in those days) is "metanoeo" which literally means to change the mind. This is much deeper than changing your mind about what to take at a cafeteria or when to do the washing. It means, as Jesus' whole teaching shows, that total change of outlook,—loving what one hated, hating what one loved,—which changes the whole person from within. What is the center of your life? Is it yourself? Then no matter how many sins you may regret having committed, you have not repented in Jesus' sense of the word. Your life must be shifted over from love of yourself to love of God and your neighbor. Repentance is the outworking of the new birth. A person who professes to have been born again but who still looks at life from a self-centered standpoint, has probably not been born again. Repentance, in this deep and real sense of a radical change in attitude, aims and desires, is not something you can do in a flash and be done with forever. In 2 Peter 3:9 (a little book written to Christians) it is said the Lord wishes all to "reach repentance." It is actually a continuing lifelong process.

How It Works

For the profound inner change of the mind (which in the Bible is inseparable from the heart) will work out in reorientation for particular sins. Some people, perhaps most people, find it easier to repent of "sin" or what they call repentings than of particular sins. But true repentance is both profound and particular. In true repentance, a person is "sorry" for a sin but goes on deeper [illegible]

PATTERNS IN THE SNOW

They make pretty patterns on the snow, these fences. But they were not built "for looks." They were erected for protection. They stand as bulwarks against the physical elements.

There are other kinds of bulwarks most of us need in our daily lives—spiritual bulwarks. For even the strongest of us cannot stand alone. Sometimes we think we can . . . but the moment comes when we realize how much we need help.

It is then that we turn toward the Church. And, no matter how remiss we may have been, the Church stands there with doors open wide, ready to receive us.

But should we wait until we really need a spiritual bulwark? How much better to establish ourselves in the Church now and be assured of its strength and comfort through all our days.

If You Want It - We Got It!

We started off 1956 with a bang. Brewster took a New Perfection Oil Heater over to Verda Bagby on Harris Road. Then took a water heater and Dayton Water System to R. L. Blackburn at Mount Zion. On the way back stopped at Floyd Sebree farm and put new pump leathers in his lift pump. When he came in Chick and I had sold two Maytag Washers. He delivered one to Almeta Jones on Church Street and another to Donald Vaught down on Dixie Highway. I sold Mrs. James McCubbin a 9x12 linoleum rug and Mrs. Lloyd McCubbin two window shades. These were just some of the larger items we sold but Chick sold everything from dishes to galvanized water pipe.

Another very busy day. Brewster on the move again over to Dr. McCormac's to service his oil heater. Then up to Clarence Combs to return his Maytag Washer wringer we just had repaired, then up to Peggy Vest to deliver a pressure cooker we had repaired. Then he delivered a 40 gallon table top Electric Water Heater to Marion Martin over by Concord Church. Chick and I unloaded a shipment of power lawn mowers; get one of these early before they raise the price as everything is going up. The Dayton Pump man called me that Jet Water System we sold so many of is going up ten dollars so I told him to send me ten pumps before the raise. Sometimes we can get in before they raise. Several came in to get their 1956 hunting license but it seems from reports the game is all gone. Mrs. Ethel Sheppard was in same as usual each month; she is one of my best customers.

Kenneth Stamper came in after two 11x19 glass. I picked up two 12x20 out of bin, cut off one inch on each side; later he calls me and says the glass he has at home are still 12x20; now what did I do or what did he do, one of us is wrong. We are getting in the merchandise as well as selling it. Brewster spent all day at Mt. Zion installing the electric water heater and Dayton Water System for R. L. Blackburn; he does a very nice job. Bill and Marjorie Densler bought a new Maytag Washer. We have sold more Maytags since Christmas than we did all fall.

Heat water with electricity; a 40 gallon table top water heater to set beside your sink for 129.50 and a round type 52 gallon for only 109.50. I sold Earl [illegible] from Dry Ridge a horse drawn Bemis Tobacco setter; he will be ready when the time comes. We sold several linoleum rugs and several square yards of linoleum. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mason from Nicholson were buying at Conrad Hardware, the place to get your hardware items.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Gibson bought Jelled Magic and Rubber Base Paint. We sure do a fine job selling paint and we have most any kind you want. Chick set up a lot of Lamesway Poultry Feeders and fountains; a five foot feeder on legs for only 7.50, an eight gallon electric heated water fountain on a stand complete 16.75, a hanging type feeder for only 3.95. Eggs are high so put the feed and warm water to them so they will lay two eggs a day. We received another shipment of lard cans; we have sold out twice this season. Every day we sell a lot of pipe fittings, galvanized, copper sweat, brass flare and some plastic. We sold lard cans today but the dozens. Don Fields came in for five. Mrs. Earl Carpenter called for three [illegible] time. I received a card today from a man up at Batavia, Ohio, wanting to know if I had any lamp chimneys; they don't have them in Ohio. There are a lot of things we Briar Hoppers have that those Buckeyes don't have. But we don't get credit for having much. Anyway when I go to Cincinnati they take all of the dollars a Briar Hopper has if he don't watch. Briar Hopper or Hill Billy, whatever we may be, it is a fine state to live in. We may have a low rating in education but I know a lot of teachers educated in Kentucky teaching in Ohio and are wonderful teachers.

I received a letter from E. [illegible] at Verona and left in 1913 for California and has been out there ever since. He reads the Advertiser every week and of course my ad. [illegible] to advertise with [illegible]. So many people think this paper [illegible] goes to all parts of the country and even to foreign [illegible]. Several of my ads have been put in company papers and sent all over the world. Two of my write-ups took this paper to their company: The Perfection Stove Co. and the American [illegible] Co. They put it in their company papers and they [illegible] the world. Walton may be a small Kentucky Country Town but [illegible] people know we are here.

[illegible] Saturday night but this was the first Saturday night in 21 years I could be at home with my wife like other men do. Most everyone else [illegible] 40 hours and quit. We work 54 hours in five days; don't you think that's enough. [illegible] watching Lawrence Welk's show on television, some of the finest music I ever heard. Mabel Maddox says she is tempted to buy a Dodge Car because they put on such a fine program.

I went over to Omer Kite's last night; he was all [illegible] with a radio on one side and [illegible] on the other but both turned off. Said he would rather hear the fox hounds run; now that is what I would call a real fox hunter. He sure has a wonderful [illegible]. Come in to see us when in town.

Dairying, Pasture Management To Be Discussed at Meeting

Dairying and pasture management is to be discussed at a meeting to be held on Monday, January 23, 1:30 p.m., at the Boone County Courthouse, Burlington.

E. C. Scheidenhelm, Dairy Specialist, University of Kentucky, will talk on more profit from your dairy herd. This should be very important to dairymen of the county as this is one of the chief farm enterprises.

To have a good dairy operation there must be good pasture and hay crops, B. F. Fortenbery, Agronomy Field Agent, University of Kentucky, will discuss management of pastures and hay crops, also soil testing and the proper wertilization.

Joe Claxon, county agent, stated that this meeting should be of great value to all farmers and that it is important that a good job of farming if the farmer is to stay in the business. All available information must be used in order to do the job and make a living.

Take a Look!

If you are not sure if the Walton Advertiser just take a look at the stats that is printed big and your name at the top of the paper and that will tell you when your subscription expires or expired then will you resubscribe, giving a year we must clean up all papers that are not paid in advance according to Postal Rules and that will be done on February 1.

Dear reader, we SURE want you to continue as one of our Advertiser family so that gives you 12 days to send that much needed check or cash to help pay that newsprint bill that was charged on last month —and we love every one you you!

Have Soil Tested, Know Fertilizer Needs Says County Agent

Boone county farmers should have their soil tested so they will know their fertilizer needs for 1956. In this way they will be able to buy their fertilizer early according to Joe Claxon, county farm agent.

The usage of freight cars is cited as one reason why farmers should get their orders in early for fertilizer. Where possible, they should get delivery of materials of their farms says the U. S. Department of Agriculture. If farmers will act without delay, they will make it possible for manufacturers of fertilizer to keep supplies coming along. Otherwise, factory storages and dealers' facilities will fill up and then shortages occur later in the season.

Square Dance at Kenton

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Kenton and Community Volunteer Fire Department, will sponsor a square dance for the department's life squad on Saturday night, January 21, 8:30 p.m., at the fire house at Kenton.

Boone Enters Nat'nal Soil Conservation Awards Program

The Boone County Soil Conservation District has entered the national Soil Conservation Awards progam sponsored by the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co. Akron, Ohio, it was announced today by District Chairman Charles L. Hempfling of Taylorsport.

Members of the Boone county district will compete against other soil conservation districts in the state. Non-partisan judging committees, selected from Kentucky's outstanding exponents of the soil conservation movement, will determine the state's outstanding district for the period May 1, 1955 and March 31, 1956, on a basis of total points scored in performance of regular district duties.

Grand award for one member of each winning district governing body and the top cooperating farmer or rancher nominated by the district will be a ship-work, expense-paid vacation trip to Goodyear's fabulous winter resort, the Wigwam Guest ranch on Goodyear Farms, Litchfield Park, Ariz., in December, 1956.

National winners of the conservation awards will be honored at the seven regular area meetings of the National Association of Soil Conservation districts. Plaques will be awarded at state conventions to the hundred first and second place winning districts.

Boone Homemakers To Study Refinishing Furniture Says Agent

Boone County Homemakers will begin a series of studies and workshops on refinishing furniture January 25, according to Home Agent Nancy Guilfoil.

Mrs. Elizabeth Burroughs, University of Kentucky Home Furnishing Specialist, will be discussing furniture pieces of value to refinish, how to identify woods, merits of veneer, how to use various woods together, how to recognize good furniture according to scale, size, design and finish.

In February, the local leaders will be learning how to prepare woods for a new finish, and in March they will study how to apply natural finishes, how to choose suitable finishes for certain woods and styles of furniture, methods of preparing chair seats for caning, boring holes, etc. and method of coring for furniture.

Local leaders throughout the county who will be teaching the classes in their local clubs are: Burlington, Mrs. Roy Dawn and Mrs. Nelson Applegate; Mt. Zion, Mrs. Roger McGuire and Mrs. Frank Domoschko; Verona, Mrs. A. M. Davis; Florence, Mrs. John Martin and Mrs. C. F. Seating Capacity of 12,000 Is Planned

Detailed plans for a $3 million race track at Nicholson, have been outlined by officers of Latonia Race Course, Inc.

Officers of the incorporation include Harry Reid, Jr. of Lexington, president, Edward W. Redmon, Jr., of Covington, vice president; Jack Horrison, Chicago and Lexington businessman, secretary, and Alvin Heimonn, Hebron, treasurer.

Dates, it is expected, would fall between established meets at River Downs near Cincinnati, and Keeneland at Lexington. There has been no thoroughbred racing in northern Kentucky since the old Latonia track closed in 1939.

It was announced that cost of actual construction of the plant would approximate $3 million, with another $500,000 to $1 million to be available for initial operations. Purses will total $666,000 during the initial meet in 1957, with a minimum of $2,000 a race.

The proposed plant, as outlined to the Racing Commission which took the plans under advisement without formal action would include two racing strips. The first a regulation one-mile race oval, 80 to 90 feet wide; second, a seven-eighths mile turf oval 60 feet wide just inside the regular track.

Seating capacity planned is 12,000 persons, including 7,200 in the grandstand and 4,800 in the clubhouse. Parking facilities are to be arranged for 5000 cars.

Twenty barns with room for 32 stalls each are planned to handle a capacity of 640 horses. The plant would have its own sewage and water plants, according to plans drawn.

Mr. Redman said that some stock ultimately would be sold in the sponsor incorporation but that no details have been planned for that.

MRS. EMMA M. MEIER

Services for Mrs. Emmo M. Meier, 79, a resident of Hempfling Road, Atwood, will be held this (Thursday) afternoon at 2:00 in the Chambers and Grubbs funeral home, Walton. Burial will be in the Independence Cemetery.

Mrs. Meier, a member of Hopeful Lutheran Church, Florence, died Monday at St. Elizabeth Hospital, Covington. A native of Brocken county, she had lived in Kenton county for many years.

She leaves three daughters, Mrs. Clifford Cornelius of Kenton county, Mrs. Charles M. Tanner of Florence, and Mrs. Katherine Taylor of Cocoa, Fla.; a son, William Meier of Nicholson; two sisters, Miss Molly Wogel of Cincinnati, and Mrs. Jesse Golden of Hamilton, Ohio; a brother, William Wogel of Brooksville; five grondchildren, and four great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Atkinson Speaks At January Meeting Of the Wa-Na Club

Mrs. Dwight L. Maddox entertained the Wa-No Club on Monday evening, January 9, at her home on North Main Street. Following the pledge to the flag and the club collect, Mrs. Jesse Falls gave the spiritual guidance.

Mrs. Alfred E. Atkinson, wife of the Methodist minister in Walton gave a very interesting talk on the life and customs in India. She showed pieces of jewelry, shoes, and the dress that is worn in India by the women.

Clerk's Office Open Later

The office of County Clerk C. D. Benson, Burlington will remain open until 4:00 p.m. each Saturday until March 1, to accommodate automobile and truck owners in securing 1956 license plates.

"I don't think this would have happened on concrete!"

"It happened so fast, officer! I was taking it easy because I know this type of pavement is slippery when wet. I stepped on the brakes to slow down for the curve and my car suddenly went completely out of control. I skidded into the other lane of traffic and right into that other car. I don't think this would have happened if I had been on a concrete road."

You're right, Mr. Motorist. There's less chance of such an accident on concrete. Concrete pavement has greater skid resistance than other pavements. Your tires get a tight grip on its gritty surface. This means better vehicle control and quicker stops without skidding, even though it may be raining.

Remember, the type of pavement can often mean the difference between life and death. You're much safer when you drive on a skid-resistant concrete pavement.

REMEMBER, YOU PAY MORE FOR POOR ROADS THAN FOR GOOD ROADS. KENTUCKY DESERVES THE BEST. INSIST ON CONCRETE

Christian Marks

Lesson for January 22, 1956

Dr. Foreman

HOW can we tell whether a person is a Christian or not? Is there anything that marks all Christians? There is faith, of course, but only God can see faith itself. Jesus said: "By their fruits ye shall know them." What kind of "fruits" should we look for, in others and in ourselves, to see whether we are Christians? Only God is the final Judge. We should not be too quick to say brashly, "I know . . ." Better say, "I have good reason to believe . . ." So, what are the good reasons for believing that a person is a Christian? Sticking to our one chapter in Luke for this week, we can take note of three marks of a Christian, that is, of Jesus' followers, those who take his word as in order. They sound quite simple and ordinary; what is extraordinary, what is specially Christian about them, is the thoroughgoing quality Jesus expects.

Helpfulness

Three marks which we can readily see suggested, in this chapter of sayings of our Lord, are Helpfulness, humility, and honesty. Everyday qualities, aren't they? In fact, you can't get along without them in the civilized world. Nobody likes a man who brags all the time. Nobody likes a man who never lends a hand to anybody in trouble. Nobody likes a man who can't be trusted. Helpfulness, humility and honesty are not in themselves specially Christian attitudes. Jesus certainly did not invent these qualities. They are found among people of many religions and of no religion. What Jesus did was to demand an extraordinary high degree of these everyday virtues. First, as to helpfulness: Not only in the words quoted in Luke 14 but in many other ways and places, Jesus emphasizes how far his friends are expected to go. Most people are willing to help others, if it isn't bothersome or expensive. Jesus' idea of helpfulness was of something quite costly, something that calls for effort, self-sacrifice. Helpfulness as he sees it is not just doing something for somebody who will do as much for you. It means doing for people who never can pay you back. You can't be sure you are helpful as Christ was unless you are willing, as he was, to put out more for others than you are going to get back.

Humility

We all expect humility from other people, and we even practice it ourselves, in the form of courtesy. For courtesy is a form of humility.—"After you!" "Please." "Thank you." "Pardon me." and the like, are humble expressions, when you come to think of it. But Jesus expects His disciples to be humble and not just to talk humble. Are you a Christian at this point? A few questions are in order, to ask yourself. Am I always thinking that other people don't appreciate me? Am I a little sore because I don't get the promotions I deserve? When I say, "What's he got that I haven't got?" Do I feel a little peevish, as if the answer I expect is "Nothing"? Have I often been able to forget my own interests on behalf of others? One of the most striking stories about Jesus is told by John, who records that Jesus, "knowing he came from God and was going to God," took a towel and did the "menial" service that every one of his disciples was too proud to do. The highest is the humblest.

Honesty

Everybody knows that honesty is a good policy. But one mark of a Christian is that he will be honest at two points where (strangely enough) most people are least honest: that is, with himself and with God. The parables about counting the cost are really about the importance of facing the facts, admitting to yourself where you come short. Human sensitivity to self-deception is astonishing. Way a man takes himself for a snake, in other words, is astonishing. Hard to understand. But it is even more amazing that men will think they can get by with God. The excuses made by the unwilling guests in Jesus' parable do they feel that much [illegible] to God are [illegible]

WHITES TOWER

(or News—FL 7-5432

Bob Mathis of Camp Hungry made his mother Judy Brumbach a present of a Cocker Spaniel puppy last week. That Judy is tickled is putting it mildly.

Wm. Brumbach Sr. of Cleveland, Ohio, was a business visitor to Cincinnati and Northern Kentucky the past week-end.

We are glad to report the sick are all much better at this writing.

Quite a windstorm hit the Tower on Sunday night and it is still snowing this Monday morning.

Everyone is talking pro and con about the proposed new race track near Nicholasville. We will have more about this later when the arguments are all in.

Wedding bells will ring soon for two couples in the vicinity of the Tower with church weddings. More later.

Programs will be on a commodity basis in Clark county—tobacco, soils and crops sheep beef cattle dairying, poultry and engineering.

VISALIA

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Martin and children were guests on Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Honeycutt and children at Klum Road.

Mrs. Betty Moore is ill in St. Elizabeth Hospital. I imagine cards and visits from friends would cheer her up. Mrs. Moore is the former Betty Harris of Visalia.

Have several more on the sick list. Erma Manning, now Hillie Brady and Virginia Earl, Abner from Kenton, Bruce Schnitzler, and from Visalia, Mrs. Starling Hendley, Mrs. Ed Cipple, Stanley Budke and Sunny Ford.

A dear friend and once a neighbor at Visalia, passed away Wednesday night. She was Mrs. Emma Caldwell, wife of Felix Caldwell, and mother of Margaret Huerbe. She also leaves a sister, Mrs. Edith Cole of Cincinnati, and a brother, Robert Rigland, of Florence. Mrs. Caldwell had been in ill health for several months. She made her home at 3730 Davenant Ave., Kennedy Heights.

Mr. Russell Prather broke his wrist in an accident.

Mr. and Mr. Joe Souza went bowling with Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Peterson, Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. John Pettit were Saturday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Wilson and family. A card party was held and an enjoyable evening was spent.

Linda Sue Gadd daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Gadd, and a student in the Visalia school, has returned home from St. Elizabeth Hospital and is recuperating from double pneumonia.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Grizzell of Kenton who are the proud parents of a new daughter.

Mr. Walter Gill and Mrs. Robert Redmon visited their mother, Mrs. Melvina Pettit at Falmouth Sunday.

Frank Espich, brother of Mrs. Gordon Plaza, received two broken heels Friday evening. He was injured on his way home from work. He is a patient in Bethesda Hospital, Cincinnati.

Happy birthday to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Redmon, who both celebrate this month, and to Mrs. Allen Budke.

Fred Brown returned home recently from St. Elizabeth Hospital and is much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. George Roberts were recent Sunday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Fisk, Jr. of near Morning View.

1956 WINTER

The worst winter day we have had, snow and slick roads, no sign of getting better. We had several in getting tire chains and repairing their old ones. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Guards came up in spite of the bad weather and bought a New Maytag Washer, a portable laundry tub and a drop in electric water heater. Gen. Arnold bought several Revere stainless steel copper bottom kettles. I thought they were for his wife but he said he was going to do some cooking. I'll ask Mrs. Arnold first time I see her. I had some folks in from over in Kenton County they brought a lot of aluminum ware, water heater galvanized buckets, butcher knives and some small items. Dave J. Houston had Rod and Chick do a blacksmith job making U bolts and clamps. We do a lot of that work for farmers as we have no blacksmiths any more.

Eva Stephenson and her grandma Mrs. Eva Hall wanted me to order a Frost Proof Pressure Cooker for Eva but I had one in stock so she took it home. I had another lady in inquiring about our Rubber Base Wall Paint and that wonderful called Magic. She had seen some of this on her neighbors wall and it was beautiful. As I have said before we can't do that kind of paint at Conrad, for the least money. Give us a try, we will do our best to satisfy your paint needs. Leon Gutman who teaches at Florence and lives at Dry Ridge, stopped here and bought our children a treat and I sold a coal heater today, when the weather gets cold they always need an extra heater.

Lard cans and ham bags are the fastest selling items now. We just put out that new Wolverine Glove Display rack full. Fig Newtons and Nabs they really sell. Everyday we sell electric switches, plugs, lamp cord and wiring material. The other kind of weather you should be taking care of those old hens with a different way. Heated Water Fountains and a five feet Jamesway Feeder on legs so they can have plenty of warm water and lots of clean food. Eggs are high so make them produce. We are getting in a lot of new merchandise like Table Top Electric Water Heaters, a three piece bath room outfit and have a real price on it. A nice stock of cast iron soil pipe and fittings, a stock of rangeburg pipe and fittings along with a stock of copper galvanized and plastic pipe with the fittings. We have a nice supply of plumbing supplies. So remember come to Conrad's of Walton we sell you quality merchandise and our price is right.

The express truck just unloaded a Mem. Home Drawer Tobacco Setter and a rubber tire Farm Wagon. We are selling pipe fittings, lard cans, ham bags, Jewel Magic Paint, 2½ Dri Water Proofing, Tinsman Harness, check lines, baits for deer, baby poultry feeders and fountains. Brewster has been out all day delivered electric water heater to Ralph Spaulding went to Whites Tower to service coal heaters then to Jean Crouch's to put motor on washer then to Sam Hudson to repair oven door on electric range, then to Charles Chambers to check oil heater. We have been cleaning house putting in new lines and painting shelves.

Had several callers today, Delbert Tinsman, Nathan Brewster, Lest Pennington, Clay Kerns and Al. Hunt. Weather was bad and not too many people in. Mr. Brewster came over for a quart of Jelled Magic Paint they wanted to try it over at the store. We have it in flat in 20 colors and semi-gloss in same colors. We have the best selection of paint this year for the inside we have Jelled Magic Rubber Base that will stand extra wall brush. Kitchen Interior Gloss, all kind of enamels and varnishes. For the outside we have that wonderful Brite's Outside House Paint, aluminum paint for all uses, truck and tractor enamel, red rust and barn paint and all the trimmings that go along with the paint business. Mr. Hunt is the contractor I paint for, he has just started. He has Alsike Hall supply of paint rooms and cans. Mr. Conrad Hardware can paint your house cheaper than your paint cost if what we say, bring me the empty can I will refund you my money. I give you my word I mean it. The Jelled Magic paint is the best paint you can put on your home. There is no thinner in it. There is no oil in it. 1956 is the largest paint year we have had. Are going to do a lot of it with Jelled Magic. Try a quart of Jelled Magic and you will wonder what they make most of it for as we do. Mr. and Mrs. Elvis Mann came after Jelled Magic. I sold a Brighthall Heater. Mr. Hunter just painted 1 wall with Jelled Magic it looked like large 1 wall in wall paper with one coat.

Paper hanging kit is in the warehouse and unloaded 1200 pieces of freight there was most anything you could think of in that. Also a lot of soil pipe and fittings, rangeburg pipe and fittings, complete bath room outfit and water heater. We are still ready to go for the new year and we hope you are. Due to strikes and increase in labor and materials some merchandise will increase in price but I am going to try very hard to let you all of the merchandise this year I can at the lowest possible prices. We don't make much profit as we let in percentage over, we have to sell you more merchandise. I have sold out twice on electric tape to wrap around your water pipes to keep from freezing, you just spread it around and plug it in, I have it in 6 foot, 2 foot and 20 foot length. Also thermostat if you care to use them. They save electricity, very helpful tape heat where it is needed. A new shipment came in today. We sold several last week and alarm clocks to suit you.

SCARLET FEVER CASES REACH A TOTAL OF 69

Simon Kenton Defeats Boone County, 71-66

Pioneers Remain Undefeated In NKAC

Simon Kenton's Pioneers tied the score at 60-60 at the end of regulation time and then tacked on 11 points in the three minute overtime to down the Boone County Rebels, 71-66 at Florence Tuesday night. This important NKAC game found the Pioneers hitting 30 field goals and 11 free throws while Boone County had 24 fielders and 18 from the charity line.

Charley Elliott paced the Pioneers to their 16th victory in 19 games this season and to their eighth straight NKAC win without a loss. The Boone defeat was the third in nine league games. Mickey Conner tried in vain to keep the Rebels in the game with 26 points.

The Pioneers grabbed a 15-14 lead at the end of the first period as Brueckner had six points, Simon had 10 and the Rebels eight in the period. With Utz and Conner (5 fouls) getting the most playing time in the second quarter, the Rebels outscored the winners, 20-18 to lead at the half, 34-33. At the half Brueckner had eight and Utz had six points in the period for the Pioneers.

Conner again set the pace in the third period with six points as the Boone boys built up a lead of 50-43 entering the final period. However Elliott and his mates got going in the final period to give the Pioneers a 17-10 edge and a tie score at 60-60. The winners jumped out into the lead in the overtime and held the losers to six points. Elliott got 13 points in the final period and in the overtime.

Simon Kenton: Ruebel 12, Vaughan 4, Silvers 2, Brueckner 18, Butler 12 and Elliott 23.

Boone County: Utz 9, Conner 26, Feldhaus 12, Crigler 11, and Noe 8.

Simon Kenton reserves made the night complete for the Independence school with a 42-39 victory.

Simon Kenton 74, Highlands 43

The Simon Kenton Pioneers found the Highlands Bluebirds "pesky" in the first quarter before gaining scoring momentum in the second and third periods to score an easy 74-43 win over the Fort

Dairy and Pasture Meeting Is Attended By Sixty-six Farmers

Sixty-six dairy farmers attended the annual Dairy Pasture meeting at the Boone County Courthouse, Burlington, January 23. Lyle Leonard, field agent in agronomy, and E. C. Scheidenhelm, field agent in dairying, both from the University of Kentucky, talked to the dairymen about producing better pastures and more milk.

Mr. Leonard said that farmers need to know the type soil on their farms in order to know the type forage it will produce. Also they must know the fertility level obtained by testing the soil, so they can apply the correct amount of fertilizer profitably. He pointed out that all perennial grasses such as bluegrass, orchard grass, fescue, etc. and most of the perennial legumes furnish pasture evenly in the second quarter. The Rebels only on the spring and fall. This leaves perennial during July and August with little grass unless a supplementary pasture such as sudan grass or lespedeza are sown for summer grazing. Piper sudan was recommended at the rate of 30 pounds per acre. Sudan has to be on good land, well fertilized. Also all of the legumes such as alfalfa, red clover, white clover, etc. need to be kept well supplied with potash, as they are all heavy users. If this nutrient, Manure, according to Mr. Leonard, is made to order for fertilizing pastures and needs to be divided among the farm crops so that pastures will receive their share.

Mr. Scheidenhelm gave the following "success factors" necessary for profitable dairying: (1) Plan an adequate forage program. (2) Keep individual production records. (3) Use an economical grain feeding program. (4) Keep disease

Some Kentuckians Fail to List Taxable Intangibles, Report

The Kentucky Revenue Department is beginning to look askance at failure of some Kentucky taxpayers to list their intangibles which are subject to taxation, it was learned this week. Revenue Department officials, it was learned, are hoping that by forcing proper listing, the state government may uncover a "bonanza," in the form of additional revenue, which the administration says is sorely needed.

Intangibles listed as assessable and therefore taxable, are stocks, bonds, mortgages, liens, notes, both secured and unsecured, accounts receivable, and money on deposit in financial institutions outside of Kentucky, either in banks, building and loan associations or insurance firms. These are taxed at a rate of 25 cents per $100 value, as of January 1 of each year.

Intangibles exempted are stocks in Kentucky companies, U. S. Government bonds, and school, county or city bonds.

Annuities are taxed at five cents per $100. Income usually received from such sources includes trusts, estates or patents and royalties.

Penalty for failure to list intangibles is quite heavy, being 10 per cent, plus 12 per cent interest annually, and these penalties can go back as far as five years.

It was announced this week by Wilton E. Stephens, Boone County Tax Commissioner, that local assessments begin in August in order to give his office time to complete all county-wide assessments as of January 1 of each year.

Intangibles acquired before January 1 or in either case after the taxpayer has reported his intangibles to the county tax commissioner are subject to taxation. In all cases of these later acquisitions or sales of intangibles, the county tax commissioner should be notified. The same applies to acquisition or sale of real estate or personal property.

Mr. Stephens said he had been advised that if such procedure is not followed, the State Revenue Department will invoke the 10 per cent penalty.

Literary Club to Meet

The regular monthly meeting of the Walton Woman's Literary Club will be held at the Phoenix Restaurant, Wednesday, February 1, beginning at 2:30 p. m.

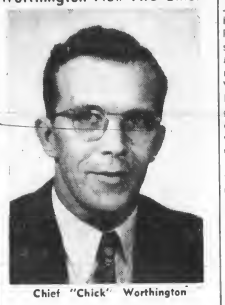
February 11, Bobby and his parents will be guests of honor at the annual Farm Awards luncheon in Louisville.

City Council Names Police Chief and His Assistant Monday Nite

Monday night, at an adjourned meeting of Walton's City Council, Herman Simmons was named Police Chief for this year, and Bill Parker was named Assistant Chief. Duties of the two officers were set out in detail, including hours of duty, which are: Simmons, 7:00 a. m. to 7:00 p. m. and Parker, 7:00 to 11:00 p. m., Sunday through Thursday, and 700 p. m. to 1:00 a. m., Friday and Saturday. They were instructed to enforce all traffic rules and regulations without favor to anyone; the parking meters are to be checked hourly between 8:00 a. m. and 6:00 p. m., Monday through Friday, and 8:00 a. m. to 9:00 p. m. Saturday; loading zones and no parking areas are to be policed and regulations strictly enforced; habitual violators are to be arrested and minimum fines imposed.



Council also hired John E. Stephenson, as Waterworks Superintendent until the new waterworks plant is completed, when necessary changes will have to be made. No action was taken on the employment of a City Attorney. Action was deferred until the next regular meeting, February 13.

City Clerk Harold Campbell was instructed to add 10% to water bills not paid by the 15th of the month rendered. Water service will be discontinued on all bills not paid within 45 days.

Brooks' Have A Son

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Earl Brooks (nee Mary Florence Ryan) are the proud parents of a son, born at St. Elizabeth Hospital, Covington, January 3, and named David Earl. He weighed six pounds and ten and one-half ounces. Mother and son are doing nicely.

Worthington New Fire Chief

Chief "Chick" Worthington

Charles G. "Chick" Worthington was elected new chief of the Walton Volunteer Fire Department at a meeting in the City Building, January 16.

Russell Groger, who had served as chief for six years, was named deputy chief and treasurer. Other officers included Guy Carlisle, first assistant chief; David Hankinson, second assistant chief; Tommy Wainscott, secretary, and Dan Rice, assistant secretary.

Five New Cases, All Of Which Are Children

The scarlet fever epidemic which has enclosed Walton and vicinity for the past several weeks, is slackening some this week, with only five cases reported to the Boone County Health Department as of Tuesday. All of the new cases were children.

Two more cases were reported in Kenton county, Tuesday—one in Covington and the other in Independence. This brought the Kenton county total to six cases. All victims in Kenton county have been isolated and the disease is believed to be checked, health officials reported.

In Walton, with the five new cases reported Tuesday, the total has reached 69, since Thanksgiving. The new cases were reported to Dr. Edwin Ranzenhofen of the State Board of Health.

Schools to Open

According to Superintendent Robert Ison of the Walton-Verona schools, both the Walton and Verona will be opened Monday, unless further developments present.

The county health department stated that schools and churches could open if they desired, under present conditions.

The Walton Christian Church has announced they will hold all services, including Sunday School at the regular hour, this Sunday. The speaker at the worship service will be Rev. Forest King of Lexington. They will hold fifth Sunday services at Crittenden.

The Walton Baptist and Methodist Churches will hold all services Sunday as regularly scheduled, according to the respective pastors.

Catholic School to Open

All Saints Church, Walton, will also hold all regular sevices Sunday, and will open their school Monday—the same as the public schools—according to Father Charles Donavan.

Nothing without wings climbs like a 56 Chevrolet!

The new '56 Chevrolet handles hills like they aren't even there! Aim it up a steep grade . . . and you'll see why it's the Pikes Peak record breaker!

Ever level off a mountain with your foot? Nothing to it. Just point this new '56 Chevy uphill and ease down on the gas.

Up you go with a quiet hydraulic-hushed valve lifters now in all engines —V8 or 6) rush of power. This is the car, you know, that broke the Pikes Peak record. The car that conquered towering grades and vicious turns to prove its superior performance, handling ease and cornering ability.

These are built-in qualities that mean more driving pleasure and safety for you. Chevrolet also offers such safety features as seat belts, with or without shoulder harness, and instrument panel padding at extra cost.

You've a choice of 19 frisky new Chevrolets all with Fisher Body and with horsepower ranging up to a new high of 205. Drop in, when you have a chance, and drive the new record breaker!

WHITES TOWER

for News—FL 7-5432

We were sorry to lose the Haulmer family who have moved from the Tower to the Lancaster farm between here and Visalia. Jim Parke and wife have purchased the Haulmer home and will move this week. They now live on Stafford's Lung Pike near the Methodist church.

Bro. John Fields and Bro. Bob Brum back and family were Sunday guests of the writer and wife. Bro. Fields is conducting a revival at Amity Baptist Church which started the 23rd.

Mr. Rice and family have moved to the Herb Gross farm. They formerly lived on Harris Pike.

Chas. Dorsey and his neighbor, Jess Webster, killed two very fine beeves, about 700 pounds each, over the week-end. Neighbor Jess has a new tractor with snow plow attachment which he used to good advantage around the barn and pushed the snow off in great style at Bide-A-Wee farm.

A Mr. Wells from Riggs Road has bought the James farm just beyond the Tower. We welcome them to our community and feel that they will be a welcome addition to the friendly spirit that prevails in our neighborhood.

You have often heard the phrase, somebody goofed. Well, we have been watching television for five years now, which is our main pastime since returning in 1951. But the past week-more just have been pulled than at any time we can remember, which just goes to show us that we are all human after all and no one is perfect, even our favorites on the television screen.

A Century of Union, Boone county, a history. As you gotta raised rolled on Bob Mathews' Going Hungry, who has some of the same stock. Mr. Gunter had heart of Bob's success with this breed and was over there to buy some of his herd. We don't know who the made a deal with but he couldn't have gone wrong a Bob from our own observation has a least the best looking beef cattle in this section of the county, but he hates to part with any of his pets as that is his hobby, in addition to his railroad work.

A letter from Japan from Lt. Dickie says hey have about two feet of snow and the kids there are having a great time coasting, making snowmen, etc.

Since the rabbit law was out the bunnies have been coming up into our yards and gardens, as they seem to know when the law protects them and they are hungry.

We were sorry to hear of the death of Augustus Howard, brother of Ralph Howard of the Tower. His death was a shock to his many friends and relatives.

INDEPENDENCE R-1

We are glad to report the sick of our community doing better. The Miller children and also the Parsin children are able to be out again. Mrs. Earl Hanna is up around the house and is slowly improving.

Perhaps the many motorists are glad to see the snow melting in the side roads which have been very bad the past week.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Kenney underwent a minor operation at Booth Hospital the past week. He is reported doing nicely.

Mr. Holmes and family of Taylor are moving to the Chas. Bonnaffer farm. Jim Burke and family, formerly of this community, have purchased the house which was owned by Mrs. Leona Covan Gough and son, Bernie.

Owing to bad roads, prayer meeting at Stafordsburg church was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Barnett, this week.

Mrs. Dawson Ballinger entertained the W.S.C.S. at her home recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Parsons and family entertained for Mr. and Mrs. George Otten and children with a six o'clock dinner Saturday evening.

Raymond Giles and daughter had as dinner guests Sunday Rev. Miller and family.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Barnett entertained their son, Howard, wife and daughter, on Sunday.

Miss Emma Yates called on Mrs. Earl Hanna, Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Wynford Riley and little daughter of Lexington spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Riley.

Several of the young folks of Towers had an enjoyable afternoon Sunday coasting.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Deuser spent Saturday evening with Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Rapp.

Mrs. Ella Stummy is expected back this week from a couple weeks visit with friends at Butler.

KENTUCKIANS

IN WASHINGTON

By Gil Kingsley

Bills and Petitions:

[illegible]

[illegible] tuckians or [illegible] eral resolutions [illegible] Clements and Barkley, Congressman Natcher, Congressman Watts and Congressman Chelf. All want the Secretary of Agriculture to restore the recent cut in the burley allotment. Congressman Spence also had some new legislation, a bill to provide financial help for those stricken by disasters such as floods and storms.

The congressman from Louisville, John Robsion, also submitted legislation. He wants to make it a federal offense to sabotage an airplane. And if any passenger dies the death penalty would be awarded the evil doer.

On Airplane Damage:

That bill goes to the Committee on the Judiciary where another Kentucky lawmaker, Frank Chelf, holds an important position.

Newcomers:

Newcomers to Capitol Hill include [illegible] Ward, the former state commissioner of conservation. He's in the Clements' office. Also with the Clements [illegible] force is Pearl Runyon, the retiring state treasurer. Mrs. Frances Farmer, formerly of Mayfield and Frankfort, has joined the Barkley staff. Mrs. Eva Mauzy, formerly with the late Senator Withers, is secretary to an Indiana congressman. H. H. Morris, of Mt. Sterling, continues as the House postmaster, and Emery Frazier, of Whitesburg, is the chief of the Senate, one of the top jobs on the Hill. Mrs. F[illegible] Bratten, who recently retired as a member of the Barkley staff, is visiting the Capitol and looks hale and hearty. She's living in Pennsylania.

On School Improvement:

The Junor Order Council at Covington also sent a petition to the House of Representatives calling for improvement in the public school system.

One of the biggest of the session will involve federal aid to education and there is every indication on Capitol Hill that the [illegible] problem will get involved in the fight. That means that federal aid could be filibustered to death.

NOTE OF APPRECIATION—

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Linton, Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Linton Sr. wish to thank all their friends and neighbors for the kindness shown them in the loss of their little son and grandson who passed away last Wednesday. 1t-4

In response to the demand of farmers, most fertilizer dealers in Jefferson county are handling high-analysis materials. Rowan county farmers harvested several hundred pounds less tobacco an acre than they got in previous seasons.

Winter Storage of Plant Food Assures Supplies for Spring

THE Middle West Soil Improvement Committee lists five suggestions for storing fertilizer on the farm this winter so it will be in good condition when it is needed for spring crop operations.

1—Keep the fertilizer bags off the ground or off concrete. 2—Store the fertilizer in the barn or some other dry building. 3—Put the bags on 2 x 4's or cribbing above the floor. Then the fertilizer won't soak up moisture and get lumpy. 4—Prevent caking by piling bags only seven or eight bags. 5. Keep broken bags separate from the main pile. Loose fertilizer soaks up moisture.

"Buying and storing fertilizer on the farm now is particularly advisable," says the committee, "because of the tight situation on railroad freight cars needed to move phosphate and potash from the mines to fertilizer factories.

"If this car shortage becomes more critical as spring approaches, fertilizer manufacturers may have difficulty getting materials for the big volume of plant food needed by farmers."

Every ton of fertilizer moved in the weeks ahead from factories to farms will help manufacturers maintain production schedules this winter and prevent serious local shortages later on, the committee says.

CRITTENDEN

Several cases of scarlet fever are reported here.

Wake up it's breakfast time" was the lesson given to members of Beechgrove Homemakers in the home of Mrs. E. A. Sterling, with Mrs. H. L. Cook hostess.

A rutabaga breakfast consisting of rutabaga, fried apples, cereal, toast, coffee, was served by the hostess, Mrs. H. L. Cook, and Mrs. Will Ervin.

The guest was Mrs. Lucile Elsner, home agent. Mrs. Wood was unable to attend because of illness. Mrs. Ray Kirk presided in the absence of Mrs. Wood. Mrs. Kirk read the poem "Keep Busy" by Mrs. F. Orr Emery.

The February meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. C. P. Lee, Eagle Road.

Good Soil Care Pays Off For New Corn Champions

Willard C. Kirk — Thomas Halterman

GOOD seed and careful soil management including the use of fertilizer were key factors in helping win top corn growing honors for America's new Corn King and Corn Prince at the recent International Grain and Hay Show in Chicago.

Willard C. Kirk, 38, (left) the new Corn King, who operates a 335-acre farm near Jeffersonville, Ohio, has won the championship three times in the past five years.

Thomas Halterman, 16, of Rushville, Indiana, the new Corn Prince, was following a family custom in winning corn honors. His brother Lair, 20, was named Corn Prince at the 1948 show. His father Newton, 64, operator of a 227-acre farm in Rush county, Ind., won the title of Corn King at the same show, to repeat an honor he won in 1946. The Halterman farm raises hybrid seed corn and Hampshire hogs.

Kirk says three steps were particularly important in bringing him the 1955 championship: 1—The use of a high quality single cross hybrid seed; 2—Feeding the soil a well-balanced supply of nitrogen, phosphate and potash fertilizer, and liming as needed; 3—A rotation that gives him a two-year laydown of legume-grass sod.

Kirk's farm produces hybrid seed corn, wheat, soybeans, oats, Duroc hogs and Shropshire sheep. In addition to corn, Kirk believes in fertilizing the entire rotation. In the process, he uses between 600 and 700 pounds of plant food per acre.

Tom Halterman's junior championship corn was produced on a 20-acre field he tilled as a 4-H club project. The seed was a parent of Indiana-hybrid No. 844. Tom is active in 4-H programs and in the Future Farmers of America. He was corn champion of Rush county in 1951 and 1952.

Over the years the elder Halterman has been steadily building up the fertility level of his soil. He follows a rotation that gives him a legume grass crop once every three years. The rotation is corn, oats and alfalfa.

Halterman believes in using plenty of fertilizer. He has soil tests made regularly and follows the recommendations of the agronomists at Purdue University.

CHURCH CHOIR CONTEST

A [illegible] choir contest will be [illegible] event of the 1956 Boone County 4-H and Utopia Fair, according to the Boone County 4-H and Utopia Council.

Any group wishing to participate in the contest may contact the Home Agent, [illegible] Budget in 412 for further information. The contest is limited to [illegible] county churches only.

Twenty-seven farms in Trimble county are planning to plant new permanent pastures this season.

Ryland Homemakers

Thirteen members answered roll call with their New Year's resolutions. Mrs. Ben Hermes read the devotion and a poem, "My New Year's Wish." Mrs. Donald Hallhill gave a talk on parliamentary procedure.

A report was given by the committee on the basket for the needy. They reported that four baskets of food were given to the needy at Christmas. Mrs. William and Mrs. John Belew gave the report on the studies of food as given at the training school. It was discussed as to the ones that were going to Farm and Home Week.

Members present: Mesdames W. P. Caldwell, G. A. Damon, W. H. Bagby, B. Hermes, O. J. Williams, J. A. Rich, Donald Hallhill, John Belew, Evert Wilson, Oliver Gee, W. B. Barnes, J. H. Lawson, and Miss Ruth Schmidt. Visitors were Mrs. Lottie Hallhill, Mrs. Noble and Mavin Gee.

The February meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. W. B. Barnes.

Florence Woman's Club

The Florence Woman's Club held its January meeting in the new home of Mrs. J. F. Daugherty. Hostesses were Mrs. H. R. Daugherty, Mrs. Paul Chaney, and Mrs. Harold Conner. The club president, Mrs. J. F. Daugherty, presided.

Guests were Mesdames J. F. Daugherty, Harry F. Haugherty, Paul Chaney, W. R. Davis, F. D. Caton, W. H. Campbell, H. F. Dressman, J. A. Hightower, Robert Tanner, J. Utz, R. R. Ragland, and Harold Conner.

Approximately 100 poultry raisers, hatchery owners, representatives of feed companies and other persons attended a poultry round-up in Green county.

Mr. Shinkenholm said whenever the temperature reached 85 degrees Fahrenheit that cows did 77% of their grazing at night, so providing a good night pasture is essential to high milk production. He also pointed out that more nutrients can be saved by making forage crops into silage than any other method.

Joe Clawson county agent pointed out that dairying is the second largest farm income in the county and that dairymen have to be a good feed management if they stay in the business.

Soybean Champion

Harvey Stiegelmeier

HARVEY STIEGELMEIER, 61, of Normal, Ill., who says high soil fertility helped him win the soybean championship of North America for the fourth time at the recent International Grain and Hay Show in Chicago. He had previously won in 1946, 1947 and 1950.

In addition to soybeans, Stiegelmeier raises hybrid corn and certified oats seed.

Stiegelmeier limes his soil regularly and puts on liberal amounts of phosphate, plus a full feed of other nutrients. Good land, he says, gives a greater response to fertilizer than basically poor land. Soil improvement on the 330-acre farm in Champaign county, Ill., began more than 50 years ago when Harvey's father began using sweet clover in the rotation.

Lure of Life

Lesson for January 29, 1956

A coin, a sheep, a man—what do these three have in common? Jesus told a triple story using these three so different objects to bring out the same point. What the coin, the sheep, the man had in common was that each was lost. They were out of place, useless, in fact doing more harm than good. But the young man who went to a far country was different in an important way. He knew what he was doing, or thought he knew. He wanted life, and he got it, only it was the wrong sort. If you had asked him at first why he was going away, he would have said, "I want to live!" But he ended in a pig-pen.

Dr. Foreman

The Lost Are All Around

Men and women get lost today for the same reason. They look for life in the wrong place. Victims of narcotics, or of alcohol, wanted something more out of life than they had, and they thought drink or drugs would help them. Every patient in an alcoholic ward is missing somewhere.—missing from payrolls, from homes they had or might have had, missing from the sports they might have reached if they had not made shipwreck of themselves. And for every patient in some alcoholic ward there are a great many others who, though they may not have gone so far, are just as lost. What ought a Christian's attitude to be toward such people" Surely if Jesus taught anything plainly, it is that God does not despise or hate lost persons, he loves them and does not want them to stay lost. So the Christian who shares the mind of Christ will neither hate nor despise the lost people all around us today.

Prevention Is Better

One of the commonest ways of getting lost is through drink. Everything is done in advertising and in other ways to make it appear that you haven't really lived till you use "our old famous brand" of expensive alcohol. Young people need to have the other side of it shown to them, not in Don'ts but in Do's. Educator H. H. Hill (as adapted in "Listen") has put it something like this. What do you want from life? Topnotch health? You can't have it if you drink. A serene, satisfying, law-abiding life? Not with liquor for your companion! Life on the highest moral level? Not for drinkers and dopers. Do you want to wake up every morning with a clear head? Do you want uninterrupted success in a profession? Do you want to save money? To be a good driver? To form the habit of meeting your problems squarely without a fuzzy mind? Do you want to be able to enjoy a good time without the danger of flirting with a habit-forming drug? Do you want guaranteed immunity to one of America's four most damaging diseases? Do you want to be an example of good and not evil, for the young people in your community? All right,—that's living, and you can't have that kind of living and the alcohol habit too.

Testimonials

Maybe the main reason why the prodigal son went wrong was that he listened to the wrong people. Men can always be found who can be paid to pose in liquor ads. How about listening to some free testimonials on the other side? Ezra Benson, Secretary of Agriculture, says: "Knowing the infinite joy and peace of mind which result from never having used narcotics, smoked cigarette, or taken a drink of liquor . . . or knowingly profaning the name of Deity, I can sincerely recommend such a course to all." Dr. Kate Neweomb, written up in the Reader's Digest in June, 1954, says: "Naturally I do not use intoxicants. Why start a habit so many people must break?" Lewis Hoad of tennis fame speaks for many another athlete: "It is hard enough to get anywhere in life, without liquor or tobacco hindering one's chances for the future." Gil Dodds, the track star, says: "God has given me a body which I should not defile." Do you want to live? Such people know how.

'Save a Penny, Lose a Dollar' When You Skimp on Plant Food

Fertilizer is a high paying investment that can return $3 to $4 for every dollar spent.

FARMERS who skimp on the use of fertilizer can easily "save a penny and lose a dollar," says the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee, in citing a recent statement by R. M. Finley, University of Illinois agricultural economist.

"When a farmer tried to cut corners on the purchase of income building production items like fertilizer," says a statement by the committee, "he often can wind up with lower crop yields and smaller profits.

"Actually, fertilizer is about the lowest cost item in farm production today.

"Finley points out that most items farmers buy today cost three to five times more than in the 1910-14 period. The cost of fertilizer has increased only 54 per cent in the past 40 years."

Figuring 1910-14 prices at 100, the index of farm wage rates today is 521, the index figure for taxes is 411, livestock 320, farm machinery 314, and seed 252, says the committee. The index for fertilizer is only 154.

"The use of fertilizer to increase yields per acre and cut costs of production is particularly important in these days of deflated farm prices and higher costs," the statement continues.

"Soil specialists throughout the Corn Belt point out that fertilizer is one of the highest paying investments a farmer make."

Shortage of Freight Cars May Hamper Fertilizer Movement

THE serious shortage of freight cars was cited as a reason why farmers should act immediately to order and take delivery of fertilizer for their 1956 crops.

"This car shortage could become severe in the months immediately preceding spring," says the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee. "If it does, producers might not be able to move raw materials in needed volume from phosphate and potash mines to factories."

That in turn could mean localized shortages of fertilizer at the moment Corn Belt farmers need it most.

"Farmers, therefore, can serve their own interests best by ordering fertilizer now and taking delivery as soon as it can be arranged."

Transportation specialists report that the present car shortage may last for some time, the committee says.

The freight car shortage exceeded 20,000 at times last fall, while carloading totals were at a peak. It is tapering off seasonally during the early winter months, but it could become critical again in spring.

Farmers can serve their own interests best by ordering fertilizer and taking delivery now while the factories can get raw materials, says the committee.

But if farmers delay taking delivery now, fertilizer will pile up in factory storages and dealers' establishments. Cutbacks in production would have to be made and the flow of phosphate and potash from mines to producers would slack off.

Then when the spring freight traffic peak arrives and everybody wants fertilizer, there might not be enough to go around, says the committee.

The rail freight transportation problem is complicated by a steel shortage hampering production and delivery of new cars, says the committee. The railroads are expected to have on order 140,000 new cars early in 1956. But the present squeeze on steel supplies may slow down some deliveries until 1957.

Don't buy your next truck BLINDFOLDED!

The riot of today's truck claims and counter-claims can't blind you to genuine truck values when you insist on getting the facts.

And the chief facts you should avoid missing are these: First, Dodge truck prices are down with the lowest. Second, Dodge bigger payload capacities and more efficient operation can save you money every trip.

Compared with other leaders, Dodge gives:

★ Highest Payload Capacities by as much as 22% in the ½-ton pick-ups; by as much as 76% in the 1-ton express.

★ Shortest Turning Radius—for faster parking, quicker maneuvering.

★ Greater Body Capacities by as much as 22.7% in the 9-foot express; by as much as 13.7% in the 6½-foot pick-up.

Moreover, drivers like the fact that Dodge gives you the largest cabs, providing more hiproom, more shoulder-room. And that Dodge gives you greatest driving visibility, with as much as 24% more windshield area.

You want your next truck to save you money. Why not make sure it will? Just phone your Dodge dealer now—he'll give you the facts.

Come To Conrad's

I will pay 10 cents per pound for soft, clean white rags—no overalls or heavy materials we cannot use these for cleaning! This was a cold, clear day and Brewster put in a new furnace coil for Erma Stockman, so she can have hot water. Raymond Conner, who operates the farm for Doc Edwards over on U. S. 42, called for an 8 gallon electric heated water fountain. Brewster and Red brought in a very nice Estate coal heatrola—it is in good condition, and someone should have this stove—it looks like new and they are not made anymore—so, now is the time to get a very nice coal heater for several years to come.

J. B. Spegal was over and had Red cut him a lot of water pipe, also bought a few fittings. Wilson Poe, who we all know as Pete, was buying pots and pans; only been married a week but he has to have food—he can't live on love and farm. Bill Scroggin bought a tool box and a lot of good tools—they sure are hard to keep. Today Chick sold Mr. Poole over at Verona, a coal heater. Then he sold Howard Miller at Napoleon, three rollseat fence, so Red and Brewster delivered all. It there this afternoon. Jay Webster was in today, not buying much, but looking around.

Mrs. Sam Black bought a square aluminum tub, Maytag washer. Larry Ryan was over, he bought a two-horse sled, a posthole digger and a duck bill spade. Red sold some fellow a used washer, but I never saw who it was. Russell Rector, from Atwood, was in a few minutes. Mrs. Nell Kelly brought in her electric percolator for repairs. Sam Hudson brought in a hotplate and a heating pad for repair. Mrs. Kurt Richter bought a dish drainer and pyrex dishes. Wimpy Stenhauser bought a lot of bar iron and round iron for the hatrid car he is building for this year.

My good friend and salesman C. M. Coffield, who travels for W. Bingham Co., Cleveland, Ohio, and who has been coming here for 32 years, was here today. I have been buying from him 21 years and he never left here without an order. Today he left here with a ten page order—that is where I get a lot of this hardware. They have the price and the hardware. I bought from him for over three hours and I only asked him to three items they did not have. I bought log chains, tools, pad locks, scythe blades, electrical supplies, lawn mowers, gate hinges, Cosca tables, wrenches, pipe fittings, steel cable, stepladders, extension ladders and lots of other items I don't recall now.

We have several colors in rubber base flat wall finish we are discontinuing—the company has changed colors and we have to make room for the new colors so we are selling what we have—a gallon was 4.95, and is now 3.95, a quart was 1.45 and now 1.25. Get in on this while it lasts. It is good paint, just colors we will not carry any more. Emmett Ward was first to buy—he got two gallons and wants several gallons more. When you buy, be sure to get enough because all we will have is what we have in stock of these colors.

We will have a complete stock of rubber base paint and a lot of new colors. We have these discontinued colors out front on a shelf, so get yours and be ready for redecorating. Robert Hoffman came after some pump repairs—he ran out of water and after filling the cistern he could not get the electric pump to pick up. He called me this afternoon for help so I sent John Woodhe'll fix it. Leon Hall came in after 2 h. p. electric motor to a milk cooler. Mark Meadows came after a stoker belt. Fred Britt out on Piner Road called to see what kind of a new electric water pump I had.

When I told him a Dayton and the price, he wanted to know how soon we could put him in same. Brewster went out today to see what he needed. So if weather and roads permit we will install it tomorrow. Sam Hudson came in to get his saw chain repaired. Guy H. Starr sent up for several pair of tire chains. I have lots of them and he is helping me sell them. Ray Estes bought his daughter a tool chest. I told Ray several sets with a screw like this. I replied on for me from Iggs, and Conner and a couple laundry tubs also three cups we have been out if two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. James T. Mannon were in a few minutes and she bought a few small items and started out the front door, turned and said how much is that round tub Maytag washer? I told her she went out and got Mr. Tumlinson—he said it was OK—she paid me and said bring it over. Her daughter also bought several items, but I wanted to steal it for my children but we were out. Emmett Ward came back after three more gallons of that rubber base paint we have reduced to 3.95 per gallon. A couple who are moving down on Big Bone Road bought two magazine feed coal heaters. We will set them up Monday. I never sold so many coal heaters as I have this year.

Mrs. Worthington, Chuck's mother, stopped and got some Jelled Magic paint—she had seen and heard so much about it. We sold stove pipe, water pipe and fittings. Harley Tippitt and wife bought another used washer—they have sold several for me. Mrs. Owen Flynn was looking at a Jamesway oil brooder—they are the best in brooders—nearly bed proof. When you buy Jamesway you have a piece of poultry equipment to be proud of and will last for years to come. One fellow had one eight years and asked me one day if he wasn't supposed to clean it once in a while, he had never cleaned his—well, you should clean a brooder every year.

Simon Kenton Is Upset by Newport and Dixie

First Two Defeats In NKAC For Pioneers

The Newport High School Wildcats [illegible] undefeated [illegible] first place in the Northern Kentucky Athletic Conference [illegible] the Simon Kenton [illegible] of Newport [illegible] in the overtime period to give the Cats their eleventh straight NKAC win and the Pioneers their first loss in nine league games.

The regulation game ended tied at 54-54 as Terry M[illegible] [illegible] the final seconds missed the first [illegible] [illegible] tied the [illegible] the game [illegible] extra period. The Pioneers trailing by six 49-43 entering the final period rallied with Shirley Elliott leading the way to gain the shortlived [illegible] final period.

In the overtime Elliott connected for all the Simon Kenton points as the Independence team got an early lead. Newport trailing by four with time running out got a tie as M[illegible] made a free throw to set the stage for Varner's game winning basket.

Newport led 21-19 at the end of the first period as John Turner bucketed nine points. [illegible] had eight for Simon Kenton. Scoring in the second period was even, each time getting 12 points for a halftime score of 33-31. Turner [illegible] Newport while Brueckner and Elliott had four each for the Pioneers. Varner got six points in the third period for Newport as they outscored the Pioneers 16-12.

Blade Balancer For Rotary Mowers Now Available at Erlanger

Announced as available for the first time is a new service tool for lawn mower repair shops which immediately enables them to balance blades used in rotary lawn mowers. The new Perfect Blade Balancer is being manufactured by Hagedorn's Mfg. Co., Erlanger.

William Hagedorn, in announcing the new tool, disclosed that the Perfect Blade Balancer is the product of his own experience in servicing lawn mowers. Ever since the first rotary lawn mower came into his shop for service, he recognized the need for a service tool of this type.

Perfect Blade Balancer

Lawn mower owners can recognize the need to have the blades balanced, by the amount of vibration in their lawn mower. The blade is usually mounted on the engine or motor shaft, and the slightest imbalance sets up vibration that damages not only the engine but causes undue wear and loosening of vital parts.

Mr. Hagedorn, the inventor of the new tool, stated that to his knowledge, this is the first tool for rotary blade balancing that has been offered to the lawn mower service industry. Blade balancing has been inefficient and costly for the service shop.

The Perfect Blade Balancer is supplied with two tapered mandrels, the range of which permit the balancing of all rotary blades, with hole diameters from 5/16 to 1½ inches.

The new tool is shipped knocked down and can be set up for immediate use. The [illegible] station cost is only $27.50. Further information can be obtained from Hagedorn Mfg. Co., Erlanger, Ky.

LUVENA DENNERT

Mrs. Luvena Mary Dennert, [illegible], a native of Kenton county, died [illegible] [illegible] home in Covington.

She leaves a son, E. [illegible] of Covington, [illegible] [illegible] [illegible], two sisters, Mrs. Joseph Riley and Mrs. [illegible], both of Covington, and [illegible] grandchildren.

Services will be held this afternoon (Thursday) at two o'clock at the Allison and [illegible] funeral home, Covington, with burial in Floral Hill Cemetery, Kenton County.

Applications Open For Local Postmaster Until February 21st

An examination for postmaster at Walton, with a salary of $4,890 per year, will be open for receipt of applications until February 21, 1956, the Commission announced this week.

The Commission is taking all possible steps through special publicity to civic and other community organizations to encourage well qualified persons to apply for the examination.

Competitors for the postmaster vacancy in this city must have at least two years experience showing that they have the ability to conduct and manage the community's postal business efficiently and to supervise employees so that customers are satisfied with the service.

Competitors must show that they can deal with the public agreeably and effectively and that they are reliable citizens who would command the respect and confidence of patrons of the post office.

Applicants must take a written test, which will be given in Covington. Those who pass will be assigned final ratings on the basis of this test and on their experience, ability and character. There is a 1 year residence requirement and all applicants except those entitled to veteran preference must be at least 25 years of age. There is no maximum age limit.

Complete information about the examination requirements and instructions for filing applications may be obtained at the post office for which this examination is being announced. Application forms must be filed with the U. S. Civil Service Commission, Washington 25, D. C. and must be received or postmarked not later than the closing date—Feb. 21.

FIRST SPECIAL SESSION DEALS WITH HIGHWAYS

First of four scheduled special legislative sessions to be called by Governor A. B. Chandler following adjournment of the regular session will deal with the topic of highway building and improvement, the Governor's office disclosed.

During his campaign for office last year, Governor Chandler promised he would be known as the "road buildingest Governor you have ever had." He also promised that if a bond issue were necessary for modernization of Kentucky's highway system he would have no hesitancy in submitting that issue to the people and seeking their approval of it.

Second of the sessions will deal with the proposed governmental reorganization of a number of agencies, to be followed by a third on the state budgetary requirements, and the fourth will be to provide adequate means of financing the program.

WILLIAM DEATHERAGE

William Deatherage, 88, of Covington, died last Thursday at his home. He had been a resident of Kenton for 45 years.

Mr. Deatherage leaves two daughters, Miss Mallie Deatherage of Covington, and Mrs. Richard Howard of Walton; three sons, Henry Deatherage of Covington, Robert Deatherage of Grants Lick, and Steward Deatherage of Kenton; 18 grandchildren, 12 great grandchildren, and a great-great-grandchild.

Services were held Saturday afternoon at the Kenton Baptist Church. Burial was in the Independence Cemetery.

FAYE H. STEPHENSON

Mrs. Faye Dean Stephenson (nee Huffman), age 36, of Verona, Route 1, died at her home on Sunday, January 29.

Funeral services were held Wednesday at 11:00 a. m. at the Hamilton funeral home, Verona, with Rev. Kelly Kennedy officiating. Burial was in New Bethel Cemetery, Verona.

Mrs. Stephenson is survived by her husband, Omer Lee Jack Stephenson, and one small son, Kickey Lee Stephenson.

District 4-H Leaders Meet

Kenton county 4-H Club leaders in attendance of the district 4-H leaders' training meeting held at Williamstown recently included Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Cloud, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Foltz, Mrs. Melvin Strom and Mrs. Robert Hoffman.

Problems of importance to 4-H Club work in Northern Kentucky were discussed by the leaders. State 4-H Club specialists and extension agents were also present. Hazardous road conditions prevented attendance of many local leaders.

Tobaccomen to Meet

Russell A. Hunt, Field Agent in Agronomy, College of Agriculture, University of Kentucky, is scheduled to meet with Kenton county tobacco growers at the Independence Courthouse, on Tuesday, February 7, at 10:00 a. m., to discuss tobacco production and marketing problems.

He will talk on tobacco varieties, fertilizers, plantbed management, disease and parasite control and other tobacco problems.

Smith Sale Rescheduled

The Clara Smith auction of household furniture, set for January 21, was postponed due to the death of her father, will be held on the premises at Duck Head Inn on U. S. Highway 42, Walton Route 2, on Saturday, February 4, beginning at 11 a. m., according to Col. Lute Bradford, auctioneer.

Interior Decorator Speaks at Florence Woman's Club Meet

"Color—What Color Says," was the topic discussed by William M. Lucas, Interior Decorator at Morton-Hales Co., Cincinnati, when he was guest speaker at a meeting of the Stringtown Woman's Club, January 23, at the Cabana, Erlanger.

Mr. Lucas began his talk by explaining how various colors, tints and shades are derived from three primary colors, he then advised it is always best to use the colors and shades you personally like in decorating your home. Walls and floors should be kept in neutral tones, thereby bringing color into your rooms with upholstery, hangings and accessories such as cut flowers, ash trays, books, etc. After his talk, Mr. Lucas answered many individual decorating problems.

Mrs. Rector Jones, president, presided during the business session while civic problems were discussed. Following the meeting, members and guests enjoyed a social hour.

Boone Tobbacco Meeting

The Boone county winter tobacco meeting will be held Monday, February 6, at 8:00 p. m., in the Courthouse at Burlington, according to Joe Claxon, the county agent. All growers are urged to attend as tobacco is the largest cash crop in the county.

Russell Hunt, tobacco specialist from the University of Kentucky, and nationally known burley tobacco authority, will discuss the 1956 burley tobacco production. He will also include the new and experimental data, varieties, fertilization and insect and disease control.

55th Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Elliott of Independence Route 1, celebrated their 55th wedding anniversary on January 16. Congratulations to these people who have spent so many years together

Share-Croppers Are Self-Employed Says Social Security Adm.

Share-croppers in Northern Kentucky would be interested in knowing that they are generally considered self-employed for social security purposes, according to Joseph T. Ware, District Manager of the Social Security Administration. This means share-croppers are building toward protection for themselves in their old age and protection for their families in case of their death. To qualify for this valuable family protection, they must have net earnings of at least $400 or gross receipts of $800 or more from their farming operations in a year.

Mr. Ware pointed out that share-croppers, like all farm operators, will report their earnings for social security purposes for the year 1955 by filing an income tax return with a farm schedule. Share-croppers must file these tax returns with the District Director of Internal Revenue, Louisville, early in '56, in order to receive social security credits for their farming operations, even though they may not owe any income tax.

Under a recent interpretation issued by the Internal Revenue Service and the Social Security Administration, share-croppers in the usual farming arrangement in this area would be considered as self-employed. The landowner participating in the usual share-crop arrangement would be considered as receiving income from rent and would not have to report his income from his share of the crop for social security purposes, nor would he receive social security credit, Mr. Ware continued.

For tax return forms and other information relating to the filing of returns and tax obligations contact the Internal Revenue office in Covington. For information concerning your right to social security payments, contact your social security office which is now located at 729 Scott Boulevard, Covington, Ky.

Simon Kenton PTA to Meet

The Simon Kenton P.T.A. will meet Monday, February 6, at 8:00 p. m., in the school cafeteria, with Mrs. Thomas Finney presiding.

Mrs. John Cain, Founders' Day chairman, will have charge of the Silver Tea honoring all past presidents of the unit.

Miss Elsie Hiteman, English and speech teacher at the school, will present Misses Eulonda Estes, Jackie Cain and Ruth Kanatzer in three humorous monologues entitled "June Night," "Ma at the P.T.A." and a cutting from the play "Camille."

According to Mrs. J. Crouch, publicity chairman, final plans will be discussed for the spring festival.

Simon Kenton Band Boosters Club to Buy Fine New Instrument

The Band Boosters Club of Simon Kenton High School held its regular meeting Monday night January 23, in the school cafeteria, with Mrs. Bryant Rust, president, presiding. A very good crowd of parents and friends attended. A motion was made and carried to buy a very expensive horn for the band—a good band can't play without good instruments.

Preceeding the meeting, the junior band, with their very efficient leader, Robert Roden, gave a short concert in the auditorium. These young people are really working with their leader and their music was very good.

"We, who are parents," said one of the members, "of this year's senior class members of the senior band, surely do appreciate all Mr. Roden has done for our children, and we feel a bit sad when we think how near to gaduation time it really is, but do hope as they go out in the world, they will always [illegible] them music and the good things it has taught them."

T. U. CAMPAIGN PLANNED

Bluford Sloan

Bluford Sloan, State Training Union Secretary of Illinois, will direct a Training Union Enlagement Campaign in the First Baptist Church, Walton, February 5-10. About twenty other Baptist Churches in the North Bend Association will be cooperating in this endeavor with some of the best leaders throughout the southland.

Bro. Sloan will direct a study for all the leadership in the church. The pastor, Joseph R. Tackett, will speak to the young people each evening on the subject, "Planning Your Life," dealing with subjects such as: A Planned Life, Choosing A Business Partner, Choosing A Mate, Getting A Job. All young people are invited. A chance to ask questions concerning these subjects will be given to the youth.

To Be Sent to Ft. Campbell

Sgt. Allen C. Faulkner, son of Mrs. Cecil Faulkner, Route 1, Independence, is scheduled to leave Ft. Bragg, N. C., for Ft. Campbell, Ky., in February to become a member of the newly activated 101st Airborn Division.

Sergeant Faulkner is now assigned to the 187th Airborne Regimental Combat Team at Ft. Bragg, which will be integrated with other units into the "Screaming Eagle" division when it is activated as a combat unit at Ft. Campbell. A member of the team's 1st Battalion, he entered the Army in 1947 and has been with the 187th since, August, 1953.

Bang's Disease Discussion

Recent revisions in the Brucellosis (Bang's Disease) Control program in Kentucky will be discussed by representatives from the State Veterinarian's office at a meeting to be held at 8:00 p. m., Wednesday, February 15, at the Courthouse in Independence.

Changes in blood testing, indemnity payments and the Ring test for dairy cattle will be explained.

All Kenton county dairymen are cordially invited to attend this important meeting, which is sponsored by the Kenton Utopia Club.

Alpha Class to Meet

The Alpha Sunday School class of the Walton Baptist Church will meet this (February 2) evening at the home of Mrs. Ruth Stephenson, Verona Road. All members are urged to be present.

Duvall at Burlington

F. E. Duvall, Contact Representative of the Kentucky Disabled Ex-Service Men's Board, will be at the Court House in Burlington, Monday, February 6, from 9:00 to 11:30 a. m. He will assist veterans and their dependents with claims for benefits due them as a result of their military service.

Founders Day at U. K.

Founders Day will be observed by the University of Kentucky on Wednesday, February 22, with the "Education: the Concen of the People," as the theme.

More than 100 Kentucky teachers who have had 45 years or more teaching experience and are still actively engaged in the profession will be guests of honor for the Founders Day observance.

Man From Cincinnati Questioned About Fire

A 24-year-old Cincinnatian, arrested on a traffic charge near the Coo-Par Concrete Co., Richwood, was questioned last Friday in connection with a fire which destroyed the company's office building last Thursday night. The man registered as Richard Woodall.

He was arrested by State Troopers Algin Roberts and Orlester Mahoney on U. S. Highway 25, near Richwood Road. Officers said they followed his auto after he acted suspiciously. A charge of reckless driving was placed against him as he "ran" the stop sign on Richwood Road, entering U. S. 25.

The troopers said they found in the Woodall car a portable radio and an adding machine, which later proved to be property of the concrete firm.

Shortly after the man was taken into custody, the troopers discovered flames pouring from beneath the roof of the one-story concrete block building which housed the office of the plant.

Volunteer fire departments from Walton and Florence were summoned.

Chief Charles Worthington, Walton, said the flames destroyed the company's records, a desk, other office furniture and equipment, and a television set. Assistant Chief Owen Martin, Florence, said the damage was estimated at $2,500. Robert Zapp is manager of the plant.

Ray Green, Walton fireman, suffered a puncture wound in the right foot when he stepped on a nail while fighting the blaze. He was treated at the scene.

Small Fire at Ryan's

A small fire at Ryan's hardware and dry goods store, Walton, was quite handy for local firemen, last Thursday morning, it being only about 200 feet from the firehouse.

According to Chief Worthington a cigarette had been dropped in the basement and the owner, Geo. W. Ryan, called firemen when he smelled smoke. A piece of linoleum had caught fire, and damage was said to be about $25.00.

Seventy-five Kenton County Homemakers At Farm-Home Week

Seventy-five homemakers, representing the Kenton County Homemakers Association, attended the 44th annual Farm and Home Week at the University of Kentucky, Lexington, this week.

Mrs. R. P. Matchett, Lakeside, State President, presided at all sessions of the conference.

Delegates attending the entire session were listed as follows: Mrs. Bernard Grimm, county president; Miss Zelma E. Byerly, home demonstration agent; Mrs. John Sowle, Edgewood; Mrs. Alfred Hesselman, Elsmere-Erlanger, Mrs. Louis J. Nutini, Erlanger Evening; Mrs. Paul Wright, Fairview; Mrs. T. A. Travis, Winston Hill; Mrs. R. W. [illegible], [illegible], and Mrs. R. P. Matchett, State President.

Women held their own meetings with the exception of one [illegible]. Men and women attended a [illegible] session on "The Farm Family of the Future" in Memorial Coliseum, Wednesday afternoon. Speakers included R. G. Gustavson, president of Resources for The Future, Inc., Washington, and Mrs. Luella Canterbury, Chicago psychologist, analyst and lecturer.

Special events included a tea by President and Mrs. H. L. Donovan, a household equipment show, movies, and a basketball game between the University of Kentucky and Duke University.

Better Late Than Never

The American Legion Auxiliary wishes to express their sincere thanks to all who purchased Christmas trees from the unit. We also want to inform you that the Sale of Christmas trees is to be our yearly project.

Regular meeting of the unit is to be held at the City Hall, February 14. All members urged to be present. Pub. Ch.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS
BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

Gratitude

Lesson for February 5, 1956

GRATITUDE is not a lost art. But it is a rare one. Ten men were cured of the same disease at the same time but only one took time off to be thankful. When you hear people complaining about other people, one of the most frequent complaints is that So-and-so was not grateful." He never said thank you. She took it for granted. They never wrote me. After all I'd done for them they left me alone. With him it's all take and no give.

Dr. Foreman

Many of these complaints are true although to be honest about it many of them come from people who aren't too grateful themselves.

Why Don't They Come Back?

When Jesus cured those ten lepers, even he seems to have been surprised that only one of them came back to thank him. We don't know, but perhaps we can venture a guess as to why nine-tenths of those men who had felt the miracle-working power of God, went their ungrateful ways in silence. Once man may have thought: "Who knows? This cure may not be permanent. Better not go around shouting Hallelujah till I see whether this cure is going to stick." Another perhaps said to himself, "Yes, I'm cured. But I'm sorry it had to be that Jesus from Nazareth. He doesn't have too good a reputation with the authorities—it isn't healthy to be known as one of his friends. I'll play safe." Another one maybe really meant to thank Jesus, but he lost his address" as we would say. He kept on meaning to, some day—but he never did. And perhaps still another fully intended to express his thanks, but he said to himself, "Just an ordinary hasty Thank-you won't do. I'll wait till I can do something really big for him, something that will repay him, perhaps with interest for what he has done . . ." But the time never came. Aren't these some of the very reasons you and I give for not being grateful to God or man?

Cause for Rejoicing

Curing leprosy the way Jesus cured it is a miracle in anybody's language. Most of us think we would be grateful for miracles, if and when—, but for ordinary days, the usual course of events, we don't see God's hand and we do not feel any call to be thankful. As a matter of fact, God's mercies surround us on every side. We owe him life to begin with; it was God's creative power that brought life into being, in a universe hitherto lifeless. It is God's providence that has kept the stream of life flowing down the ages; his providence that gave you the ancestors without whom you could not be what you are. When you think of the enormous number of accidents (to call them that) which might easily have prevented your being born at all, and the "accidents" without which you would never have been born on this planet, you begin to see how grateful you should be. Most people, probably, if saved from sudden death especially if others have been killed right beside them, will breathe a trembling "Thank-you" to God.

Gratitude and Happiness

When Jesus said to the one grateful man, "Your faith has saved you," he was using a word that means to restore to full life. There is a hint here that gratitude is a flower whose root is faith. Also there is a hint that the thankful mind is the happy mind. People who go through the world convinced that the world owes them a living, people whose prayers are mostly "Gimme" are likely to be a little sour. They do not give them the best things they want. God does not answer their prayers when they are selfish. If [illegible] possible, but if a man [illegible] every day what he owes God and his fellowman, if he realizes somewhat what a debtor he is, that man will be joyful. All the more so, he will thank, and his thanks will be a seed of [illegible] and encouragement in being faithful. Without gratitude, life is [illegible]. It is a mark of the

KENTUCKIANS IN WASHINGTON

By Gil Kingsbury

Kansas Takes Note:

Senator Frank Carlson of Kansas paid tribute to the state of Kentucky this day in an article published in the Congressional Record.

It seems that Senator Carlson made a survey to find out how many senators had now served as governor and a member of the lower House of Congress. He discovered that 89 men had received both honors. And Kentucky led all the rest with eight statesmen having served in the three positions.

Naming the List:

The Kansan in his article named these Kentuckians: John Adair, Earle C. Clements, Lew J. Crittenden, James F. Geary, Thomas Metcalfe, John Pope, A. O. Stanley, and John W. Stevenson.

Mr. Carlson might point out a few other interesting facts. For example, he might find that Andrew Jackson was a senator and congressman from Tennessee but was governor of Florida. And he pointed out that Sam Houston was senator, governor and congressman from Tennessee but only served as governor of Texas and senator from the same state. Quite a record!

Get Ready:

It's time for city and county officials along with leading citizens from every community to pack their bags for a trip to Washington. It seems that the President in his budget, failed to allocate enough money for flood control projects. That means when senate and house committees get ready to hold hearings Kentuckians will be summoned to the Capitol to present their cases. It's the usual situation, something that comes up every year when appropriations are considered.

KENTUCKIANS

IN WASHINGTON

By Gil Kingsbury

Basketball Note:

We report semi-regularly on those Kentucky basketball stars who are playing on and around Washington with the service teams.

The other night the Andrews Air Base team and the Air Force All-Stars battled here. Sure enough, those former Kentucky Wildcats starred. Cliff Hagan made 24 points and Lou Tsioropoulos 17 for Andrews. And Billy Evans made 20 for the All-Stars. Andrews won 82 to 76.

A Eulogy:

Those Kentuckians who participate in politics (and that includes just about everyone) will be interested in the eulogy inserted in the Congressional Record recently by Congressman Frank Chelf. It told about the life of Mrs. Nell Vaughn, Democratic leader in Kentucky, who died a few weeks ago.

Mrs. Vaughn, from Glasgow, was the mother of Billy Vaughn, who, for many years was superintendent of the House Radio Gallery, and then an aide to Vice President Barkley. Billy, incidentally, is now employed in the office of the clerk of the senate.

School Building:

A Louisville paper, reaching the capital, carried a story about a one-room school in Greenup county.

Well, just across the river from Washington, in old Alexandria, they just opened a "new" school, a building constructed in, honest! 1785. The structure, so the local historians say, was built with the financial support of Geo. Washington. It's being used on a temporary basis—Alexandrians hope.

This and That:

This session of Congress has been one of the dullest in recent years. Both sides are waiting for the other to make a mistake. . . . Kentucky lawmakers report that Adlai Stevenson has the edge over Senator Kefauver in the Florida primary. . . . A Washington paper declares tha Adolph Rupp will quit after this year at U. of K. It's been denied. . . . The new Congressional Directory is out. Senator Barkley's biography is the longest among Kentuckians, Senator Clements' the shortest. You can get copies at the Government Printing Office.

Members of 4-H clubs in Ohio county are fattening 42 calves, and also raising hogs, sheep and chickens, as well as milking cows.

Strawberry growers in Trimble county plan to sell No. 1 berries on the fresh berry market and No. 2's to processing plants.

SIMON KENTON UPSET TWICE

for a 49-43 lead going into the final period. Butler had six for the losers.

Dixie Heights 72, Simon Kenton 58

Dixie Heights Little Colonels displaying their best effort of the season surprised the strong Simon Kenton Pioneers with a 72-58 setback Tuesday night at the Dixie Court.

Dixie, with a 4-4 NKAC record, thus gave the Pioneers their second straight loss after eight league wins. It drop the Independence team also considered to be the league title. The loss will rated at 2-4 4-6 and thus the Little Colonels with Howard Stacey leading the way, surged to the front to stay. The winners led 16-10 at the quarter with Stacey getting eight points. Butler had four for the Pioneers.

Dixie added 16 points in the second period to lead 32-26, with Stacey again leading the way with eight, and Lloyd Brueckner getting eight for the losers. Dixie increased the third period lead to 14 points at one stage but the Pioneers cut the margin to 51-42 at the period's end. Stacey and McKibben each had eight for the Colonels. The winners held a 21-16 edge in the final period.

Simon Kenton: Silvers 2, Vaughan 4, Ruebel 8, Brueckner 17, Elliott 14, and Butler 13.

Dixie Heights: Eveleth 8, Eger 10, Gardner 5, Stickrod 2, Heckman 4, Stacey 30, and McKibben 13.

The Walton Methodist Church has joined in a World Wide Church Attendance Movement January 1 through Easter Sunday, April 1. The theme of this movement is "The Answer Is God-Worship Him." The purpose is to unite with the Christians of all denominations in a vibrant revival of worship of God in the church and in the home all next six days.

In placing an invitation Rev. A. E. Atkinson said, "Especially we are praying that God may be brought more into our daily living. We are asking each member to renew his loyalty and to pledge his attendance during these emphasis at every possible occasion. The personal presence of each and every member will not only make the services mutually inspiring and helpful but will help us to prove that God truly is the answer to all our needs and problems in our homes, our community, and in our world."

Rev. Atkinson on behalf of the congregation cordially invites all who have no church home in this city to worship God at the Methodist Church each Sunday.

Shortage of Freight Cars May Hamper Fertilizer Movement

THE serious shortage of freight cars was cited as a reason why farmers should act immediately to order and take delivery of fertilizer for their 1956 crops.

"This car shortage could become so severe in the months immediately preceeding spring," says the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee, "that fertilizer producers might not be able to move raw materials in needed volume from phosphate and potash mines to factories.

"That in turn could mean localized shortages of fertilizer at the moment Corn Belt farmers need it most.

"Farmers, therefore, can serve their own interests best by ordering fertilizer now and taking delivery as soon as it can be arranged."

Transportation specialists report that the present car shortage may last for some time, the committee says.

The freight car shortage exceeded 20,000 at times last fall, while carloading totals were at a peak. It is tapering off seasonally during the early winter months, but it could become critical again in spring.

Farmers can serve their own interests best by ordering fertilizer and taking delivery now while the factories can get raw materials, says the committee.

But if farmers delay taking delivery now, fertilizer will pile up in factory storages and dealers' establishments. Cutbacks in production would have to be made and the flow of phosphate and potash from mines to producers would slack off.

Then when the spring freight traffic peak arrives and everybody wants fertilizer, there might not be enough to go around, says the committee.

The rail freight transportation problem is complicated by a steel shortage hampering production and delivery of new cars, says the committee. The railroads are expected to have on order 140,000 new cars early in 1956. But the present squeeze on steel supplies may slow down some deliveries until 1957.

Choosing Kitchen Counter Finishes Is Question of Concern

[illegible] and reason when choosing [illegible] Tuesday, says Nancy Gaulbat, Home Demonstration Agent in Boone County. What [illegible] finish to choose for the kitchen work counter, is a question of concern to many planning new homes or modernizing their kitchens. It's a [illegible] problem today when many types of counter [illegible] coverings are on the market.

[illegible] to help decide which of these is the best choice for [illegible] the Ohio Experiment Station has made tests of different types and made [illegible] laboratory research on how they are affected by moisture, heat, scratches and heat such as [illegible] put just off the stove or from a pot [illegible] on the counter edge. The study also included interviews with more than 100 town and farm women in the service they had had from different counter coverings and their preferences.

No one was found "ideal" but the Ohio study showed which qualities the different finishes offer.

Good grade laminated plastic finishes were suggested first because these seem to come closest to meeting the many specifications of home owners. They were found to have good resistance to stains, heat and scratching, moisture and damage that may accompany it like mildew and rotting. These finishes also resisted dents and rated well in durability. Manufactured in many colors and patterns, they fit practically any kitchen decor and the colors don't fade. Though not as resistant as linoleums and vinyls, they are not heavy. To install them successfully requires skillful, accurate workmanship with the right tools. These good grade rigid high-pressure thermoset plastic should not be confused with the low pressure flexible type that comes in rolls, says the Ohio Station, if durability desired.

Vinyls, plastic product resulting from the development of synthetic rubber, rated as good counter coverings of moderate cost except for the fact that they can be damaged by heat. Vinyls resist moisture, mildew and rot. Like linoleum, they are flexible, so lend themselves to installation by the home handyman. Linoleum rates high for resilience and for "healing" cuts, scratches and surface dents. Linoleum is reasonably priced and should not be expected to last as long as some of the more durable and expensive materials.

Durability is a strong argument for tile and stainless steel counter tops. Both of these materials are hard and non-resilient. Their resistance to moisture, corrosion and heat makes them especially good choices in damp, humid climates.

How durable wood countertops are will depend on the seal, finish and care they are given the Ohio Station says. Unless well treated, wood will stain, absorb moisture readily and roughen and [illegible] easily.

Evangelistion Mission at Hopeful

Lay workers of Hopeful Lutheran Church, Florence, are planning an evangelism mission to be held at the church February 5-9. Rev. Harold G. Beemin, a son of the congregation, pastor of the Messiah Lutheran Church, Constantine, Mich., has been selected as guest missioner for the evangelism mission.

This program being carried out at Hopeful is part of an overall Greater Cincinnati Evangelism Program of the Lutheran Church. It is also part of an overall program of the United Lutheran Church in America, whose president, Dr. Franklin Clark Fry, is chairman of the World Council of Churches. Under Dr. Fry's guidance the Lutheran Church has had an increasingly accelerated program of mission expansion in the last ten years.

The purpose of the Evangelism Mission is to strengthen the Christian convictions of our people and to equip and train them to do the work of evangelism, not only during the mission but throughout the year, it was reported.

In November, Chas. M. Tanner was elected lay chairman of the Hopeful evangelism mission. In December, the church selected chairmen for each of the mission committees. On January 9, the evangelism committee selected the other members for each of the committees.

Pastor Wilford C. Butt, Joseph Dringenburg and Thomas Utz are members of the area committee of the Lutheran Evangelism Mission of Greater Cincinnati.

Organized in 1806, Hopeful Lutheran Church will be celebrating its one hundred and fiftieth anniversary this year. A parish educational building, costing over $20,000, was completed and dedicated September 25, 1955. Since the completion of this modern stucture, the Sunday School attendance has increased 13%.

All members are urged to attend the Evangelism Mission services and visitors are cordially invited.

CARD OF THANKS—

We wish to express our thanks to our friends and neighbors for their thoughtfulness, for the many cards and flowers received during the illness and death of beloved mother, Mrs. Emma Mintz. We especially wish to thank Rev. Wilford Butt and Rev. F. C. Schilt for the comforting words, and Chambers and Grubbs for the efficient manner in which they conducted the funeral.

It doesn't fit!

MUCH HAS BEEN SAID recently about so-called "pirating" techniques used to lure industries to the South. This talk just doesn't fit the facts.

No doubt local enthusiasm has created situations that are not above reproach. But these are isolated instances—the exception and not the rule. And they are by no means confined to the South.

The industries that reputable industrial development agencies in the Southland are seeking—and getting—are not the fly-by-night variety, looking for something for nothing.

The industrial Southland of today offers plant-site seekers ample inducements of real merit without resorting to phony lures or unrealistic concessions of any kind. "Look Ahead—Look South!"

THE SOUTHERN SERVES THE SOUTH

SOUTHERN RAILWAY SYSTEM
WASHINGTON, D. C.

THERE HAS BEEN some loose talk lately accusing the South and its industrial development agencies of using and endorsing practically any type of tactics in order to attract industries from other regions. You know and we know that "blanket accusations" of this kind pointing a finger of criticism at the entire Southland not only are unfair – they simply are not true.

Yet, talk of this sort is often picked up and passed on and on. That's why we felt impelled to "speak up" – in the national advertisement reproduced above.

The modern Southland has many enthusiastic spokesmen. We are proud to be one of them. It is still another way we can give meaning to our slogan "The Southern Serves the South."

D. A. R. "Award of Merit" to Curator of Behringer Museum

On Wednesday evening, the Boone County Chapter Daughters of the American Revolution held their February meeting in the party room of Oh[illegible] Tavern with Mrs. J. P. Brothers, Mrs. J. B. Wolfe, Mrs. James [illegible] and Mrs. Fred Bennett as hostesses.

Mrs. Roy C. Nestor, Regent, presided at the meeting. Reports were prepared for the past year's work and plans were made to attend the D.A.R. State Conference in Louisville in March. For the third consecutive year this chapter under the magazine chairmanship of Mrs. J. B. Wolfe will have 100 percent magazine subscriptions. This is the only time in the history of the Kentucky Society, D.A.R. that this has occurred.

It was voted by the membership to present this year's Award of Merit to Mr. Ellis Crawford, Curator of the Wm. Behringer Museum, Devou Park, Covington. Mr. Crawford is an archeologist and it was through his efforts in excavating Indian burial mounds in Boone county and his extreme interest in Big Bone that the present interest in Big Bone became accomplished. The local chapter has also given awards of merit to A. M. Yealey, Florence historian and to County Judge C. L. Cropper for his leadership in good government in the county.

Present were Mesdames Roy C. Nestor, Ronald Crume, Samuel Denham, Sr., Frances Berkshire, Harold Conner, Rufus Tanner, J. P. Brothers, David Clore, Louis Braun, J. B. Wolfe, Charles Goodridge, William Conrad, Fred Bennett, and Davis Gaines.

The D.A.R. recently presented an American flag to Boone County High school in honor of Edward Walton and the book "Look at America" was presented to the school library in honor of Byron Bush. These gentlemen assisted in the District D.A.R. meeting, held at Florence.

HEADS PRESS ASSOCIATION

Charles Adams

Charles Adams, editor and publisher of the Gallatin County News, our neighboring Warsaw newspaper, has been named president of the Kentucky Press Association. The annual mid-winter meeting of the association was held recently in Louisville. Mr. Adams has been quite active in associational work for a number of years and certainly deserves this honor by the state organization. Congratulations!

The X-Ray Mobile Unit will be in Boone county February 20 through February 23. The following is the schedule:

February 20—Walton, 9:00 a. m. to 12:00 noon and 1:00 to 3:00 p. m.

February 21—Florence, 9:00 a. m. to 12:00 noon and 1:00 to 3:00 p. m.

February 22—Florence, 10:00 a. m. to 12:00 noon and 2:00 to 5:00 p. m.

February 23—Burlington, 9:00 a. m. to 12:00 noon and 1:00 to 3:00 p. m.

The hours on February 22 are for the convenience of school employees and other persons who can not come during other hours.

The x-ray is quick, easy and confidential. Chest x-ray takes only a minute. There is no undressing necessary. You receive a confidential report.

All adults should have a chest x-ray while the unit is here. The Health Department especially urges tuberculosis [illegible], all contacts to tuberculosis cases, school teachers and other school personnel, and food handlers to have a chest x-ray while the unit is in Boone county.

Bill Simplifying State Gasoline Tax Refund Expected to Pass Legislature

Passage of a bill simplifying procedures for refunding state gasoline taxes and resulting in savings to farmers has been predicted by administration officials and Kentucky Farm Bureau leaders who collaborated on the measure.

Supported jointly by Kentucky Farm Bureau Federation officials and the administration, the bill (H. B. 461) was introduced simultaneously in the House and Senate by Representative Brooks Hinkle of Bourbon County and Senator E. W. Richmond of Owensboro.

A simplified system of refunding gasoline taxes to farmers has been a primary objective of Farm Bureau leaders, and according to Burl S. Clair, Kentucky Farm Bureau President, the proposed law meets with his organization's approval.

The bill provides for a refund based on the farmer's total purchases of gasoline for use in farm vehicles used in the production of farm goods.

Administration support of the bill was assured by Governor A. B. Chandler in a meeting last week with St. Clair, Agriculture Commissioner Ben J. Butler, and Conservation Commissioner Laban P. Jackson.

Mr. Jackson said passage of the new refund law will amount to tremendous savings for many Kentucky farmers who have been discouraged from applying for the rebate by lengthy forms and detailed certification of how every gallon of gas was used.

Laws currently governing gasoline tax rebates call for extensive explanations on where gasoline was purchased, how it was used, etc.

In discussing the proposal, St. Clair and Governor Chandler urged strict enforcement of gas refund rules and both scored reported abuses of the present law which has drawn criticism from the farmer organizations since its passage.

Specifically, the bill allows "any person purchasing gasoline for agricultural purposes . . . shall be reimbursed to the extent of 90 percent of the tax . . . provided that the application and all necessary information be filed with the Department of Revenue within 90 days after the close of the calendar year during which purchases are made . . . no refund shall be made on purchases of less than 50 gallons."

The Department of Revenue will compute the refund if the farmer complies with all provisions of the law.

The only information required from the farmer is: (a) name, address, and gasoline permit number, (b) total number of gallons purchased (invoices to be attached), (c) total number of gallons used in tractors on highways, and (d) total number of gallons on which refund is claimed.

Senator Richmond and Representative Hinkle said their proposal is designed to conform with a federal bill allowing a two-cent tax refund on each gallon of gas purchased for use in farm vehicles.

Florence 4-H Club Meets

The 4-H Club met recently at the Florence School, under the direction of Ed McCandless and Miss Nancy Guilfoil. The following officers were elected: Sherry Derham, president; Dickie Davis, vice president; Connie Powers, secretary and treasurer; Mona Curt [illegible] and Nancy Weathers, song leaders; and Eddie Tanner, publicity chairman.

MRS. ORA G. ROGERS

Services for Mrs. Ora G. Rogers, who died February 1 at her home in Petersburg, were held at 2:00 p. m. Friday at the Petersburg Baptist Church. Burial was in Belleview Cemetery. Chambers and Grubbs funeral home, Florence, had charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Rogers was 75 and had been a lifelong resident of Boone county. She was a member of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Petersburg Baptist Church.

She leaves her husband, Bernerd; three sons, Haulpha, Walton and Harold Rogers; a brother, Ira Ryle, Grant; a sister, Mrs. Stella Garnes, Petersburg; nine grandchildren, and a great-grandchild.

Holmes Tops Pioneers In Heart Breaker

The Bearcats nearly won two basket-ball games the past week. They threw a scare into Boone County, the Rebels edging them by two points, cord in the final seconds of play here last week. On Tuesday, also at home, the Cats defeated St. Henry for the second time this year. The Pioneers of Simon Kenton continue to lose heart breakers, and at the Covington Holmes gym they were defeated 69-68 by the Bulldogs.

Walton-Verona 70, St. Henry 59

The Bearcats led 18-11 at the end of the first period, and although outscored 21-18 in the second period, led 36-32 at the intermission. Led by Albers, St. Henry took the lead in the third period, 47-45. In the closing period, Bob Hinds scored 14 points and Ronnie Cook added 10 as the home team racked up 25 points while limiting the losers to 12.

Walton-Verona: Menke 8, Hinds 17, Glacken 4, Simpson 5, Courtney 2, Cook 12, and Poore 22.

St. Henry: McKinley 9, Albers 21, Schutter 16, Rouse 0, Avery 6, McNeil 2, and Davis 5.

In the preliminary game, the St. Henry reserves scored a 47-35 victory.

Covington Holmes 69, Simon Kenton 68

Benton Brann came through with a field goal in the final nine seconds of play to give the Holmes Bulldogs a hard-fought 69168 victory, last Friday night, over the Simon Kenton Pioneers at the Covington gym.

Tom Herron led the Holmes team to a 25-16 lead at the end of the first period. Simon Kenton edged the winners in scoring in the second period, 16 to 15, to trail 40-32, at halftime. The Pioneers, continuing their uphill battle, outscored their opponents 21-16 in the third period to trail by three, 56-53 entering the final period. Butler and Elliott paced the Pioneers in the closing period.

Beware of Persons Posing As Internal Revenue Agents

Warning was given today by William M. Gray, District Director of Internal Revenue, to Kentucky taxpayers to be on guard against being defrauded by persons posing as Internal Revenue field officers as has happened [illegible] several cities in Ohio, in [illegible] Ky., and in New Albany [illegible] followed by such individuals [illegible] of a pattern.

A strange person [illegible] taxpayer, usually a small business [illegible] to see his books and then [illegible] that he owes the government [illegible] amount. The imposter attempts [illegible] cash in payment. In several instances these imposters have quantities of various tax forms which they use to "window-dress" their activities.

Mr. Gray went on to say that all Internal Revenue field officers carry very distinctive credentials as means of identification which consist of a black leather folder with the Treasury Seal stamped over parts of a picture and the signature of the agent, together with the signature of the Regional Commissioner of Internal Revenue, on the inside. Taxpayers should demand this identification.

Mr. Gray also requested that anyone who has been approached by a person posing as an Internal Revenue Officer contact immediately the nearest office of the Internal Revenue Service or the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

INCOME TAX REFUNDS

Many taxpayers entitled to refunds on their 1955 income tax returns are not following the best method to avoid delay in the processing of their returns, Wm. M. Gray, District Director of Internal Revenue said today. Earlier in the current filing period it was pointed out that returns claiming refunds should be addressed—REFUNDS, P. O. Box 1956, Louisville 1, Kentucky. By using this address refund returns will not be mingled with other returns upon receipt and will be processed much earlier, resulting in prompter receipt of refund checks.

Mr. Gray went on to caution that all other types of returns and correspondence be mailed to the regular address: District Director of Internal Revenue, P. O. Box 60, Louisville 1, Kentucky.

Effective Praying

Lesson for February 12, 1956

WHEN most people think of prayer they think of only one kind though there are several. The word "prayer" suggests asking for something, though it can stand to suggest thanksgiving, confession of sin, aspiration, trust. But leaving all these other kinds of prayer out of account what a wonderful thing prayer is. If I could go to a millionaire once a year and ask him for anything I wanted, or if I could have an interview with the most famous person in the world with the privilege of asking one favor,—how dizzy I would be at the pleasure of the prospect! Yet God has more treasure than a millionaire and the fame of the most renowned men is nothing compared to His glory. It is such a God to whom I can take my desires and requests every day, every night of the year. It is only because prayer is so free that we take it for granted and fail to appreciate it. We might value the opportunity more if we had to pay well for it.

Dr. Foreman

The Price of Prayer

In a way prayer does have a price. That is to say, if prayer is to be effective certain conditions have to be met. Jesus told stories which hint at what these conditions are. One is the tale of two men who went into the same temple to pray. One was an old hand at it—if there was a "praying class" of Jews (corresponding to a working class or a professional class in these days), he was a prominent member of it. The other man had perhaps very seldom prayed. The first man was a regular contributor to his church; the other man—if he was like the average in his profession—seldom darkened the door of a place of worship. But in Jesus' story these two men found themselves side by side in the same temple, and only one was "justified," that is to say, only one got favorable attention from God. And that one was the man who had nothing to say but "God, be merciful to me a sinner." To ask God for this and for that, as if we deserved it, as if it were our right to demand gifts from God,—this is no way to pray. Effective prayer begins with confession and repentance, not with demands.

Not to the Proud

Let us make a short list of some differences between wrong prayer and right prayer. Wrong prayer is really talking to oneself, or talking so as to be overheard by someone we want to impress. Right prayer is addressed to God alone. Wrong prayer is proud; right prayer is humble. Wrong prayer wants God to support the pride of the prayer. Right prayer casts pride away and comes to God without a claim. In wrong prayer, I come to God asking him to do something for me which will give me a better reason than I now have for being proud of myself. In right prayer, I come to God asking him to cleanse me of the pride which makes me feel that God himself is hardly necessary. In wrong prayer, the one who prays rises from his knees just as he was, for he has no wish to be changed. In right prayer, the one who prays rises a better man, for he asked God to forgive and change him.

Keeping at It

Jesus seldom if ever tried to put all the truth into one parable. He was generally content with setting out one truth at a time. So the parable of the bothersome widow, the woman who finally wore out a stubborn and selfish judge just by keeping after him, that parable does not say everything about prayer. But it does teach one thing. Keep at it! Jesus is careful not to say that God is anything like that judge. What he does mean is that if even a bad character like that judge can be moved to do the right thing by a persistent woman, surely God our Father in heaven, who is neither lazy nor stubborn nor ill-willed, will listen to persistent prayer. We must be careful not to read into this parable more than Jesus said. There is no promise here that God counts the number of times we pray for a thing, and that if we only pray enough times he will be sure to answer. There is no guarantee that God will answer any prayer we can think of if we say it often enough. What Jesus promises is that God will bring justice at last . . . if we keep on wanting it.

BIRTH OF AN ANGEL

They call her an angel of mercy. And they mean it! Just ask the ones who have depended on her in a time of fear and pain.

How did she become an angel of mercy? Was she born to be a nurse . . . or did she just happen to decide that would be a good profession?

She decided. But she didn't just happen to decide! It grew within her—this yearning to help others.

It began one day in church school. Was it the lesson of the Good Samaritan—or one of the others? The idea thrived on many an inspiring sermon. Then one day it became a conviction . . . something to pray about . . . to plan for.

Today she is a wonderful nurse. Tomorrow she'll be a loving wife . . . an understanding mother. You see, she's not unusual, this girl. She is simply a girl whose Church helped her find God's challenge in her life.

KENTUCKIANS IN WASHINGTON

By Gil Kingsbury

PARTY NOTES:

This is the time of the year when law makers and officials in the Capital are snowed under with invitations to parties and receptions. Senator Barkley attended one recently to honor Prince Bernhard of the Netherlands. And Senator Clements was on hand at the reception for Britain's Prime Minister Anthony Eden.

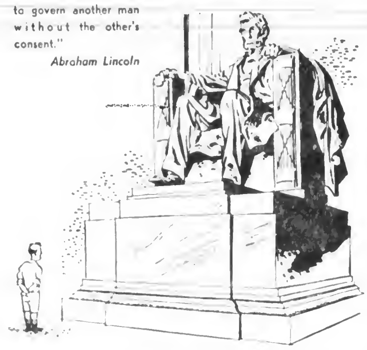
John Sherman Cooper is back in town from India and he was guest at a party [illegible] incidentally he told reporters he [illegible] interested in running for the Senate in Kentucky come November. Lot of work to do in India, he explains.

AROUND TOWN:

Julian Goodman of Glasgow elected treasurer of the Washington Radio Correspondents Association. . . . At the Press Club discussing Kentucky politics [illegible] Edstrom and Bob Riggs of Courier-Journal, Doug Allen of Kentucky Times-Star, and Glenn Thompson of Kentucky Enquirer. . . . Bill Arbrogast, formerly of AP staff at Frankfort, inquiring about affairs at the state capitol. He's in Washington now. . . . Bill Ardery, formerly of Lexington and Paris, seen at the Press Club. He's the son of the Kentucky judge.

FINALLY:

Congress this week voted on its first tax bill. The Lower House agreed to refund gasoline taxes to farmers using such products in their work. All Kentuckians supported the bill which now goes to the Senate.



By the time this reaches print the Senate is expected to cast its vote on the proposal to remove natural gas producers from federal control at the wellhead. Opponents of the bill charge that it would [illegible] consumer prices. The two Kentucky senators are opposed to the measure.

TALK OF CONTROLS:

There is some talk about giving the President power to control credit—if and when he needs such authority. Key Republicans have come out against such a measure.

If a bill is offered, Congressman Spence, the dean of the Kentucky delegation, said his committee would hold hearings. But he added that "I don't think they (controls) should be imposed unless there is a clear and compelling reason."

Erlanger Lloyd 58, Walton-Verona 54

Erlanger with Butcher and Lucas leading the way led 15-9 at the end of the first quarter and increased this to 27-16 at halftime. Walton with Hinds supplying the spark began a long uphill fight in the third period by outpointing the winners 19-15 to trail 42-35. Again in the final period the losers outscored the home team 19-16, but time ran out on their efforts.

Erlanger: Lightner 3, Lucas 8, Bruner 8, Fleck 13, Miller B, Dickerson 2, and Butcher 16.

Simon Kenton 86, Dayton 67

The Simon Kenton Pioneers blasted a fast trail in the opening minutes of their basketball game with Dayton, Tuesday night and ended up with an 86-67 win on the loser's floor. The Pioneers jumped into a 14-0 lead in th first four minutes of play. Dayton was nearly able to play on even terms for the remainder of the game but the damage was done.

The Independence team doubled the score on the Devils in the first period for a half score of 47-32. The winners held a 15-13 edge in the third period for a score of 62-45.

Simon Kenton: Ruebel 11, Silvers 3, Brueckner 20, Elliott 10, Exler 5, Butler 33 and Vaughan 4.

Dayton: Miller 3, Schorry 5, Hayes 19, Kindred 8, Hoffsteder B, Hoepker 2, and Williams 22.

Simon Kenton 81, Ludlow 47

Simon Kenton handed the Ludlow Panthers an 81-47 setback last Friday night on the losers' floor. The winners had ten players in the scoring column. Butler led with 25 points.

The Panthers trailed 23-13 at the end of the first period. With Butler, Vaughan and Elliott leading the way the Pioneers took over a 44-24 lead at halftime. The winners outscored the home team 20-8 in the third quarter for a lead of 64-32. The Pioneers subbed freely in the last period with the Independence team holding a 17-15 edge.

Simon Kenton: Rurbel 2, Mattoch 1, Silvers 0, Holderman 5, Heeger 1, Elliott 16, Brueckner 8, Exeler 4, Butler 25, Vaughan 13, Coleman 6.

Petersburg Man Is Hunted for Shooting His Estranged Wife

A meeting arranged by an estranged Boone county couple to discuss reconciliation ended violently this week, when the husband shot and seriously wounded his wife.

Police were combing the Ohio River bank and other areas near Petersburg where the shooting occurred, for Chester Lainnert, 23, of Petersburg.

His wife Phyllis, 20, was shot once in her chest and once in her abdomen with a 22-calibre revolver. She is in a serious condition at St. Elizabeth Hospital, Covington.

Sheriff Byron Kinman said that Judge Ward Yager of Boone Circuit Court, where Mrs. Lainhart had filed suit for divorce, had issued an order restraining her husband from seeing her.

However, Mrs. Lainhart agreed thru a third party to allow her husband to visit her at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cley Slayback, near Petersburg, where she had been living since their separation.

Green Claver 4-H'ers Meet

The Green Clover 4-H Club held its regular meeting at All Saints School on January 17 with Mrs. Nancy Guilfoil in charge.

This was a parents recognition meeting and a program was given in their honor by James Poole, Gertrude Butler, Larry Hornsby, Mary Ann Boltsen, Merle Cuzick and Mary Agnes Bishop. Those attending were Mrs. John Hetterman, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. McDonald and Mrs. James Rice.

Mrs. Guilfoil distributed 4-H calendars to all present and also promised to get a 4-H flag and a song book for the club which will be greatly appreciated by all.

Wayman-Mattingly Wedding Solemnized In Covington, Dec. 17

Miss Mae Frances Wayman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rel Stant Wayman, became the bride of Mr. James Randel Mattingly, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Mattingly, in a double ring candlelight ceremony solemnized December 17 at Calvary Baptist Church, Covington. Dr. D. B. Eastep officiated.

Mrs. Mattingly

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a dulcette satin wedding gown with pearl embroidered velvet scroll neckline. Her headpiece was of satin and velvet covered with pearls. She carried a beautiful arrangement of seven white orchids.

Mrs. William Galloway of Berea, Ky. was the matron of honor. Misses Betty Ann Fawkes, Claire Cohen, Jean Carter, [illegible] Mattingly, Jo Ann Brown and Lucy Williams were the bridesmaids. They wore red taffeta gowns and carried muffs covered with white pom pons and one white orchid.

Mr. Hiram Blair of Lexington, Ky., was the groom's best man. Messrs. Ken Baker, Jim Shepherd, Frank Armstrong, Wayne Moore, Don Zuberer, and Doug Waldrop served as ushers.

Two of the bride's cousins were the flower girl and ring bearer, Rel Wayman and Judy Jump.

Now Taking WAC Training

Pvt. Barbara Abherve, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hurd, enlisted in the Women's Army Corps, February 1 at the Army Recruiting Station, Post Office Bldg., Covington. A graduate of Simon Kenton High School in 1955, she will take her training at the WAC Training Center, Fort McClellan, Ala.

Dickerson Promoted

William O. Dickerson, 25, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Dickerson, Star Route, Walton, recently was promoted to specialist third class at Fort Benning, Ga., where he is a member of the 3rd Infantry Division.

Specialist Dickerson, a gunner in the 6th Battalion's Company B, entered the Army in June, 1954. He received basic training at Fort Jackson, S. C. He attended New Haven High School.

Gigantic Sale to Begin

The Huber jewelry store in Walton is starting a huge sale of first class merchandise, Friday of this week. They purchased a large supply at below-cost and are passing the savings on to their customers, according to Mr. Huber. An ad appears in this issue giving add details.

"Pay Lake" Fishing Law

A compromise to the Northern Kentucky "pay lake" issue found its way into the General Assembly hopper for ratification, according to a report from Frankfort.

Senator Alvin Kidwell, Sparta; Louis Reuscher, Fort Thomas, and Carl J. Ruh, South Fort Mitchell, offered a bill that calls for the licensing of lakes upon the following basis: For each two acres or less, $50.00, each additional acre, $10, but not to exceed $100 for any lake.

Patrons of such lakes would be exempt from individual fishing licenses, but any pay lake operator who refuses to accept the acreage license requiremnt, would find their patrons subject to individual license.

Visitors from Canada

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Metz of Regina, Sask. Canada, called on Mr. and Mrs. Cloyd Kannady and family of Verona, last week. The Konnadys had not seen the Metz family for 27 years. They become friends when Mr. and Mrs. Konnady lived in Canada.

W. B. Fortenberry of the Kentucky Experiment Station showed some very interesting pictures in connection with his talk about his work in the farming sections of Japan and the Hawaiian Islands.

Music was furnished by three members of the 4-H Club, Ronnie Kwozalla, Judy Munson and Ruth Murray. They had previously competed for honors in the 4-H Talent Show.

The membership committee is hoping to have the largest Farm Bureau membership in the Sixth District this year, as Boone county was a close second to Owen county last year.

NFLA Pays 5% Dividend

The Board of Directors of the Northern Kentucky NFLA (Federal Land Bank Loans) voted last week to pay a 5% dividend to membrs.

Checks for this dividend will be distributed at the annual stockholders meeting which will be held at the Legion Hall, Williamstown, Saturday, February 25, at 1:00 p. m.

B. W. Fortenbery of the University of Kentucky, will be the principal speaker. He will show colored slides and tell about his trip to Japan last fall.

The public is invited.

Mobile X-Ray Schedule

The schedule of visits in Boone county by th X-ray mobile unit has been announced by the Boone County Health Department, as follows:

All Four Boys Are From Union Area

One of the worst auto accidents in the hisory of Walton occurred early Monday morning when four Boone county youths were killed. Their speeding auto failed to make a turn and crashed into a tree on north Main Street.

The dead were: Alvin (Billy) Kelley, 17, of Union-Hathaway Road; Carl Robinson, 20, Gunpowder Road; Carl Billy Adams, 17, of Union, and Charles Randall Bevis, 16, of Big Bone Road.

Police Chief Herman Simmons, Walton, said the new auto in which the quartet was riding had to be traveling at more than 80 miles an hour. He said when he arrived on the scene two of the victims were on the ground near the car and the other two were still in the wreckage.

The chief said there was no way to determine who was driving. The auto was owned by Mr. Robinson.

The auto was traveling north and was coming out of a right-hand curve when the driver apparently lost control. The car crossed the highway, narrowly missed a utility pole, then crashed into a huge tree in the yard of the pastor of the Walton Methodist Church, the Rev. A. E. Atkinson.

Force of the impact was so terrific the girth of the tree was molded into the front of the car. Th left front wheel was crushed into a position beneath the front seat. The steering wheel was twisted to the top of the car.

The Adams boy was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital, Covington, where he was pronounced dead. The other victims were removed to the Chambers and Grubbs funeral home, Walton.

Services for Alvin (Billy) Kelley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lucian Kelley, will be held this (Thursday) afternoon at 2.00 at the Big Bone Baptist Church, with burial in Richwood Cemetery.

Services for Carl Billy Adams, son of Mrs. Hazel Adams, will be held this (Thursday) morning at 10:30 at the Stith funeral home Florence with burial in Hopeful Cemetery.

Services for Charles Randall Bvis, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Bevis, were held Wednesday afternoon at the Big Bone Baptist Church, with burial in the church cemetery.

Services for Carl Robinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Robinson, were held Wednesday morning at the Union Baptist Church, with burial in the Warsaw Cemetery. He was a Navy veteran.

Th Chambers & Grubbs funeral home, Florence, had charge of arrangements for the Bevis and Robinson funerals.

Burglars Active In This County; Four Businesses Entered

Burglars had a field day last Wednesday night in Boone county. Three business houses, located on U. S. 25, near Florence, reported that their [illegible] had been broken into after closing time late February 8.

Clay Hudson told Sheriff [illegible] Kinman that thieves had [illegible] entrance through a front door [illegible] a juke box and stolen [illegible] work gloves. Love Bros. [illegible] adjoining service station [illegible] entrance was gained through a rear window, with the same results. Operators of Cabindale a tourist [illegible] entrance also had been gained through a rear window and that miscellaneous items including cigarettes had been taken. A juke box also was broken and coins removed.

Sheriff Kinman said that at Cabindale the culprits had eaten a cake and had drunk some bottled beer, leaving the empties on the table.

Chili Supper at Simon Kenton

The F. H. A. Chapter of Simon Kenton High School is sponsoring a chili supper Thursday, February 23, from 5:30 to 7:30 p. m. The supper will take place in the Home Economics Room on the second floor of th Simon Kenton school. Tickets are 50 cents each. [illegible] cherry pie and coffee or milk will be served. Evryone is invited.

Only Chevrolet puts you in charge of the dynamite action and sure-fire handling qualities it takes to break the Pikes Peak record! Better try it before you plank down your dollars for any car at any price.

Almost everybody likes a real peach of a car. And nowadays you no longer have to pay a king's ransom to own one. They're going at Chevrolet prices!

For the new Chevrolet is one of the few truly great road cars being built today! It has to be to hold the stock car record for the Pikes Peak climb. It has to have cannonball acceleration (horsepower now ranges up to 225!) and nailed-down stability on turns. It has to have easy, super-accurate steering, too—plus other things that make for more driving pleasure and safety on the road. Come on in and try the record-breaker!

KENTUCKIANS

IN WASHINGTON

By Gil Kingsbury

On Taking Baths:

A Crisis

Kentucky Society of Washington the organization will have to curtail some of its activity. Such a warning went out this week from Paul Keen, formerly of Louisville, who heads up the social group.

Hail to Miss Hornbeck

Ms. Velma Hornbeck of Jackson, Ky., the young lady age twelve, who won the state wide contest for an essay on soil conservation, Senator Earle C. Clements called the attention of Congress to the prize winning effort and inserted the article in the Congressional Record.

We liked especially the final line of her essay. "A steady supply of good timber would make it worthwhile for a wood using industry to operate here. New industries would furnish more work for more people. Then it would be possible to have better homes, schools and churches. Our community would be a better place in which to live."

This and That

Kentucky newsmen stationed in Washington felt that President Eisenhower will not seek a second term. Congressman Clements had a seat at the speakers' table when the American Legion had its dinner for the 84th Congress. Almost sixty Kentucky radio and television executives will be in the nation's capital this week for the annual Washington Correspondents Dinner for the President.

Reply to Carroll County reader. This column has been in session 89 years. The only 37 years since Congress relocated.

Farmers in Gallatin County believe they will harvest one of the highest quality tobacco crops in the history of the county.

Farm experts in Bourbon county will call more attention to small grain production and the use of limestone.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

Man Can Choose

Lesson for February 19, 1956

THE difference between man and the other animals is not in one thing but in many things. But one of the most important facts about man is his power of choice. Some little creatures of the sea just sit in one place their life long. Others drift with the tides. Higher animals like dogs and horses make some choices, but only man makes, or can make, the enormous number of decisions that every man faces, and only man can make choices that have the far-ranging results that human choices sometimes have. A dog does not decide what time he will get up, but man sets an alarm clock. A dog does not select his breakfast; man does (or would like to). A human being decides what to wear, where to work, whom to marry, whether to have children, whether to be a good citizen or no citizen at all. He selects a school or college, he selects his friends, he picks out a lot in the cemetery, he makes a will. Man is the choosing animal. And he is this because he is more than body. He is mind and soul.

Dr. Foreman

When Choices Are Important

Everybody knows that some choices are more important than others. At least everybody should know this, but for some reason people will put more thought into trifling decisions than they do into big ones. People need to learn what is important and what is not. A woman who had had a nervous breakdown told the writer that it all started when she couldn't make up her mind which of two hats to buy. One was only one dollar more than the other, and she could afford the dollar, but she actually lay awake all night worrying about whether she had a moral right to spend that extra dollar when there were so many people in the world. So she worried herself right into a sanitarium because she built up a trifling decision into a Terrific Problem. What makes a choice important? Surely a choice that lasts a long time is more important than one that makes a difference only a few hours or days. A choice that affects one's whole life is more important than one that affects only one part of it. A choice that lasts beyond this life into the next, a choice for eternity, is surely the most important of all.

Choosing Christ

Becoming a Christian can be described in various ways; one of the most meaningful is "choosing Christ." Jesus himself used to say "Believe in me" or "Follow me," which mean much the same thing. Choosing, or believing in Christ, is much more than just adding certain beliefs to whatever else you happen to believe. It is more than adding one more person to a list of persons you already admire. Choosing Christ is a far more profound thing. Real choice of Christ involves a turning about of the whole personality. The captain of a ship headed north does not merely believe that North exists; he heads the ship that way, he keeps it moving toward the north star. So a person who chooses Christ does not simply believe that he exists, or that he is Son of God. He turns the helm of his life toward him, he keeps moving in the direction of Christ the "Morning Star." If that rich young man whom Jesus loved had followed instead of turning away, who knows what a changed man he would have been? We do know that the dishonest grafter Zacchaeus, a man, of whom his neighbors could have expected little good, once he let Jesus into his life, was a radically different man.

Time and Eternity

Choice for Christ is a choice for a lifetime; so is choice against him. It is not a choice you make once and that's an end of it. It is a choice that has to be made again and again day by day. Every day brings you some moment of decision, where the way you decide is really a choice for Christ or against him. Deciding for Christ affects all your other decisions. For now you are his, and all your life's course is steered by his star. More than this: decision for Christ is a choice for Eternity. You enter the life beyond as his friend, or not his friend. He is the Light of the world. To turn from him is to choose the dark. "There are only two roads through life: with him, or without him. There are only two ends of life: with him, in the light, or without him, in the dark. The light is his gift; but the choice is your own."

Before you say your prayers, there's something I want to tell you. Tonight, I want you to ask God to bless everyone in the whole wide world.

On World Day of Prayer children in every corner of the globe, grown-ups too, will pray that God will make this world a better place.

Remember last summer at camp when you called out at the edge of that cliff and your echo came answering back? Well, imagine all the people in the world calling out at once in prayer. Imagine how big the echo would be, and how much it would please God to hear it.

You are lucky children, because you live here in America, because you have your Church and the right to attend it. So tonight, thank God for things like that, darlings, even if you don't entirely understand them. And when you've finished . . . ask Him to bless everyone.

Soybean Champion

Harvey Stiegelmeier

HARVEY STIEGELMEIER, 61, of Normal, Ill., who says high soil fertility helped him win the soybean championship of North America for the fourth time at the recent International Grain and Hay Show in Chicago. He had previously won in 1946, 1947 and 1950.

In addition to soybeans, Stiegelmeier raises hybrid corn and certified oats seed.

Stiegelmeier limes his soil regularly and puts on liberal amounts of phosphate, plus a full feed of other nutrients. Good land, he says, gives a greater response to fertilizer than basically poor land. Soil improvement on the 330-acre farm in Champaign county, Ill., began more than 50 years ago when Harvey's father began using sweet clover in the rotation.

Plans are complete in Todd county [illegible] for artificial breeding [illegible].

Plans in several communities in Muhlenberg county include improvement in [illegible] service.

MUCH WATER USED ON NATION'S FARMS

The rural use of water, not including irrigation, is essential to be about 3½ billion gallons a day, of which perhaps 80 percent comes from wells, according to the Yearbook of Agriculture entitled Water." Wells are widely distributed over the rural areas in early all the states and they provide the bulk of the water used in farm home and for farm animals. In contrast municipalities get about 25 percent of their water from wells and pumps. Generally it is the simple idea that it was that is to in water from underground for their supply. Of the 100 largest cities in the U. S. only 19 depend on wells for their public supply.

The underground reservoirs of water contain the largest storage of fresh water in the nation, far more than in surface reservoirs and lakes including the Great Lakes. Public interest in ground water has increased greatly in recent years because of the rapidly increasing development and use of wells in many regions and the problems that have accompanied it. Not the least of these problems is the depletion of the ground water in some areas.

Founders Day Is Observed by Kenton Elementary P. T. A.

Founders Day was observed at the [illegible] meeting of the Kenton Elementary P. T. A. with Mrs. C. A. Wick [illegible] presiding.

Plans were presented and accepted for a playground area to be constructed by the Future Farmers of Simon Kenton High School for the Kenton Elementary School. Mrs. Charles Adams and Mrs. Charles Satchwill were elected to serve on the nominating committee. The meeting time was changed from 7:45 to 8:00 p. m.

Mrs. Herbert Works, program chairman, presented corsages of yellow and blue flowers to Mrs. George Riley and Mrs. Woolsen Ashcroft, past presidents. Mrs. Minerva Rigg presented a program of songs by the first grade children. A silver tea followed the meeting with Mrs. Willard Shropshire and Mrs. Hubert Baird pouring.

FHA and FFA Enjoy Valentine Party at Simon Kenton High

The F. H. A. chapter of Simon Kenton High School [illegible] Valentine party [illegible]

[illegible]

The recreation was planned by [illegible] and their [illegible] committee for the Future Farmers and Future Homemakers [illegible]

The party began with the boys and girls drawing parts of valentines and matching them to find their partners. They danced the Virginia Reel, had several contests, and ended with a very funny spectacle, that of Mr. John Brow, F. F. A. advisor, and Mrs. Helen McElroy, F. H. A. advisor, feeding each other [illegible] fruit while blindfolded.

Everyone had a real good time enjoying the recreation and the food prepared by Donna Richardson and her food committee, which consisted of ham sandwiches, [illegible] cake [illegible]

The F. H. A. chapter honored its beau with a gift of a [illegible] sweater. The F. F. A. honored their sweetheart, Dixie Burbank, with a lovely Valentine box of chocolates.

After the party, which was a huge success, the clean-up committee, led by Becky Wilcoxson, set everything in order for the following day.—Reporter

Piner 4-H'ers Honor Leader

At a recent meeting of the Piner 4-H Club, a very interesting program was given by various members. Highlight of the program was a surprise to the leader, Mr. W. R. Brown. The program committee had planned a "This Is Your Life" story for Mr. Brown. Many interesting faces of his life were reviewed and he was the recipient of many nice gifts.

Mr. Tom Riley, assistant county agent, was present at the meeting and gave some interesting facts about 4-H Club activities for the coming year.

The next meeting of the club will be held on Wednesday, March 7, 1956.

Named "Homemaker Of Tomorrow" In Simon Kenton High

The Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow in Simon Kenton High School is Miss Shirley Collins, daughter of Mrs. Helen Collins, Nicholson.

She received the highest score in a written examination which tested the homemaking knowledge and attitudes of senior girls in the graduating class. She will be entered in competition to name the state's candidate for the title of All-American Homemaker of Tomorrow and will also be considered for the runnerup award in the state. She will receive a golden award pin designed by Trifari and the school will receive a "Betty Crocker Good and Easy Cook Book." The program is sponsored by General Mills.

Miss Shirley Collins

The national winner in the search conducted among 256,534 young women in 10,222 of the nation's public, private and parochial high schools will be named April 12 at the American Table banquet in Philadelphia.

Each state winner will receive a $1,500 scholarship and an educational trip with her school advisor to Washington, D. C., Colonial Williamsburg, Va. and Philadelphia. A $500 scholarship will be awarded the runnerup girl in each state. The school of the state winner will receive a set of the Encyclopedia Britannica.

The scholarship of the young woman named All-American Homemaker of Tomorrow will be increased to $5,000.

He leaves a brother, George Hensley of Petersburg, a sister, Mrs. Grace Gulley, and several [illegible] nephews.

MRS. MARY C. INGLE

Services were held Tuesday at 2:00 p. m. at the Chambers & Grubbs funeral home, Walton, for Mrs. Mary Caroline Ingle, who died Sunday at Jewish Hospital, Cincinnati. Burial was in the Independence Cemetery.

Mrs. Ingle was a resident of Percival Road, near Walton. She was 44 years [illegible] a native of Carroll county.

She leaves her husband, [illegible] Z. Ingle; two daughters, Mrs. Lorze Gadd Fitch [illegible] and Miss Janet Ingle at home; a sister, Mrs. William E. Watts, Memphis, Tenn., and two brothers, J. D. [illegible] of Covington, and George A. [illegible] of Florence.

Piner Girl Named Page

Recently she was the recipient of a certificate of election to this position. The certificate was signed by Harry Lee Waterfield, president of the Senate, E. W. Kimmond, William L. Sullivan, Wendell van Hoose and Charles W. Waggoner.

Judge Yager In Hospital

Condition of Circuit Judge Ward Yager, Warsaw, of the 15th judicial district, was reported as fair Tuesday at Good Samaritan Hospital, Cincinnati. He recently suffered a heart attack. The district is composed of Boone, Grant, Owen and Gallatin counties.

It was reported that Squire N. Williams, former assistant Kentucky attorney general, will be named special judge to preside at the April term of Boone Circuit Court because of the illness of Judge Yager.

STATE HIGHWAYS CLAIM 862 LIVES LAST YEAR

"Economic loss from fatal highway mishaps in Kentucky during 1955 equalled the cost of more than 6,000 modern three bedroom homes," State Police Commissioner P. A. B. Widener announced.

Pointing out that 862 persons met death on highways of the state during 1955, Widener said research by traffic experts indicates the average loss from each road fatality is about $90,000. "This places the state's loss from road wrecks during 1955 at $77,580,000," he said.

The economic loss rule of thumb figure includes funeral expenses, income loss, property damage, hospital costs, doctor bills, legal expenses, property damages, and other factors," Widener said. He explained that statistics indicate an average three bedroom home in Kentucky during 1955 cost about $12,500.

Walton Woman Injured

Condition of Mrs. Lulu Peyer, 58, of Walton, who suffered chest injures in an auto accident on Madison Pike, Monday, was reported as good Tuesday at St. Elizabeth Hospital.

According to Kenton county police, Mrs. Peyer was injured when an auto she was driving crashed into the rear of another that had stopped behind a bus.

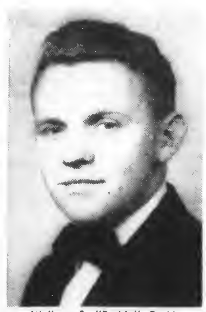
MARION R. ISABELL

Services for Marion R. Isabell, 46, a former Walton resident who died on Monday at Russell Springs, Ky. were held Wednesday afternoon at 2:00 at the Chambers and Grubbs funeral home, Walton. Burial was in the Walton cemetery.



A native of this area, Mr. Isabell had been an automobile mechanic for many years and was formerly employed by Dixie Chevrolet Sales, Walton.

He leaves a son, Walter Isabell, of Walton, a sister, Mrs. Della Northcutt, of Walton, a brother, Daniel Isabell of Russell Springs, four nieces and three nephews.

New Funeral Director Added to the Firm of Chambers and Grubbs

Wallace Scott "Buddy" Grubbs has successfully passed the Kentucky State Board of Embalmers and Funeral Directors at Louisville and has joined the firm of Chambers & Grubbs funeral homes.

He is the son of Wallace K. Grubbs and Mary Chambers Grubbs and will alternate his activities between the Walton and Florence establishments.

Wallace S. "Buddy" Grubbs

"Buddy" is a graduate of Walton-Verona High School, class of 1951, attended the University of Kentucky, and is a graduate of the Cincinnati College of Embalming. His parents, as well as his grandfather, the late C. Scott Chambers, also graduated from this embalming school. His mother was one of the first lady embalmers in the state of Kentucky.

The young Mr. Grubbs is married to the former Sharon Graff, and they have two small daughters.

This business was founded in 1901 by the late S. C. Chambers, and in 1930 the firm name was changed to Chambers and Grubbs when Wallace K. Grubbs was admitted to the firm.

Bearcat Record Is 12 Wins and 14 Losses

Last Friday night on the Walton floor the Bearcats played their last home basketball game of season and made it a win, defeating Holy Cross of Covington, 61-53.

Walton jumped out into an 18-13 lead at the end of the first quarter. With Poore leading the way, the home team outscored the losers 18-11 in the second period for a 36-24 halftime edge.

The scoring was even in the third period with each team chalking up 13 points for a period score of 49-37. In the final quarter Holy Cross cut the margin by outscoring the winners 16-12.

Walton: Hinds 11, Courtney 12, Cook 11, Glacken 2, Simpson 1, Poore 24.

Holy Cross: Fricke 12, Dotmaring 3, Ratterman 9, Rump 5, Gallagher 14, Bertram 10.

Simon Kenton 68, Erlanger Lloyd 53

Simon Kenton made it 10 wins in the N.K.A.C. last Friday night by defeating Erlanger Lloyd 68-53, at Erlanger.

The Pioneers, with Elliott leading the way, led 24-18 at the first period, and were out in front 34-26 at the halftime. Brueckner, Elliott and Butler got into the scoring act in the third period to register 20 points while limiting the losers to nine for a score of 54-35 entering the final period. Lloyd outscored the winners in the last quarter but was never close to scaring the winners. The home team had 18 points in the period.

Erlanger Lloyd: Lightner 14, Brunner 4, Miller 1, Dickerson 1, Butcher 5, Fleck 5, Boone 5, Dees 18.

Willamstown 53, Walton-Verona 43

The Walton-Verona High School Bearcats went to Williamstown Tuesday night and were given a 53-43 thumping to end their schedule for the year. This gave the locals 12 wins and 14 losses for the season.

The Grant county team took a 13-7 lead in the first period, but with Hinds registering eight points in the second quarter, the 'Cats had things all tied up at halftime, 26-26. The winners, in the third period, outscored the losers 14-5 to lead 40-31 going into the final period. In the final quarter, Williamstown had a 13-12 edge in the scoring.

Walton: Cook 8, Glacken 7, Simpson 2, Hinds 17, Menke 2, Poore 7.

The reserve game was won by Walton-Verona 40-31.

Young Maddox [illegible] more than $7,000 in his 10 [illegible] Boone county 4-H club m[illegible] state poultry champion in 1954.

Mr. Bingham said the annual awards, started 19 years ago, are designed to encourage a higher standard of living on farms in Kentucky and Southern Indiana and to improve farming practices.

Those attending from Boone county were Mr. and Mrs. Grant Maddox, Miss Bonita Brown, and Joe Claxon, County Agent.

ORDINATION SERVICE

Ordination and installation services of the new pastor, Rev. Julian Charles, Jr., will be held at the Richwood Presbyterian Church, Sunday evening, February 26, at 7:30.

All officers and members of the church are urged to attend, and friends are cordially invited to be present.

Over 360,000 Future Farmers of America throughout the nation are observing National FFA Week February 18-25. Included in this number are 12,000 Kentucky FFA members.

Officers of the Kentucky Association and chapters they represent are shown above. Starting from the left, Charles Wade, Trigg county, reporter; Kenny Reed, Versailles, sentinel; William Duvall, Simpsonville, treasurer; Sam Whitaker, Jr., Crab Orchard, president; Joe Howell, Lee county, vice president; and Wesley Strader, Hiseville, secretary.

Locally, members of the Simon Kenton FFA chapter plan to set up a display in the trophy case at school, and also present a radio program over WZIP in Covington.

The Simon Kenton chapter has 46 members and the officers are: Gene Smith, president; Shirlie Elliott, vice president; Richard Wilking, secretary; Edward Ehlman, reporter; Leonard Durnell, treasurer; Dick Reeves, sentinel; John L. Gray, vocational instructor, serves as advisor for the chapter.

Membership in the FFA is made up of farm boys who are students of vocational agriculture in high school. The organizations activities are designed primarily to help develop rural leadership and good citizenship and to stimulate the boys to better achievement in their [illegible] toward successful establishment in farming.

Mr. and Mr. Herman Whalen and children spent the weekend visiting relatives in Connersville, Ind.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Kelly and children are vacationing in Florida.

Karen Binder and Elaine Petty have both undergone tonsilectomies recently. They are first grade pupils at Taylor Mill School.

Mrs. W. C. Mitchell entertained her friends with a pinochle and Valentine party at her home on Taylor Mill Pike, February 14. The Valentine theme was carried out in the decorations and the refreshments. Those present were: Mesdames Russell Yates, W. Tallent, H. R. Hutchins, Orel Dramon, James Dramon, Charles Watson, Arthur Reel, E. C. Hart, Ronald Mason, Jill Jaeger, Betty Jean Mason, Fritts, Yates, Gertrude Hutchins, Carl Tallent and Linda Yates.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Thompson are planning to spend the weekend in Louisville, visiting relatives.

The Oak Ridge Homemakers Club met Tuesday, Feb. 14th, at the home of Mrs. Mildred Mason on Taylor Mill Pike. Refreshments and Home Work were given out. A very interesting program was presented.

Taylor Mill School P.T.A. held its regular meeting February 20 at the school. Several musical selections were rendered by the Taylor Mill Band. Mrs. R. Mason gave a reading entitled "Lincoln". Mrs. Mary Jane Mason was presented a gift for having served as president for two years. Mrs. Mason was presented the gift by Mrs. Clifford Wilson following the program at which time refreshments were served by the hostesses.

The regular meeting of the W.M.S. of the Ridge Baptist Church for February will be held in the church on Monday afternoon at 2:30 p.m. Monday, February 27. In order that some of the members may attend the Area of the women's meeting which will be held at the Calvary Baptist Church on Tuesday evening, February 28.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter King and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Supple and three children were calling on Mrs. Susie Glore, Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Harve Brach and children were calling on her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Williams, and family, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Edrington were calling on their daughter, Mrs. Iris Hughes, Monday.

Mrs. Vevie Webster was calling on Mrs. Della Brann, Saturday. Mrs. Brann has been confined to her home for quite a while from a fall she had about three months ago.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

Faithful in Little

Lesson for February 26, 1956

Dr. Foreman

EVERYBODY has some kind of a chance in this world. We all sometimes think we would do better if we had the same chance the next man has. But we may be deceiving ourselves. Jesus tells a story about three men each of whom had the very same chance. Each was given the same sum of money and told to make what he could out of it. One man increased the money ten times, another made five, and the third hid the money and made nothing. What if he had tried. Considering the sort of man he was, a pessimist and a self-confessed coward, it can be doubted whether he would have been able to do as well as the other two did. At any rate Jesus calls our attention to one of life's the fact that even if everybody had an equal chance, not everybody would do equally well with it.

Gifts of God

We call persons "gifted" when they have some remarkable talent or ability. When we say this we mean, or we ought to mean, that a man's capacities are one of his own inventions; they are God's gifts. Two thoughts go together here and must not be separated. The first is that what we have to start with and the opportunities which life brings us along the way, are really gifts of God. The other thought is that God expects us to develop these gifts and take advantage of these opportunities, do something with what we have. Caruso, the famous tenor said once, modestly, that he deserved no credit for his magnificent voice. He was born with an extraordinary muscular development in his vocal cords, something possessed by few men. Most men could not be Caruso no matter how hard they try. On the other hand, if all Caruso had done was just to take his throat for granted, never learn singing, never go through the long discipline of the operatic star, the world would never have been thrilled by that golden voice. God's gifts plus our work, that is the divine plan.

Nothing Too Small

All this is simply the principle which the church calls "stewardship." It is simply recognizing that what God gives us, we are expected to use and make the most of, in his service. The trouble right here is that most of us are rather like that third man in Jesus' parable. We see these big able people going "great guns," we see what wonderful things others are doing, and we know very well we can't do anything like that . . . so we don't try to do anything. Now it should be noted that in this little story, the returning king does not say to the second man, who made only five pounds, "You rascal, why didn't you make ten like this other man?" On the contrary he is pleased with the man, promotes him. What God really despises is not small results; what he despises is refusing to try. We are not reasonable before God for not being brighter or stronger than we are. We are responsible for what we do with such ability as we have, whether small or great.

In the Church

See how this works out in the life of the church. A superintendent asks a girl to take a children's class. Oh no, she can't do it, she says, backing away. She hasn't had experience, she isn't a professional school teacher, she hasn't had a lot of education, she isn't like that brilliant Mrs. So-and-So who was such a whiz of a Sunday school teacher for twenty years. So what? Suppose she's not a topnotcher? She has had little brothers and sisters, she can learn the Bible, she loves her Savior and she loves children too. Stewardship, for that girl, is not what she can do with Mrs. So-and-So's brains and experience, it's what she is willing to do with her own. Or take a man who is elected to a minor position in the church. He doesn't think he can do much in that office, so he declines it. But the question still is—not, what can he do with an office he doesn't have? But, what will he do with the office he does have? Another man does not contribute to the church because he has next to nothing he can give. He is afraid of comparisons. But God does not ask: How do you compare? Only: Are you faithful?

They belong to a little girl. And she loves them both. But, although she is only a tot, she understands the difference between Pal and Poochie.

Poochie is just her "doggie dollie." She can talk to him, and pat him, and cuddle him at night in her crib. But she has to pretend that he loves her too!

Pal is her "bow-wow." He answers words and caresses with his eyes and his bark and his wagging tail. He follows her, he snuggles up to her. His love is just as real as his funny cold nose.

Poochie will one day retire to the attic. But Pal will be her pal for all of his faithful life.

Brings home, does it not, the importance of responding to love?

The Love which inspires man's faithfulness is God's love. The Response is our Christian worship and life.

We wish to thank Bob West who was the engineer that handled the machine and Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey for an evening we will never forget.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Ryle of Cincinnati and Bro. F. b Brumbach and family of Latonia Lakes were Sunday guests of the writer and wife.

The used car lot is making some extensive improvements in that they are enclosing the south end of their lot with a building about 50'x30' to be used for a garage and mechanic work.

Next week we will have some startling news that will give the residents of our little village a topic of conversation for weeks to come—don't miss it—it is the "scoop" of the year.

We are trying to get the report on the sick, so here goes as far as people give us the report. Robt. Frakes is much better and the MD reports his condition good. Joe Schadler is still unable to return to work. But is some better. Mrs. Kate Welsh is home from the hospital and Mrs. Albert Setters is still quite ill.

The kids of this week's newscast should be Christmas in Japan as last Saturday night we were invited to eat and taken to the home of Charles Dorsey and wife in Independence where they had three reels of colored moving pictures taken of their son and family showing all that went on Christmas day in their home at the air base where he is stationed in Japan. We sat with open mouth and just gaped, thinking of how far we have progressed since our childhood 60 years ago. It was just the same as a visit into their home to see the capers cut by little Sara Lynn, their daughter when she came down the steps and exclaimed "Santa has been here mother" and then our grandson Lieut. Richard Dorsey was shown in his flying togs getting in his plane one of these flying jets that make 700 miles an hour. Well it was just as plain as if he was down in our barnlot climbing on the tractor getting ready to help us put in corn. It's my mind I went back 40 years and could not help but wonder what folks who passed away then would think of things as they are. If they only could come back for a little while they would say "No this cannot be the same country, let it that time" and no wonder when you can sit in your own home and make a trip up and over the nation in a trip that would cost you quite a few thousands of dollars and now you can do this at the cost of a 3 cent stamp to get out.

Mr. and Mrs. John Tungate and D. K. Lamt were ordained as deacons at Amity Baptist Church Sunday. Next Sunday, Feb. 26, Bro. Bob Brumbach of Amity and the new deacons will be ordained two new women at Petersburg Baptist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Waddle, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Jones and Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Purcell of Pulaski county received certificates for being hosts to foreign visitors.

KENTUCKIANS IN WASHINGTON

By Gil Kingsbury

That School Bill:

It shows that Kentucky under the Kelly measure would get $33 000 000 for school building in four years time while the Senate bill calls for $34 000,000 in two years. However those figures are reached in some involved formula and should not be pudged without some investigation.

And there is some grave doubt about approval at this session of Congress in spite of the great need. It's all involved with the issue of segregation.

Nobel Prize Nominee:

Eight members of Congress, one of the most prominent members of the Senate has been nominated for the Nobel Peace Prize and his colleague Kentucky's Alben Barkley had inserted in the Congressional Record an article making the announcement.

The campaign senator is in a tight fix his political friends and backers must not only every effort to save him from defeat at senator's hands with the knowledge that time the late to be at hand. The name of the famous Peace Prize Winner is not revealed until December a month after the regular elections.

Did You Know:

A Bracken county court clerk once presented himself in the United States Senate? But the body of you can't find his name. He was Jesse Burgess Thomas and he was a Bracken county official from 1799 to 1803.

After leaving Kentucky he moved to Indiana then to Illinois. Finally when Illinois was admitted to the Union in 1818 he was named to the Senate. We ran across his biography the other day during a dull session of Congress when we paid a visit to the Congressional Library.

Another Cabinet Officer:

Generally speaking, Kentuckians know that the late Fred Vinson and John G. Carlisle were Treasury Secretaries. But how many know of George Bibb, another Kentuckian, who held that cabinet post?

Bibb was twice elected to the United States Senate, in 1811 and in 1829. He was named to the cabinet by President John Tyler in 1844. The Kentuckian had a distinguished career which included service as Chief Justice of the Kentucky Court of Appeals. He also served in the Kentucky General Assembly, first as a representative from Fayette county, then from Logan county and, finally from Franklin county. He must have been a first-rate politician and vote-getter.

PINER HOMEMAKERS

Mrs. Owen Flynn was hostess to the Piner Homemakers. Mrs. William Walter man presided at the morning business session. Mrs. Leslie Smith reading chairman gave a reading. "The Flying Money Can't Buy." Miss Zelma Byerly home demonstration agent attending the morning session explained plans for the district meeting and asked members to make plans for the coming years work. She also gave important events at the Farm and Home convention held in Lexington in the first week of February.

Mrs. Frank Elliott program chairman presented Miss Jo Ann Heidemair and Miss Marilyn Freedman students of Simon Kenton High School. The girls spoke on their training, aims and goals as Future Homemakers of America. Mrs. John Dwyer citizenship chairman presented a program "State County and Community." Mrs. Angelo Pelizzari gave an interesting account of her trip to Italy the last summer with pictures and souvenirs of the many places of interest she visited. Rome Vatican, Capitol, Naples and Pompeii. This was the seventh time she had crossed the Atlantic.

INDEPENDENCE R-1

We are glad to report the sick at our community improving. Mrs. J. A. Keeney is a patient in St. Elizabeth Hospital, also Tommie Enright. We hope both will be coming home soon.

We have been having quite a bit of heavy rains this past week. The farmers say it is a great benefit to the soil, as we have not had much rain this past year.

Several of our community attended the Boy Scout supper at Simon Kenton, Saturday evening.

Rev. Geo. Miller and family were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Barnett and little daughter, on Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Riley, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Riley and Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Parsons and children motored to Lexington Sunday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Wynford Riley, and little daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Barnett spent the day recently with their daughter, Rev. and Mrs. Roy Martin and family of LaGrange, Ky.

Mr. and Mr. L. J. Rapp, Mrs. Denver Binder and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hanna called on Miss Minnie Rapp, who is a patient at the Baptist Home in Newport, and found her some what improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Losey were the guest of his parents Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Grout and daughters spent Sunday with relatives in Milford, Ohio.

It doesn't fit!

MUCH HAS BEEN SAID recently about so-called "pirating" techniques used to lure industries to the South. This talk just doesn't fit the facts.

No doubt local enthusiasm has created situations that are not above reproach. But these are isolated instances—the exception and not the rule. And they are by no means confined to the South.

The industries that reputable industrial development agencies in the Southland are seeking—and getting—are not the fly-by-night variety, looking for something for nothing.

The industrial Southland of today offers plant-site seekers ample inducements of real merit without resorting to phony lures or unrealistic concessions of any kind. "Look Ahead—Look South!"

WASHINGTON, D. C.
The Southern Serves the South

You bet it doesn't!

THE SOUTHERN SR SERVES THE SOUTH

SOUTHERN RAILWAY SYSTEM
WASHINGTON, D. C.

THERE HAS BEEN some loose talk lately accusing the South and its industrial development agencies of using and endorsing practically any type of tactics in order to attract industries from other regions. You know and we know that "blanket accusations" of this kind pointing a finger of criticism at the entire Southland not only are unfair – they simply are not true.

Yet, talk of this sort is often picked up and passed on and on. That's why we felt impelled to "speak up" – in the national advertisement reproduced above.

The modern Southland has many enthusiastic spokesmen. We are proud to be one of them. It is still another way we can give meaning to our slogan "The Southern Serves the South."

Combridge Bible Lost

Mrs. Chas. H. Dorsey of Main Street, lost a new Cambridge Bible in front of the Swindler funeral home, last Sunday morning. To the person finding the above book, please return to the Independence Post Office or the second floor over the funeral home.

Hickory Grove W. M. S.

The Hickory Grove W.M.S. met at the home of Mrs. Ralph Jump Tuesday nite Feb. 7, with fourteen members present. Mrs. W. E. Durr, Mrs. J. C. Reynolds, Mrs. Martha Maddox, Mrs. Rudolph Casson, Mrs. Flora Summey, Mrs. Anna Wienel, Mrs. Janetta Neuspickle, Mrs. Forest Popp, Mrs. Franklin Lipscomb Jr. Mrs. Ralph Jump, Mrs. Robert Taylor, a former member. Mrs. Beulah Roden, Mrs. Velma Ball, who we hope will become regular members and Miss Ruth Jump. It was one of the largest groups we have had for a long time. Lets all try and keep our W.M.S. growing. The program, "Help Save America" was given by members. It was very interesting and enjoyed by all. The session was closed with group prayers, after which refreshments were served. Let's all urge someone to come with us next meeting. Missionaries are needed here in America as well as in foreign lands. Lets do all we can to help lead others to Christ. Our next meeting will be the first Tuesday in March.

Sick List

Mark Appel of the LLL Highway will visit Booth Hospital for another two weeks. The one operation on his knee has been completed and was very painful.

Mary Pinter of Hands Pike has been released from the hospital and is now home convalescing. Though Mary must take it easy for a while, she is able to visit and do very light work.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Alsip of Demossville have been released from the hospital and are both confined to their home. Mr. Alsip is now able to be up on crutches but Mrs. Alsip must still remain in bed. They were involved in an auto collision a few weeks ago.

Frank Armstrong of Main Street, is showing little improvement in his illness. He is still confined to his home.

Mrs. Armstrong has also been ill.

Job's Doughters, Bethel 8

The next regular meeting of Bethel 8, Jobs Daughters will be held Monday, Feb. 27 at 7:30 p.m. at the Bank Building, Independence.

All officers are urged to attend and all members are cordially invited. Joyce Cooper, Honored Queen, wishes to extend a special invitation to members of other Masonic Orders to attend this session. Refreshments will be served.

Just A Thought

A man is never a failure until he has thrown in the towel.

Hill Top Race Bowl

Whenever the weather permits work is being done on Hill Top Race Bowl, Stephens Road, to improve and accommodate more people next summer. The track is also being widened so that bigger and better races will be available when the season opens.

Trips to Florida

Mr. and Mrs. Cummins of Harris Pike left last week for a two weeks stay in Florida. Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Durr of Nicholson have been gone for two weeks and while there R. C. visited the hot rod track. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pitcher of Harris Road have returned from a vacation in Florida. Mrs. Nell M. reports contemplating a trip to Florida to visit her daughter and to spend some time with a close friend.

Ordination Service

On Sunday evening, February 12 at the Independence Christian Church, Chester Sand of the LLL Highway was ordained into the ministry and was duly licensed as a minister by the Kenton County Court. Billy Gibson and Sterling Stiggs were made elders and Bobby Gibson a deacon. Rev. Arthur Tipton, pastor, officiated at this most beautiful and impressive service. Last month, Mr. Frank Boone was also ordained into the ministry.

Bradford Stor Chopter

Bradford O.E.S. Chapter 493 held its meeting in the Lodge Hall with 35 members present. Under new business, a motion was made and passed to purchase 25 folding chairs for the hall, with a contribution of $20 having been given by Job's Daughters toward this purchase. It was also learned that an additional 25 folding chairs are being purchased by the Masonic Lodge, in order that sufficient seats be available for the ever increasing membership in these Masonic Orders.

The annual ham supper sponsored by Bradford Eastern Star Chapter will be held on April 21 at Simon Kenton. A very good meal is being planned by the committee.

Mrs. Cockrel, Mrs. Pitcher and Mrs. Collier were selected to serve as a committee to provide a helping hand to Eastern Star Chapters overseas. Clothing and funds were the most vital needs expressed in a letter from the Grand Chapter in Louisville. More information on this subject will be given at a later date. If some of you are interested and want to know the type and size of the donations you may call Helen West, FL 7-8601 and your questions will be answered sincerely—please call after 6 p.m. In addition to the above business the birthdays of January and February were presented a song, a poem and a token of happy birthday wishes. It was just a thought but a very impressive one to the persons with birthdays in these two months.

Among the most important portion of business to be accomplished for the next meeting, which will be held March 13, it was learned that the chapter will hold a baby presentation night and all members of the chapter who have a baby under a year old should strive to attend and bring their baby. From what is known it is a very nice program to be a part of and to witness.

After the meeting, members enjoyed a very nice refreshment hour consisting of coffee, tea, fruit cocktail salad and cake.

Poultry Equipment

• We have just received a new stock of most all types of poultry equipment. We have mostly Jamesway which in past years have proven to be the best for our money. That Jamesway oil brooder is the best buy on the market and it gives very little trouble. We also have Jamesway gas hovers that Robert Griffin and George Finnell, who have used lots of brooders, say these are the best. We have a 100 chick size electric hover for $16.95 with a very good heat element in it, when so many try it and fail. We have all sizes of water fountains and feeders.

We had little of everything today. Neumayr Aim strang came in for more Jelled Magic paint. He had some left week and said it was the greatest paint he had ever used. A little later Jack Rouse, our sign man, came in for a gallon of Jelled Magic. He has used it before. Give it a try! CONRAD guarantees it. Mrs. Bishop on Verona Road brought in a pitman rod to clean and has it to be repaired. Lonnie May, Jr. from Crittenden brought in a beautiful antique lamp. It took Chick and Brewster both on that one but they got it. Otis Davis over in Grant co. is keeping pretty busy. Bought a rubber tired wagon.

The fishermen have begun to look around now. Say the sun shines—we have. Did some fishing today. The farmers are coming in after plow points and farm repairs. Scott Lancaster and Bobby came after a shovel. Omer Kite was in—he had a bottle of that fishin' talk much. Rev. Melvin Riley, down at Beaver, had the door sharpened up for his wife. Mrs. A. C. Crandall was buying several small items. Mrs. Mack Patrick bought a plastic dish pan we will get it for her. Mr. Bert Swan came hunting for Oliver tractor plow points. I guess the Suits are pretty busy on the farms. Times are hard. I used to be some busy.

A fellow came in for a quart of a glass pump. I said he had been all over the country hunting one and now told him CONRAD had it. It amazing but so again we situated a cast iron kettle to the wood stove that is 125 years old. It has been used by the Pattersons, Crittendens, Conrads and Hamiltons. Now it is in the Conrad Museum. Some of the old timers can get water as fresh as well as the younger people. Our drinking water is from a deep well. If you are ready for a new kitchen sink, bath tub, pipe or electrical material, CONRAD is ready to get it.

"Alice In Founders Land" Presented by Visalia PTA at Meeting

The Visalia Elementary School P.T.A. met recently at the school with Mrs. Charles Grizzell presiding. The organization purchased a file cabinet for the school office and a rhythm band for the third grade.

Miss Patsy Jackson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jackson, Kenton, presented solos. Miss Jackie Cain, a Simon Kenton High School student, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Cain, Independence, presented a reading, "Ma at the P.T.A."

Mrs. Robert Chrisman and Mrs. Wilmer Steinhauser presented "Alice In Founders Land," a history and fashion pageant introduced by Miss Helen Rose, school music supervisor who also presented the musical accompaniment. Those participating were: Mesdames Everett Wilson, Charles Grizzell, John Redman, Roy Hammond, Harold Halthill, Ralph Funnell, Stanley Webb, Dewell Dillon, John Below, Vinson Neuspickle and Miss Kay Redman. Roy Hammond and Wilmer Steinhauser modeled eighteenth century bathing suits.

Mrs. James Crouch, Founder's Day chairman presented Mrs. Wilmer Steinhauser, Harry Figgins, Charles Grizzell, Misses Helen Rose, Jackie Cain and Patsy Jackson with remembrance gifts. Gifts were also sent to Mrs. Robert Casey, Edward Hauser, W. A. Damon, George Ebinger, William LeMasters, Herman Hoffman and Howard Fredericks who were past presidents, but were unable to be present.

Mrs. Charles Grizzell and Mrs. Harold Halthill presided at the tea table and Mrs. Howard Clark served. Mrs. M. Mason's room won the attendance award.

New Haven 4-H'ers Meet

A meeting of the New Haven 4-H Club was held February 20. The meeting was called to order by the president Jay Feagin and after repeating the club pledge, Phyllis Bartley, secretary, read the minutes, which were approved. The group sang "She'll Be Comin' Round the Mountain." Miss Nancy Guilfoil, home demonstration agent, and Mr. Ed McCandless, assistant county agent were present and gave short talks after which the meeting adjourned.

Duvall at Burlington

F. E. Duvall, Contact Representative for the Kentucky Disabled Ex-Service Men's Board, will be at the Courthouse in Burlington Monday morning, March 5, from 9:00 until 11:30. He will assist veterans and their dependents with claims for benefits due them as a result of their military service.

Celebrates 90th Birthday

Mrs. Mary Patrick celebrated her 90th birthday, Sunday, February 26, with 52 guests present. She received a great many gifts. Mrs. Patrick has been very ill and is confined to her bed. However, she is improving at this time.

Annual Meeting Of Kenton County 4-H Club Council Is Set

The annual meeting of the Kenton County 4-H Club Council has been set for 7:30 p. m. Tuesday, March 6, at Piles Store on Ky. 17, 5 miles north of Independence. The annual election of directors and officers of the council will be the highlight of the week long celebration of National 4-H Club Week, March 3-11.

Present directors and officers of the organization include: Robert Jackson, chairman; Stanley Parker, vice chairman; Mrs. J. A. Blau, secretary-treasurer; William R. Brown and Mrs. Charles Gall. The 30 members who compose the council act in an advisory capacity to the Agricultural Extension Service in directing the activities of approximately 600 boys and girls enrolled in 4-H Club work in Kenton county.

Scheduled to speak at the occasion will be G. J. McKinney, Specialist in 4-H Club work for Northern Kentucky. Entertainment will be furnished by county 4-H Club members.

Services at Christian Church

Bible School and preaching services are being held every Sunday in the Walton Christian Church. Dr. T. S. Reavis of Lexington, will be the guest speaker on Sunday.

Local Firemen Buy Equipment

The Walton Volunteer Fire Department has purchased a 1953 GMC panel truck to be used by the chief, and will precede all other fire equipment to a fire. It will carry first-aid equipment, a two way radio, and fire-fighting equipment capable of extinguishing small grass fires.

The department has also purchased a portable light outfit, for lighting areas where they have no light. In addition to this, they have bought a new portable pump and 500 feet of hose.

We have a well equipped fire department and the members are ever striving to improve their equipment, in order to better serve the people of this area.

Literary Club to Meet

A speaker from the Consumer Relations Department of Celanese Corporation of America will present a color slide program entitled, "Your Home Charming," for the meeting of the Walton Woman's Literary Club, to be held in Fellowship Hall of the Walton Christian Church, Wednesday, March 7, beginning at 2:00 p. m. Mrs. Grover C. Ransom will serve as hostess and Mrs. Julia A. Rouse will preside.

W.M.S. Wook of Prayer

The Baptist W.M.S. "Week of Prayer" will be held March 5-9, from 1:30 to 2:30 p. m. at the church. The Mission study book will be taught March 5, at 10:30 a. m. Bring sandwich. The Anna Armstrong offering for Home Missions will be taken at this time.

The W.M.S. is sending money for eggs to the Glendale and Spring Meadows Orphan Homes. If you wish to give an offering, the money should be given to your Sunday School teacher.

Class Meeting Tonight

The regular meeting of the Alpha Sunday School class has been postponed until March 1, at the home of Mrs. W. D. Locke. Visitors are welcome.

HAROLD WEBSTER

Harold Lloyd Webster, 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Webster of Banklick Station Road, Kenton county, died Monday at his home.

Besides his parents, he leaves a brother, Clarence Webster of Covington; two sisters, Mrs. Lucille Rhodes of Maurice Station, and Mrs. Hazel Judd of Cincinnati; his maternal grandpaients, Mr. and Mrs. Oba Howe, and his paternal grandmother, Mrs. Lucy Webster, all of Kenton county.

Services will be held Thursday at the Swindler funeral home, Covington, with burial in Independence Cemetery.

JOHN F. BECK

Funeral services for John F. Beck, 69, of Morning View, were held Tuesday morning from the Peoples funeral home, Butler. Requiem High Mass was held at St. Mary Church, Morning View, at 9:30 a. m. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Mr. Beck died Saturday at his home.

He leaves two sons, William J. Beck of Demossville, and John F. Beck of Covington, five grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren.

EDWARD O. WEBSTER

Edward O. Webster, 91 years of age, passed away at his home on Verona, Route 1, February 22. He was a retired farmer, and was a member of Concord Baptist Church. He and his wife had been married for 67 years.

Mr. Webster leaves his wife, Mrs. Maggie Sturgeon Webster; a son, Russell Webster, of Verona, Route 1; a brother, Ollie Webster, of Rising Sun, Ind.; four grandchildren, and ten great-grandchildren.

Services were held Saturday morning, February 25, at the Concord Baptist Church, Gallatin county, with the Rev. Franklin Lipscomb, Jr. officiating. Burial was in Concord Cemetery.

Hamilton funeral home, Verona, had charge of arrangements.

Kenton Social, Saturday

The Kenton and Community Volunteer Fire Department will sponsor its monthly social, at the fire house in Kenton, on Saturday, March 3, beginning at 8:30 p. m. The public is cordially invited. Refreshments will be served, according to Charles Grizzell, chairman.

Use of A Balanced Fertilizer Is Stressed By the County Agent

Results of soil tests throughout Boone county show the necessity of balanced fertilization if crops are to be produced efficiently, says Joe Claxon, County Agt.

Each of the three major soil elements of nitrogen, phosphorus and potassium must be applied at a rate which will give the maximum profitable return he said. In a fertilization program enough phosphorus should be included to maintain an adequate level of available phosphorus in the soil and, in addition sufficient nitrogen and potash should be applied for the immediate needs of the crop.

Since nitrogen is the most expensive of the three major fertilizer elements and the one most subject to loss from the soil, enough phosphorus and potash should always be applied to insure the maximum use of all the nitrogen in the fertilizer.

Mr. Claxon said the fertilizer recommendations of the Agronomy Department of the Agricultural Experiment Station have been developed as a result of actual field experiments throughout the state, and are designed to help farmers increase the efficiency of their crop production.

It is strongly urged that farmers make the fullest possible use of the soil testing program in the county.

Girl Scout, Brownie Troops of Walton Now Registered

"Boone County District—First, we are so proud to report Troop 198 has been registered. That's our new Brownie Troop from Walton, Ky., with Mrs. Helen Burgess as leader, and Mrs. Adeline Reed as co-leader. For their troop committee we have Wesley Burgess and Harry Reed, plus Mrs. Wendell Downing, Mrs. Frances Afterkirk and Mrs. Sue Stamper.

"Also we are proud to report Intermediate Troop 201, with 18 girls, registered. Mrs. Pete Miller, leader; Mrs. Evelyn Sizemore and Mrs. Gladys Simpson, co-leaders. Their troop committee are Mrs. Christine Smith, Mrs. James Webster, and Mrs. Myrtle Young. They are also from Walton. These people really deserve a big hand for their ceaseless efforts to get a Scout organization in Walton."

The Walton Brownie Girl Scouts wish to thank the following persons who contributed toward the purchase of a troop flag: Clifford Ryan, "Ab" Ryan, R. C. Brakefield, Frances Eddins, Bob Brugh, Paul and Sam Beighle, and Mr. and Mrs. Guy St. Clair.

Florence 4-H Club Meets

The Florence 4-H Club met February 23, with Miss Nancy Guilfoil and Mr. Ed McCandless present. The group sang "Sixteen Tons" and "She'll Be Comin' Around the Mountain." Mona Curtsinger sang, "If I Give My Heart to You." The project books were handed out, and some members did not get theirs. A total of 75 members were present.

Simon Kenton PTA Observes Founders' Day With Program

The Simon Kenton P.T.A. met recently at the school with Mrs. Thomas Finney presiding. Mrs. T. S. Moffett, Mrs. Grace Cooper and R. C. Hinsdale were named to the nominating committee for new officers.

The "spring festival" will be held on Friday, April 6. Mesdames H. Halthill, G. Hatfield, J. Cain, W. Worthington, H. Stephenson, D. Hightower, W. Ashcraft, T. Finney, J. Crouch, and Miss Elma Taylor are the committee members in charge of planning the affair.

Mrs. Lewis Gabriel was honor guest at the Founders' Day tea, planned by Mrs. John Cain. Miss Shirley Collins presented a reading, "Brotherly Love," Miss Eulonda Estes, "June Night," Miss Jackie Cain, "Ma at the P.T.A." Miss Elma Taylor read the president's message from the Kentucky P.T.A. magazine. Miss Wanda Brautigan sang "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied by Gyles Bruin at the piano.

Flowers were sent to Miss Lena Koehler, a teacher in the school, who was in an accident recently.

Mrs. Alto Cox and Miss Elsie Hiteman tied for the attendance award. Mrs. Howard Stephenson was in charge of serving.

The next meeting will be held March 5, when officers will be elected. A safety program is planned by Mrs. Halthill.

GOOD EATING FOR MARCH

If you take advantage of the wide variety of plentiful foods expected on March markets, your family should have good eating with no monotony in meals, according to the U. S. Department of Agriculture, says Miss Nancy Guilfoil, Boone home demonstration agent.

Consider first the many choices in protein foods—these include pork, beef, broilers and fryers, as well as foods for Lenten fare, such as cheese and other dairy products, peanut butter and tuna.

Then to keep company with the main dish, take your choice between rice and potatoes, both plentiful, with "new" potatoes coming from the South.

At least three fruits deserve the shopper's attention this month—grapefruit, cherries and dates. Supplies of both fresh and processed grapefruit are large, and is a top-rater for vitamin C. Grocery shelves have large stocks of canned pie cherries, and there's plenty of lard for making pie crusts. California dates will be plentiful. Many dates didn't get to market for the usual holiday sale, due to unfavorable weather and a delayed harvest.

Constitutional Amendments Face Ky. Voters

WORKS ON ANNUAL

Mary Garlough

Miss Mary Garlough, a junior at Simon Kenton High School, Independence, was one of two members of her class to aid the seniors in selling ads for this year's annual, The Pioneer. Her total was $40. The other junior was Miss Marilyn Friedman, who sold $10 worth of ads. The seniors are thankful for their help.

Willing Circle Class Meets

The February meeting of the Willing Circle Class of Kenton Baptist Church was held at the home of Mrs. W. B. Barnes, Kenton. Mrs. Charles Schnitzler presided at the business meeting, with prayer by Mrs. W. W. Roden. The devotional, by Mrs. Frank Kuriger, was "I Would Be True." The class sang "Stand Up for Jesus." The meeting was three-fold in that a surprise stork shower was given for Mrs. James Noakes, the birthday of Mrs. Albert Sharp was celebrated, as well as Valentine day.

1479 GET CHEST X-RAYS

According to the Boone County Health Department, 1479 residents of the county had free X-rays taken last week when the mobile unit visited Walton; Florence and Burlington. This is the largest number to receive this service on any visit by the mobile X-ray unit. The number for each of the towns was as follows: Walton, 364; Florence 709, and Burlington 406.

Simon Kenton Band Here

The Simon Kenton High School band, under the direction of Robert Roden, will present a concert at the Walton-Verona High School auditorium on Friday afternoon, March 2, at 1:00. Everyone is cordially invited to hear this 60-member group, rated as "superior" in the State of Kentucky.

B.W.C. Week of Prayer

The B. W. C. of Walton Baptist Church will observe Week of Prayer for Home Missions with a program on Monday, March 5, at 8:00 p. m., in the home of Mrs. Jane Johnson.

The regular meeting for March will be held Thursday evening, March 8, at the same meeting place. All members are urged to be present. The Annie Armstrong offering will be taken.

STATE AID TO NEEDY

Residents of Boone county drew a total of $5,590 in January under Kentucky's three public assistance programs—old age assistance; aid to dependent children, and the needy blind—Commissioner of Economic Security Vego E. Barnes said.

The payments were: Old age assistance, $4,834; aid to dependent children, $591, and aid to needy blind, $165.

Bake Sale On Saturday

There will be a bake sale at the Phoenix Restaurant, Saturday, March 3, starting at 9:30 p. m., sponsored by the junior class of Walton-Verona High.

Chances will be available on a 15-lb country ham, which will be delivered to the winner.

Recommended By State Administration

Voters of Kentucky will be faced with two constitutional amendments at the November 1957 general election, as a result of action taken by the regular session of the 1956 General Assembly.

First of the amendments would authorize establishment of a constitutional State Board of Education, appointed by the Governor, to hold terms for nine years each, the first appointments to run from one to nine years so that one appointment would be made annually. In turn, the Board would name the Superintendent of Public Instruction, now an elective official. He would hold office for an indefinite term.

The other amendment is designed to make the process of constitutional revision simpler. It would permit the offering of five—instead of two—amendments to the people at any given election, and many persons believes that the process would facilitate the early removal of so much that is outmoded in the present Constitution.

The new amendment, too, would authorize submission of constitutional amendments at special elections.

Both proposals were recommended in principle by the Constitution Review Commission and bore approval of the Chandler administration. The education amendment also had approval of educators throughout the state as a means of removing the department, so far as possible, from political manipulation.

2-Year Marine Enlistments

Two-year enlistments are once again being offered by the U. S. Marine Corps to eligible young men. Previously only enlistments of three and four years were authorized.

The Kentucky Marine Recruiting Station has announced that the Corps is now offering two and three year enlistments to qualified young men, including certain married persons, who wish to be assigned immediately to active duty, according to M. Sgt. Mike D. Mervosh, Marine recruiter in charge of Northern Kentucky area, located in the City Building, Covington.

Applicants between the ages at 17 and 26 may be accepted at the Recruiting Station and assigned to immediate active duty in the Reserves. Accepted applicants will be transferred to San Diego, Calif. for recruit training.

Simon Kenton Scores 83-82 Win Over Dixie Heights, Last Friday

Howard Stacey's 51 points went for naught last Friday night as the Simon Kenton Pioneers eked out a hard-fought free-scoring victory over the Little Colonels of Dixie Heights, on the Independence floor.

Brueckner, Butler and Ruebel combined for 62 points to offset the fine work of Stacey. Brueckner had 27 points for the winners.

Kenton led 27-21 at the end of the first period as both teams showed a strong offensive. Stacey had 13 points in the first quarter and Brueckner had 11. The Dixie team, with Stacey getting 15 points in the second period, outscored the winners 27-21 to lead 48-46. Brueckner had eight. Simon Kenton regained the lead in the third period, 66-65, and the teams fought on down to the finish with never more than three points separating them.

Dixie Heights—Eveleth 8, Eger 3, Stickrod 6, Heckman 2, Stacey 51, and McKibben 12.

Simon Kenton—Ruebel 19, Silvers 4, Brueckner 27, Elliott 9, Exeler 0, Butler 16, and Vaughan 8.

Dixie Heights won the reserve game, 47-38.

Christ and the City

Lesson for March 4, 1956

CENSUS takers have long been dividing us Americans into "Rural" and "Urban." The fact is, wherever we may live, if we are not in a city we are in many ways affected by cities. The magazines and papers we read are often published in cities. Most of the things a farmer uses—tractors, combines, fertilizer tools, came from cities. Our clothes were made in cities, our laws were made there. Your cradle may have already been made in a city. There is a state in America which has just one large city. A former resident of that state told the writer that very few small towns there amounted to anything, because all the young people in the state who had any ambition struck out for that big city as soon as they could. One way or another, we are all becoming "urban" pretty fast.

Dr. Foreman

Enthusiasm Is Fragile

The largest city Jesus ever saw brought tears to his eyes, and no wonder. Some of the things he saw are true of cities and of urban civilization today. They are true of our American way of life 20th-century style. One was the swiftly rising and as swiftly falling enthusiasm of the crowds. There they came with joyful shouts of welcome on Palm Sunday morning, and by Friday morning some of the same mob would be screaming, "Crucify him!" City people take quickly to new ideas and new heroes, and quickly drop them. They will strew tons of ticker-tape at the mere hint, phone books for lack of palm branches, on some returning hero, but in six months' time won't be able to remember his name. Explain it as you like, the fact is that urban enthusiasms are fragile. That goes for most of us. What we live for in our urban America is mostly excitement. We live from headline to headline, from thrill to thrill. Advertisers do their best to stir us up. They talk of "exciting" new colors, exciting new fashions, even (believe it or not) exciting new toothpaste. The advertisers know that if we can really be persuaded that a thing is exciting, we'll buy it! We would rather listen to a new idea than a true one. That's city fever.

Mass Man

In the days of Davy Crockett, whose ghost, we trust, will have been laid to rest before these lines meet the public eye—in the days of Davy C. and of Dan'l Boone, nearly all Americans were living in the country, as we would call it today. Even the cities were small. Those were the days of rugged individualism. When a neighbor came within 50 miles of Daniel Boone, he thought the woods were getting too crowded, so the legend has it—and moved on. Nowadays in our more urban era, we have come to the time of "Mass Man" as philosophers call him. The city is the Land of Follow-my-Leader. It is the dwelling-place of the Joiners. Mr. Boone did not belong to many societies; but where is the man today who is happy without belonging to enough clubs and societies to keep him out every night? Mass Man is a rather sad spectacle. Jesus wept over him there in Jerusalem. The people of that city were like sheep, doing, saying, even thinking what their Scribes and Pharisees told them to. The men of Jerusalem would not look for themselves, they "knew not the time of their visitation." They did not know when God was knocking at their door. If Christ came to America today, would Mass Man recognize him? Or would he be under suspicion because he would not fit the universal pattern?

Den of Robbers

The city over which Jesus wept was the site of a magnificent Temple; built as a place of worship. But when Jesus visited it, he found a cattle-market going on in the very middle of it. What should have been worship had turned to money-making. So it is too often with an urban civilization. Built on business, on the market-place, it tends to turn everything into a market-place. Art is commercialized; so is education, so are athletics, politics, sometimes religion. If the reader thinks this is exaggerated, let him look around during this month and see some everyday examples of how religion is commercialized in America. We are approaching the joyful Christian festival of Easter. How many thousands of people in our land are planning to make money out of it?

Mount Lassen in northern California towers majestically heavenward, its immense size a tremendous sight to man. It has long been considered an inactive volcano, yet it maintains an active warmth in its depth that is shared with lakes and springs at its base.

Somehow it reminds you of the towering strength of Christianity. Christianity, like Mount Lassen, is visible to all in its vicinity. It is a mountain of strength, with endless opportunities for exploring its mysteries.

Christianity imparts warmth to all who approach it. From its depths there spring rivers of living water to quench the thirst of your soul. And though each person touching this mountain should take away with him all he could carry to scatter through the world, yet its bulk will not diminish.

Gaze upon that Christianity that is like a huge mountain. Be warmed, refreshed, and strengthened through fellowship and worship each Sunday at Church.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible as, e.

OAK RIDGE

The storm Friday night and Saturday played havoc with telephone and electric service in many areas of the county. The electric service in Oak Ridge was not interrupted, but many residents were without telephones all day Saturday.

Mrs. Jill Jaegers and daughter, Marilyn, visited friends in Shelbyville, Ky., February 22.

An old wardrobe chest is urgently needed by the Ladies Auxiliary of the Taylor Mill Fire Department. These ladies gather clothing, which they sort and repair in order to have it ready to give to families whose homes burn. At present they do not have a suitable place to store this clothing. They would greatly appreciate it if someone who has an old wardrobe would donate it to them. If you have one, would you please call Mrs. Lois Ryan at FLeetwood 7-5814 and she will arrange for someone to pick it up.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Dorman and son, Johnny, of Shelbyville, spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Dorman of Lipscomb Road. While they were visiting, Warren and his brother Judd laid a beautiful pink and grey rubber tile floor in their sister, Gertrude's room. Gertrude has been an invalid since suffering an attack of polio three years ago. Her relatives and friends have built a beautiful room for her with central heat and a bath so she would be more comfortable. She is continuing her high school studies with the help of Mrs. Watkins, the visiting teacher, and she will graduate from Simon Kenton High School this year.

Mrs. Russell Yates started to work in the cafeteria of the telephone company last week and likes her job very much.

H. R. Hutchins of Lipscomb Road, is a patient in Booth Hospital, where he underwent an operation on his knee last Wednesday.

Miss Kathryn Maus is a patient at St. Elizabeth Hospital, where she underwent a very serious operation last week. We are happy to report she is improving.

Rayburn Cooper is a patient at St. Elizabeth Hosital as a result of an auto accident on Taylor Mill Pike, Friday night. He has many stitches in his face head and knee but he is improving.

Mrs. John Fogel is confined to her home with high blood pressure.

Carl "Buddy" Tomlin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Tomlin of Lipscomb Road, is home for spring vacation. Carl is a junior at Baylor University, Waco, Texas.

James Frue, a graduate of Simon Kenton High School and a former resident of this community, is now a senior at the University of Florida. James has been accepted by three medical schools and has decided to enroll in the Medical School at the University of Florida, next year. He has made straight A's in his four years at the University and is a member of the Gator band.

Mrs. Cecil Bates gave a baby shower at her home on Taylor Mill Pike Friday evening, in honor of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Timmy Bates. Other guests present were Mesdames James Stephens, Paul Brown, Homer Harris, William Tomlin, Gene Piper, Phillip King, Sonnie Bates, Hubert King, Leo Sizemore, Dennis Sizemore, Leonard Menkhaus, Dewey Sizemore, Linda Glover and Eunice Wilson.

People certainly have a lot of morbid curiosity. All day Saturday and Sunday there was a steady stream of people coming to see the two wrecked cars that were involved in the fatal accident Friday night, in front of Bill's Snack Shop on Taylor Mill Pike, in which Rose Clifford was killed. We recall the large number of people who came for several days to see the car in which two young men were killed last fall when they failed to make the curve in front of Taylor Mill Drive and ran into a large stone sign post. What is there about a fatal accident that attracts so many people?

It is about time people realized that Taylor Mill Pike is not a speedway. Because Oak Ridge is a heavily populated and congested area there is a 35-mile speed zone posted about a mile each side of the intersection of Lipscomb Rd. This area is plainly marked with road signs and 35 m. p. h. signs. If people would observe these signs we would not have so many fatal accidents.

The Taylor Mill Life Squad is kept busy every weekend responding to automobile accident calls, most of which are caused by excessive speed. People don't have to crawl along at 20 to 25 m. p. h. on a highway. They are as much of a menace as the ones who go 70 m. p. h. But every driver should keep his car under control at all times.

INDEPENDENCE R-1

Those on the sick list are improving. Mrs. J. A. Keeney is at the home of her sisters, Misses Alma and Mary Stephens, at Independence. L. M. Dueser is home from the hospital but is still not able to be about.

We are sorry to report Paul Damon fell on the porch at his home one evening the past week and has a very bad break in his ankle. He is doing as well as can be expected. Mr. Damon has been badly hit with sickness the past two years.

Harry Reed is slowly improving at his home on Taylor Mill Road.

We were glad to see our Sunday School growing back to better attendance. There have been so many absent on account of so much sickness.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Finnell and children were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rees, Sunday.

Eric Giles, of Lexington, spent the weekend with his father and sister of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Barnett entertained relatives from Mt. Sterling, Ky., several days the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Binder and family were guests of Mrs. Binder's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Howar, Sunday.

Several from the neighborhood attended the basketball games at Simon Kenton High School, Friday and Saturday nights.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Riley entertained on Sunday with a turkey dinner in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Parsons' birthdays. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Wynford Riley and little daughter of Lexington, Charles Riley of Richardson Pike, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hanna, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Riley, and Jeffry and Sharon Parson.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Losey called on his parents, Sunday evening.

Staffordsburg Homemakers

A salute to the flag opened the meeting of the Staffordsburg Homemakers Club for February. Mrs. Bluch Rich, presided as president and the following program was heard: Mrs. Boyd Gullett read the devotional. Mrs. Keeney delighted the club with a reading from Readers Digest, and Mrs. L. J. Rapp devoted the garden lesson to the care of sweet peas, which are again becoming an outstanding garden flower. A date was set for the making of lamps, at the home of Mrs. Bluch Rich. Members who attended the recent convention, gave highlights of their visit and of the talks.

A "white elephant" sale was held in the afternoon and netted the club over $40.00 which will be used by the club for charitable work which is carried on during the year.

Two visitors were welcomed, Mrs. Chester Rapp and Mrs. Bessie Schneider, as was Miss Zelma Byerly, home demonstration agent. Members answering roll call were Mesdames E. H. Rich, J. C. Farmers' Social Security

"Many Northern Kentucky farmers have already filed tax returns for the 1955 calendar year," Joseph T. Ware, Social Security Administration director in Covington, said today. "This year, for the first time, they have paid self-employment tax for social security protection," he added. Mr. Ware emphasized that all farmers who netted $400 or more in 1955 from farming must file their returns by April 15, 1956. Proper tax returns and advice concerning taxes can be obtained from the District Director of Internal Revenue, Louisville, Ky.

Write your Social Security office at 729 E. 3rd St., Covington, for a booklet showing the benefits payable to farmers under social security and if not covered, the filing of that tax return before April 15.

Burlington Road Homemakers

Mrs. Charles Rethemann, delegate from the Burlington Road Homemakers Club to Farm and Home Week at Lexington, gave a very glowing and helpful report of her trip and experiences at the club February 21 meeting at the home of Mrs. George Schamlach, Burlington Road, Florence. Mrs. A. B. Smart was co-hostess.

Snow King and Queen of '56

The Math Club of Junior Kenton High School presented the presentation of the Snow Queen, Wanda Barnes, and King, Bob Carlisle, in a colorful ceremony on January 6. The Queen, in her beautiful attire, and the King, handsomely dressed, appeared and were escorted around the gymnasium to the triumphant strains of the band, so that everyone could see the royal pair. The Queen's chariot was guided by Richard Marquette and Marvin Dunn. Attending the King and Queen were two beautiful senior girls, Dixie Barberick and Donna Lancaster. While the coronation party advanced to the center of the floor, dolls and elfs were giving out candy to the children. Next came the big moment, the crowning of the King and Queen. Barbara Rust placed the artistic crown upon the King's head and Alfred Damon, president of the Math Club, crowned the lovely Queen. The trumpets sounded and the royal party moved slowly out of the gym, leaving behind an air of stately elegance.

Following the ballgame, the King and Queen reigned over the dance, sponsored by the Y-Teens. The Math Club and the Y-Teens owe the success of the evening to their wonderful leader, Miss Elmo Taylor.

The Monroe County Homemakers Advisory Council voted that each club contribute $10 to the county bookmobile, making a total of $100.

In Bath county, 407 women are enrolled in homemakers clubs, and 914 4-H club boys and girls in agriculture and home economics projects.

JUST FOR FUN, jot down on this page the names of the freight cars pictured here that you recognize. Only ten types are shown — but we have more. Why so many? Because the railroads carry anything, any time, anywhere. So our equipment is "tailor-made" to handle all kinds of shipments in the best, most efficient manner.

Wherever you live in the South, freight cars like these are mighty good friends of yours. There's hardly a thing that's made or used that doesn't involve rail transportation somewhere along the way. In fact, railroads are often the only carrier equipped and geared to do the job.

Today the Southern operates some of the fastest regularly scheduled freight service in America. To our fleet of 50,700 freight cars are now being added 1,200 new-type "easy ride" steel box cars, costing $10 million. And we are ordering 1,500 more steel hopper coal cars costing an additional $10 million.

We are growing with the growing South, with modern equipment and ever-improving service. All in the Southland benefit.

The big hay crop last year is being reflected in the price. Recent ads have advertised hay as low as 30c per bale for mixed hay.

Another bad accident on the old speedway, Taylor Mill, Friday night, in which a teenage girl was killed at Latonia Lakes, further emphasizes the fact that the new cars are so powerful they just get away from the drivers.

Melody Inn, Patsy Brumback's little pet dog died in a dog hospital in Covington last week. An autopsy showed that the little pet was full of lead pencils, Christmas ornaments, bottle caps and anything else it could reach. A freak appetite was the end of Melody, who would hardly touch good food, of which he was given an abundance.

The recent heavy windstorm did little if any damage in this vicinity, we are glad to report.

The past week has been meat smoking weather as evidenced by the smoke coming out of the smokehouses in this vicinity, which proves that those "old country hams" will be plentiful this year.

Henry Pitcher and wife have returned from their vacation in Florida, which was mostly on the good side but a few days were way below theusual temperatures which has been a common occurrence the past few years when the temperature has been abnormal in many sections including California.

Mrs. Ray Darrell had the misfortune to break her ankle one day last week.

Watch for one of the most beautiful springs we have ever had as we have all of a sudden run out of bad weather and are sure due for a break.

A good attendance at Amity Baptist Church Sunday, and also at the Pentecostal Church across the street from our home which shows a great revival in religious interest, which has been evident for some time.

CARD OF THANKS—

We wish to take this opportunity to thank our many relatives friends and neighbors for the many acts of kindness shown us during the death of our son and brother Carl Billy Adams.

We especially want to give our heartfelt thanks to Rev. Elbert Carpenter for his consoling words and words of comfort, Rev. J. M. McClure for his comforting prayer, Peggy Parker for the sweet music, Mrs. Tom Brown and Helen June Gatewood for the beautiful song, the pallbearers those who gave the many beautiful flowers, those who prepared food, those who sent cards and the Stith funeral home for the most efficient manner in which the services were conducted.

Words cannot express the thanks and gratitude we wish to bestow on each and everyone. May God bless each and every one.

KENTON COUNTY FARMS FOR SALE

KENTON COUNTY FARM—George Taylor farm on Rector Road, just off Moffett Road, 60 acres, 51 tobacco base, new pond, plenty water and hay, 7-room house, recent improvements include oil furnace, hardwood on three floors and hall, downstairs painted and papered, picture window, wired for electric range by REA; mostly good land and tractor land. This farm belongs to Claude Taylor and his sister. Claude has been transferred to Frankfort and cannot supervise this farm. They also have available, adjoining this farm, 30 acres without buildings fronting on Moffett Road, if the home place of 60 acres is not enough for you.

KENTON COUNTY FARM—The old Mike Beck farm on Moffett Road at Oak Island Church, 129 acres is too much for the present owner, Mr. Eli Russell, so he will sell all or part, in 25 to 75 acre plots, with or without buildings. Has 5-room house, new bath, insulated doors and windows, tin buildings, including large combination barn, and silo; water in barn, long frontage on Moffett Road, plenty water and hay, mostly all tractor land. Call me and take a look at this farm.

VERONA

Rev. and Mrs. Kelly Kennedy and son, Dwight, were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gullion Sunday.

Mrs. Pattie Williford was calling on Mrs. Della Blann Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Chandler of Cincinnati, were calling on Mayto Hayden, Saturday night and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Wilson spent Sunday with his brother Elbert Wilson and Mrs. Pat Williford.

Mrs. Arnelia Hayden took six of the G. A. girls to the state G. A. meeting at Campbellsville Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

James Whitson of Covington was calling on his aunt Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Edrington Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Martha Hayden is visiting her daughter Mr. and Mr. Richard Edmonson Lexington for a few weeks.

We extend sympathy to Mr. Otis Kendall and son, Lowell, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Salmons, and other relatives in the passing of their loved one, Juanita Kendall, last Monday at her home at Elliston Station.

Mrs. Pearl Lamm, Lizzie Noel and Pattie Waller were calling on Mrs. Grace Renaker, Saturday afternoon.

We were sorry to hear of the passing of Mr. Ed Webster, last week, near Munk. We extend sympathy to his wife, Mrs. Mag Webster, and son, Russell, as well as other relatives, in the loss of a loved one.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Yates spent Saturday night and Sunday with his brother and wife.

Ronnie Kennedy and James Ray Stephenson, who have been quite sick, are both on the road to recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Littrell were visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Littrell, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lamm were visiting his sister who is quite ill.

We had quite a windstorm through our vicinity Saturday. Did a lot of damage. We were thankful it wasn't any worse than it was.

KENTUCKIANS

IN WASHINGTON

By Gil Kingsbury

Kentuckians There:

Kentucky was well represented when the Washington radio and television correspondents held their 12th annual dinner for the President. Mr. Eisenhower, on vacation, was represented by Vice President Nixon.

Seated at the head table were Senator Earle Clements, the activity majority leader, and Maysville's contribution to the Supreme Court, Justice Stanley Reed.

In the Audience:

As in the annual custom, the correspondents had a gift for Mr. Eisenhower—two gold plated vegetable dishes for the family silver service. The cost? $109 each, wholesale. The Vice President received a globe of the world.

Fast Work:

Kentucky tobacco growers were treated to some fast congressional action the other day on that bill to restore the acreage cut.

Congressman John Watts got the House to approve the restoration of the cut without a dissenting vote. Then, about 45 minutes later, Senator Clements and Senator Barkley got the Senate to do the same thing. It's a rare day when both Houses of Congress take similar action in such a speedy manner. And it showed some fine co-ordination between Kentucky members of the House and Senate.

This and That:

Recent visitors to the capital included Fred Macklin, chairman of the Kenton County Airport Board. . . . Dr. Adron Doran and members of the Morehead basketball team. . . . Congressman Brent Spence recovering from a severely injured thumb. . . . Kentucky congressmen appear undisturbed over the new date for the primary. . . . Some semi-private howls were heard over the re-districting bill. . . . and Washington newspapers are commenting on the up-coming senatorial race in Kentucky. Nothing startling, however.

Seventy-seven percent of the 4-H club members of Hardin county completed their projects of the past year.

Thirteen farmers in Muhlenberg county are planning to produce a total of about 500,000 broiler chickens this year.

Pike county 4-H'ers received $60.00 from taking top honors in the regional Kentucky Power Company contest.

Frank Adams and J. Hal Clagett of Grayson county are using electric lights to encourage early laying of turkeys.

MARCH 1st

Now is the time to start to work. All you fellows who have been laying around all winter are either going to work or, the first warm day, go fishing. We sell some fishing tackle every day. I had three fishermen in here today at the same time—Don Murry, Bob Blackwell and Clay Kerns. I was trying to sell them a power lawn mower, but every time they would go back to the fishing tackle. I bought a lot of fishing tackle and display cases early in January but it has not come in yet. We sent two telegrams this week and they promised it before Saturday. We sold several fishing licenses today—they have the fever already.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Hughes were in—Mrs. Hughes was checking on the interior paint, she had heard so much about Jelled Magic paint. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Roberts bought a beautiful Perfection electric range from Brewster—he will install it tomarrow. Beckham Shields was getting a few things and hearing a little. Manford Craft bought a new axe and a set of chisels—I wonder who is going to use the axe? Earl Metcalfe came after a long handle shovel. Brewster and Red set up a coal heater for Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Warner at Richwood. We have two used washers to sell cheap—$15 and $35.

It is about time to repair the old harness and buy some new—we have almost all the parts and a large selection of collars. I sold the last stretcher chain I had today and I wonder if I can buy any more. I sold a heavy log chain and some single trees today. Brewster went down to August Trapp's to service their oil heater—he had some trouble getting there on account of high water. Joe Kennedy bought a hand axe and a wrench. He has a new Super Buick, a very nice one. Gordon Phillips was getting some new eyelets put on his fish rod—he is just getting ready in case the weather warms up.

The boys are buying kites, which is the first sign of spring. We have a lot of new plastic model airplanes. The scarlet fever shut-ins bought me out of model planes and jig saw puzzles. Now is the time to have us lay away a power lawn mower for you. You pay ten percent down and the balance by the week, that way you will have it paid for by the time to mow grass. We have Mastercut, Eclipse and Lawn Boy. I believe these are the three best on the market. Mr. and Mrs. W. W. King bought a 12x15 Armstrong rug. Grace Vest was buying flour enamel. Henry Catlett came after some nails. Mrs. Adrian Durr was in checking on a new water pump, they are having some trouble.

Buster Glenn just came in for three boxes of fuses. If you use the right size fuse in your buildings you will not have so many dangers of fire. Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Bird were in today getting a few items. Frances Chapman stopped to get Mrs. Leonard Cook a quart of Bilco floor enamel. Clarence Vest came after wood bushings for his disc harrow—we were lucky to have them as there are about 50 kinds. Brewster worked for some time on George Hamilton's sink trap—there have been some fine plumbers around here, if you see the repair jobs we get. But CONRAD has the men to fix them.

If not, we have some mighty good friends who are good mechanics. Walton is lucky for this size town to have so many good mechanics. Joe Richardson from Staffordsburg was over today checking on the price of fence. Brewster and Red put in that new Perfection electric range for Mr. and Mrs. Edward Roberts. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kennedy have a good coal range to sell. We have sold several riders of Orangedrug pressed fiber 4 inch drain pipe. Comes in 5 and 8 foot lengths and is very easy to install and lasts a lifetime. I have used over 200 feet myself in past years.

The wind sure did blow last night and today. There were not too many people in town. Henry Renick came after a sprayer and a can of fruit tree spray—he is going to spray his fruit trees. Several came in for window glass, the wind really did blow them out. Dr. Webster had to get some hooks, staples and wire to repair his barn door, and airplane hanger. Mrs. Dock Flint was in checking on a new electric water pump and also repairs for her old one. Judge Oliver came in and said he needed a gasket for a Dayton pump he bought here about four years ago—I went to the bin and gave it to him.

That is the reason I try to sell you Dayton pumps—other people call for repairs and service but do not know what kind of pump or where it came from. Mr. Mullins out on Piner Road had plenty of trouble—two big trees blew down on his house, one of them on his tenant's pickup truck—all his lights were out, therefore his oil furnace would not run—he came over for a small Perfection oil cook stove as they had no way to cook. Harry Johnson had several helping him where the wind damaged his house. Chick sold a lot of pyrex today—this for the price is still high on lighting and cheap on water. We have a good supply of lawn seed and now is the time to sow it and you will have an early lawn. Mrs. Robert Benton bought some paint for her bathroom and Kenneth Conners bought a gallon of bright red truck and tractor enamel. We have the largest selection and stock of paint in these parts, all come to CONRAD for your paint problems. O. C. Young over on Hempfling Road came in today for a few parts to repair his water pump. He said it may be beyond repair so he did not want to spend too much on it, so Brewster took repairs and got a new Elastron jet water pump. He said the new one and it installed it while there.

Deputy Sheriff Scott Resigns; Hogan Named

Change Effective On April 1, Says Sheriff

Ernest B. Kinman, sheriff of Boone County, announced yesterday that Deputy Sheriff Jim Scott had tendered his resignation to take effect April 1, 1956. Mr. Scott stated in his resignation that in order for him to take proper care of his own private business it was necessary that he resign his position as Deputy Sheriff.

Mr. Kinman also announced that Joe Hogan Higdon, who has been associated with the real estate business for the past year has been appointed Deputy Sheriff to fill Mr. Scott's vacancy. Mr. Hogan, 55 years of age who was born in Boone County, and is a graduate of Burlington High School, was employed as a bus driver for the Florence-Cincinnati route for over 30 years. He is married to the former Hilda Mae Houston of Boone County, and is the father of four children. He is also a member of the Hebron Lutheran Church and has been active in civic organizations for the past number of years.

Mr. Hogan stated in accepting this appointment that he will make every effort to serve the people to the best of his ability.

GET POLIO SHOTS NOW

Your boy or girl will have better protection next summer from polio if they receive at least two vaccine shots before the polio season begins says the Boone County Health Department.

This latest government help set aside funds to purchase vaccine for distribution all states. Here in Boone county it is available through the Health Department or your family doctor.

Three shots are needed, the first one should be given now, the second shot two to four weeks after the first, and the third about six months later.

You can lick polio by having your children vaccinated. You are urged to see your family doctor or the Health Department immediately.

Second Son Arrives

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Murray (nee Virginia Lou Schwab) are rejoicing over the birth of their second son, Garner Louis, on February 25, weighing seven pounds and twelve ounces. This was rather an unusual birth because the baby was born in an ambulance on its way to the hospital, and then returned home due to the shorter distance. Mother and baby are doing nicely, according to reports.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Schwab, Walton, are the maternal grandparents, and Mr. and Mrs. Garner Murray of Augusta, are the paternal grandparents. Ben Menke, Walton, is the maternal great-grandfather.

WAYNE ADAMS

Services for Wayne Adams, of near Big Bone were held Wednesday afternoon at the Big Bone Baptist Church with burial in Big Bone Cemetery. Mr. Adams died Sunday night at his home.

A member of a pioneer Boone county family, Mr. Adams was 69 years old and is survived by his widow, Mrs. Margaret Ellis Adams; a stepson Delwin Corder of Dayton, Ohio; a sister Mrs. Ella Weaver, of Walton, a nephew, the Rev. Hampton Adams, of New York City and two nieces.

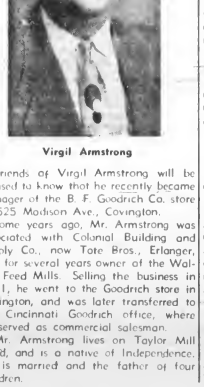
Wa-Na Woman's Club To Elect Officers at Regular April Meet

Mrs Clayton Jones and Mrs James Webster were hostesses for the March meeting of the Wa-Na Club, which was held in the Phoenix Restaurant, Monday, March 5 at 8:00 p. m.

Mrs. Clint in Shields gave the Spiritual Guidance, which was fitting with the coming of the Easter season.

Following the Pledge to the Flag, and the repeating of the Club Collect, the business session was conducted. The club selected a date for a bake sale at Crippin's Department Store Covington, to be held in the fall of 1956. A very successful sale was held this spring and the proceeds used toward the library and the kindergarten.



Delicious refreshments were served to the following members Mrs. Don Rice, Mrs. Leonard Cook, Jr., Mrs. James L. Whitson, Mrs. Clinton Shields, Mrs. Ward Rice, Mrs. Chester Sturgeon, Mrs. Robert Over, Mrs. Wallace S. Grubbs, Mrs. Carl Conner, Mrs. Asa Rouse, Mrs. James E. Falls, Mrs. George Kyon, Mrs. James S. Webster, and Mrs. Clayton Jones.

The next meeting of the club will be held at Jonida April 2, at 8:00 p. m. with Mrs. Carl Conner, Mrs. Jack Conner and Mrs. Elmer Groger as hostesses. All members are urged to be present at this time for election of officers.

Eisenhower Pays Tribute to 4-H Club Members In Letter

President Eisenhower has paid tribute to 4-H club members during National 4-H Club Week, March 3-11, according to Ed McCandless, assistant county agent. Following is a letter to all 4-H club members from the President.

"All of you have my warm best wishes as you look forward to National 4-H Club Week, beginning March 3. In the past year you have added much to your fine record in farming, homemaking, community service and other activities.

"In saluting you, I pay tribute to the 352,000 local volunteer leaders who help make your achievements possible. I am confident you, your parents, and your Extension workers deeply appreciate the capable and generous guidance which these public-spirited men and women have given you toward learning to apply modern science on your farms and in your homes and toward developing a sound sense of values.

"As you improve your talents and undertake responsibilities for bettering your communities, you will continue to contribute to the strength of our free nation.

Boone County Wins District Cage Title; Takes First Game In Regional

Film at Methodist Church

The film "India—Crucible of Freedom" will be shown during the evening worship service on Sunday, March 11, at 7:15 at the Walton Methodist Church. The film has been produced to help commemorate the Centennial of Methodism in India in 1956. It shows something of the conditions when William Butler went to India as the first Methodist missionary in 1856 and then shows progress and growth of the work to the present time. This will be a very profitable and worshipful experience. All are invited to attend.

Completes Repair Course

Army Private William L. Finke, 18, son of William H. Finke, Sanders Drive, Florence, recently was graduated from the small arms repair course at The Ordnance School, Aberdeen Proving Grounds, Md. The eight-week course trained Finke to repair small arms, rocket launchers, mortars and recoilless rifles. Finke entered the Army in October, 1955, and completed basic at Ft. Carson, Colo.

Verona Homemakers Meet

The Verona Homemakers held their March meeting in the beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Hamilton of Walton. The president, Mrs. A. M. Davis, opened the meeting with the pledge to the flag and the reading in unison of the Homemakers Creed.

After the business session, the Home Demonstration Agent, Miss Nancy Guilfoil suggested possible projects for study by clubs for next year, and also gave a list of saleable articles that clubs might make as contribution to the exhibition hall project. The club elected to contribute articles made of copper.

After a delightful noon meal and a short song fest the group convened for the afternoon session. Recreational chairman, Mrs. W. B. McCormick, had devotional, with prayer by Mrs. W. E. Waller, after which Mrs. McCormick led the ladies in a number of lively games.

Red Cross Fund Drive To Get Under Way In County Says Chairman

Ray D. Frost, chairman, has announced that the Boone County Chapter of the American Red Cross is opening its annual March Fund Drive for both funds and members. Like many chapters of other National Civic organizations, Boone County Red Cross is not affiliated with any other organization and makes its solicitation for funds during the month of March each year.

Mr. Frost and the Boone County Red Cross Board hope particularly this year that the quota is made because the National Red Cross has given millions of dollars to the victims of tornados, cyclones, hurricans and flood sufferers, and has used up its emergency and disaster funds and reserves.

The Red Cross is the only civilian organization recognized by the government. Books of the Red Cross are audited once a year by the Army. The organization received its charter with its duties and obligations from the Congress of the United States and must abide by them.

The following precinct chairman were announced by Mr. Frost: Burlington, Mrs. Noel Walton; Constance, Mrs. Ed Ellis; Florence, Mrs. Virginia Goodridge; Hebron, John E. Crigler; Taylorsport, Mrs. June Boocom, and Verona, Mrs. John Scott. Other precinct chairmen will be announced next week, the chairman said.

Those present to honor him on this occasion were Mr. and Mrs. James Simpson, Sr., of Corinth; Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Simpson and children of Devon; Mr. and Mrs. Ottis Shryock of Cincinnati; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Simpson and son, Horace Simpson, of Cincinnati; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dick and Mr. and Mrs. Raeburn Simpson and children of Columbus, Ohio; Mrs. Birdie Cook of Versailles, Ind.; Carolyn Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Lair of Hamilton, Ohio; Miss Barbara Rust, Miss Nora Penick. Mr. and Mrs. Opal 'Dude' Simpson and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Simpson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Simpson and son, Mr. and Mrs. Reamy Simpson and Carol, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Simpson and family, Bobby, Betty and Charlie Simpson, Mrs. Buddy Whitson and son, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Cook and Janice, Don Wagner, and the honor guest and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Opal Simpson. A delicious buffet dinner of ham, turkey and all the trimmings was served.

Afternoon callers were Mr. and Mrs. Al Schwarzwalder and family of Hartwell, Mrs. John R. Rich and children at Covington, and Dan Reynolds.

Mr. Simpson received many nice gifts and all left wishing him many more happy birthdays.

Bearcats Lose Thriller To Lloyd; 2 Overtimes

In the 33rd District basketball meet at Florence, last week, the Boone County Rebels easily defeated Erlanger Lloyd in the finals, Saturday night. Previously, the Boone Countians had defeated Simon Kenton 68-64 in a thrilling game.

The Rebels had to come from the tail end of a three-quarter score of 56-51 to win this post-season return match with the Pioneers. In an earlier meeting, the Independence team had handed the Boone team a 71-66 overtime setback. Brueckner of Simon Kenton led all scorers with 32 points, while Utz and Conner shared honors for the winners with 16 tallies each. Boone County led 18-14 at the quarter and 37-36 at the half before falling behind in the third period.

Bearcats Lost to Lloyd

Erlanger Lloyd staged a great uphill battle in defeating Walton-Verona 51-49 in two extra periods in the semifinals of the district tourney, Lloyd, trailing by 11 points at halftime and by seven at the end of the third period, tied the game at 47-47 at the final whistle. In the overtime, the 'Cats grabbed the lead as Poore scored, but Dees of Lloyd tied it up again with a layup. In the sudden-death overtime, Dees again scored to give the win to Erlanger. Dees led the attack for Lloyd with 18 points while Lightner added 15. Cook was tops for the losers with 14 points, and Hinds added 11.

Boone Wins In Regional Play

The Ninth Regional tournament is being held this at the Boone County gym in Florence, and the top game to date was the Boone County-Newport Catholic affair, played Tuesday night, in which the Rebels ousted the Thorobreds from further competition with a hard-fought 51-49 victory.

Mickey Conner and Lou Crigler each scored 18 points in leading the Rebels to a spot in the semifinals against Covington Catholic. It was four free throws in the final minute of play that broke a 47-47 deadlock to give the charges of Rice Mountjoy the win. A last gasp field goal by Jay Driscoll whittled the lead to 51-49 as the final whistle sounded.

At the half, Newport led 31-25, and midway in the third period had increased their advantage to 35-27. Here Boone County called time and then went to work, knotting the score at 37-37, and then went adhead 40-37 as the quarter ended. Th Thorobreds were never again able to take the lead, but the count was tied three different times in the final period.

More Liberal Credit Terms Announced By Int'l Harvester

International Harvester Company has announced new and more liberal credit terms for the sale of tractors and farm machinery, according to Woody Butler of Butler's Farm Equipment, Nicholson.

The new, liberalized terms involve both lower down payments and longer periods for deferred payments by farmer purchasers. Under the new terms, it is now possible for farmers to buy new McCormick farm equipment in most areas of the United States with as little as 20% down and the balance of the purchase price can be paid off in a period running as long as three years.

The liberalized terms, Mr. Butler said, have been adopted to indicate the confidence of the Harvester Company and its dealers in the fundamental soundness of American agriculture and the fine credit record made by farmers over many years. The new terms are specifically intended to make it possible for farmers to buy new machines which they need to accomplish cost reductions in 1956.

Mrs. Louis T. Schwab returned home Sunday, having spent a week with her daughter, Mrs. Howard Murray, Mr. Murray and two sons of Augusta, Ky.

Mrs. Wilford Dixon, Verona Road, is still on the sick list and is a patient at St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Mrs. Herman Simmons and Mrs. Alfred Hume spent Monday in Covington and Cincinnati.

New Cherry Cream Dessert

Jelly roll, an everyday favorite for desserts, snacks and lunch boxes, is the basis for many party pretty desserts, too.

Marshmallows, cherries and pineapple, folded into whipped cream makes a delicious party coating for the many layered cook book type jelly roll from your grocer's ready-to-eat cake department. It's quick to make, too, with this easy recipe:

Cherry Cream Dessert

1 12-ounce jelly roll	½ cup drained, crushed pineapple
2 cups whipping cream	½ teaspoon vanilla
1 cup finely cut marshmallows	1 tablespoon sugar
½ cup maraschino cherries, cut into bits

Cut jelly roll into six slices. Whip cream stiff. Carefully fold remaining ingredients into cream mixture. Re-assemble slices loaf-fashion on serving dish. Cover roll evenly with remaining whipped cream mixture. Chill thoroughly, 6 to 8 hours. Slice serving portions on the diagonal from alternate sides of the loaf for full beauty of design in servings.

The Taylor Mill volunteer Fire Department has been very busy the past week when they were called to fight three fires. The first one last Tuesday was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Perry on Mills Road. The fire was caused by a defective flue and rather extensive damage was done to the room before the fire could be extinguished. The next day a fire completely destroyed the home of Robert Patrick and William McNay of 5983 Old Taylor Mill Pike. Neither family was at home at the time and neighbors summoned the firemen. The Ladies Auxiliary of TMVFD has been busy all week gathering clothing and household furnishings for these two families. [illegible] Woodiee of Old Taylor Mill Pike [illegible] donated his truck and [illegible] of his time picking up [illegible] donations of household goods [illegible] them to these families [illegible] the fire department was called to extinguish a grass fire that had gotten out of control.

Many people of our community are suffering from a virus infection. Among them are Mrs. Mabel Richardson, Priscilla and Herman Whalen, Connie Tomlin and Elaine Petty.

Rusty Armstrong was in the hospital two days last week with an intestinal disorder that was first thought to be appendicitis.

H. R. Hutchins is still in Booth Hospital from a knee operation but he is improving and expects to be home soon.

Karen and Scott Whalen, Rodney Eg[illegible] and [illegible] King all had tonsilectomies last week.

Mrs. Ed E[illegible] was called to Louis[ville] last week to be with her daughter, Alma Jean B[illegible] who had a gall bladder operation. While she was gone her other daughter, Mrs. Charles Asch of T[illegible] Heights became seriously ill. Both are reported to be improving.

Mrs. Ruby Lipscomb and sister, Mrs. [illegible] Senior have returned home from Hamilton, Ohio after a months visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Kelly have returned from a Florida vacation.

Mrs. Harold Perry was ill Sunday and her daughter, Mrs. Margie Curry, ably supplied for her as pianist at the Oak Ridge Baptist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wiley and son Bill of Lexington were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Thompson.

Airman [illegible] and Mrs. Jack Stucker visited Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Ta[illegible] last week while enroute to their home in Del Rio, Texas.

The W.M.U. of Oak Ridge Baptist Church will have its prayer service for Home Missions on Monday evening, March 12, at 7:00 at the church.

Sighteen members of the Oak Ridge Baptist Church attended the Kenton County Sunday School meeting at Decoursey Baptist Church Tuesday night. Amity Baptist Church was represented by thirty of their members. The program was on church visitation and was very interesting and helpful to the many Sunday School teachers who attended.

The Mother Singers of Taylor Mill School P.T.A. meet the first and third Thursday night, each month at the school. They are practicing the songs they are to sing at the State P.T.A. Convention.

The topic for discussion at the Taylor Mill Civic Association last Thursday nite was how to stop the speeding on Taylor Mill Pike. A committee is investigating the suggestions that were made.

Techniques in tailoring a wool coat or suit were learned in a four-day workshop for homemakers in Oldham county.

Hamilton 4-H Club Meets

The 4-H Club of Hamilton School met February 22. The meeting was called to order with Albert Schwenke presiding. The pledge to the American flag was repeated as well as the 4-H pledge. Minutes of the preceding meeting were read and approved. After the treasurer's report, old and new business was attended to. The song leaders passed out [illegible] books. The group sang "America," "[illegible] Folks at Home," "Onward Christian Soldiers," and "You Are My Sunshine." The song session was closed by [illegible] Baum and Gayla Hubbard singing "The Bible Tells Me So." After the song session, the meeting was turned over to Mr. Ed McCandless.

Mr. McCandless talked to the boys [illegible] their project and passed out [illegible] books to them. He then talked with the boys and girls about the coming Rally Day. The meeting was then turned over to Miss Nancy Guilfoil.

Miss Guilfoil talked with the girls about the sewing and cooking projects [illegible] wanted to know how far along the girls were in sewing. The meeting was then adjourned.

Florence Homemakers Meet

The first of three lessons on "Furniture Refinishing" was taught by Mrs. [illegible] Martin at the February meeting of the Florence Homemakers [illegible] at the home of Mrs. [illegible] [illegible] the importance of choosing [illegible] the proper furniture for the [illegible] and then gave the initial steps in removing the old finish.

Mrs. R. L. Vaughn reported on the recent meeting held at the Florence Community Center on gardening, [illegible] and home freezing. Projects for next year were discussed and Mrs. A. W. [illegible] gave a talk on "Landscaping."

The next meeting will be held March [illegible] at the home of Mrs. John Martin, [illegible] Graves Ave., Erlanger, when Mrs. H. [illegible] Howe will give a report on Ceylon and the second lesson in furniture refinishing will be taught.

Corn Yield is Boosted 64 Bushels by Modern Methods

Yield averaged 123 bushels per acre on "Corn Today" field where fertilizer was added and modern cultural methods used.

MODERN corn raising methods can boost yields by 61 bushels per acre and net returns by $55 per acre compared with methods used 30 years ago, reports the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee, in summarizing results of a Minnesota demonstration.

The demonstration was conducted on the Walter and Paul Wenzel farms near Red Wing, Minn. It was under the direction of Arnold Wiebusch, Goodhue county soils agent and G. J. Kunau, county extension agent, in cooperation with University of Minnesota soils and agronomy specialists.

In this demonstration, a "Corn Today" field, using 1955 methods, yielded 123 bushels per acre. Yields were only 59 bushels on a "Corn Yesterday" plot employing methods common back in 1925.

Harold Jones and Edwin Jensen, of the Minnesota staff, estimated that it cost only 52 cents per bushel to grow corn on the "Corn Today" field, compared with 66 cents on the "Corn Yesterday" plot.

The "Corn Today" field was fertilized three times. Once before planting, at planting time and after the last cultivation. A modern hybrid strain, Minibred was planted on the contour, at the rate of 18,000 to 20,000 stalks per acre. Insecticides and herbicides were applied for insect and weed control. Cultivation was limited.

The "Corn Yesterday" field was not fertilized, although manure was added. An open-pollinated variety of corn was planted at the rate of 12,000 stalks per acre.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

Jesus on History

Lesson for March 11, 1956

HALF way through a movie you may see people getting up and walking out. That does not necessarily mean they are disgusted with the picture. It's just that they came in right there in the first show. "This is where we came in," they say, and they don't care to see the second half of the film twice (give's, by the way. Is a movie or a book, that isn't worth seeing or reading twice, worth seeing at all?) In ancient times, the learned Greeks thought that history was like a motion picture shown over and over again.

Dr. Foreman

If a man lived long enough he could see history repeat itself, they thought. The diagram which to the Greek mind best represented history would be a circle. Fly, moth or man, going around in circles will never get anywhere. History, the Greeks thought, is like that. It moves, but it never gets anywhere.

History Goes Somewhere

The Bible's view of history is a different one. History is more like a straight line than a circle. "Straight" line is too simple. If you will read the book of Judges in the Old Testament you will find a line of history that goes uphill and down in dizzy succession. But crooked or straight, it is a line going somewhere. On a circle you pass a given point. Now, after you have passed that point, are you getting farther away from it as you move or are you getting nearer? The answer is both, of course. Now if history is a kind of circle, then if you ask the question: Are we getting farther away from barbarism, is the world getting better at all? The answer will have to be: It doesn't make any difference. We are farther from that period of barbarism through which we last passed; but we are getting closer to the next period of barbarism. History, bad and good, will repeat itself.

Now the Bible, and Jesus especially, have a different view. The world is moving away from a past that will never happen again. It is moving, we are moving, toward a future that has not yet happened and will happen only once. The course of history is not like a toy airplane that buzzes around and around, captive on a wire; but like a real plane that soars swiftly to its distant port.

History Keeps Going

Human history will have an end, so far as this earth is concerned, some day. (Of course no human being's final destiny would be ended even if the whole human race were destroyed by H-bombs. But we are talking about history on this green planet.) But it is a mistake, as Jesus pointed out, to jump to the conclusion that we are living in history's last chapter. "The end will not be at once," he said. Many times men and women have been sure they knew the end of the world was at hand, but they have always been mistaken. There is a theological seminary which was built by contributions from the churches which it serves. But there were some churches back when the seminary was built, that would not contribute. The end of the world is too close, they said, to be wasting money on brick buildings. It is never wise to refuse to build for tomorrow, for it is never wise to assume there isn't going to be a tomorrow. History is going somewhere, but it will not reach its destination "in nothing flat."

The Goal of History

Where is history going? The Christian answer is: Toward the reign of the Lord Jesus over all mankind. Jesus taught his disciples to look forward to one event above all others: his coming again. Now the Christian church from earliest times has had various ideas about how and when Christ's Coming will be, and what it will mean in detail. But surely no Christian can accept seriously the idea that history just goes on and on, a line that has no direction and no end. God and evil are in conflict; must we believe that this war will never end? On the contrary, Christians are united in believing that what Christ bade us hope for will come true, and indeed many Christians believe that it is beginning to come true now; namely, that God in his own time will bring our time to an end, that soon or late as we count it, but surely, the Son of Man, in power and glory, will be Lord of all.

ACCIDENTS WILL HAPPEN!

But it isn't fate. Just the careless, thoughtless preoccupation of humanity.

No religion can guarantee our safety from accidents like this one.

But the Christian Church offers man safety from greater perils. It teaches him the dangers inherent in his own impulses . . . it shows him his responsibility for the lives and faith of others . . . it stimulates his soul-deep yearning to know God . . . it assures him that life has eternal meaning through Jesus Christ.

Accidents will happen—but spiritual tragedy need not! For the eternal safety of all men, the careless, the thoughtless, the preoccupied: Christ died.

FOR KENTUCKY FOLKS

by Wm. C. Johnstone
AGRICULTURAL REPRESENTATIVE
KENTUCKY BANKERS ASSOCIATION

FARMING IN 1956 — For the past three months experts of all kinds have bombarded us with predictions about what's going to happen in our economic ally speaking in 1956. Although there is some disagreement about what will occur in some segments of our economy, there is general agreement that agriculture will not show much improvement soon. We can't sit back and wait for times to get better for the farmer. We'll have to plan carefully and we will do the best we can to try to cope with whatever comes along. Let us look at some of the factors that will affect us in the coming year.

1. Acreage allotments and marketing quotas for corn, cotton, wheat, rice, peanuts and tobacco are in effect. Farmers will be permitted to plant their allotments of these crops and will receive price support on the amount produced within the allotment. Any production in excess of the allotment will be penalized by a reduction in price support. Marketing quotas are in effect for tobacco. Producers will be permitted to market their allotment of tobacco and will receive price support on the amount produced within the allotment. Any production in excess of the allotment will be penalized by a reduction in price support.

2. Soil bank payments will be made to farmers who participate in the soil bank program. Payments will be made for reducing acreage of crops in surplus and for conserving soil. Payments will be made for reducing acreage of crops in surplus and for conserving soil.

3. Price supports for basic commodities will be at 82½ percent of parity. Price supports for basic commodities will be at 82½ percent of parity.

4. Farm income will be down from 1955 although not enough to offset much of the lower income, can be put into practice in most farms. More exchange of labor and machinery, more soil testing and efficient use of fertilizer, more repairs and less new purchases will all be in the order of the day this year.

BAD BREAKS — In addition to the national "cost-price squeeze," Kentucky farmers, especially tobacco growers, got some other bad breaks this year. They missed to get the cigarette tax reduced as they expected and a law which will increase the cigarette tax reduced. Congress to get the cigarette tax reduced. Congress enacted a law which will increase the cigarette tax reduced. Congress enacted a law which will increase the cigarette tax reduced.

tobacco prices. It looks as if the decrease in the farm vote is decreasing the farmers' influence in legislative matters. Fortunately, however, the tobacco acreage reduction voted last November has been cancelled by Congress.

CREDIT PROBLEMS — The jolt of the 45 million dollar decrease in tobacco income last year and the drop in hog prices is just now being felt. Banks and other credit agencies find that they are holding more past-due notes than usual. This, added to declining farm deposits, will make credit tighter in 1956.

A good credit standing at a sound financial institution is one of man's most valuable assets and he should try to maintain it. Some suggestions which will help maintain one's credit standing are:

1. Meet all obligations promptly. If impossible to do so, consult with creditors before the due date.

2. Have a definite repayment plan. Don't go into debt without knowing how it will be repaid.

3. File a financial statement with your financial institution each year.

4. Borrow only for essentials, and buy essentially only other debt obligations from merchants.

5. Keep accurate records.

6. Make a budget of expected income and expenditures and live within your income.

RECOGNITION FOR 4-H CLUB "ALMUNI"

The recognition of four 4-H club alumni for their leadership in rural youth work was on event of Farm and Home Week at the University of Kentucky. They were awarded plaques by T. W. Whitehouse, state 4-H club leader. Included in the group was William R. Brown, principal of the Piner Elementary Sch. l Piner.

Mr. Brown was expanded the county 4-H program through the initiation of electric and entomology projects, thus interesting non farm boys. A club leader for 22 years, he was a charter member of the Kenton County 4-H Club Council and has served as director and president. His club has had 100-percent completion of projects for the past 9 years.

KENTUCKIANS IN WASHINGTON

By Gil Kingsbury

Future Farmers:

Kentucky Congressman Hatcher is encouraged by the number of young people —380,000 of them—who are enrolled in Future Farmers of America.

He told Congress the other day that we cannot have a sound national economy unless the farmers enjoy fiscal health. The training of future farmers, he added, is a step in the right direction. Steps to assure such soundness. And he also added that such training makes for better citizens.

Politics:

Two stories on politics. Mrs. Pearl Oliver Peck, Kentucky Republican and commissioner for foreign claims settlement urged Republican women to campaign hard to know the issues and to learn of the value of the E extension system. The last that "little woman" was invented long before the telephone.

Senator Kennedy, D. Massachusetts, Democrat told some of party associates the other day a cute story about campaigning.

It seems that the young senator grabbed a cab to go to a meeting. On arriving at the place he was about to give the driver a good tip and, at the same time urge him to vote Democratic. However, he said he instantly changed his mind. "I didn't give him any tip at all and I urged him to vote Republican," the senator concluded.

Job Application:

Have you ever made 14 applications for the same job? That—in effect—is what the dean of the Kentucky congressional delegation is doing. Rep. Brent Spence has announced for office for the 14th time.

Back in 1930 he made his first try for Congress. Although he has managed, with one exception, to win rather easily, the Ft. Thomas man has never been without opposition. As a result of his seniority, he is chairman of the House Banking Committee, the only Kentuckian to hold a full committee chairmanship.

Other Applications:

Other Kentucky Congressmen also are expected to stand for re-election. Noble Gregory has served 10 terms, Frank Chelf six terms, Carl Perkins four terms, John Watts three terms, John Robison and William Natcher two terms, and Eugene Siler one term.

We'd have to go back in history to find a place where an incumbent congressman had been defeated. Several, however, have withdrawn in face of what looked like certain defeat. So you could say that the odds favor the officeholder.

Homemakers club members in Montgomery county are assisting the Mount Sterling Rotary Club, sponsor of a dental clinic, by supervising the children in the health office.

Calloway county 4-H and FFA members have scheduled a hog show at Murray the last week in March.

INSURANCE BUYERS ARE ADVISED BY OFFICIAL

Commissioner of Insurance Cad P. Thurman today warned Kentuckians against doing business with unauthorized insurance companies. A safer practice would be to do business with a firm authorized to transact business in the Commonwealth, he said.

Authorized companies are those which have complied with all state laws, have obtained a certificate of authority to transact business in the state, meet high standards of solvency, and may be used in courts of Kentucky in event of a dispute over a claim.

"One practice that has caused citizens of our state grief is that of buying mail order insurance from unauthorized companies," Mr. Thurman said.

He said that anyone in doubt about an insurance company or whether the agent is duly licensed should contact his office in Frankfort.

SOW BLUEGRASS IN EARLY SPRING

Next to September, February is the best time of year to sow bluegrass seed on lawns, according to Prof. N. R. Elliott, horticulturist at the University of Kentucky. He recommends the use of one-fourth to a half pound of good seed for every 1,000 square feet of lawn. Now is also the time to apply fertilizer, as lawn grass needs feeding as much as any crop, he said. About 15 pounds of any high grade, complete fertilizer to 1,000 square feet of lawn will be satisfactory.

Mr. Elliott called attention to the prevalence of chickweed found growing in many lawns. Unless controlled, it will crowd out the bluegrass. Because it is a shallow-rooted plant, much of it can be removed by raking with a steel garden rake. Grass seed should then be sowed.

A quick way to get grass on bare spots on the lawn is by transplanting sod from a pasture field. Sod that is not frozen may be removed at any time, Mr. Elliott said.

Stanley Reis and T. M. Ruggles were recognized for their work in the Green Pastures program in Lewis county.

CONRAD HAS IT

That is a hard reputation to live up to but I try very hard. A lady came in and wanted a heating element for a Sears Roebuck electric chicken brooder—now that one I could not fill but I did have three other types of elements. Every day someone we never saw before comes in and says they told me CONRAD would have it. Well, most of the time yes but not every time. I started this several years ago when merchandise was hard to get but now there is plenty of merchandise and some merchants don't try to keep as large stock as I do—I try to keep a little of everything in the hardware line.

Herman Rader was in town today bought a Case [illegible] and some other articles—he now lives down in East Bend Bottoms. [illegible] V Walton bought 20 ham bags—said he had always wondered why someone didn't sell a treated bag to store your hams in. When he read my ad about the ham bags he came down and bought [illegible] from Campbell County stop in and [illegible] fixtures—we [illegible] of these parts. Arthur Earl Brooks sent [illegible] Bentemeter us to bring him [illegible] for Maytag washer—he lives in Benton, [illegible] next door to Brooks.

Mr. [illegible] down on Frogtown Road bought a dairy [illegible] pump and [illegible]—these are the only type [illegible] pump that will [illegible]. Ruth V[illegible] and Mrs. Carder up on Edwards Ave. were buying several [illegible] items of household supplies. Mrs. Jim Woods bought two gallons of [illegible] liquid satin [illegible] and [illegible] varnish remover—she had already bought some the other day and used it all. Mrs. John Hopper [illegible] brought in a mixer motor and pressure cooker to be repaired. Frank Grave who operates the Heizer farm [illegible] farm management company bought a 12 plastic cover and 24 cans of Dowfume to prepare two plantbeds for tobacco seed.

Your first cost is the greatest then each year all you buy is the Dowfume—three cans for every 30 and they cost only 95 cents per can. For a 9 x 100 plantbed cover was costs $24.50 9 cans of Dowtume $8.55, applicator and three plastic tubes $4.95 which is a total of $38.00 for the first year and $8.55 for Dowtume each following year. This is the easiest and best way we have ever found to rid your seed bed of weed seed and it makes your plants start quicker—try Dowfume it is easy, fast and safe.

Albert Rhodes and Omer Kite were here—Albert wanted bolts and Omer wanted anchor wire and anchor rods. Clay Nix from Elliston was in today—he is getting ready to start farming before long. Several came in today getting [illegible] and it looks like spring is drawing near. We are ready for the ladies to start house cleaning—wall paper cleaner, soilax, sponges, waxes, rug cleaner, wax remover, window shades, linoleum, paints of all kinds. We have a sample of each of our lawn mowers out for your inspection. Give us a look and check our prices and quality with anyone—we have the best for the price.

March 10 is moving time [illegible] CONRAD'S for linoleum, window shades, stove pipe and everything you break up because every time you move you [illegible] break several items. You always need extra light bulbs and we have a large stock and most every size. [illegible] Wilson just came in after an egg basket so I sold him a wire egg basket which most everyone uses now. [illegible]

George Bilkers came after his fishing [illegible] he got a small paint brush to use in cleaning his fishing reels—he's about ready to go. Mrs. Oni Riley and her mother were in and bought a gallon of Jelled Magic paint—she also traded her 3 year old Mastercut lawn mower for a new Mastercut—she really likes that mower but instead of having the old one overhauled she traded it. Bill Webb traded me his [illegible] mower for a used Mastercut—he used a Mastercut last year and liked it very much. Joe Hoffman and wife were in talking to me awhile. They are very good customers here.

Jim Betts came in after [illegible]. Several have been asking about Dowfume for plantbeds. Les Barlow came after Bake paint and extra teeth for his lawn rake. J. W. Berkshire bought several pipe fittings—he is putting water in the milk house.

Kenton County 4-H Club Council Names Officers For the Year

Robert Jackson, Morning View farmer, was re-elected to head the Kenton County 4-H Club Council for 1956 at the annual meeting of the organization held Tuesday evening, March 6. Also named by the group were Mrs. Ralph Foltz, Nicholson, vice-chairman, and William R. Brown, principal of the Piner Elementary School, secretary-treasurer. Mrs. Herbert Works, Independence, and Stanley Parker, Walton-Route 1, were listed as directors.

Committee appointments included 1956 4-H Fair, Mrs. J. A. Blau, Mrs. Bluch Rich, William R. Brown, Ralph Foltz, and Stanley Bird; project champions, Melvin Strain, Mrs. Herbert Works, Mrs. William Lawler, and Robert Huffman.

Delegates to the Northern Kentucky District 4-H Leaders Council include Robert Jackson and Mrs. J. A. Blau, with J. A. Blau and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Strain listed as alternates. Delegates to the County Extension Advisory Committee were listed as Mrs. Denver Binder, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Stephenson, and Herbert Works.

Speaker at the occasion was G. J. McKinney, specialist in 4-H work for Northern Kentucky. Entertainment was furnished by Miss Patsy Jackson and Miss Nancy Carlisle, county 4-H club members.

The function of the 4-H leader's organization is to act in an advisory capacity to the Agricultural Extension Service in directing the activities of approximately 600 boys and girls enrolled in 4-H Club work in Kenton county.

Those present at the annual meeting were Mrs. Denver Binder, Stanley Bird, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Blau, Mr. and Mrs. William R. Brown, Mrs. John Carlisle, Nancy Carlisle, Mr. and Mrs. George Finnell, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Foltz, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Huffman, Mr. and Mrs. William Lawler, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jackson, Patsy Jackson, Mrs. Bluch Rich, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Stephenson, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Strain, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Works, Miss Zelma Byerly, G. J. McKinney, Thomas L. Riley, and C. A. Wicklund.

VIRGIL E. STEWART

Rites were held last Thursday afternoon for Virgil E. Stewart, 81, of Crittenden, who died March 5, at the Dry Ridge Convalescent Home. Rites were conducted at the Dry Ridge Baptist Church, with burial in Hillcrest Cemetery.

Mr. Stewart leaves his widow, Nettie; four daughters, Mrs. Sylva Lucas of Bullittsville, Mrs. Lelyn Nix of Covington, and Mrs. Goldie Duncan and Miss May Stewart, both of Crittenden, and two sons, William Stewart of Sherman and Jamie Stewart of Independence.

Engaged to Scotch Girl

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew W. Hayes, 64 Midton Road, Ayr, Scotland, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Jean, to A 1c Richard B. Cain, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cain, Station Road, Independence. Airman Cain is stationed at Prestwick A.F.B., Scotland, as a dispatcher.

The wedding will be an event of early October.

Three Youths From This Area Taking Marine Training

Private Arlis G. Davis, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hobert L. Davis, Verona, Route 1, has enlisted in the U. S. Marine Corps. Along with other newly-accepted Marine recruits from the Northern Kentucky Recruiting Station, City Bldg., Covington, he has departed for San Diego, Calif., to begin ten weeks training in basic Marine Corps subjects.

Other youths who have joined from Northern Kentucky are Privates Robert J. Matteoli, Jr., 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Matteoli, Sr., Route 1, South Fort Mitchell, and Don B. Plageman, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. Plageman of Hampfling Road, Morning View.

They will undergo four weeks of advanced training at Camp Pendleton, Calif., on completion of recruit training. They will then return home on leave prior to any further assignment. Matteoli and Plageman, athletes at Simon Kenton High School, were outstanding basketball players.

MRS. CLARA DAILEY

Services for Mrs. Clara Mann Dailey, 82, who died March 6 at her home in Crittenden, were held last Friday afternoon at the Crittenden Baptist Church, with burial in Gardnersville Cemetery.

A native of Grant county, Mrs. Dailey was a member of the Crittenden Baptist Church. She leaves her husband, James T. Dailey, five nephews and a niece.

MRS. BETTY MOORE

Mrs. Betty Jane Moore, 28, Taylorsport, Boone county, died at St. Elizabeth Hospital, March 9. She was a native of Visalia.

Survivors include her husband, Dempsey Moore; a son, Woodvin Roark, Jr.; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Harris, all of Visalia; five sisters, Mrs. Virginia Brown of Cincinnati, Mrs. Joseph Redman of Visalia, Mrs. Lula Heideman of Erlanger, and Mrs. Mary Sanders and Mrs. Jewel Pettit, both of Covington; three brothers, Joseph Harris of Cincinnati, and Albert and William Harris, both of Visalia.

Services were held at the Swindler funeral home, Covington, with Rev. W. L. Birch, pastor of Visalia Baptist Church, officiating. Burial was in Floral Hills Cemetery.

PTA Meeting, March 21

The Walton Verona P. T. A. will meet at the Walton school, Wednesday, March 21, at 3:15 p.m. The president urges all parents to attend, and if anyone desires transportation, please call Walton 749. Plans are being made for a Fathers Day meeting in April.

Simon Kenton PTA Hears Safety Talk At Regular Meeting

The Simon Kenton P.T.A. met in the school cafeteria for the March meeting with Mrs. Thomas Finney, president, presiding.

Rev. William Parker gave the devotional. Capt. Ed Fenton of the Kenton County Police gave an interesting talk on safety. He stressed the use of safety belts in automobiles. A film was shown demonstrating the use of belts. In slow motion, accidents were enacted showing dummies strapped in cars. By using the straps or belts, the dummies were not thrown from their seats. This would prove that use of the belts would help reduce the injuries to the human body. Questions were also asked Capt. Fenton about safety.

Plans were formulated for the Spring Festival, April 6. Booths will feature parcel post, bakery and home made candy, embroidered work, and linens, variety store, fish pond, and other items. Sandwiches, soft drinks, and ice cream may be purchased in the cafeteria. A magic show has been arranged for part of the evening's entertainment.

Mrs. Cox's and Miss Hiteman's room won the attendance award.

Mrs. Harold Hatfhill was elected as president for the coming year. Others placed in office were Mrs. Helen Collins, elected to fill an unexpired term, as vice president, and Mrs. John Butler as secretary. Mrs. Dawson Hightower will continue her duties as treasurer.

Mrs. Bryant Rust had charge of refreshments.

To Sell Flowers for Easter

The Bykota Sunday School class of the Walton Christian Church will be selling flowers for Easter this year. They will have all kinds, including potted plants, cut flowers, and corsages. All flowers will come from the Family Gardens Flower Shop at Florence. Orders may be placed now and picked up on Friday afternoon or all day Saturday (March 30 and 31). Watch this paper for announcement of location of shop.

For best selection, order now - Call Evelyn Rouse, Walton 1483; Maida Holder, Walton 1315, or Ben Doan, Fleetwood 7-5919.

Skating Party, March 27

The C. Y. F. of the Walton Christian Church will sponsor a skating party at the Walton Rollerdrome, on Tuesday, March 27.

This group will also give a youth program at the local church, Sunday evening, March 18, at 7:30 p.m.

All are invited to attend these affairs and support the youth of this community.

St. Cecilia Social Mar. 21

Ladies of the St. Cecilia parish, Independence, will sponsor their monthly social on Wednesday afternoon, March 21, from 1:30 to 4:00, in the church basement. Everyone welcome.

Rev. Atkinson Speaks At Meeting of Walton Woman's Literary Club

"Religions of India," was the topic of a most interesting and informative talk given by the Reverend A. E. Atkinson, pastor of the Walton Methodist Church, and a former missionary to India, at the March meeting of the Walton Woman's Literary Club at the Phoenix Restaurant, with Mrs. Grover C. Ransom, hostess.

The president, Mrs. Julia A. Rouse, conducted the meeting, which opened with the pledge to the flag, followed by the club collect, with Mrs. Sam B. Sluet as leader.

Mrs. James Powers gave the spiritual guidance with a talk, captioned "Trust in the Lord, a cry for help," using the 23rd and 27th Psalms.

Following a talk on "Cancer," a contribution was made to the fund for cancer control.

The club was pleased to welcome Mrs. Luke Jamieson as a new member.

Mrs. Rouse named the following to serve as a nominating committee for officers for the coming year: Mrs. Scott Chambers, chairman; Mrs. Alan Gaines and Mrs. D. L. Lusby.

Delightful refreshments were served following adjournment. Members and guests attending were: Mrs. John Myers, Mrs. Marr Racey, Mrs. Forest Thompson, Mrs. W. O. Rouse, Mrs. A. E. Atkinson, Mrs. Grover C. Ransom, Mrs. W. D. Scroggin, Mrs. Marvin Kendall, Mrs. James Webster, Mrs. J. C. Bedinger, Mrs. C. Scott Chambers, Mrs. D. L. Lusby, Mrs. A. R. Johnson, Mrs. J. E. McCabe, Mrs. James Powers, Mrs. C. W. Ransler, Mrs. J. R. Wallace, Mrs. L. L. Hamilton, Mrs. A. P. Stephens, Mrs. Sam B. Sluet, Mrs. Luke Jamieson, and Mrs. Gertrude Gardt.

LUTHER C. READNOUR

Luther Clem Readnour, 72, Hamilton Landing, Boone county, died Tuesday at Booth Hospital, Covington. A retired farmer and a native of Grant county, Mr. Readnour was a member of Mt. Pleasant Christian Church, Grant county.

Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Myra Sparks Readnour; two daughters, Mrs. Anna Belle Moore of Walton, Route 2, and Miss Ethelyne Readnour at home; four sons, Clifford, Carl and Clarence Readnour, all of Walton, Star Route; and Harvey Readnour of Covington, and three grandchildren.

Services will be held this (Thursday) afternoon at two o'clock at the Hughes Chapel Methodist Church, Beaver, with burial in the church cemetery.

Chambers and Grubbs funeral home, Florence, have charge of arrangements.

Boone Wool Pool to Meet

The annual Boone County Wool Pool meeting will be held at 1:30 p.m., on Thursday, March 22, at the Farm Bureau office in Burlington, according to Robert Grant, president.

At this meeting new officers and directors will be elected for 1956 and plans for selling the 1956 wool crop will be made. All sheepmen are urged to attend this meeting. Last year, pool members got about six cents per pound more for their wool than those who sold elsewhere.

PINER TALENT SHOW

The annual talent show of the Piner Elementary School will be held in the school auditorium on Thursday, March 22, at 8:00 p.m.

Harry F. Johnson, local auctioneer, is to serve as master of ceremonies. Competition is open to any child attending the Piner school. Acts will be judged and prizes awarded. There will be no admission charge.

Girl Scouts to Be Recognized

A special recognition service for members of the newly organized Girl Scout Troop 201 and Brownie Troop 198 of Walton will be held in the local Methodist Church, Sunday, March 18, at 11 a.m. All members who are able to do so are invited to attend in uniform, meeting in the church hall at 10:55 a.m. Members of the families of the girls and the public are also cordially invited.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Slayback, Sr. of Beaver, and Mr. and Mrs. John Slayback of Union, have returned from a two weeks vacation at Miami Beach, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Slayback, Jr., of Beaver, are the proud parents of a daughter, Karen Sue, born March 10, at St. Elizabeth Hospital. Mother and baby are doing nicely. Bobby is letter carrier in Walton.

About two million certified strawberry plants have been dug in Pulaski county.

DEAN-WATTS

Zada Dean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Caldwell, Walton, and Frank Watts, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roosevelt Watts, Horrodsburg, were united in marriage on Saturday, March 10, by the Rev. Kelly Kennedy, pastor of New Bethel Baptist Church, Verona. The attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Patrick, of Walton. The newly weds are living in Walton.

Circuit Judge Is Named

Squire N. Williams, Jr., Frankfort, a former assistant attorney general, has been named special judge to try all cases coming before the Boone Circuit Court, Burlington. The appointment, made by Chief Justice James B. Milliken of the Court of Appeals, covers the period March 12 to June 30.

The appointment was made necessary due to the absence of Circuit Judge Ward Yoger of Warsaw, who is a patient in Good Samaritan Hospital, Cincinnati, convalescing from a heart ailment.

Piner 4-H Club Meets

On Wednesday, March 7, the Piner 4-H Club held its monthly meeting. After the regular business session, members presented a very interesting program.

G. J. McKenny, specialist in 4-H work from the University of Kentucky, attended the meeting. Also in attendance was the assistant county agent, Thomas L. Riley, two of the mothers, Mrs. John Carlisle and Mrs. James Woods, and the club's leaders, W. R. Brown and Mrs. E. E. Mann. Reports on various projects were given by club members, and work is progressing nicely.

Christian Church Services

Services at the Walton Christian Church, Sunday, March 18, are: Bible School, 10 a.m.; worship services at 11 a.m., with Rev. T. F. Reavis as speaker. The youth will have charge of services at 7:30 p.m., with a speaker.

On Wednesday, March 21, at 7:30 p.m., Rev. Mendenhall of Illinois, will be the speaker. This minister is a prospect for the pastorate of this church, and all members are urged to be present.

Teen Canteen Dance At Independence Set For Saturday Evening

The first St. Patrick Day dance to be sponsored by the Teen-age Canteen of Independence, will be held in the American Legion Home, Independence, Saturday evening, March 17. The dance will begin at 8:00 p.m. and will end at 12:00 midnight, with music by Art Rouse and his combo. A donation of 60 cents for stags, and $1.00 for drags will be expected at the door. All teen-agers are cordially invited to attend this community project.

The club is depending on all teenagers in the community who enjoy good music and gaiety to make it a date to attend this affair. Parents and friends are also invited.

Officers and members of the Teen-age Canteen wish to thank the following for donations to the Canteen: Beechgrove Homemakers, H&G Stephens Grocery, Robert X. West, Dr. Franklin Daugherty, Criswell Service Station, R. W. Gross Appliances, Bank of Independence, G. Riley's Market, Dr. Nelson Boyd, Stith's Barber Shop, Pettit Motors, Wilson's General Store, Dr. F. W. Ray, Rita's Beauty Shop, Contractor W. G. Fite, Mayhugh Lumber Company, Nicholson TV Sales and Service, Damon's White Tower Grocery, and Geo. W. Hill Grocery Co. Also members of Moon Bros. Post, 275, American Legion, for the generous donation of their hall and the use of the furniture.

Blackburn, City Attorney

Walton's City Council named Robert Blackburn, of Williamstown, to the post of Walton City Attorney, at a meeting Monday night.

In other action, the board accepted the rules and by-laws drawn up by a group desiring to form the Walton Fishing Club, and gave permission to organize. Fifty members are listed on the roster of the proposed club, which will have headquarters at the city reservoir. The club has not yet elected officers.

Men's Brotherhood to Meet

The Men's Brotherhood of the First Baptist Church, Walton, will meet Monday evening at 7:30. The program will consist of a film, and special music from the Erlanger Baptist Church. Refreshments will be served. All men are urged to attend.

Rebels Take Regional; Play Mayfield In State

JERRY PROFFITT

Jerry Proffitt, age 77, of Middletown, Ohio, passed away at Miami Valley Hospital, Middletown, Friday, March 9. He was a retired contractor.

Surviving are two sons, Dillard Proffitt of Walton, and Millard Proffitt of Evansville, Ind., and a grandson, Johnnie Proffitt of Hamilton, Ohio; also a stepson, Kash Martin, of Verona.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon, March 11, at the Hamilton Funeral Home, Verona, with Rev. Kelly Kennedy officiating. Burial was in New Bethel Cemetery, Verona.

State Trooper Speaks At Meeting of Simon Kenton FHA Chapter

The F. H. A. Chapter of Simon Kenton High School had as speaker at a meeting, Thursday, March 1, Trooper Juett of the Kentucky Police Department. Trooper Juett opened his talk by discussing the "Three C's of Driving." They are courtesy, caution and common sense. Trooper Juett said, "If we do not have courtesy in driving we may cause some other person's death besides our own. If we all drove like we should, with caution, there wouldn't be nearly as many deaths on the highway as there are today. You should always use common sense when driving because you may save the life by so doing. Even if you have the right-of-way and the other driver is in the wrong, you should always use your common sense and save your own life as well as the other driver's."

Trooper Juett ended his talk by telling about his experiences while patrolling the highways. Then he showed a film about two drivers, one a very good driver and the other a very fast and reckless one. In the end, the boy who drove recklessly and tried to show off his new car, ran into another car while trying to pass on a hill. The people in the other car were killed and so was the boy who was such a reckless driver. The girl that was with him was injured for life. This is what happens to reckless drivers who don't obey the laws of safety.

Special guests were the Future Farmers and they, and all the Future Homemakers, enjoyed Trooper Juett's talk and film very much. After the program, Ramona Sallee presented Trooper Juett with a box of candy. He then had lunch with some of the Future Homemakers.

Boone Downs Newport In the Regional Finals

Boone County is representing the Ninth Region in the state basketball tournament began Wednesday night in Memorial Coliseum, Lexington. The Rebels are to face Mayfield, First Region winners, in opening round action tonight at 7:30.

An estimated 3,000 persons, one of the largest crowds ever to watch a basketball game in Northern Kentucky, saw the Rebels take advantage of excessive Newport Public fouling in the late stages to break open a close contest, and win by a 69-59 score, Saturday night in the regional finals at Florence.

The game opened as a fiercely contested battle with the score tied eight times before Newport took a 17-16 lead at the quarter. After Utz registered eight points in the second period to send Boone County to a 33-29 advantage at halftime, the Rebels came on the floor with a vengeance following intermission to raise the count to 37-29 with only 40 seconds gone. Newport never recovered from this disadvantage. Boone led at the end of the third period, 55-49, and moved away in the final period.

Newport could only make nine free throws in 15 attempts to Boone County's 23 for 28. The Wildcats, paced by Turner's 21 points, outscored the Rebels from the field, 25 to 23. Utz led the winners in scoring, with 22 points, while Crigler added 20. However, it was a team victory for Boone County in every sense of the phrase.

Cooperative's Worth Increases

Southern States Cooperative's net worth increased over two million dollars during the first six months of the 1955-56 fiscal year, according to a report presented by C. A. Jackson, Richmond, Va., to members at their annual regional board meeting held recently in Cynthiana.

Net worth of the South's largest cooperative stood at $40,610,000 Dec. 31, 1955, as compared with $37,730,000 for the same date in 1954. Net savings of the cooperative for the first half of the 1955-56 fiscal year totaled $2,078,000 which was one of the largest totals in a comparable period during the past six years.

Approximately 70 mmbers of Southern States Coperative community advisory boards, directors of affiliated cooperatives and Cooperative Service Agency managers attended the Cynthiana meeting.

Purdy Re-elected President

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Northern Kentucky Federal Land Bank, held last week, O. W. Purdy of Waterloo, Boone county, was re-elected president for 1956. A. J. McNees was named vice president. Other directors are Charles G. Watson, Walton; H. W. Bertram, Cold Springs; O. C. Young, Morning View, and R. L. Vincent, Williamstown. At a recent meeting, the board voted to pay a 5% dividend to stockholders of the association.

Girl Scouts, Brownies Receive Pins Tuesday Night In Ceremony

Troops 198 and 201, of Walton, received their Scout pins in a very impressive ceremony at the Christian Church, Tuesday night. Those who were pinned are now official members of their respective troops.

In observance of Girl Scout Week, J. E. Falls will admit, free of charge, all Brownies and Girl Scouts of Walton, and their leaders, to a movie on Friday night, March 16, at 8 o'clock. All Scouts will be in uniform or have their Scout pin on for admittance. Both troops will met in front of the City Building at 7:45 to go to the theater in a body.

This being Girl Scout Week, both troops will be recognized at the morning worship hour at the local Methodist Church, Sunday morning, March 18.

The State Health Department at Louisville cooperated with Hickman county homemakers and presented information on safety practices in the home.

MANY FARMS HAVE WATER PROBLEMS

A survey which the University of Kentucky made in 41 counties showed that about 8,000 farmers in 41 counties must use city water in dry years. Even in wet years many of them have to supplement their home supplies with city water.

Earl G. Welch, University agricultural engineer, says that many springs and wells have failed in recent years to supply enough water. Increased use of water has also made many cistern inadequate. Farmers engaged in dairying or in raising more beef cattle, hogs, sheep and chickens are having increasing difficulty getting enough water, Welch said.

It was pointed out that the filtering or chlorination of pond water and better watershed management are helping to increase the supply of water on many farms. The possibility of establishing community water systems was mentioned by Engineer Welch.

Lord's Supper

Lesson for March 18, 1956

CHRISTIANS are divided about many things; but they are all one in the Lord's Supper. "What?" some one will ask. "Don't some churches refuse to let members of any churches but their own partake of the Communion with them? Don't different churches have different explanations of what this sacrament means? Don't various denominations observe it in various ways? How can you say all Christians are united in the Lord's Supper?"

Dr. Foreman

We Think of Him

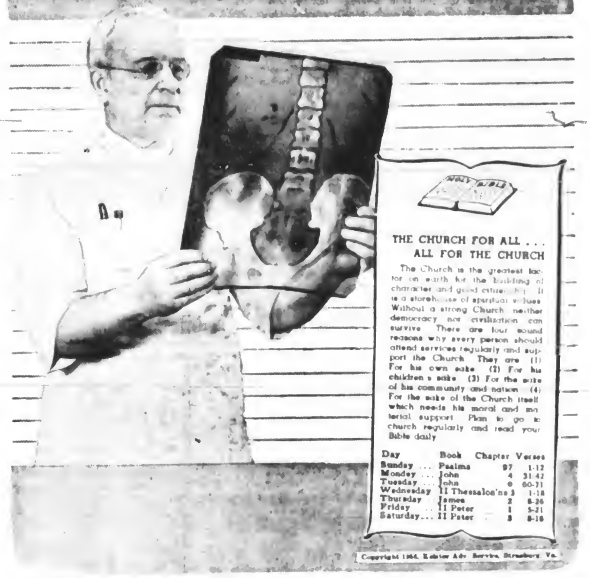
It is true, there are seemingly endless variations in the way the Lord's Supper is observed. Even the name is not always the same, some preferring to call it the Eucharist, others Holy Communion. There are also theologians' debates about it. But plain Christians do unite here even when they may not be quite aware of it. For there are three facts that are always true of this sacred observance, however or wherever it is held. First of all, in the Lord's Supper we think of Christ. It is possible to go even to a Christian church and not hear very much about Jesus Christ on that particular day. (Jesus' own teaching was not always about himself.) But it is not possible to go into a church where the Lord's Supper is being taken by the people without being reminded directly of Christ. Every Christian has heard the words many times—"my body." "my blood." "in remembrance of me." Here are bread and wine, but every worshipper knows that these are not simple ordinary refreshment. They are symbols and signs of Christ, his actual suffering and death on the cross. Whatever the church may be, its members always think of Christ when they take Communion.

We Find Him

There is something more than thinking about Jesus and his sacrifice, when we take Communion. In this sacrament we find Him. It is quite true, different churches have different official explanations about how we find Christ here. But from "High Church" to "low," in "Liberal" and "Conservative," in Catholic and Protestant congregations alike, if you could ask the people as they come out of doors again, "What did that service mean to you?" It might be that some would hardly know what to say, for it is always possible to go through the motions without really thinking what one is doing. But those who had entered whole-heartedly into the service, who had come "in love and charity" and in faith, would all tell you about the same thing. "Christ came very near to me." If Christ seems just as far away after the Lord's Supper as before, then there has been something wrong about us. That is why the Roman Catholic church will not admit any one to communion if he has not been to Confession first. That is why in many Protestant churches the people are warned to abstain from Communion if they harbor malice or ugly feeling toward their neighbors.

We Share Him

If it is true that in the Lord's Supper we find the Lord himself, it should be true—and happily it is so—that afterwards life should go on at a higher level than before. The Lord's Supper is less like a doorway leading from one room to another just like it, than it is like a gateway across a boundary from one country to another. Christ comes to us in the Sacrament, but not as a fleeting guest. If we are serious as we take the bread and wine and think about all this in the quiet of prayer, we will so enter into the spirit of Christ himself that we shall re-dedicate ourselves in his service. It is a kind of parody on Christian ideas to think of Christ's sacrifice as alone and by itself. His cross must be followed by other crosses. His outpoured life must be shared by others who are willing to pour their lives out in turn. And it is this, again, which unites all the Christians who in their many varied fashions have taken this Lord's Supper with devoted hearts. For there is a family resemblance among all real Christians, whatever their church-label may be. And the resemblance goes back to the same Christ, who has shared himself with every Christian everywhere and always who has taken this Bread and Cup.



READING LESSON

Dr. Standish has had years of experience reading X-Rays like this one. To his trained eyes, each light and shadow means something, and this understanding has given new health and new life to countless persons.

But to most of us, this X-Ray is undecipherable. To understand its message, we would have to take a new kind of reading lesson; we would have to spend long hours at study.

Like the X-Ray, many of life's questions seem at first glance unanswerable. Indeed, some are beyond man's understanding. But in Church, we can be taught a new way of reading that makes mysteries far greater than that of this X-Ray seem suddenly, miraculously clear.

If you are interested in the meaning of life for yourself and your children, then profit by the teachings of the Church that have stood the test of centuries for millions of people.

KENTUCKIANS

IN WASHINGTON

By Gil Kingsbury

Cabinet Officers:

We were involved in a discussion the other day on the number of Kentuckians who were members of the Presidents cabinet in years gone by. We have had our share and the first was John Breckenridge who served as Attorney General under John Quincy Adams.

Those most recent was Fred Vinson, Treasury Secretary. In between Breckenridge and Vinson were such men as Henry Clay, Secretary of State; Senator George Bibb, Treasury Secretary under Tyler; John G. Carlisle who held the same job under Hon. Grover Cleveland, and others. Incidentally, both Carlisle and Clay were speakers of the House.

Burglary Tools:

A Kentucky judge, here in the capitol, broke with his associates on the Federal Court of Appeals on a question involving the possession of burglary tools.

Two judges declared that possession of such tools, which might be employed in a crime does not indicate that the owner intended to use them for wrong-doing.

But Judge Wilbur K. Miller, whose home is in Owensboro, disagreed. The prisoner, he said, offered no defense and should be kept in jail. However, the majority ruled and the man, serving a nine-year sentence goes free.

He's Disturbed:

Congressman Carl Perkins of Kentucky took a look at the TVA coal pile the other day and came away disturbed. He reported to Congress that stockpile is small and growing smaller.

All of which moved the mountain Congressman to point out that Eastern Kentucky still has a lot of unemployed miners who could be helped by TVA purchases. And he added that Kentucky mines can produce the best steam-making coal in all the world.

Election Changes:

While Kentuckians back home have debated changes in the election laws, there have been some proposed changes here in the capitol as well.

Kentucky's senior Senator, Earle C. Clements, told Congress the other day that the country needs some modification of its election laws, changes on contributions, tighter control of money spent and other items. Legislation is before the Senate right now and it has the approval of both Democrats and Republicans. Incidentally, the proposed measure merits one income tax deduction on any contribution up to $100.

TDE RECOMMENDED FOR LEAF WORMS

Early spring is considered a good time to plan control for insects on this year's crops, says a statement from the UK College of Agriculture and Home Economics. Dr. G. M. Bouch, entomologist, leads off with a tip for controlling one of the principal pests of tobacco.

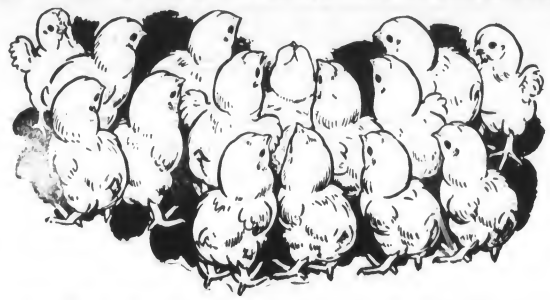
Endrin and TDE are the most satisfactory insecticides for hornworms on tobacco, says Dr. Boush. Some insecticides other than these two will kill hornworms, he explains, but they are not recommended for tobacco because they may cause disagreeable odor or undesirable residues that can lead to downgrading or rejection of the crop when marketed.

Either endrin or TDE is available from insecticide dealers as dust, ready for use, or in the form of emulsifiable concentrates and wettable powders to be mixed with water and applied as sprays.

Endrin and TDE are poisons—endrin being more toxic than TDE—and they should always be handled with care and in strict accordance with the manufacturer's directions.

STATE AID TO NEEDY

Needy residents of Boone county drew $5389 through the State Department of Economic Security in February, which administers the public assistance programs, is was announced by Commissioner Vego E. Barnes.



Total old age assistance grants for the month were $4650, while aid to dependent children grants in the county were $539, and needy blind grants were $200.

Let's keep it that way!

IT'S A FINE THING to have the "welcome mat" out for a new factory on opening day. But it's not enough! A community's long-range industrial growth and prosperity depend on sincere and continuing hospitality to industry, long after the welcoming committee has gone home. This is a job for all of us in the South today.

The steady, year-by-year expansion of existing industry is impressive proof that the job is being done. Southern industries are getting an honest day's work for a fair day's pay... understanding acceptance of technological progress, which ultimately creates still more jobs... honest, stable, friendly state and local government and fair tax treatment... efficient, dependable rail service.

With all of us doing all we can to welcome new industries to the South and to keep them happy in their new home, the Southland will continue to grow and prosper. And all in the South will benefit!

Shortage of Freight Cars May Hamper Fertilizer Movement

THE serious shortage of freight cars was cited as a reason why farmers should act immediately to order and take delivery of fertilizer for their 1956 crops.

"This car shortage could become so severe in the months immediately preceeding spring," says the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee, "that fertilizer producers might not be able to move raw materials in needed volume from phosphate and potash mines to factories.

"That in turn could mean localized shortages of fertilizer at the moment Corn Belt farmers need it most.

"Farmers, therefore, can serve their own interests best by ordering fertilizer now and taking delivery as soon as it can be arranged."

Transportation specialists report that the present car shortage may last for some time, the committee says.

The freight car shortage exceeded 20,000 at times last fall, while carloading totals were at a peak. It is tapering off seasonally during the early winter months, but it could become critical again in spring.

Farmers can serve their own interests best by ordering fertilizer and taking delivery now while the factories can get raw materials, says the committee.

But if farmers delay taking delivery now, fertilizer will pile up in factory storages and dealers' establishments. Cutbacks in production would have to be made and the flow of phosphate and potash from mines to producers would slack off.

Then when the spring freight traffic peak arrives and everybody wants fertilizer, there might not be enough to go around, says the committee.

The rail freight transportation problem is complicated by a steel shortage hampering production and delivery of new cars, says the committee. The railroads are expected to have on order 140,000 new cars early in 1956. But the present squeeze on steel supplies may slow down some deliveries until 1957.

Walton Homemakers, No. 2

Walton Homemakers Club No. 2 met at the home of Mrs. Martha Sleet in Erlanger, for the February meeting. After singing the "grace" song, a covered dish luncheon was served. Afterwards, the meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Bessie Smith. Members answered roll call by relating something they remembered happening on Valentine day. The lesson was given by Miss Nancy Gaither, home agent on refinishing old furniture and picture frames.

Members present were: Mrs. Sam Sanders, Mrs. James Johnson, Mrs. Charles Alexander, Mrs. James Riddell, Mrs. Charles Spriggs, Mrs. William Fitzhanan, Mrs. William Smith, and the hostess, Mrs. Martha Sleet.

Due to a wedding the club will not meet on the regular date. Due notice will be given.

A registered Durac sire has been purchased for the 4-H pig club chain in Nelson county.

The Trimble county 4-H advisory council is planning to sponsor fat stock and poultry judging teams.

Mrs. T. E. Woodard, Alcalde county agricultural extension clerk, has resigned. Mrs. Woodard is raising hams from Home Agent Mary Wood and has several hundred in curing every year.

Just A Thought

A certain girl likes to put perfume on her letters. One day, before mailing a postcard to her boyfriend, she put drops of two different kinds of perfume on it. Question: Does this make it a two cent postcard?

Films on Japan

Recently, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Berry had as guests Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Walters. Mr. and Mrs. Alf B'Hymer, Mr. Maude Brumbach and children Tommy and Judy, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Robert Wise and daughter Judy. The view movies of a film event from [illegible]. The film was colorful and showed by Castle the many interesting sights and happy events of Sapporo and maidens offered by the Japanese government for tourists. Some of the films showed Japan from the air and showed some very good close ups of Mt. Fujiama and another highlight the film showed were all seasons of the year. Winter sports such as skiing and the celebration of Christmas to the warm summer time when flashy sport shirts and kimonos are worn by the Japanese.

All film was taken by Lt. Richard Dorsey son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas Dorsey and their granddaughter, Sara, and daughter in-law, Lota, were the most anxious to be seen by the viewers.

Coffee and homemade cakes were served after the films and all enjoyed the evening, even Mr. Walters, who started the evening off with a flat tire.

Social and Personal

Dawson McDonnold at Cody Road, has been nursing a back ailment.

Hickory Grove WMS

The Hickory Grove W.M.S. met at the church Tuesday night. Several were absent because of sickness. We missed them very much. Glad to hear they are much better. The program, "Make Me A Blessing," was very interesting. The Week of Prayer night was held at Martha Maddox's on Thursday night with two of our members that were sick present, Mrs. Franklin Lipscomb and Mrs. William E. Durr. So glad to have them able to be with us. We studied about the needs of missionaries in Alaska, Costa Rica, Panama, Cana. Zone and many other places. We hope that through our prayers and small offerings we can be of some help. We know that through prayer many things can be accomplished. The need of missionaries and buildings are needed in all parts of the world. Our next meeting will be held at the church the first Tuesday in April at eight o'clock. We do wish more ladies of the church would become interested in our missionary work and be present at our next meeting.—it is asking so little when so much is needed.—join us in prayer, please.

Doctors' Building Completed

Wolfgang Fite, local carpenter and contractor, has been doing some mighty fast hammering in order to have the Independence Doctors' Building completed by the latter part of this week. Dr. Franklin Daugherty will begin transferring his supplies and equipment, etc. this week in order to make ready for final steps to open his office to patients next week.

The building, having formerly been Melody Inn, will also have parking facilities in the rear of the structure.

Skating Party

Sandra West, chairman of her Sunday School class, for a skating party at Jimmie's Skating Rink, Erlanger, reported a wonderful time was had by all who attended. They were Sandra West, Leslie Howell, Carol Bailey and Alma Gibson.

March . . .

The month of March has been known to contain all the weathers of the year, from heavy winter snow to the warm summer rains, the high cold winds from the north, to the warm, gentle breezes from the south. It is the month that usually winds up the cold, nippy air of winter and brings in the warm trend of spring. March is the beginning of preparing yourself for many days ahead of outdoor life and cleaning up your grounds and homes for more useful living.

To me, it means that our area will take on a more lively look. You become more energetic and you sorta stretch out, ridding yourself of the cramped-up feeling that only winter can cause. Next week, the 20th, is the first day of spring and already you can notice the busier atmosphere around you; the grass and shrubs are greener, the trees are budding and above all, the robins are more plentiful, a sure sign of spring being near.

Your neighbors and friends, after a casual "hi" seem to linger awhile longer to gab, than to hurry off about their business. Yes, the month of March is a rough month and, though we will be glad to see it through, it does bring out the best there is in us.

Fire Causes $3000 Damage

Not too long ago the Independence and Community Volunteer Fire Department was called to Vernon Colston's home to extinguish a fire caused by a faulty flue. Last Thursday the Taylor Mill Fire Department fought a house fire which caused an approximate loss of $3,000 to the house, rented by Robert Patrick, and owned by Vernon Colston. The cause of this fire was on over-heated stove.

Local Hotrod Club

Some of the fellows in this area have been forming a hotrod enthusiasts club and will hold a meeting in the American Legion Home in Independence, the latter part of this week. They have expressed the desire to obtain membership large enough to be able to have a track for their own use, for drag races; to have as members, men who know engines and various ways to "soup-up" a jalopy, and persons who are enthusiasts for such a sport.

The above club will be one of many that have been formed in the Northern Kentucky and Southern Ohio district within the past few years and all now have a large membership roster. It not only keeps speeding cars within a boundary but also promotes safety measures for use in autos in the future.

Remodeled farm homes in Calloway county include the addition of bathrooms, bedrooms and built-in kitchen cabinets and sinks.

"Where One Stop Does All Your Shopping"

Conrad, Sales & Service

The largest item we have today is the service after we make a sale. When a country merchant makes a sale he has to give a lot of service with it. People will go down town and buy appliances and other merchandise and never bother about the service on it, but when we sell it they give us a call when it does not work—that is what I want you to do. So buy your merchandise in Walton, where you can get service. We have the best mechanics in this town, as there are anywhere. If you want service, buy it from CONRAD, and I will see that you get the best of service.

Mrs. Ed Elmore bought a lot of Bolee paint, interior gloss and Jelled Magic. Mr. and Mrs. Donald Baker from Florence, had heard so much about Jelled Magic paint that they bought 4 gallons, to try it. Bill Durr came after 40' of angle iron. Red and I cut it up for him. Mrs. Emily Cleek came after 4 rolls of barb wire—Jake is sick in bed and not able to be out. We send him our regards. Lee Collins, from Elliston, was in getting some fence and eye bolts. Bertha Jack bought a 9x12 linoleum rug and a piece of linoleum in 9' width.

Here came Portwood and his wife from Kenton county—you know the one that makes all the noise—they bought a stepladder and 30 sq. yds. of linoleum. That Portwood is a character—we have a lot of fun with him. Mr. and Mrs. Riley Prather bought Jelled Magic paint and several other small items. Robert Behymer, from Zion Station, was here and bought several handles for his rakes, shovels and axes. Chester Sturgeon came after 25 lbs. of Bondex for his concrete walls. J. V. Walton came down after a water pump to pump some water out of his basement up at Crittenden—he took a pitcher pump to try his luck.

We have been selling water stop and Sta Dri during these wet days, but it is a bad time to put in cement—you should wait until the water quits coming through, then plug the holes and give the walls two coats of Sta-Dri. We have had very good success with this, only a few complaints and mostly where the walls and floor meet is where it is hard to stop the water. It is so hard to keep up with who buys what—there are four of us waiting on customers and I miss so many and what they buy, but try so hard to get all of them. Omer Kite and Russell Baker were talking several minutes, but I did not see what they bought, as I was busy in the side room.

A very miserable, cold day, but we have these in March, and very few people came to town. Mr. and Mrs. High on Green Road, bought Jelled Magic paint. We have so many to come in and ask about Jelled Magic paint. Bill Scroggin and Chick worked on and fitted up a water pump for Bill. This is a gear pump with 1½" suction, and it pumps 3200 gallons. Dawson Ballinger, from Kenton county, was in—he always stops in when in Walton. J. B. Spegal bought wiring material and pin-up lamps. Travis Dunn bought 50 lbs. of Sta Dri for his concrete walls.

Mrs. Schuler on Alta Vista bought Sta Dri for her basement walls—she had used it before, just wanted to paint the walls a coat to brighten them up. Mrs. Turner down at Banklick came in and told us what a nice repair job we did on her venetian blinds. Brewster retaped and binded them for her. Orin and Vera Britt from Concord church neighborhood, bought Jelled Magic paint, window glass, Sta Dri, brush and Dowfume for that tobacco plant bed. Mary Piner came up today and got Armstrong linoleum and plastic window shades. Robert Bell had Red cut him some steel bars and drill some holes for him. He also bought a gallon of red paint for his gates.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Ryan were here, bought enamel ware and plastic window covers. J. C. Reynolds, from Taylor Mill Road, bought barn door hooks, the wind has been working on his barn doors. We have been getting in new merchandise all week, first car for the town and garden, a fertilizer distributor for the lawn, lawn roller, a large shipment of water hose, a large shipment of glass after the hard winter, a shipment of lawn seed, also egg baskets. A new supply of Jelled Magic and rubber base paint, a shipment of thermos jugs and picnic chest, also plastic clothes basket, dish pans, wash basins and baby baths.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen, daughter and granddaughter, from Fleming, were over today buying a few small items. Betty Webster bought some Jelled Magic paint, she has used several gallons of this. Myrtle Webster bought two gallons of Jelled Magic. Roland Timm is going to paint two rooms for her. Gilbert Conger bought the best spinning rod and reel we had—he is going to ask some fishing real soon. My good friends and customers, Mrs. Nell Kelly and Miss Mary Collins, were in today buying a few items. Virgil Perry bought his wife the best lawn broom I had. Elza Hudson bought tobacco canvas.

Ralph Hightman and Joe Richardson were here getting bolts and pipe fittings. C. H. Chance brought two pounds of lawn seed for his lawn. This week you are going to need tobacco seed, canvas, tobacco seed sower, garden rake, lawn seed, lawn fertilizer, lawn brooms, Dowfume for plantbeds, paint for house cleaning, wall paper paste, wall paper cleaner, linoleum, window shades. George Whittaker, down on Bristow Road, bought Dowfume for his plantbed, canvas and tobacco seed. Mrs. Leonard Cook, Jr. bought several items and some paint. William Brown was looking over our lawn mowers—he may need a new one. Brewster and Reid sold J. B. Spegal at Fleming a complete bathroom outfit—he already had the pump and electric water heater.

Farm Bureau Bill On State Gas Tax Signed Into Law

A gasoline tax refund bill embodying objectives of the Kentucky Farm Bureau Federation was signed into law recently by Governor Chandler as Burl St. Clair, State Bureau president looked on.

The refund bill was a major aim of our legislative efforts, St. Clair said. He added that he conservatively estimated that the refund would amount to saving the $1,500,000 to $1,700,000 Kentucky farmers many of whom have declined to apply for the rebate because of lengthy forms that required certification of how each gallon of gas was used.

The law simplifies procedure of refunding to Kentucky farmers state taxes they have paid on gasoline used in production of agricultural commodities.

The State Bureau urges farmers to take immediate advantage of the new rules. To afford farmers immediate benefits of the new law, we have volunteered to distribute refund forms through county organizations," Mr St. Clair said.

The only information required from the farmer is name, address and gasoline permit number, total number of gallons purchased with invoices attached, total number of gallons used in tractors on highways and total number gallons on which refund is claimed.

Real Estate Agents And Auctioneers Must Be Licensed

The Kentucky State Real Estate Commission advises that by state law, passed by the last session of the General Assembly, all persons operating as real estate agents or auctioneers anywhere in the State of Kentucky must have a state real estate license on or after July 1, 1956, or be in violation of the law.

Previously the Real Estate License Law applied only to those persons selling real property belonging to others and located in or within five miles of a city of the first, second or third class. The 1956 Amendment is designed to give maximum protection to citizens in every part of the state. If a real estate agent or auctioneer can furnish satisfactory proof that he was engaged in the real estate business as such as of January 1, 1956, and does not reside in or within five miles of any of the first three classes of cities, he would be eligible for a license without taking the written examination. He must however, post a 3,000 commercial surety bond and apply prior to July 1, 1956, otherwise the written examination is required. The new amendment does not apply to persons residing in or within five miles of the first three classes of cities.

Any person desirous of obtaining a real estate license should communicate with the Kentucky State Real Estate Commission 1129 Kentucky Home Life Building, Louisville, Kentucky, for the purpose of obtaining the necessary application forms. After July 1, 1956, all persons applying for a real estate license must pass a written examination, which are only held every three months.

The Commission further urges that all facts indicating misconduct of real estate agents or auctioneers be submitted to it for appropriate investigation to determine if a license should be suspended or revoked. After July 1, 1956, unlicensed real estate agents and auctioneers cannot legally collect for their services.

The Commission is composed of Edwin V. Sprowl, chairman, Louisville; J. Argyle Beeler, Louisville; G. W. Ammerman, Jr., Covington and H. Bemis Lawrence, secretary counselor, Louisville.

Study Is Planned On Rates Paid For Auto Insurance

Commissioner of Insurance Cad Thurman today launched an investigation to determine whether Kentucky motor vehicle buyers are being overcharged by finance companies on collision coverage.

He announced a request has been made to all companies writing collision insurance directing them to mail a questionnaire to each insured individual to determine the number of vehicles improperly classified.

The difference in premium rates between classes amounts to a sizeable sum, said Commissioner Thurman. He explained that collision coverage on financed automobiles falls into two classifications. Class one applies when there are no operators in the insured's household under 25, and class two is applicable where there are operators under 25.

The Commissioner urged persons receiving questionnaires from insurance companies to fill them out and return them promptly, to determine whether there is an overcharge. Mr. Thurman said, "We have every reason to believe that the practice of misclassification resulting in higher insurance premiums to the policyholder, is being carried on extensively in Kentucky."

"It has also come to our attention that some vehicle buyers are not provided with a duplicate of their policy as is required. The law requires that a car buyer be informed of finance charges and insurance charges and they not be presented as a package deal without indicating the premiums charged and coverage provided by the policy."

Youth Revival To Be Held at Florence Church; Starts Sunday

Beginning on Sunday, March 25 and continuing through April 1, the young people of the Florence Baptist Church will lead in a revival, starting at 7:45 each evening.

Jan Fields

"Jan Fields, one of our local boys, a fine young Christian and a great pracher, will be the evongelist. Jan is one of our finest young men, true to the Word of God and not afraid to preach the truth as taught in the Word of God. Charlie Utz will be in charge of the music, and a fine program has been arranged, with special music in all of the services.

"We feel that what we need in Florence, and in all other communities, is a revival that will lead us to see that sin destroys and that Christ is the answer to overcoming this mighty monster, the devil, that is seeking to destroy our nation, our homes, and our young people. The reason for this special week is not just because of the season of the year, but because we are concerned about the spiritual life of our church and our community.

"This is a special invitation for all to attend these services and see a fine group of young people serving the Lord and leading in this great crusade for Christ."

FLOWERS FOR EASTER

The Bykota, Sunday School Class of the Walton Christian Church is now taking orders for flowers for Easter. Flowers come from Family Gardens Flower Shop at Florence. Corsages are priced from $2.00 to $3.50; potted plants, $2.50 to $3.50; orchid corsages $5.00, and cut flowers at varying prices.

The class will appreciate any orders and it is hoped you will get them in soon. Please phone Evelyn Rouse, 1483; Maida Holder, 1315; or Ben Doan, FL 7-5919, and they will take your order. Flowers may be picked up Friday afternoon, March 30, or any time Saturday, March 31, at the Colston-Speagle Coal building on North Main Street.

Union Easter Sunrise Service

A Union Easter Sunrise service is being planned for Easter Sunday in the Walton Baptist Church, commencing at 7:00 a. m. Pastors of the local churches will participate in leading the service and a united choir is being arranged to lead the singing. It is hoped that all Christians will attend to give a united witness to our faith in the Risen Christ and the power of His resurrection.

Full Particulars To Be Explained Tonight

A meeting will be held at the New Haven School, Thursday, March 22, at 8:00 p. m., to decide the issue of a swimming pool for the Union area. This is a community project, and would be non-profit. All income would go toward loan payments, operational costs, improvements, and cutting swimming fees. The pool would meet State Board of Health regulations in every respect, with pure water, bath house facilities of adequate and sanitary conditions, qualified life guards and attendants.

The equivalent of 300 families subscribing each to a $35.00 family membership for the year will be necessary to get the project under way immediately. The $35 would enable an entire family to swim any time the pool is open, all summer. Guests at the pool would have to pay 85c per adult and 65c for children, under 12, in order to use the pool.

Full particulars will be explained at the meeting this evening. If interested in such a project, you are urged to be present.

Infantile Paralysis Meeting

An important meeting of the Boone County Chapter, National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, will be held Tuesday evening, March 27, at the Fire House in Florence, according to Mrs. R. J. Schwenke, county chairman. The meeting will begin at 7:30.

Edward J. Fike, state representative of NFIP, will be present to assist the chapter in plans for the coming year. Officers for the year will also be elected.

Officers now serving the chapter, besides Mrs. Schwenke, are Bruce Ferguson, Union, co-chairman; Quentin V. Kent Florence, chairman of March of Dimes; R. G. Maurer, Florence, secretary, and John O. McEvay, Burlington, treasurer.

Piner Homemakers Meet

The March meeting of Piner Homemakers was held with Mrs. Robert Elliott, as hostess. Discussion of the characteristics of the new materials for rugs, upholstery and sheer curtains with special emphasis on nylons, sarans and rayons was given by Mrs. William Wolterman.

Ground Observation Corps of Walton One Year Old March 23

A special meeting of the Walton Ground Observation Corps will be held on Friday, March 23, at 7:30 p. m., in the Walton City Building.

The local Ground Observation Post will be one year old March 24, and in honor of this event, the post is going to conduct a membership drive. The post has a quota of 100 members, and at the present time there are only 25. Members are going to conduct this membership drive the week of March 26-31. Those who are approached for membership and do not have time to take part in the corps will be asked for a small cash donation to help provide some of the things needed to carry on this work.

Post Supervisor John T. Still said, "This is your country just the same as it is the country of members of the post, so why not joint the Walton Ground Observation Corps?"

Another Technician Added

The Kentucky Proved Sire Service, affiliated with American Breeders Service, has recently added a third technician to their organization. Lewis Cottongin, Shelbyville, is the newly employed technician. He will service Shelby and adjoining counties.

Technicians and their wives were recently honored at a dinner meeting held at the Hotel Donald, Williamstown.

KENTUCKIANS IN WASHINGTON

By Gil Kingsbury

The Truman Book:

The second volume of former President Truman's memoirs has been published and Mr. Truman declares that Kentucky's Alben Barkley could have won the 1952 Democratic presidential nomination had he remained in the race. Washington has been discussing that subject recently.

We have to disagree with the former president. First of all, Mr. Truman's endorsement of the great Kentuckian came too late to be effective. And it was not as strong as it could have been. Secondly, the Stevenson forces had the convention well organized and it was apparent from the moment the opening gavel banged the Democrats to order.

Most Popular:

Looking back on it now, there is no doubt that Senator Barkley was the most popular man in the convention but the Stevenson managers had sewed up the vote and it was all over before any changes could be made.

But let's get back to the present. Senator Barkley, a great campaigner, has been named chairman of the Senate Democratic Campaign Committee. That group is dedicated to getting Democratic nominees elected. So it means, too, that the veteran Kentuckian will be on the stump this year. He succeeds his Kentucky colleague, Earle C. Clements, who is running for re-election and can't hold the chairmanship.

Sweeping the Floor:

We have all heard the story about Senator Barkley's school days, how he had a job as janitor in a small Kentucky school.

Last week Mrs. W. J. McCoy died in Washington and her obituary revealed that her late husband, the Rev. W. J. McCoy, was the principal of the school where Mr. Barkley studied and labored to get his formal education.

Mail Call:

To Montgomery County educator: Hopes are fading for a federal school construction program. . . . To Harrison County reader: Robert McCormick, NBC commentator in Washington, is a native of Danville. . . . To Gallatin County writer: Kentuckians in the capital refer to that important project as the Warsaw-Markland Dam these days. . . . To Lewis County sportsman: The new high level dams along the Ohio should improve fishing if anti-pollution efforts are successful.

The correct pruning of trees was emphasized by Oldham county homemakers at their January club meetings.

Signs reading, "Letcher County 4-H Clubs Welcome You," will be placed by the County 4-H Club Council on five major highways entering the county.

Plans have been made to provide telephone service for 55 additional farm families in Boyd county.

Several hundred farm record books have been distributed to farm families in Graves county.

SPORTS ACCIDENTS CLAIM 28 LIVES IN THE PAST YEAR

A total of 28 persons lost their lives while hunting and fishing in Kentucky, during 1955, according to a survey recently completed by the Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources. Sixteen of the fatalities occured as a result of fishing activities, and 12 were killed while hunting. In addition, 19 persons suffered non-fatal hunting injuries and four were injured while fishing.

The report showed that five of those killed in hunting accidents were under the age of 15, five were between 40 and 65, and two were between 20 and 40 years of age. Of the 16 who drowned, five were between the ages of 20 and 40, six between 41 and 65, and three were over 65.

Poster Contest Planned By Chiropractic Auxiliary

National Correct Posture Week, being held the first week in May, was the topic of discussion during a recent meeting of the Auxiliary of the Northern Kentucky Chiropractic Association, held at Cabana Erlanger.

Initial plans were made for the Correct Posture Poster Contest, which will be held at that time. Fifth and sixth grade pupils will be eligible. Prizes and rules will be announced at a later date.

The following Auxiliary members were signed on the Poster Contest committee: Mesdames T. J. Begge, M. E. Hartung, D. A. Triggle, P. J. Reikow, G. T. McGuley and E. R. Royce.

NOTICE—BIDS WANTED

Bids will be received by the Walton Baptist Church for 30 tons of ½-inch crushed gravel, delivered, and spread on parking lot. Bids must be in by March 28, 1956.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS
BY DR. KENNETH A. FOREMAN

Christ Suffered

Lesson for March 25, 1956

WHENEVER we ask, Why? about anything that happens, we can mean the question in either one of two ways. Sometimes we mean both. Perhaps we mean to ask, "What were the events that led up to this one? What were the causes or forces back of this event, pushing it, so to speak, out of the Not-Yet into the Now-and-Here?" Or perhaps we mean to ask, "For what purpose did this event take place? If it was a means to an end, what was the end? Did any man, or did God, have a purpose in bringing this event to pass?"

Dr. Foreman

If we ask, Why did Christ suffer? We can mean it in the first way mentioned just now. In that case, the answer is very easy to see, or the answers rather, for there was no one reason why he was crucified. Jesus suffered because Pilate was a coward, if the governor had stood up for what he knew was right, Jesus might have been saved from an unjust sentence. Jesus suffered because the Pharisees were jealous and had found no other way of getting rid of their most troublesome critic. He suffered because he was courageous; if Christ himself had been timid, he could have avoided Calvary simply by keeping quiet and leaving the country.

He Died for Our Sins

All such reasons it is the business of history to ferret out, and it is of some importance to know them. But the other question is not so easy. No historian, as a historian, can see it. Only the eye of faith, (which may indeed belong to historians too) can see the great pattern into which this dreadful event fits, this dreadful event of the death by torture of the best person who ever walked this earth. We could not have guessed it. We need God's Word to tell us what it means. What purpose did God have in mind? What was Jesus' own intention? We know what Jesus said the night before, to his disciples as he gave them the cup: This, he said, was the cup of the New Covenant, "in my blood," poured out "for you." We know what he had said months before (Mark 10:45), that he came to "give his life a ransom for many." Now the Bible tells of a Christ who was totally, from his soul's core, at one with God the Father. What Christ intended, God intended. Christ's death was for a purpose which God had had (as the Bible expresses it) from before the foundation of the world. It was not for his own sake, it was for the sake of his friends. Even more, it was for many who were not his friends. "While we were yet sinners, Christ died for us," Paul says (Rom. 5:8). "He is the expiation for our sins, and not for ours only, but for the sins of the whole world," John says (1 John 2:2).

How Can This Be?

Many people fight shy of this great truth. Sometimes they are slow to believe it just because it seems too much to believe. Here I am, a single human being on a small planet. Would the Creator of the Universe actually go—not to trouble only, but to agony and defeat, for my sake? Well, if a person thinks that way, we must admit to him that it is indeed a miracle, the greatest conceivable. But there is another reason why people are shy about believing that Christ could have died for our sins, for anybody's sin. How can one man's suffering atone for another man's sins? There are two answers to that, which are part of one answer. One is that Christ was not just a man, he was the Godman, "God-made-man." The other is that he identified himself with sinners, with the worst and weakest, the race of man.

His Death Was in Character

Jesus' death at Calvary was not out of line with his life. If there he "took the rap for sinners" as Dr. Hordern puts it, this was not a new and sudden shift in his life-purpose. From the beginning of his service in this world he had been so closely identified with sinning men that he was called in scorn "friend of sinners" and indeed at last executed as a criminal. No wonder Paul can say, "He who knew no sin was made to be sin for us." Yet this remains all over our heads unless we too identify our own selves with him. To say "He is the Savior of the world" is not enough. The final step is to discover, "He is my Savior. For He took my place."

INDEPENDENCE R-1

We are very glad to report the sick ones in our community some better—some are not able to be out yet but are improving.

We would be very glad to have a few weeks of sunshine, especially the farmers who are getting very anxious to burn their tobacco beds.

Our attendance at Staffordsburg Sunday School and church fell off considerable Sunday for some reason. Several were visiting and some were not able to be out. Hope more will try to be back next Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Lasey and son, J. B., and Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Losey called on Mr. and Mrs. Will House, Sunday afternoon. Mr. House, who has been a patient at St. Elizabeth Hospital, is back home and is slowly improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster Armstrong are expected home in a few days from Fla.

Misses Helen Richardson, Barbara Giles and Raymond Giles attended the basketball tournament at Lexington, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Barnett and little daughter spent the weekend with relatives in Mt. Sterling, Ky.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Willoughby and little daughter were Saturday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Parsons and children.

Mrs. Mary Rice and son called on her sister, Mrs. Paul Damon, and family, Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Dawson Ballinger spent Sunday with Mr. Ballinger's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Will Brannock of Kirtot. Mr. Ballinger's sister, Nannie, accompanied them home for a little stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Richardson spent Monday last week with relatives in Campbell county.

Rev. George Miller and family were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Rim and family on Taylor Mill Road.

Mrs. John Shaw entertained for the Staffordsburg church choir practice last Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Barnett spent the weekend with their daughter and family Mr. and Mrs. Roy Martin, of LaGrange.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Parsons and children entertained for dinner Sunday in honor of Mrs. Parson's father's birthday. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Riley, Chas. Riley, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hanna, Mr. and Mrs. Wynford Riley and little daughter of Lexington, and Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Riley. All departed wishing Leslie many more happy birthdays.

—Remember prayer meeting very Wednesday at Staffordsburg, 8 p. m. Everyone is welcome.

Forty-seven homemakers in Nelson county are enrolled in a class on weight control.

A campaign is under way to test all cattle in Webster county for tuberculosis.

Each 4-H club in Harlan county will set at least 1,000 tree seedlings supplied by local banks.

Don't buy a truck blindfolded...

Choose any yardstick of comparison you can name—you'll find no other truck measures up to today's bigger, more powerful DODGE.

Prove it yourself. Give the new truck you may be thinking of buying a good, thorough going over. Dig into its payload rating, horsepower-to-weight ratio, cab size, performance, and price. Get the facts, right from the engineers' specification book. Then take time to . . .

Check Dodge. Match every one of these points against what you get in a DODGE truck, and see how much more Dodge gives you for each dollar you invest.

You owe it to yourself to get the best buy for your money, so be sure to get your Dodge dealer's deal before you decide—before you make the unfortunate mistake of paying more for your next truck and getting less.

Easier on driver—especially with automatic transmission. You get the largest cab for greater comfort, largest wrap-around windshield for greater safety.

Easier to turn. Dodge has industry's shortest turning radius—requires much less effort to park, make U-turns, maneuver through heavy downtown traffic.

Easier to load. Low body-floor means just an easy lift from ground to truck, saves you work every time you load, every time you unload.

Easier on gas. Dodge higher horsepower-to-weight ratio means less pulling effort required of engine, assures greater efficiency, maximum gas economy.

WHITES TOWER

Race track talk for this area is slacking up and latest rumors have it that Twin Oaks will be the place where the track will be built which sounds reasonable on account of transportation costs and difficulties.

The writer and wife and Mrs. Jesse Webster made a flying trip to Walton, last Thursday, where Mrs. Webster picked up 2,000 strawberry plants at the express office. We ran into an old acquaintance in Wilbur Kelly who is now a letter carrier in Walton.

Bide-A-Wee farm had four sows to farrow last week, the first bringing us 7 pigs, the second one 10, the third one 12, and the fourth one 14. If we had only had three more we could probably have broken the record at 20.

Farmers are getting a little jittery about tobacco prospects as the weather at present looks like tobacco bed sowing is a long way off.

A big, new building in the Tower has seven or eight smoke stacks and as soon as we find out what it is all about we will inform our readers.

Vandals recently opened up the valves in the tanks at the new church across the street, which drained the tank and resulted in a loss of 260 gallons of fuel oil and in addition they tried to remove the 200-pound lid on their cesspool but were frustrated in the act and warned and can thank their lucky stars that they got off that easily. It seems that God's people are very patient and forgiving.

Bud Rice and wife of Cincinnati made a flying trip to Bide-A-Wee Saturday night with two pounds of black pepper and other ingredients to use on his ten hams which we are smoking for him.

We have about enough green hickory for several people to smoke their meats and if you are interested, call FL 7-5432 and we will supply you.

Bob Mathis of Camp Hungry was a business visitor at the farm, Sunday. He wanted to be sure he didn't miss an issue of our newsy paper.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Simmons of Lipscomb Road, announce the marriage of their daughter Betty Sue, to Russell Lee Lustes of Covington, son of J. F. Lustes of Richmond, Ky. The wedding was performed by Bro. Bob Brumback, pastor of Amity Baptist Church, at the church on Friday evening at 8 p. m., March 16.

VERONA

Mr. and Mrs. Stormy Linton and baby of Wilmington, Ohio were visiting her mother, Mrs. Oval Lunsford, and son Terry Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Tim Lamm entertained Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Reffitt, Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Reffitt and Freddy Reffitt and Miss Barbara Ledford, all of Erlanger and Mrs. Etta McManama and Flonnie Edrington of Verona, Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Lamm is feeling some better, we are glad to report.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert K. Porter entertained with a birthday dinner Saturday evening for their little granddaughter, Deborah Ferguson, who was two years old. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Norman Ferguson and Deborah, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Waller of Crittenden, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Jones of Crittenden Road, Mrs. Pattie Waller and son, Billie Mac, of Lexington, Marvin A. Waller and Miss Bettie Casper and Bobbie Porter, Jr., all of Cincinnati, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Porter.

Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Hayden and Carolyn Mary Sue Gaines and Mrs. Martha Hayden were calling on Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Chandler.

Orville Willeford of Bloomington, Ind. spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Pat Willeford, and Elbert Wilson.

Several attended the all-day meeting at New Bethel Sunday. The baptismal service was held at 2:00 p. m. Sunday afternoon. There were nine baptised. There were some who could not come to be baptised Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hobart Greenwell of Erlanger, were calling at the Fred Hamlin home a little while Sunday afternoon. They had been down to see the Ohio River, which is getting pretty high.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Hughes spent Monday night with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Edrington. They were returning home from Miami, Fla. They said they had a nice trip. The orange groves and flowers and things were so pretty, but they were pretty tired out from such a long drive.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to express my thanks to all who sent cards, letters and gifts, while I was at the hospital, also since being at my niece's apartment. God bless every one. Miss Alicia Neumeister

Super Safe. You can order Startena with a built-in coccidiosis control. It's the best control ever tested by Purina Laboratories.

Super Economy. It takes only 2 pounds of Super Startena per light breed chick, 3 pounds per heavy. This is a real saving, because most feeds recommend 3 to 4 pounds of Starter—or more—before the chicks are ready for a growing ration.

SAVE THIS AD—IT'S WORTH 25¢ on the purchase of Purina Disinfectant and Purina Chek-R-Tabs, when bought together. Disinfect the brooder house with Purina Disinfectant. Keep drinking water safer with Purina Chek-R-Tabs. Bring this ad in and take advantage of the 25¢ discount. This offer expires July 1, 1956. Cash value 1/10 cent—void where restricted.

Staffordsburg W.S.C.S. Meets

The W. S. C. S. of Staffordsburg Methodist Church was entertained in the home of Mrs. John Shaw, Thursday evening, March 8, with a good attendance. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. George Miller. The opening song was "He Hideth My Soul," which was followed by prayer by Mrs. Earl Hanna. Several scripture verses were read by Mrs. Miller, and a play was presented by the program leader, Mrs. Agnes Barnett, entitled "New Faces." Among those taking part were Mrs. Billy Cummins, Mrs. J. J. Barnett, Mrs. John Shaw and Mrs. George Miller. It was well arranged and very impressive.

Miss Emma Yates then gave the third chapter of the study book on the Himalayas. Miss Yates presented it in her very interesting way and each one enjoyed it very much. The meeting was then opened for any new or old business. The reading of the secretary's report was approved as read. Roll call was then answered by twenty members and two visitors. The society was glad to welcome as members, Mrs. R. C. Armstrong and Mrs. Dewey Parsons.

The April meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Dawson Losey, New Taylor Mill Road, with Mrs. Billy Cummins as hostess. The meeting will be called to order at 8:00 p. m. April 12.

The meeting was dismissed with prayer by Mrs. Miller, after which refreshments of home-made cakes, tea, and coffee were served by the hostess, Mrs. Shaw, assisted by her mother, Mrs. Spradling. We extend a special invitation to all ladies of the church and entire community to come and visit these meetings and also to become a member of this group.

SPRING IS HERE!

The calendar says spring is here but to get out or look out you would not think so. But I hope by the time you read this, the weather is warm. Our weather is bad enough but up East they are really having plenty snow. If you have the spring fever, come to CONRAD'S, we have fishing tackle, if you don't want to work. We have hoes, forks, post hole diggers and most any kind of tool, if you have to work. We have all kinds of paint for those who want to decorate their home. Spring will make a big change with everyone when that warm spring air blows.

Mr. and Mrs. Eltrie Henderson, from Gallatin county bought the new fad color pink for painting a bedroom. J. V. Walton was back today getting a few items. Bill and Frances McCormick were in today—Bill bought three door locks and Frances bought another glass shelf for her flowers. Mr. and Mrs. Stan Eichholz over on U. S. 42 bought flower pots for her african violets. Mr. and Mrs. Jim Riddell were buying a shower gift—Jim got his sheep shearing knives and combs I had sharpened for him. Get your knives and combs in early to be sharpened.

Today Bolce sent down 100 gallons of Bolce outside white paint at the old price so I can still sell it for 4.95 per gallon as long as this lasts. I sold another power lawn mower today—these are going to be ready for the grass as it grows. I sold Mr. Monarch out at Boone Lake an apartment size electric range. Mr. and Mrs. George Klein were over today buying ham bags and kitchen utensils. Helen Richardson was in a few minutes as was Mrs. R. C. Durr buying a few kitchen gadgets. Several were buying paint—I did not know them—we do a whale of a paint business because we have such a large selection and a low price.

We had more fishing tackle buyers—that new display really catches their eye and its right where they can pick it up and look at it. Bob Morgan just completed Mr. Dodson Turner's bathroom—we sold Mr. Turner the material and Bob installed it. Today we sold tobacco seed, lawn seed, garden rakes, pitchforks, log chains, wiring material, copper pipe and fittings, plastic pipe, pitcher pump, ham bags, tobacco canvas, coal hod, bolts, nails, light bulbs, enamelware, tea cups, aluminum paint, stove pipe, flat bar iron, plow handles, keg of No. 8 nails, 1 dozen 10-inch files, tool grinder, axe handles, steel wedges, aluminum wedge for chain saw, inside door locks for house door, and lots of other items.

Brannon, the furniture manufacturer, bought a lot of cabinet hinges. If you need furniture made, like you want it see Brannon. Ed Elmore, the saw log man, will cut your lumber like you want it. You can cut down your tree, take it to Ed, then to Brannon, and have a real piece of furniture. We have all kinds of mechanics around here. Mr. and Mrs. Donald Baker from Florence were back after more Jelled Magic paint—they really like it.

Mrs. Baker bought a new iron board with pad and cover. J. B. Spegal was back today—he is getting ready to install his bathroom. Mr. and Mrs. John Hanks were in after linoleum—they are moving [illegible] from Readnour's Feed Store. Ruth House came after white undercoat and gray enamel for her bedroom furniture. Dodson Turner was in today—his bathroom that Bob Morgan just installed is all OK. He bought a very nice medicine cabinet. We furnished all the material. If you need a bathroom, kitchen sink, water heater, water pump see CONRAD and save money.

I went over to Henry Robinson's sale—it was a cold, snowy day but I saw a lot of my customers and friends. Not too large a crowd but the bidding was real good. Delbert Mossman, who had already bought the farm, bought the team [illegible] a very nice team. While I was gone Bill [illegible] bought a [illegible] pound bag of [illegible] Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hodges bought a 12x15 [illegible] rug [illegible] and [illegible] his and Mary's fishing [illegible] family really love to fish [illegible] for 21 years and good ones too.

Bernard Stephenson was in a few minutes—the whole Stephenson family [illegible] bought their hardware from CONRAD'S for 21 years. I could name you lots of families who have been good customers [illegible] I have been in business and I really appreciate them. The families around here have changed a lot. There are not too many here now that were here 30 years ago when I moved to Walton but we have a lot of new families who have moved here that are real folks too. My clerks and I often talk about what a fine group of faithful customers we have and we try to be just as faithful to them.

My good customer Mrs. T. C. Crume called for me to send her some color cards—she is going to do some decorating in her home. Mrs. C. O. Carlisle is really well satisfied with the paint job Jelled Magic did and Roland Glenn who put it on said it worked wonderful. Mrs. Everett Bickers was in for several quarts of paint—she is getting started and will need some more. Mrs. James Tomlinson and daughter, Mrs. Fox bought everything from toys for the boys to a closet pole to put in the clothes closet.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hanks bought a new Maytag washer—I had other washers but when I show these Maytags they always buy Maytag. Conner Carrol was in, needed galvanized pipe for his cistern. Estill Hudson bought trace chains. Bill Coyle bought fish hooks and it was snowing outside. These fishermen just can't wait, they are ready any day now. Come to CONRAD'S!

Total Homemaking Program at Simon Kenton High School

The 1955-56 total homemaking program at Simon Kenton High School consisted of class work, home projects and a chapter of the Future Homemakers.

The idea that twelve and one-half years are many things taught in a homemaking class is by and not true because the three tasks and clothing, there are units on buying, child care, relationship, management and health. These are known as the "seven Areas of Homemaking."

In Homemaking I and II this year the girls have planned, prepared, cooking, dressing and serving simple breakfasts, lunch and dinner. Making my best, the construction of a simple skirt, helping at home, enjoying and caring for small children, growing up mentally, emotionally and physically, living in the home making department, being thrifty with time, money and energy, and safety first.

Through these units, first year homemaking girls are learning skills in doing many of the activities centered in the home. They are learning how to have and maintain good relationship with their family members and those in their school and community with whom they come in contact.

The Homemaking II girls have planned more advanced units to include the Seven Areas of Homemaking. These units have advanced the second year girl in her relationship with others, in her home making skills, and in her ability to manage this family's time, energy and money.

The home project program at Simon Kenton consists of three home improvements per girl per year. These projects are done in the areas of home making mentioned above. There was a total of 267 projects done during the school year of 1954-55, in addition to summer projects completed.

Included in the total homemaking program at Simon Kenton is a chapter of the Future Homemakers organization. This is a national organization of pupils who study homemaking in junior and senior high schools, and FHA'ers work together for better and happier home life for everyone now and in the future.

The emblem of the Future Homemakers means a great deal to all girls in the local chapter. It is octagonal in shape and bears the name of the organization at the top. Around the bottom is the motto: Toward New Horizons. In the center is a house supported by two hands symbolizing that the homes of America are in the hands of its youth.

The colors of red and white are used for courage and firm determination to succeed, and white for purity and integrity of youth.

The flower of the organization is the American Beauty red rose, which is symbolic of vibrant glowing health, which contributes to the happiness and efficiency in home and community life.

Several activities keep the officers and members busy and interested in the organization of Future Homemakers. Outstanding programs have been a skit on "Sharing Home Responsibilities," given by a group of sophomore girls, and State Trooper Juett, who gave an interesting talk and showed a film on "Highway Safety." Another interesting talk was on "What I Expect of a Baby-Sitter." On November 3, the girls went on a field trip, visiting the Boone County Airport and the Singer Sewing Center.

A real money-making project is the annual chili supper. The FHA girls prepared the chili and served this as a part of the "Families Together Project." Another money making project which also renders service to the home, school and community is the scrap drive. The FHA girls get trucks and go out and pick up all the junk that no one wants and then take it to the junk yards. The group also participated in the birthday pennies for UNESCO and the State Scholarship Fund, which are also National projects.

Many of the girls are working on degrees. Twenty are working on junior degrees, 24 on chapter degrees, and Jo Ann Heideman and Marilyn Friedman are working on state degrees.

Homemakers and leaders in Allen county report that good grooming and make-up lift the spirit as well as improve personal appearance.

Last Chance for Easter Flowers

This is your last chance to get your Easter flowers from the Bykota Sunday School Class of the Walton Christian Church. The class has been taking orders and will continue to do so until Friday evening. You may phone your orders to Evelyn Powell, Walton 1483, Maida Holder, Walton 1315, or Ben Dugan, Fleetwood 7-5919. Also, on Friday afternoon, March 30, from 3:00 to 5:00 p. m., there will be someone at the Collister-Spragg Coal building on North Main street. All orders may be picked up at the same address on Saturday.

The flowers come from the Family Florist Flower Shop at Florence. Corsages are priced at $2.00 to $3.50, while children's bunny corsages are $1.00, potted plants $2.50 to $3.50, orchid corsages $5.00, and cut flowers at varying prices.

The class will appreciate any orders and it is hoped you will get them in soon.

Senior Y-Teen Banquet Held at Simon Kenton High School, Mar. 13

The Senior Y-Teens of Simon Kenton High School, Independence, held their annual "Pa, Ma and Me" banquet on March 13, at 7:30 p. m. The president, Barbara Rust, welcomed the guests.

The meal, which consisted of chicken, green beans, mashed potatoes, salad, drink and dessert, was served by the Hi-Y boys. During the meal Jackie Sipple led group singing and Jackie Cain gave a humorous selection.

Shirley Collett then presided over the program. A daily devotional was given by Thelma Collett, Ruth Kanatzar, Dixie Barberick, Violet Lipscomb, Donna Lancaster and Jozetta Flickinger. Songs consisted of a duet by Margie Bridges and Wanda Brautigan; a solo by Wanda Brautigan, and three songs by a quest singer, Tom Price, of Holmes. The accompanist was Donna Schuster.

Recognition of seniors was given by Norma Elliott. She told of each girl's accomplishments and presented each with a carnation. Eulonda Estes and Judy Rohmiller gave tributes to Mom and Dad. Mrs. Estes and Mr. Rohmiller gave the response to the tributes.

Mrs. Bryant Rust closed the meeting with prayer. The Y-Teens thank all who helped make the banquet a success; also, thanks to Dana Wilcoxson, a past president, who gave a short talk.

EASTER SERVICES AT METHODIST CHURCH

On Thursday, March 29, at 7:30 p. m. the service of the Lord's Supper will be observed at the Walton Methodist Church, and all believers in the Lord Jesus Christ are invited to this service. This will be followed by an all-night vigil of prayer. Plans are being made to have at least two or three persons present for prayer from 8:30 p. m. to 7:30 a. m., Good Friday. As many as would come are invited—the list is posted inside the church door; mark up the time you will be present.

A Good Friday service will be held at 7:00 p. m. Meditation on the "Last Words of Jesus."

Boone County Cancer Crusade Opens Next Week; Goal $2368

The month-long educational and fund-raising crusade for the American Cancer Society will be launched April 2, 1956, according to Mrs. W. D. Scroggin, Boone County Chairman. Its goal is to reach every person in Boone county with life-saving facts about cancer and to raise a quota of $2,368.00 for research, education, and service to patients.

During the month every adult resident in the county will be asked to strike a double blow to cancer—with a checkup and a check—a medical examination as a safeguard against the disease and a contribution to support research, educational and service programs of the society.

April was designated Cancer Control Month by Congress, and in a proclamation by President Eisenhower, the public is urged to give full support to the ACS campaign. In the face of the rise in incidence of cancer, expansion of the over-all attack on it demands more funds that ever before. Despite the increase in such incidence, we know that encouraging progress is being made in saving lives from the nation's No. 11 killer. ACS doctors tell us that with greater effort, and especially through earlier detection of cancer, it will be possible to save twice as many as the 80,000 persons estimated to have been saved from it in this country in 1955.

During the last decade much progress has been made against cancer through research. Improved methods of diagnosis and treatment are saving many lives annually, and there are many promising leads towards wider and better control. Yet, the American Cancer Society is compelled each year to reject worthwhile research projects because of lack of funds.

Mrs. Scroggin is confident that our many volunteers will carry the crusade to the people of Boone county, and reach both goals. "We feel," said Mrs. Scroggin "a successful Cancer Crusade last year through the fine cooperation of hundreds of people who are well aware of how important each and every dollar is that is contributed to this cause."

The 1956 Crusade in Boone County will be launched with a tea at the home of Mrs. Scroggin, near Verona, on Friday, April 6, at 2:00 p. m. All workers are urged to attend.

REVIVAL AT KENTON

Revival services will be held at the Kenton Baptist Church from Monday, April 2 through Friday, April 13. An able evangelist has been secured, Bro. W. Robert Shettler, pastor of the Pleasant Ridge Baptist Church in Pendleton county. Services will be held at 8:00 p. m. each evening. At 7:30, each night, a prayer meeting will be held. The church bus will be used at every service. Everybody is welcome. There will be special singing by all groups during the meeting.

"Our prayer is," said the pastor, Frank Kuriger "that the Lord of the Harvest will send His power in the midst of the harvest."

Fiskburg OES Variety Sale

Fiskburg Chapter, 334, Order of Eastern Star, will hold a variety sale at the Covington Market House on Saturday, March 31.

CHILDREN'S PICTURES TO BE TAKEN FREE AND PUBLISHED IN WALTON ADVERTISER

It is an undisputed fact that the responsibilities of tomorrow's world, our nation, and community will rest upon the shoulders of the children of today. Since this is true, the publisher of this newspaper would like to give you a good look at these future "World Builders."

The only way we can do this is by publishing pictures of them in a feature series. To assure the latest and best reproduction pictures they must all be of uniform size and quality, thus we have invited the Woltz Studios of Des Moines, Iowa, a nationally known portrait studio, to take these special pictures for us.

An expert children photographer for the studios, with all the necessary equipment for this specialized work, will be here Friday, April 13. Pictures will be taken at the Walton City Building in the Fire Department office, and will be open from 10:00 a. m. to 5:00 p. m.

No Charge to Parents

There is no charge to the parents. There are absolutely no strings to this invitation. It is bonafide in every sense of the word. Parents do not have to be subscribers, nor even readers of this newspaper to take advantage of this feature. Neither are they obligated to purchase pictures after they are taken. Those who want some additional prints may obtain a limited number by arrangement with the studio representative when they select the pose they want printed in the paper. It is entirely up to them.

The Most Pictures, the Better

The Walton Advertiser simply wants pictures of all the youngsters and the more, the better. So the mothers and fathers of the communities in which this paper circulates should remember the date Friday, April 13 at the Walton City Bldg., Fire Dept. office, and not fail to bring their children to the photographer.

You will be mighty glad, afterwards, if you did, and very, very sorry if you do not permit your children to participate in this event. The kiddies will have much fun and both mother and dad—and the youngsters, too—will be very proud to see their pictures in print later.

MRS. SARA HUEY

Mrs. Sara C. Huey, a charter member of the Union Baptist Church, died March 20 at St. Elizabeth Hospital, Covington at the age of 94. She was a native of Gallatin county, but had resided in Union many years, and celebrated her 74th wedding anniversary August 19, 1955, with her husband, James Huey, who is also 94. Mr. Huey is a retired farmer.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Huey leaves a son, Joseph A. Huey, president of the Union Deposit Bank; a daughter, Mrs. J. O. Taylor, Bluefield, W. Va.; seven grandchildren, and 13 great-grandchildren.

Services were held Friday morning at last week in the Tabernacle Baptist Church, Erlanger, with burial in Highland Cemetery, Ft. Mitchell.

NATHANIEL RICHARDSON

Services for Nathaniel R. Richardson, 73, of Walton, Star Route, were held at 2:00 p. m., last Friday at the Beaver Lick Baptist Church. Burial was in Rest Haven Cemetery, Cincinnati.

Mr. Richardson was a retired clerk for the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, having been an employee of the company for 30 years. He was a member of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, and of the Beaver Lick Baptist Church.

He leaves his widow, Mrs. Neva Richardson, a daughter, Mrs. Vova Strecker, Creston, Iowa; a stepson, Jack Stidham, Cincinnati; three brothers, Robert Richardson, Walton, Charles Richardson, Olney, Ill., and Otto Richardson, Cincinnati, and two grandchildren.

The Chambers & Grubbs funeral home, Walton, had charge of arrangements.

SENIOR PLAY, APRIL 6

The senior class of Walton-Verona High School will present "Junior Mister," a farce comedy in three acts by Barry Heenan, on Friday, April 6, at 8:00 p. m., in the school auditorium. Tickets go on sale this week—reserved seats 75c and general admission 60c.

Proceeds from the play will be used by the class to help finance a trip to Washington, D. C., during cherry blossom time. Your support will be greatly appreciated.

New Haven 4-H'ers Meet

A 4-H Club meeting was held at New Haven School, March 19. Joy Feagan called the meeting to order, and the 4-H pledge was repeated. A few songs were sung, after which Phyllis Kirtley read the minutes, which were approved. Mr. McCandless showed a film of interesting places in Kentucky.

Officers Elected By Boone County Wool Pool at Annual Meet

The following officers were elected: Robert E. Grant, Petersburg, president; Ben A. Riley, Union, vice president, and Beckham Shields, Walton, secretary and treasurer.

Mr. Shields reported, at the meeting, that about 20,000 pounds of wool was received by the pool in 1955.

Mr. Grant urges all sheepmen to contact their directors concerning selling their wool. Sacks and twine may be picked up at the following places: Gulley's Store, Burlington; Florence Feed Store, Florence; Goodridge's Grocery, Hebron; and Conrad Hardware, Walton.

To Make Paper Collection

The senior class of Walton-Verona High School will collect newspapers in Walton and Verona, on Saturday, March 31, starting at 10 a. m. They request that papers be in bundles. They will appreciate your cooperation.

Bake Sale On Saturday

The Ladies Aid Society of the Walton Christian Church is sponsoring a bake sale March 31 at Ryan's Hardware and Dry Goods store, beginning at 10 a. m. In addition to bakery items, chickens will also be available.

Literary Club To Meet

The regular meeting of the Walton Woman's Literary Club will be held at the Phoenix Restaurant on Wednesday, April 4, beginning at 2:30 p. m.

Mrs. John Myers will be hostess, and Mrs. Julia A. Rouse will preside.

Talent Show Held at Piner School, Mar. 22

PRE-SCHOOL REGISTRATION

The pre-school registration of all Kenton County elementary schools will be held at each school on Thursday, March 29, from 10:00 a. m. to noon and from 1:00 to 2:00 p. m. Birth certificates and record of booster shots will be required.

The Kenton Elementary School will hold a pre-school clinic at the same time as the registration. All parents and children are urged to attend.

Infantry School Graduate

Army Second Lieutenant Donald W. Thomas, 22, son of Mrs. Ruth Thomas, Percival Road, Walton, recently was graduated from The Infantry School's officer communications course at Ft. Benning. The course trained Leut. Thomas in the technique and maintenance of infantry communications systems. He entered the Army last August.

Thomas is a 1955 graduate of the University of Kentucky and a member of Alpha Omega fraternity.

Farmers Should Take Soil Inventory Says County Agent Claxon

An inventory of the soil to be put in row crops, pasture or meadows should be made by having a soil test, says Joe Claxon, county agent.

Do you know what your soil needs? It is throwing money away when a field is over fertilized, as many crops will use more nitrogen and potash than is needed to grow good crops. This money could be used for other improvements on the home or farm. Under fertilization of crops will result in lower yields and quality, therefore a lower farm income. Fertilizer today is one of the best buys farmers can make providing it is used correctly.

Bruce Ferguson is the new Boone county soil testing technician. With the modern soil laboratory, Mr. Ferguson will be able to get the soil results out at once.

Mr. Claxon states that it is not too late to have soil tested for the 1956 crops. Due to wet weather, many farmers have been unable to take their soil samples. As soon as the soil samples can be taken, bring them to the county agent's office and they will be given quick service.

Methodist Easter Cantata

The choir of the Walton Methodist Church will present an Easter Cantata at 5:00 Sunday afternoon, in the church. The cantata, entitled "The Divine Redeemer," was written by Ellen Jane Lorenz and the music is by Charles F. Gounod. Mrs. Sam J. Hudson is choir director and organist.

The public is cordially invited to attend.

Florence 4-H Club Meets

The Florence 4-H Club met March 22 with Miss Nancy Guilfoil and Mr. Ed McCandless present. A few songs were sung, and members were named to ask for a bus to go to Rally Day, at Burlington school. A colored film was then shown on the proper care and feeding of a Hereford baby beef. Seventy members were present.

Party Mart On April 13

The Evening Circle of Richwood Presbyterian Church is sponsoring a party mart Friday, April 13, at 11:30 a. m. Games will be played and prizes given to the contestants. Refreshments will be served, too. Tickets are $1.00, and may be purchased by phoning Walton 184 or 673X.

WALTON SUNRISE SERVICE

A union sunrise service of all the Walton protestant churches will be held at the Baptist Church Easter Sunday, at 6:30 a. m. The Rev. A. E. Atkinson, pastor of the Methodist Church, will be the speaker. Everyone invited.

A music store will open in Florence soon and will be known as the Mary Jane Music Shop. Records, sheet music, and instruments will be carried in stock. Private lessons will also be available. It will be located in the Denham Drug Store basement. Opening date announced later.

Grand Prize Winner Is Little Becky Jones

Talent galore—27 acts in all—turned out for the talent show at the Piner Elementary School, Thursday evening, March 22. A variety of talent was displayed, which included dances, vocalists, bands, instruments, and readings. The youngsters were put through their paces by Harry F. Johnson, local auctioneer, and were judged by Joe Claxon, Boone County Farm Agent; Miss Dorothy Nannie, Owen Co. R.E.A. Representative, and Joe Reed, faculty member at Simon Kenton High School.

The grand prize winners were: First, Becky Jones, acrobatic waltz; second, Linda Spegal, vocalist; third, Dorothy Kreke, vocalist, and for fourth, there was a three-way tie between Jerry Segal, accordionist, Doris Cummins, vocalist, and Pamela Forehan, piano soloist.

Music was furnished by Helen Rose and Ruth Strittmatter. Special numbers were under the direction of Edriola Goshorn, first grade; Betty Brown, second grade; Roberta Steinhauser, third grade; Nathalie Bailey, fourth grade; Irene C. Mann, fifth grade, and William Brown, sixth grade.

Sponsors of the event were: Bank of Independence, Butler Farm Equipment, Lloyd Cook Grocery, Dixie Chevrolet Sales and Harry F. Johnson Auction Co.

Boys' Club President to Speak At Simon Kenton PTA Meeting

The Simon Kenton P.T.A. will meet at 8:00 p. m., Monday, April 2, in the school cafeteria. Mrs. Thomas Finney, president, will preside.

Robert Pettit, president of Cincinnati Boys' Club, Inc., will be the speaker. He will discuss juvenile delinquency. All parents are urged to attend this meeting.

Mrs. A. L. Stone, president of the Kenton County Council of P.T.A., will install the new officers for the coming year. Plans will be completed for the spring festival, April 6.

Refreshments will be served.

Willing Circle Class Meets

The Willing Circles Class of the Kenton Baptist Church met recently in the home of Mrs. Herbert Duncan, with the president, Mrs. Charles Schntzler, presiding. Mrs. Frank Kuriger's devotional was from Mark 15:35-39. She read the poem, "The Appeal of the Crusified." Mrs. Alton Stephenson led the prayer, and the class song, "Near the Cross."

Members present were: Mesdames Ray Coyle, John Riggs, W. W. Roden, W. B. Barnes, Albert Sharp, Vernor Lykins, Frank Kuriger, Glenn Dunn, Charles Schnitzler, John Grizzelle, Herbert Duncan, and Alton Stephenson. Visitors were Judy Steinfeld and Cherri Duncan.

Extension Office Employee

Miss Shirley Hodges, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Hodges, East Bend Bottoms, has started to work as Extension secretary of Boone county. She is a graduate of Burlington High School and has lived on the farm all of her life.

Boone County Fair To Be Held August 23-25, at Burlington

At the last meeting of the Boone County 4-H and Utopia Council, it was decided to hold the 1956 fair August 23, 24 and 25. Reasons for these dates was to miss all other fairs in Northern Kentucky. The Northern Kentucky Fair Association and the Kentucky Fair Association have both been contacted concerning these dates. The Boone County Fair is a member of both associations. At the last meeting of the Kentucky association, John E. Crigler, Burlington, was named a state director.

Plans were made for the 1956 fair program and one of the new contests will be a County Church Choir event on Thursday night. The regular attractions of past years will also be presented.

In making plans, the council is striving to make this fair better each year. It was reported that improvements, upkeep and new buildings at the fair grounds cost over $6,000 in 1955.

WHITES TOWER

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hurst of Latonia were entertaining a baby girl last Monday.

Carol Ellis, Whites Tower mail clerk, is being treated for a left leg infection caused by a fall one day last week. She is under Dr. Elizabeth Hall's emergency treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Hammons and wife on Beaver Road are the proud parents of a son born March 14.

A little girl five years old was picked up by a railroad worker near the Tower when he found her walking along Taylor Mill Road. She finally found to have wandered away from her home near the end of Bowman Road one day last week. She was taken back to her home by this good Samaritan, which was a break for the kid as she could very easily have been killed by a motorist.

Amity Baptist Church had a very nice attendance at church last Sunday with four additions to the church membership, two by letter and two by confession. This is a growing church in our vicinity and deserves the support of all who want to see the development of a better community and the feeling that makes for a better future. Come out next Sunday and see for yourself the friendly feeling that prevails and you will be amply repaid for your first visit to the "Friendly" church.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

Christ Lives

Lesson for April 1, 1956

"CHRIST is risen!" The words will be said and sung many thousand times this Easter. What do they mean? Let us leave out of sight all those to whom the words mean nothing but a vestige of superstition at the worst, a picturesque symbol of something altogether different, at best. What do these words mean to those who do believe them? It is possible to believe this sentence literally and firmly, and yet be as dead to their joyous meaning as if they were a weather report of 40 years ago. They portend a miracle, but yesterday's miracles may not be especially interesting. "Do you feel a kind of rapture on reading about the frogs in Pharaoh's palace, the miracle-frogs? Does it help your malaria to read about the cures St. Paul did at Ephesus?"

Dr. Foreman

Yesterday's miracles may even be discouraging, just because they are yesterday's. The Resurrection of Christ is not in a class with any other miracle. For the early Christians it was THE event of history.

The Opened Eye

It is no accident that the church says and sings, "Christ is risen" more often than "Christ rose." The Resurrection is a kind of contemporary miracle. It has many meanings, but consider three of them, in the lives of the plain people who first experienced the truth of it. Remember; the Resurrection was nothing they had been looking for, nothing they had the wit to invent. It came as a shock, it upset all their ideas, it remade their world. First of all and including everything else; the Resurrection means the presence, here and today not less than there in the dawn of Christian time, the presence of the living Christ, the present companion of all who love him. First of all, his presence there in Emmaus and indeed on the road across the hills, meant the opened eye. With him for guide, the man Cleopas and his friend saw things in the Scriptures they had never seen before. The Scriptures, like a closed gate, opened to their inward eye. Then in the supper-room as the bread was broken, again their eyes were opened, and they knew him. So the risen Christ today and always opens the eyes of men; inspired by him, we understand God's Book and God's Son as we can never do alone.

The Burning Heart

The second thing the disciples felt was a burning heart. John Calvin invented a coat of arms for himself, showing an outstretched hand and a burning heart, offered to God. It might serve as the coat of arms for all who have felt the presence of the living risen Christ. Two young men were arguing about the Resurrection, and they were greatly puzzled about it. They asked a much older man what were his reasons for believing it to be true. "Why," the old man said, "I just talked with Him this morning!" Life gains a warmth, a flame, from contact with Christ as from no other contact possible. Jesus as a historical character excites our curiosity, our imagination. Christ as a problem in theology excites us to think. But Christ as a living presence sets life on fire. Who are the people who witness most enthusiastically about Jesus? They are the ones who will sing, "He walks with me and he talks with me . . ." That Jesus lived is interesting and important. That he lives, lives now, in me—that is life-changing.

The Hastening Feet

All around the world this Easter churches will be ringing with song and bright with flowers. In the most unlikely places, there are Christians. You will find that those churches in far places were started there by men and women who believed in and knew the risen Christ. If there is a church which calls itself "Christian" but does not believe in the Resurrection, its Christ is as dead as any other bygone hero. Such a church will not send many missionaries. A dead Christ hurries no man's footsteps, eases no man's burden, lights no man's hour of sorrow. Only the living Christ kindles the burning heart, opens the blind eyes, sets men's feet upon a rock, and sends them out, like the first Christians, to challenge a world in his name. The feet of the two men hastening from Emmaus were but the first of billions, eager with God's good news.

It's the day before Easter, and Johnnie is dyeing eggs. Like most little boys he finds the task pretty fascinating, and he revels in small seas of yellow and red and blue and green.

Easter morning, the eggs will have been hidden by his parents and he and his sister will excitedly hunt for them. Probably they'll stumble across some chocolate bunnies and candy chickens, also. But that will not be all of Easter for them.

Johnnie and his sister will be going to Church, too. They may not understand the complete significance of everything they hear and see . . . but they are old enough to know something of what Easter means. And with each passing year they will learn a little more.

Johnnie's parents have started early to train their children in spiritual as well as physical values. Easter eggs, yes. But Church, by all means, too. Not just on Easter, either . . . but on every Sunday in the year.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are (1) For his own sake (2) For his children's sake (3) For the sake of his community and nation (4) For the sake of the Church itself which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

OAK RIDGE

—Call FL. 7-6881—

The Oak Ridge Homemakers Club met at the home of Mrs. Orvan Douglas on March 19. Roll call was answered with the name of their favorite flower. Plans were made for a trip to Berea in July. A lovely luncheon was served by the hostess, after which a citizenship le- son on Ceylon was given by Mrs. E. C. Harris. Mrs. W. C. Tallent and Mrs. Thomas Renaker taught the home furnishing lesson on the things to look for when buying carpets, draperies and slip covers. The lesson next month will be about cafe curtains. Those present included Mesdames E. C. Harris, Thomas Renaker, Ed Piper, Gene Piper, Homer Harris, W. C. Tallent, C. A. Barton, R. H. Bauer, Harry Collier, Orvan Douglas, K. L. Galloway, Orville Lusby, I. E. Mann, W. H. Ward, and W. B. Wheeler and a visitor, Mrs. A. Brown.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Earl [illegible] Corbin Liebermar[illegible] on the birth of an eight-pound [illegible] girl Saturday, March 24. This is their fifth child.

Flu is still raging rampant in the communities. Except for a few [illegible] the neighbors are getting their hot beds ready for the opening of the track season.

The W.M.S. of Oak Ridge Baptist Church is planning to hold a study course and home mission book, The Tribe [illegible] at 7:00 p.m. April 3 at the church. A.T.M. Frontier in the West will be given to supplement the book. All women of the church are urged to attend and any W.M.S. members of the district churches in the area will be welcome. Refreshments are welcome to come.

Kenton Elementary PTA Meets

The Kenton Elementary School P.T.A. held its March meeting recently in the school with Mrs. C. A. Wicklund presiding. The devotional was given by Mrs. Elmore Satterwhite. The room count was won by Mrs. [illegible] second grade.

An election was held and Mrs. Lonnie Dawkins was named vice president and Mrs. Harold Schneider secretary.

An entertaining Browning program was presented by Troop 150.

Mrs. Hiram Yorke, program chairman, assisted by Mrs. Charles Adams and Mrs. William Durr, presented each teacher and principal with a plant in recognition of Teacher Appreciation Week.

Pet Parakeets May Cause the Spread of "Parrot Fever" to Man

Parakeets are among the most popular household pets in the country, but Mary C. Creek, R. N., of the Boone County Health Department, warns that parakeets, easy to and possess may transmit [illegible] to man.

Kentucky has had only three cases of human [illegible] reports this year, despite the removal of restrictions on interstate shipment of parakeets has caused an increase through out the nation, the number of cases from less than 30 in 1950 to 500 in 1954.

Psittacosis, sometimes called parrot fever, is caused by a virus and may be transmitted to humans by inhaling dust which is contaminated with infectious particles from the birds' dried fecal droppings, urine and nasal discharge. The disease may persist from seven to 15 days. The symptoms of psittacosis are similar to influenza with a lung involvement and any one who suspects that he has [illegible] should immediately [illegible] physician.

A person who has [illegible] can [illegible] to spread the disease and spread [illegible] to humans. It's not parakeets [illegible] and [illegible] to know the [illegible] Department. They will [illegible] to tell [illegible] and where to [illegible] your birds [illegible] if a bird [illegible] suddenly.

"Wise Use" of Plant Food Can Cut Costs, Increase Net Income

DESPITE lower farm prices, 1956 is not the year to quit using fertilizer.

That was the statement of University of Missouri extension soils specialists, in a release summarized by the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee.

These specialists point out that the "wise use" of fertilizer can cut costs and increase income at the same time.

The committee reports that the cost of plant food has risen only 13 per cent since 1935, whereas the cost of all production items a farmer buys has increased 125 per cent. It bases this statement on statistics cited recently by Russell Coleman, executive vice president, National Plant Food Council.

Today's fertilizer has more crop-building power than ever before, the committee says. In the past five years, the industry has increased its concentration of plant food per ton of fertilizer by almost 2½ per cent.

Agronomists in some Midwestern states report that fertilizer can return $3 in the form of extra yields per acre for every dollar invested in plant food.

Superphosphate Helps Manure Hold Nitrogen

Adding superphosphate to barnyard manure can pay off in two ways, reports the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee:

1—The superphosphate gives the manure a better plant nutrient balance; 2—It helps the manure hold nitrogen that might otherwise be lost.

The phosphate can be added to the manure before it is spread in the field according to Midwestern agronomists.

Grant County Tobacco Makes Valuable Returns

Lawrence Ashcraft, farm owner and Howard Stephenson, tenant, shared to [illegible] championship honors in Grant County. Their crop of 10,092 pounds made a gross acre income of $1,534. The variety was No. 26.

R. H. Settree had a gross income of $1,650 an acre, the average price being $4.37 a lwt. A six-tenths acre crop grown by Eulis Cook returned a gross income of $1,586 an acre. The crop was considered too small to win the champ[illegible] ship.

[illegible] county farmers in Trimble county ordered 136,000 strawberry plants to set this spring.

GAS YOUR TOBACCO BEDS WITH

Dowfume MC-2

Easier, faster, cheaper, better than burning

Treat your beds in 2 hours or less with Dowfume® MC-2. Place and seal the new lower cost, lightweight plastic cover over the bed and apply. Your job is done. You can fumigate in the spring and plant 48 hours after application.

Gassing with Dowfume MC-2 actually costs much less than burning. And you can use the new low-price cover over and over again.

Dowfume MC-2 kills nematodes and other soil pests faster and gives more effective control of weeds than burning. And it works into the soil to the depth you till, not just the top few inches.

Let us help you plan your seed bed fumigation this year. You'll save money while getting a strong, healthy crop.

Spring Fertilizing Ups Forage Yields, Saves on Feed Bills

Longer grazing season means greater savings on feed bills.

FERTILIZING your pastures this spring can give your dairy and beef cattle a longer grazing season, increase forage yields, cut feeding costs and boost net returns per acre and per cow, reports the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee.

Fertilized pastures get going earlier and stay productive longer, the committee points out. They give higher yields of better quality, low cost forage that is high in protein content.

The longer the grazing season, the greater will be your savings on feed bills, says the committee.

Agronomists advise waiting until the pasture stand is four to six inches high and the ground is firm before turning out cattle.

As spring advances and there is more forage than the cattle can eat, this surplus can be harvested and stored as silage or hay as a "feed bank" when needed.

How much fertilizer should be added?

Kentucky agronomists advise putting on 300 pounds per acre of a phosphate-potash fertilizer on improved permanent pasture and then if necessary, adding 30 to 60 pounds of nitrogen. They recommend about the same amount of fertilizer on rotational pasture or haylands.

Iowa agronomists stress that good management is essential if legumes are to be maintained in a pasture stand. E. R. Duncan, Iowa State College extension agronomist points out that good management protects the investment you have made in good seed, liming, fertilizer and the work involved in getting a stand established.

Rotational grazing will help maintain stands longer, he says, and produce more total feed than continous grazing. If the forage is harvested by haying, he advises cutting alfalfa not more than three times a year.

CARD OF THANKS—

INDEPENDENCE BAPTIST CHURCH
Independence, Kentucky

The entire body of the Independence Baptist church wishes to express to you our stand for the truth.

We wish to state to the public the following facts:

All literature published by the church with the pastor's name is acknowledged with full endorsement of the entire church body. Any and all accusation brought against this literature is directly in opposition to the Bible, religious freedom, and the theocracy of the local Baptist church.

We believe in and practice complete religious freedom as given by the Constitution of the United States of America.

As an individual you are not forced to read any literature published by our church, but we wish to inform the public that we have and will continue to publish literature against sin and false teaching.

We have the same right to publish literature against sin as men do to publish literature to encourage sinful practices. When the liquor signs are taken down, the dance floors abolished, divorce courts closed, road houses disappear, corrupt politics cease to exist, schools stand for complete clean moral living, and the [illegible] of sin [illegible] then and only then will we cease to publish literature against sin.

Invest Fertilizer Dollars Wisely Says County Agent Claxon

Each year since 1951 Kentucky farmers have invested about 38½ million in lime materials and fertilizers. Boone county farmers invested about $20[illegible],000 during 1955. This is one of the biggest annual investments made by Kentucky and Boone county farmers and one that they will continue to make as they continue to farm successfully, according to [illegible] Claxon, county agent.

Since this investment is one of the biggest, it is very important that it be a wise investment and that the materials purchased be used in a way that greatest returns possible per dollar invested be secured in 1956.

Probably the best way to improve fertilizer and lime investments in 1956 is to buy these materials according to need determined by a soil test. It is probably more important that farmers test [illegible] this year than it has been since [illegible] program was started in the county.

[illegible] 674. [illegible]

The average plant food content of fertilizers bought by Kentucky farmers [illegible] was 26 pounds per hundred. The Boone county farmer was above the average with only three counties above [illegible] in Kentucky with 28.3 pounds per hundred.

Beechgrove Homemakers

The March meeting of the Beechgrove Homemakers was opened with the singing of the Homemakers' creed, Mrs. Roger [illegible] being the accompanist at the organ. Mrs. William Endres, president, conducted the meeting and [illegible] Mrs. Cecilia Reynolds.

The citizenship chairman, Mrs. Roy Kumler, reported a member gave household items and clothing to two families whose homes were destroyed by fire. Mrs. William Meyers reported on the consumers' conference. Ten members will attend the Merry-Go-Round at the Gibson Hotel. Mrs. F. M. Powers and Mrs. Roy McHale gave the lesson on drapery, rug and upholstery fabrics. Mrs. Robinson, the hostess, entertained in the afternoon at the organ while the group sang. Mrs. Frank Atterkirk was the co-hostess.

The next meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Gus Schadler, Wright Road, Walton.

KENTUCKIANS

IN WASHINGTON

By Gil Kingsbury

Gone Home

Congress is having a few days back home in the Easter recess gives the Kentucky delegation a chance to organize for the May primary and campaign a little more. Some of them in the House never bothers here that the close of every jumps into the fray right away. They say they respect the fellow who will mix battle plans.

Told the Nation

What a [illegible] rather how Kentucky [illegible] registered [illegible] these 18 year old citizens. An editorial from the Kentucky Post, edited by Carl Saunders, was placed in the Congressional Record. In that article the editor commented on the activity of the 18 year old student from Erlanger High School, Notre Dame Academy in Covington. "The [illegible] the Congressional Record [illegible] the evidence of responsible citizenship of the juvenile delinquent who makes all the news."

We Are Sorry

The Kentucky Society of Washington [illegible] those Blue Grass folk who [illegible] perfect social judge [illegible] Justice Court Justice Stanley [illegible] of Maysville, Judge Wilbur Miller of Owensboro and Judge Gregory Bruce of Mayfield. Mrs. Fred Vinson, widow of the chief justice, also was honored.

However we regret reporting that Kentuckians in the capital have not supported the state society as they should and the Grand Ball, an annual April [illegible] has been called off. Incidentally this society has selected Miss Dixie Lee Hewins, of the University of Kentucky, to be this spring's festival princess [illegible] will represent our state in the big event.

Land Prices

Land prices in spite of sagging farm income, keeps going up, according to the Department of Agriculture figures. The national average shows such prices 140 percent above the 1940 average.

One western Kentucky county agent was quoted as saying that farm land prices continue at peak levels—in spite of the fact that tobacco acreage has been cut back 50 percent since 1947.

Wilmington Baptist W.M.S.

The W.m.s. Missionary Society of the Wilmington Baptist Church, Fiskburg, met recently and observed its season of prayer. Topic for the day was "Lord Teach Us To Pray." Brief talks were made by Mrs. Agnes Striene, Mrs. Ada Segal, Mrs. Marrietta Wilson and Mrs. Nell Rapp. The royal service program was also conducted, the subject being "Make Me A Channel of Blessing Today." Devotional reading, Luke 10:25-37, by Wilma Mullins. Roll call, scripture verses. Following the usual business session, thirteen members answered roll call. Five children were present.

The sick report showed 84 cards sent, 71 visits, 62 phone calls, and one tray of food sent. At the noon hour, a delicious lunch was served with Mrs. Marrietta Wilson offering thanks. Hostesses were Mrs. Hazel Spegal and Mrs. Agnes Striene.

Sports Show In Louisville

Miss Ann Gillock, Carrollton, who was selected "Miss Kentucky" last summer and entered in the "Miss America" competition in Atlantic City, will reign as queen of the Kentucky Sports, Travel, Boat and Trailer Show, to be held at the Old State Fairgrounds, Louisville, April 21-29.

The Louisville show will be the first ever held in the Kentuckiana area, although similar events have been staged in cities the size of Louisville all over the nation.

Clarence Howard of Knox county produced 40,000 certified Pocahontas strawberry plants for sale.

Surprise Birthday Party

Dr. and Mrs. D. C. Lasey, Taylor Mill Pike, Covington, entertained recently with a surprise birthday party for Naomi Olvil Lile, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse B. Obel of Taylor Mill, who recently became the bride of Byron Lile of Cold Springs. The couple are now residing on Duckworth Lane, Cold Springs.

Those attending the party were Mr. and Mrs. Byron Lile, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse B. Obel, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse R. Obel, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Obel, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gall, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reinaker, Mr. and Mrs. Hershal Souder, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Damon, Mr. and Mrs. William Cummins, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wintrang, Miss Mabel Martin, Mrs. Jane Rand, Mrs. Clara Lavelace, Mrs. Leonard Henkhaus, Robert Losey, Kenneth Souder, Charlie Gall, David, Billie Jeanne and Michael Obel.

After the opening of her many beautiful and useful gifts, games were played and prizes given. A buffet supper was then served by the hostess.

George Smith received a $50 bond for having the highest corn yield in Clay county—148.6 bushels an acre.

Bath county homemakers have endorsed the fencing of farm ponds for health, sanitation and beauty.

Burlington Road Homemakers

The March meeting of the Burlington Road Homemakers Club was held at the home of Mrs. R. C. Eastman, Burlington Road, Florence. Mrs. Leonard Meece was co-hostess.

The major project for the month was the second lesson in refinishing furniture.

Members present were: Mesdames Leonard Meece, Henry Fisher, John Kyle, R. M. Lucas, C. A. River, Leo Lawson, Joe Northcraft, Russell Wilmhoff, Louisa Edrington, George Schambach, A. B. Smoot, William Tupman, Joe Dringenburg, Charles Rieheman, Alfred Becker, Harry Whaley, Richard Ammon, Richard Carr, Mary Rachel Johnson, and Robert Eastman. Guests were Mrs. Charles Yeagle, Mrs. Edward Kessler, Mrs. Herman Oberjohn and Byron Bach.

NEW GARDEN LEAFLET

A good vegetable garden, producing vegtables from early spring to late fall, may be one of the most profitable crops on the farm, according to Clyde Singletary, assistant horticulturist at the University of Kentucky. Freshly gathered vegetables have more appeal than those sold commercially for they have more flavor and are of better quality. Many vegetables have more food value when first picked and prepared immediately for the table, say home economists.

Besides supplying the vegetable nutritional needs of the family, the garden may return more than $1 an hour for each hour of labor. Mr. Singletary points out in "Home Gardening," Circular 539. Copies of this circular just off the press, may be had from offices of county farm and home agents or from the Agricultural Service, Experiment Station, Lexington.

Approximately 400 homemakers in Pulaski county took part in the polio drive, collecting more than $1,740.

TAKE IT EASY!

All you do is GUIDE IT...

let this self-propelled timesaver do the work. It's powerful . . . rugged . . . built especially for large lawns. It gives you ample power at all times—even for steep terraces. With the revolutionary 2.8 H.P. Briggs & Stratton or Clinton engines, you get plenty of reserve power. Front wheel drive provides much easier control. Drive wheels don't "dig in" when turning. Trims up close—really close to trees, fences, and shrubs. "Finger-Tip" clutch control means full control of your mowing speed, right when you want it!

Rewind starter assures ever-easy starting

Exclusive "Cyclone Blower" principle and lift-action blade combine to give you smooth cutting and even dispersion of fertilizing mulch . . . for greener, healthier lawns! Blade sharpens easily with an ordinary hand file. Come in, see Foley's 21-incher . . . It's tops in power and priced right!

Let's keep it that way!

IT'S A FINE THING to have the "welcome mat" out for a new factory on opening day. But it's not enough! A community's long-range industrial growth and prosperity depend on sincere and continuing hospitality to industry, long after the welcoming committee has gone home. This is a job for all of us in the South today.

The steady, year-by-year expansion of existing industry is impressive proof that the job is being done. Southern industries are getting an honest day's work for a fair day's pay . . . understanding acceptance of technological progress, which ultimately creates still more jobs . . . honest, stable, friendly state and local government and fair tax treatment . . . efficient, dependable rail service.

With all of us doing all we can to welcome new industries to the South and to keep them happy in their new home, the Southland will continue to grow and prosper. And all in the South will benefit!

March Is Over!

Our first day of spring arrived and people seemed to have a different look—everyone was hoping the cold wind would quit blowing and the weather would warm up. John Cain bought a plastic cover, an applicator and 9 cans of Dowfume to prepare his plantbed for tobacco plants. Others were here getting skid sides and skids, others getting chain and snaps. Bob Brugh had Chick put a handle in his garden hoe—I don't know who will use it. Jane Johnson sent down after some curtain rods. Red discovered Miss Oni Riley her new Mastercut lawn mower—we have her old mower to sell, and it is in very good condition.

If you have termites this spring come and see us. We sold wiring material, linoleum paint, pipe fittings, tools, deer licks, V belts, gloves, paint brushes, corn drier, brush, water jacks, and J. B. Spegal and wife were here getting pipe and fittings for that new bathroom. Edward Roberts and wife were in to make them an offer for his old home, but they left this time without that for which we suppose they will be back. Ernest Eckerman is moving out to her farm and she had Brewster and Red lay her some linoleum in the kitchen. Leland and husband were in for a gallon of Sun-Beam aluminum paint to take with them. Mrs. Ed Webster was in for a gallon of paint and a quart of varnish. Bruce paint was the advertising—it was a real good paint at $4.95 per gallon, and is really good paint. Bruce does not manufacture Jelled Magic paint but they do sell it, the greatest paint ever made for interior use.

It will soon be lawn mower time—don't be misled by buying cheap lawn mowers. I have Enjoy Mastercut Lawn Boy, and Sunbeam—I believe these are proven to be the four best. We try to sell you a quality mower that will give you service and last for several years. Come to CONRAD'S for your lawn mower and Brewster does a very good job if you do need a little service. Mr. and Mrs. J. Hopperton were in and bought tobacco canvas—she was inquiring about her Sunbeam mixer motor. I had sent for repair, but had not returned.

Mrs. Sam Black was checking on that Jelled Magic paint and she selected Shalmar yellow in gloss for her kitchen—it is really a wonderful paint. Helen Stephenson bought several quarts of liquid satin—she has used this for several years and really likes it. Mr. and Mrs. George Holly bought a 9x12 linoleum rug, a gallon of Belco white interior latex, a quart of light ash floor enamel, a quart of robin blue for George's boat and some aluminum to paint the trailer wheels. Mrs. Ed Webster was in today getting paint with which to paint her old baby carriage. Mr. Ed Lloyd and he was 93—he says she is so busy some will run out of time to do it.

The B type jail was here after a few more fittings—he will soon be able to take a bath in that new bathroom. Preston Phillips came after a set of tobacco sticks. Pete Rice called after we closed Saturday night and needed a part for his fishing reel, but you know it was five cold fish tonight—but I did get a fellow fishing with his boots on and about five inches of ice. It was cold in that shanty and about five inches of snow—I'll bet it was cold. I was afraid I might have to go and warm over by the stove, but I stayed outside and took more Lawrence and Jim's word for it. Jim Lawrence was in for a gallon of paint and a quart of varnish—I suppose they are working on the old home place. Jim Lawrence was in for a gallon of paint and a quart of varnish—I suppose they are working on the old home place. Jim Lawrence was in for a gallon of paint and a quart of varnish—I suppose they are working on the old home place.

We are still getting ready to paint the tobacco barns and get it ready for curing. Mr. Bill Keuhn from Florence stopped in and bought a 2-cycle Kiwi lawnmower. Mrs. Ed Webster bought a new Sherman Park or Erlanger height 4-inch rocker.

I went down to my farm at Beaverlick and there was smoke in every direction. Farmers burning plant beds and others burning off fields, getting ready to plow. Riley Prather came after more Dowfume for his plantbed. He used it last year and said it worked perfectly. We have sold lots of it this season. You plow up your bed, rake it down, put the three plastic tubes in the air about 30 feet apart, cover the plastic cover around the edges with dirt, you should use bottles or buckets to hold the cover up off the ground, then use 3 cans of Dowfume to every 30 feet of bed 6 feet wide. Leave plastic cover on 24 hours, then take cover off and in 4 hours you can sow your bed. This is fast and easy. In many farmers' case it does not have what it burns a plantbed.

The Maytag representative was here today and Maytag is still the same price. Come to CONRAD'S for most all your wants and troubles, we will try to serve them. We have McCullough lawn fertilizer and grass seed.

Election of Officers Highlights Meeting of Wa-Na Club, April 2

The Wa-Na Club met at Janice Inn Monday, April 2 with the highlight of the meeting being the election of officers for next year.

The meeting was called to order by the President Mrs. William C. Grubbs. The minutes of the last and the eight-club each responded to roll call by naming Mrs. Chester Jones' name for Secretary-Treasurer.

Mrs. Kyle read a letter to the club from Miss Leslie Tuttle, District Governor, thanking the club for entering two contestants in the music and art contests last month. She also read a letter from Mrs. Leslie in the history of the First district.

Mrs. James E. Folls will take over the duties of President for the remainder of the term, since Mrs. Grubbs gave the club her resignation effective at the meeting.

The club then held election of officers and the following were named for the year 1956-1957. First Vice President, Mrs. Gayle McElroy; Second Vice President, Mrs. Ward Rice; Secretary, Mrs. Robert Oser; Treasurer, Mrs. Chester Sturgeon; and Historian, Mrs. James L. Whitson.

Following the election of officers and the business session, Mrs. Clayton Jones led the club in some games.

Delicious refreshments of pie, ice cream and coffee were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Elmer Greger, Mrs. Carl Conner and Mrs. Jack Conner, to the following members: Mrs. Ward Rice, Mrs. Clayton Jones, Mrs. Wallace S. Grubbs, Mrs. Chester Sturgeon, Mrs. J. E. Folls, Mrs. Charles Holder, Mrs. Robert Oser, Mrs. Eldred Steinhauser, Mrs. Lennard Cook, Jr., Mrs. James Whitson, Mrs. Robert Martin, Mrs. Asa Rouse, and Mrs. James S. Webster.

The next meeting of the Wa-Na Club will be held at the Walton Christian Church. At this meeting, the Walton Literary Club will be guests. Hostesses for this meeting will be Mrs. Wallace S. Grubbs, Mrs. Charles Holder, Mrs. Robert Oser and Mrs. Leonard Cook, Jr.

PTA FETES TEACHERS

During "Teacher Appreciation Week," the local Parent Teachers Association feted the Walton teachers to a luncheon. While the teachers were enjoying fried chicken, spring salad, escalloped potatoes and lima beans with plenty of good coffee and strawberry shortcake, some capable students were holding forth in the class rooms.

The children gave glowing reports of this experience, and it is thought both substitute and pupils benefitted. The only cloud to dim the festive occasion was the absence of Mrs. Anna Morgan, who was recuperating from the flu.

Claude Taylor of the State Board of Education was a guest.

Children's Pictures To Be Taken Free Next Friday at City Bldg.

Friday, April 13 is the big day for the picture taking of your youngsters! The Walton Advertiser is having pictures taken of all children who are brought by their parents or other guardian to the Walton City Bldg., Fire Department office, between 10:00 a. m. and 5:00 p. m., absolutely free of charge.

The Walton Advertiser wants a picture of your child to print in its forthcoming feature, "Citizens of Tomorrow," a series of photographic studies of local children. The more we get the better the feature will be, so the cooperation of the mothers and fathers is urged.

It often seems to parents that children are little one minute and are grown up the next, so fast does a child's growing stage pass. Here is a splendid opportunity to catch a likeness of your child or children at the present stage for the pleasure you will get out of it in future years and for the pleasure you will enjoy in seeing it in print. You will want to clip it from this, your local newspaper, and preserve it for the youngster when he or she grows up.

There is absolutely no charge or obligation for taking the pictures. Parents don't even have to be a subscriber to the Walton Advertiser nor even a reader. You do not have to purchase pictures either, though you may obtain additional prints by arranging direct with the Studio representative if you want them. That is entirely up to you!

PROGRAM PLANNED FOR THE HAMILTON SCHOOL

Rudy Hansen

The Walton-Verona High School senior class and Rudy Hansen of WLW T, will present an entertaining program at the Hamilton Elementary School, Tuesday, April 10, at 8:00 p. m.

The program will consist of the senior class presenting, "Junior Mister," a farce comedy in three acts by Barry Heenan, with Rudy Hansen singing and playing between acts.

Everyone is urged to attend. Proceeds will be divided between the Hamilton P. T. A. and the Walton-Verona senior class. The seniors will use their part of the proceeds to help finance a trip to Washington, D. C. during cherry blossom time.

Tickets are now on sale at the Hamilton and Walton schools. Reserved seats are 75 cents, and general admission 50 cents.

"Junior Mister" is presented by special arrangement with The Northwestern Press, Minneapolis, Minn.

E. T. (TOMMY) PERNELL

E. T. (Tommy) Pernell, of Zion Station, passed away April 1, at Owen County Hospital, from a heart condition. He was a veteran of World War II, and was employed as trackman by the L&N Railroad.

He leaves his widow, Mrs. Pearl Atha Pernell, a son, Jackie Ray Pernell; one daughter, Shirley Ann Pernell; his father, Ed Pernell of Elliston, two sisters, Mrs. Joe Wolfe, of Fort Mitchell, and Mrs. Herbert Jamerson, of Glencoe, and one brother, Archie Pernell, of Walton.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at the Pleasant View Baptist Church, with burial in Pleasant View Cemetery.

It has been reported that the Walton City water supply will be turned off Friday, April 6, from 9:00 to 11:00 a. m.

"Clean-Up Week" In Walton Announced By Fire Dept. Chief

Rubbish, litter and tall grass create conditions unsafe for children: Fire Chief Chuck Worthington reminded local residents, today as he announced the beginning of Clean-Up Week in Walton.

Chief Worthington expressed particular concern over vacant lots overgrown with grass and weeds and in many instances used as unauthorized dumping grounds.

He expressed the hope that owners of such property would take steps to tidy it up during Clean-Up Week.

Safety rules for safety of children, as recommended by the National Board of Fire Underwriters are:

1—Put matches where small children cannot reach them.

2—Keep children away from outdoor fires unless there is an adult present. Keep a sturdy fire screen in place whenever there is an open fire in your home.

3—Satisfy children's curiosity about fire by letting them help with carefully supervised jobs—blowing out matches or helping to light a fire. But teach them the meaning of the word "hot," and show them that fire is nothing to play with.

Soil Conservation Workshop Held In Falmouth, March 28

Bruce Ferguson and W. Robert Ellis, Supervisors of the Boone County Soil Conservation District, along with Marion W. Belt, Work Unit Conservationist of the U. S. Soil Conservation Service, attended the District Supervisors' Workshop at Falmouth, Wednesday, March 28. The meeting was conducted by A. Threlkeld, Director of the Fifth Soil and Water Resources Commission Area. Mr. Threlkeld is also president of the State Association of Soil Conservation Districts, which is a state-wide organization of District Supervisors and Cooperaters.

George C. Ganter, Assistant Director, Department of Conservation, discussed, "Our Jobs As District Supervisors." Mr. Ganter, past supervisor of the Barren County Soil Conservation District, won the state and national Spencer Chemical public speaking contest for 1955. He won $1,000 for discussing, "The Program of Our Soil Conservation District."

Luther New, Chairman, and Welborn Adams, Secretary, Harrison County Soil Conservation District, gave their program and plan of operation on Twin Creek watershed. This is the first watershed plan which has been developed in Kentucky under Public Law 566. Marshall Qualls, Director of the Division of Soil and Water Resources, Frankfort, spoke to the group about the new state law—Watershed Conservancy Act, passed by the General Assembly.

C. R. Whaley, Chairman of the Fleming County Soil Conservation District, discussed, "Our District Activities for 1956." These activities gave a definite thing for supervisors to do each month.

Foster Adams, Vice Chairman of the State Association of Soil Conservation Districts, gave the district supervisors the assistance they may obtain from the state and national association.

Paul Fehr, Chairman, Campbell County Soil Conservation District, conducted a panel discussion with representatives of agriculture agencies working with soil conservation districts. Theme of the discussion was, "What We Have To Offer Soil Conservation Districts." On the panel were Roy C. Gray, chairman, State A.S.C. committee and district supervisor of Fleming County Soil Conservation District; Dean Frank G. Welch, Director of Extension Service; H. B. Newland, Director, State Division of Forestry; D. W. Orcutt, Area Conservationist, Soil Conservation Service; Larry Gale, representative, State Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources, and Marshall Qualls, director, State Division of Soil and Water Resources.

Hamilton funeral home, Verona, had charge of arrangements.

LYDA VANLANDINGHAM

Services for Mrs. Lyda Mae Vanlandingham, 73, who died March 26, at her home in Crittenden were held Thursday afternoon at the Crittenden Baptist Church. Burial was in the Mt. Zion Cemetery.

Mrs. Vanlandingham leaves her husband, Virgie; two sons, Virgil Vanlandingham of Crittenden, and Kenneth Anlandingham of Lexington; two sisters, Mrs. Fleta Coates and Mrs. Leona Hock, both of Cincinnati, and a grandchild.

PEARL S. RODGERS

Services were held last Thursday at the Stith funeral home, Florence, for Mrs. Pearl S. Rodgers, 78, who died March 27 at her home on Price Pike, Florence, after a long illness.

A native of Boone county and a lifelong resident of Northern Kentucky, she was a farmer resident of Bellevue.

She leaves her husband, James W. Rodgers; a brother, Elbert Vinson, of Phoenix, Ariz.; two sisters, Mrs. Edna Walker of Cincinnati, and Mrs. Bernice Gutzwiller of Huntingtan, W. Va., and several nieces and nephews.

Legion Post Meets Tonight

By order of the Commander, Johnson-McElroy Post, 277, American Legion, of Walton, is being called into session this (Thursday) evening at 8:00 p. m. The meeting will be held in the temporary Post quarters at Cluster's Service Center, just south of the Walton city limits.

Each member is urged to be present as this meeting is of utmost importance to Legionaires of this Post.

Lambs Should Be Insured

Mr. Sparks stressed the importance of sheep insurance and stated that the owner must have his sheep insured as well as lambs. The cost to insure lambs is 20c a head and they are insured from birth until December 31, 1956.

Alpha Class to Meet

The Alpha Class of the Walton Baptist Church will meet this (Thursday) evening at the home of Mrs. James Vest, Hollywood Drive, Florence.

"Do-It-Yourself" Jobs Sometimes Result In Serious Accidents

Nowadays, in the spring, a young man's fancy turns to do-it-yourself jobs around the house. But the Boone County Health Department warns that home accidents can often result from amateur home repair, maintenance, and improvement work.

Fatal accidents in and about the home are considerably more frequent among men than among women—even though men are generally not around the house a large part of the day. Falls are the chief cause of home accidents among men up to the age of 65. Such do-it-yourself jobs as roof repairing, house painting, shingling, or adjusting and installing television aerials contribute greatly to the number of fatalities from falls.

The best safety rule to remember when working around the home is the rule of common sense. Most home accidents can be prevented by observing simple precautions and by doing only the jobs for which you have the knowledge and equipment.

The Health Department reminds all do-it-yourselfers in Boone county to consider their age and health, and do only those things they can handle. Don't hesitate to call in an expert in cases where neither you nor your equipment are qualified to do the job properly.

Always remember, when you do-it-yourself, do it safely.

General Service Truck Added by Fire Dept.

HARRY R. DIXON

Harry R. Dixon, former owner of the Phoenix Hotel, Walton, died Monday at Central State Hospital, Lakeland. He was 67 years old, a native of Lexington, Va. and a member of the Walton Christian Church.

Survivors include two sons, Tennyson Dixon, of Walton, and S/Sgt. Gerald S. Dixon, stationed at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, Dayton, Ohio; a daughter, Mrs. Thomas Davis, of Dry Ridge; two sisters, Miss Pearl Dixon and Mrs. Elsie Scott, both of Norfolk, Va.; two brothers, Edwin Dixon of Lexington, Va., and Calvin Dixon of Detroit, Mich., and eight grandchildren.

Services were held Wednesday afternoon at the Chambers & Grubbs funeral home, Walton. Burial was in Hillcrest Cemetery, Dry Ridge.

Red Cross Fund Drive Chairmen Named In Walton and Union

Ray D. Frost, chairman of the Boone County Chapter, American Red Cross, has announced that Mrs. John Hartman has accepted the chairmanship in Walton, and Mrs. Gaylord Van Der Veer has accepted the chairmanship in Union, in the current fund drive. Both of the ladies and members of their committees will be visiting citizens of their respective communities, as will other chairmen throughout the county. The American Red Cross has spent over 27 million dollars the past year on hurricanes, floods and tornados and because their disaster fund reserve has been completely spent, every effort will be made to make this fund drive a success. For this reason the drive in Boone county will continue through the month of April.

The Boone County Chapter answers calls every day and assists servicemen and civilians with their personal and financial problems. In the past month, in one case, where it was necessary to get a serviceman home twice in one month due to the illness and death of his mother, 14 out-of-county calls, three telegrams and one long-distance call to his camp were made. This is just one of many such calls for assistance that pass through the office of the Boone County Red Cross each week.

Other fund chairmen in the county are: Beaver Lick, Mrs. J. B. Heizer; Burlington, Mrs. Clifford Groger; Constance, Mrs. Ed Ellis; Florence, Mrs. Virginia Goodridge, Hebron, John Cngler; Petersburg, Lawrence Chambers; Richwood, Mrs. Ashlin Logan; Taylorsport, Mrs. June Beacom; Verona, Mrs. John Scott. These chairman are making every effort to contact everyone, but if you should be missed in some way, contact these chairmen and they will be glad to come for your donation.

The Red Cross is a symbol of neighborliness all over the world, it rallies to the aid of every emergency, wherever and whenever disaster strikes. Conditions, along with the times, change, yet the work of the American Red Cross carries on its heritage of service. Then the solicitor calls, give what you can for this great humanitarian cause.

Monthly Social at Kenton

TheKenton and Community Volunteer Fire Department will hold their monthly social, Saturday, April 7, at 8:30 p. m. in the firehouse at Kenton. Charles Grizzell announced lunch and refreshments would be served. Proceeds will go to the fire department.

Bykota Class Says "Thanks"

The Bykota Sunday School Class of the Walton Christian Church wishes to express its thanks to everyone in and around Walton who purchased Easter flowers from this group. The orders were appreciated, and it hoped to continue this service in the future.

The class plans to have flowers for sale on Mothers' Day as well as on Memorial Day.

Services at Lebanon, Sunday

Services will be held at the Lebanon Presbyterian Church, Sunday afternoon, April 8, at 2:30, by Rev. Wilson Rhoton. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Services are held at this church the second and fourth Sunday of each month.

Young Men Are Urged To Become Members

The Walton Volunteer Fire Department has nearly completed work on its latest piece of equipment, a general service GMC truck. A few more odds and ends, and several nights of hard work and the job of mounting lights, siren, two-way radio, etc., will be completed. This piece of equipment will be used by the chief and will be the first to leave the department when a call is received.

The two-way radios are all mounted and working and it is felt, with the continued cooperation of the fire and police departments in communications, the local firemen will be better able to serve the people in their protection area.

A spokesman said, "We welcome any of the young men, home owners, or otherwise, who like to WORK on Monday nights and who want to do a service for their community to come down and join the Fire Department and learn something about fire fighting techniques."

The Ladies Auxiliary has been busy quilting a comfort donated to them by Walton Homemakers Club, No. 2. The auxiliary plans to raffle off the finished comfort at a later date, with proceeds going to help the fire department.

All the firemen would like to tell the ladies "thanks" for their help and for the hot coffee served a few cold nights the past winter.

4-H CLUB RALLY, APRIL 21

Saturday, April 21 is the date set for Boone County 4-H Club Rally Day, according to Nancy Guilfail and Ed McCandless. The meeting will be held at the Burlington School, Burlington.

Activities taking place during the day for the girls will be clothing judging, foods judging, individual demonstrations on foods and clothing, girls' speech contest, and the spring style revue. Any 4-H club member who is enrolled in a project is eligible to compete in the various activities.

Boys can participate in individual demonstrations, team demonstrations, speech contests, and the dairy judging contest. All boys enrolled in the 4-H club is eligible to participate.

Ribbons will be given to each contestant and awards will be presented to the winners.

Home Furnishing Leaders of Kenton County Meet Mar. 28

Fifty home furnishing leaders of the Kenton County Homemakers Association met Wednesday, March 28, at Trinity Methodist Church, Latonia, for the second lesson in the series on home furnishing projects, presented by Mrs. Mary E. Burroughs, Extension Specialist from the University of Kentucky. She was assisted by Zelma E. Byerly, home demonstration agent.

Mrs. Burroughs stressed the fact that correct window treatments will do more for a decorating scheme than any other single thing in a room. Problem windows were discussed at the morning session, followed by a workshop in the afternoon. Six different models of cafe curtains were made by leaders. These curtains are high fashion, and the easiest window treatment to create. The homemaker can obtain definite individuality in the making of these simple curtains.

Leaders attending were: Mesdames Harry Champ, Harold Schmidt, Robert Woinscott, Donald Riddell, J. H. Lawson, H. Ward, Howard Beeson, Charles Russell, F. M. Powers, Jos. Kunkel, Gurney Mitchell, Edward P. Smith, Fred Ficke, William Walterman, Charles Gross, Russell Mueffler, Robert F. Lange, T. B. Renaker, W. C. Tallent, Clinton Henry, Melvin Brueggen, Ray McHale, Shirley Green, James Martin, James E. Miller, Oakley Hammond, Joe Martin, C. E. Stevenson, C. Schawe, J. Huelefeld, H. L. Hodges, Earl Maegly, George Middendorf, Glenn Cartwright, Charles Tarlline, Carl Rekow, James Brown, Lawrence Mattingly, Robert Callahan, William Fahey, Dan Hacker, J. C. Reynolds, Robert Conley, James A. Rich, Arnold Motz, Wayne Giltner, D. K. Marshall, Edward Lange, Clem Witte, Maurice Lohre, Mrs. Mary E. Burroughs, and Zelma E. Byerly.

MACHINERY COSTS. One of the big [illegible] is that of [illegible] machinery. [illegible] machinery [illegible] distributed great [illegible] culture and has [illegible] of farm [illegible] for their uses some 70 million acres of land formerly needed to produce grain, hay and pasture for 25 million head of horses and mules. In so doing, it has made surplus. If several million farm workers formerly needed to care for and use workstock.

Mechanized power has also reduced some of the hazards of farming by permitting the farmers to operate around the clock, if need be, to offset adverse seasonal conditions. Certainly no commercial farmer can afford to neglect or do without needed machinery if he is to stay in the business of competitive agriculture.

But some farmers have abused machinery—they have bought it when they didn't need it, and have neglected to properly care for that which they had. Modern machinery is like the nagging wife—hard to get along with but almost impossible to get along without.

LENDING FARM EQUIPMENT is a problem for both the purchaser and the lender. The cost of machinery is high and the products produced with it are cheap. Sometimes it requires several years for farm machinery to save enough or increase production enough to pay for its cost. Much of it is used only two or three days a year. In view of these things Kentucky bankers, in a recent report "Farming in 1956," recommended that expenditures for machinery be kept at a minimum and that farmers—particularly the small operators—do more trading and exchanging of machinery among their neighbors. They also suggested that more attention be given to the care and housing of equipment.

FARM INCOME — Government estimates of a 5% decrease in farm income for 1955 does not reflect the true condition of Kentucky farmers, say some Kentucky economists. The reports are for the calendar year and include income from crops sold in January 1955—the remainder of the large 1954 tobacco crop. Most of the 1955 tobacco crop was sold by the end of the year so it is estimated that the Kentucky farm income for the 1955 crop year will show a decrease of more than 10% rather than the 5% indicated for the calendar year.

It is estimated that Kentucky farmers will have from 10 to 15% less cash to spend in 1956 than in 1955. The loss of that income will have to be offset by decreased expenditures and the home production of food offers one possibility for meeting the "squeeze." With smaller crop acreages there should be more time and space to devote to the garden and other food supplies.

Florence Homemakers

A very interesting talk on Ceylon was presented by Mrs. H. S. Hawes at the March meeting of the Florence Homemakers Club which was held in the home of Mrs. John Martin Erlanger.

Mrs. Ray Lutes gave a full report on Farm and Home Week which had been held over from the previous meeting. The project for the day was the second lesson in "Refinishing Furniture" which was given by Mrs. Ruby Hollis. It was decided to have a workshop on this project after the third lesson is given at the April meeting. Roll call was answered with a new vegetable or flower being tried for the first time this year.

Present were: Mesdames M. W. Belt, Fred Bignell, Ray Lutes, George Tanner, Charles Goodridge, John Schram, H. T. Barnett, H. S. Hawes, Grant Maddox, Ruby Hollis, John Martin, Francis Dempsey, Mae Griffin, H. F. Wesler, W. H. Wesler, Thomas Randall, and Misses Jane Scott and Evelyn Tanner.

The next meeting will be held April 24, at 10:30 a. m., in the home of Mrs. H. T. Barnett, 7607 Dixie Highway, Florence.

CARD OF THANKS—

We wish to express our sincere thanks to our many friends and neighbors for the kindness extended to us during the recent illness and death of our beloved wife and mother, Sara C. Huey.

Especially do we thank the doctors and nurses for their loving care, the ministers for their words of comfort, the donors of food, the many cards of sympathy, the gifts to her church, the beautiful floral tributes, and the Taliaferro funeral home for their efficiency in conducting the funeral.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

International Uniform Sunday School Lessons

BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

Our Mission

Lesson for April 8, 1956

WHEN a great bomber sets off on a military mission, or when a plane loaded with leaflets takes off for a propaganda mission, no matter how good the plane is otherwise, the mission will be a failure without three essentials for success. One is gas enough to reach the target. The second is an engine that will not "conk out" going or returning, an airplane that can be relied on to function under all weather conditions. The third essential is that the [illegible]

Dr. Foreman

The Mission of the Church

[illegible] Jesus in "Go." [illegible] Sometimes all that is meant by that expression is simply a church that has meetings once in a while. But that is not the idea Christ had in mind. The original Christian church had meetings, and good ones they were, but it began to go after the meetings were over and the disciples scattered everywhere, bearing the Word, the good news of God's love, the good news about Jesus. The church was young when it was growing, going where it took the message to new places and to people who had never heard it before. A going church in short is a missionary church. Some people don't like the word "missions." It seems to carry an unpleasant suggestion of superiority. Not at all! We do have a superior article—the Christian faith and life. But we do not have to be conceited about it. Does a salesman have to be conceited if he is selling the best line on the market? Does a doctor have to be conceited about prescribing the best drugs yet invented? We did not invent our religion, God gave it to us. He gave it to us to keep and to share; and if we do not share it we shall hardly keep it.

Power of the Spirit

Going back to that airplane a moment: Enough gas, plus an efficient engine, spells POWER. No matter how important the mission is, no matter how good the intentions are, without the power everything collapses. So it is with the church. Our mission has been set by God himself. But when the church takes off with its tanks empty, and some home-made do-it-yourself tinkered-up sewing machine in place of a good engine, it will never accomplish its mission no matter how good it is. Wanting to reach the target is not enough. Don't we all pray, "Thy Kingdom come on earth . . . ?" That is a missionary prayer. Don't most churches offer prayer for missions, and even take up offerings for missions? Yet any one who knows the church will tell you that the church's missionary responsibility is shirked and slacked. We play at missions, we leave millions on millions without a ray of Gospel. The record of many a congregation, if you looked at it, would never suggest that that church knew much or cared much about what Jesus said on his church in his solemn last word's: "Go—into all the world!" The trouble is that the Church does not have the power. It could have the same power the first Christians had, the power of the Holy Spirit. Only a Spirit-filled church is going to be much of a missionary church.

Power of Testimony

The other necessity of the plane on a "mission" is personnel. Power alone is not enough. There must be men who are prepared to use that power. Now Christians individually, or the church at large cannot "use" the Holy Spirit, for no one can use God. But God's power is not poured out on just anybody (as many stories in the Bible show). His power comes to those who devote themselves to him and his cause. The early church waited for the Spirit, waited for power; but once they had received it they proceeded to carry out Jesus' directive: Go into all the world! A Christian, or a church, that wants God's power for selfish reasons, will not be given it. A Christian, or a church, that prays for God's power so as to be able to witness for him,—so as to win others for him,—will find that prayer answered. The power will come. If the church today is making too feeble a mark on one world, is it because the church does not seek true spiritual power for true spiritual service?

KENTUCKIANS

IN WASHINGTON

By Gil Kingsbury

Names Make News:

Kentuckians made headline news in Washington. One of the most important names was that of Egar Murphee, a Kentuckian who has been away from home a long time.

Dr. Murphee has been named to head the nation's guided missile program. He's a University of Kentucky graduate and he's been playing a behind the scenes role for many years in the development of the atomic bomb and other weapons. He makes a living as a research expert for Standard Oil and lives in New Jersey. But older Wildcat fans will remember him for his work as a football player in the 1920's.

Wedding Bells:

Paul Porter, another Kentuckian in Washington, also made the front page of the Washington papers. It was revealed that this former Lexingtonian, and also a U. K. alumnus, is going to wed Kathleen Winsor, the author of "Forever Amber."

It will be his second marriage and Miss Winsor's third.

During the Truman administration Porter held a variety of top level jobs, his most important being OPA administrator. And he has got a reputation as being one of the best straw-stirrers in the city. At one time he had ambitions of being a candidate for the senate from Kentucky. But at this time he spends his time practicing law.

Letter to Ike:

Eight year old Sarah Tuggle, the daughter of former Lieutenant Governor Kenneth Tuggle, goes to the same school as young Dan Eisenhower, the seven-year-old grandson of the President.

The other day Sarah sent a letter to the President in which she complained that it is difficult to see David. Too many Secret Service men around him, she explained.

Reporters scented a story of young love and raced to the Tuggle home. But romance was denied. Sarah, so she said, had merely tried to urge Ike to run again and threw in a few added observations on extreneous matters. Governor Tuggle is a member of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Tobacco Matters:

So much for homes in the news. We come now to tobacco and tariffs and politics.

Senator Butler, from Maryland, told the Upper House the other day that the tariff on imported Swiss watches has nothing to do with a drop in the export of tobacco. In fact, he said, tobacco shipments to Switzerland has increased and any story to the contrary is false—and politically inspired.

W. O. Gilreath, McCreary county farm leader, addressed a 4-H club leaders conference in Harlan county.

More than 200 people in Perry county reported they checked on deeds and wills following a lesson on property rights in the homemakers clubs of the county.

Pruning and Feeding Important For Shrubs

A butcher knife has lots of uses, but pruning shrubs is not one of them, says Prof. N. R. Elliott, Extension specialist in landscaping at the University of Kentucky. In fact, a knife of any kind will not serve the purpose, he said.

Elliott recommends instead a pair of pruning snips, and those kept sharp so they make clean, smooth cuts. The time to use them is immediately after shrubs have finished blooming.

Here is Prof. Elliott's simple rule for pruning shrubs: With a pair of pruning snips, remove about one-fourth to one-third of the old, black or dark brown canes by cutting them 2 inches from the ground. This will reduce the size of the shrub more leaves will appear on the lower stems, and more and better blooms will be encouraged. Furthermore, it will not be noticeable that pruning has been done because the form of the shrub has not been destroyed.

After pruning, dig the soil under the spread of the branches to a depth of about 2 inches. Then scatter three or four handfuls of high grade fertilizer on the cultivated area. Old shrubs can be renovated in this way, and be better than new ones set in their places.

Evergreens such as hemlock, juniper, taxus, fir, spruce, pine and arbor vitae should not be pruned until June or the first half of July. By that time they will have made most of their new growth and may be pruned.

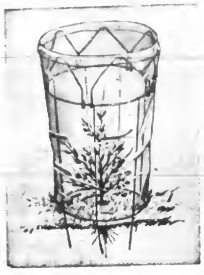
Plastic Row Covering Aids Vegetable Growing



Vegetable growers who want to market their crops several weeks in advance of regular outdoor plantings will find of interest the results of work done with low-cost polyethylene plastic row covering at the UK Experiment Station. The covering can protect crops from light frost temperatures as low as 25 degrees, and the cost of producing the vegetables is much less than with plastic greenhouses.

Tomatoes so protected at the Experiment Station farm last summer were sold from June 5-15 at higher prices than those grown in greenhouses, the extra returns paying many times the cost of the plastic row covering. Though the yield was less than that outside-grown plants, the profit was greater because the fruit was marketed when the prices were high. Bibb lettuce was also successfully grown.

A new leaflet No. 167 "Plastic Row Covering," tells how to apply the covering and hold it down in wind or rainstorms, how to inspect the crop, and how to provide insulation for the plants. Get a copy from your county agent or from the UK Agricultural Extension Service, Experiment Station, Lexington.

About 150,000 Kentucky certified virus-free strawberry plants were ordered for delivery in Montgomery county at setting time.

THE GREEN THUMB PLANT BONNET

Serves dual purpose for tomatoes. Protects plant from frost; when danger has passed, remove plastic covering and wire frame serves as stake. Wire sticks in ground to hold bonnet in place. Plant has ample room to grow.

Made of durable plastic and heavy wire. Lasts several seasons. Easy to store; stacks like hampers. Covers replaced at small cost. Ideal for commercial growers. Take advantage of the early market prices.

Wheat Profits Are Boosted by Adding Plant Food in Spring

MIDWEST farmers can make money through the use of fertilizer on their small grain crops this spring, reports the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee.

The extra bushels per acre

can pay for the cost of the plant food and leave a substantial profit besides, says the committee.

Research by agronomists has shown that when crops are already well supplied with phosphate and potash, a top-dressing of nitrogen fertilizer can be profitable.

Wheat yields increased an average 5.3 bushels per acre for each 25 pounds of actual nitrogen top-dressed per acre in early spring, reports R. K. Stivers, Purdue University agronomist, in citing nine-year Indiana tests.

Farmer experience in some Midwestern states has shown that it often pays to use from 200 to 300 pounds of a complete fertilizer containing nitrogen, phosphate and potash, such as 10-10-10, the committee points out, especially where new seedings are being established.

Spring seeded oats responds well to fertilizer, particularly when nitrogen is added to phosphate and potash fertilizer, according to Stivers. Oats yields in Indiana increased up to 12 bushels per acre when 36 pounds of nitrogen was added to 0-12-12 fertilizer applied at the rate of 300 pounds per acre.

Nitrogen in fertilizer can be drilled with oats at seeding time, or top-dressed after the crop emerges, Stivers says.

Well-Fed Corn Takes Drought in Stride

Fertilized corn survived last summer's extreme drought and outyielded unfertilized corn by at least 30 to 40 bushels per acre, reports the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee, in summarizing results of 1955 Wisconsin tests.

In fertilizer tests conducted by Prof. C. J. Chapman, University of Wisconsin extension soils specialists, says the committee, corn that received extra nitrogen got off to a more vigorous start and developed stronger root systems. The crop was able to "take it" when a record heat wave and drought hit during August and early September. The corn for the most part held its dark green color and vigor right through the dry period, says Chapman.

Check Needed Repairs On Farm Equipment Now

Give your farm equipment some careful inspection now if you are to get the most out of it when the busy season starts, advises Prof. J. B. Kelley, head of the Department of Agricultural Engineering at the University of Kentucky. Once spring work is under way, there's not much time for extras.

Putting a machine into shape means cleaning it, oiling or greasing, checking for worn parts, tightening loose parts or bolts, and placing orders for parts that are lost, broken or worn. Fuel lines and wiring systems should be checked, also, and when placing an order for a new part, be prepared to give your dealer the name of the machine, the number on the casting, and the year the machine was bought.

If a new machine is in your plans, look around among your neighbors to learn what they like about their machines. Then visit several dealers to find which make offers the most advantages.

Too many valuable pieces of machinery are left unprotected from the winter in the field or open barn lot, said Mr. Kelley. Their years of service may be considerably reduced by such treatment.

Chemical Nicotine Test Made of Boone County Tobacco Grown In 1955

The Experiment Station [illegible] has completed [illegible] chemical [illegible] of Burley [illegible] samples [illegible] on Boone county farms in 1955 [illegible] to Jo[illegible] county agent.

The 1955 [illegible] has been [illegible] Tobacco Company represents [illegible] highest quality crop that [illegible]. The highest price [illegible] the [illegible] cigarette manufacturer. To [illegible] of the [illegible] samples were obtained from all over the state and analyzed for nicotine.

The nicotine level is but one measure of tobacco quality. However since the nicotine content of most cigarettes is adjusted to about 2% by the manufacturer [illegible] provide a basis for judging how much of a given tobacco can be used in making cigarettes. Thus much more of a tobacco which analyzed 3% could be used than of a tobacco which analyzed 6%. Difficulty in blending would also be experienced with 6% tobacco since no way is known to prevent localized hot spots in cigarettes made from such tobacco.

A total of 2,724 samples from 675 farms and 78 counties from the 1955 crop were analyzed with the following average results, which can be compared with the Boone county crop of 1955.

Nicotine Content

	Fly	Lugs	Leaf	Red	Tips
Kentucky	2.25	3.43	3.90	3.86	3.3[illegible]
Boone Co.	2.11	3.60	4.56	3.60	3.4[illegible]

The results bear out the belief that the 1955 crop was a high quality one. The average for 1955 is very [illegible] the [illegible] level for Burley tobacco [illegible] growing season for the 1955 tobacco [illegible] high quality crop. Even with [illegible] growing conditions, however [illegible] analyzed five to seven per [illegible] were found.

[illegible] associated with ex[illegible] nitrogen fertilizer. Since [illegible] tobacco the Boone county farmer [illegible] for a high quality low nicotine [illegible] useful to the manufacturers, it may be well to review the factors which are important in the production of such a [illegible] Mr. C[illegible] said.

1—Fertilization

All tobacco land should have a soil test each year. The use of adequate fertilizer is a necessity for the production of high quality tobacco. However excessive fertilization especially with large quantities of nitrogen is detrimental to quality. When excessive quantities of nitrogen are used the nicotine content can be built up to very high level even in a favorable year.

2—Weather Conditions

[illegible] dry weather [illegible] higher than a crop [illegible] favorable growing season [illegible] the use of moderate amounts of nitrogen and recommended cultural practices will help to keep the nicotine content low and result in a higher quality crop.

3—Cultural Practices

Topping a tobacco plant at any time during its growth will result in an immediate increase in the nicotine content of the plant. If suckers are allowed to grow until cutting time the building up in nicotine content is minimized and a useful crop is obtained. Early topping and close suckering can result in a very high nicotine crop in any year.

4—Varieties Used

When grown under identical conditions some varieties invariably produce less nicotine than other varieties. It is wise to use one of the lower nicotine varieties Kentucky 41A, 35, 58, and Burley 21.

5—Sod vs. Continuous Culture

Under ideal conditions high quality crops can be grown on land in continuous culture. It is very easy however to build up the fertility of the land to excessive levels through the continued use of tobacco stalks, manure, legume cover crops and commercial fertilizer. When this happens, low quality high nicotine crops result. Turning under a good sod or the use of an adequate rotation will usually produce high quality useful tobacco but the benefits of this practice are lost if excessive nitrogen is used or improper cultural practices are followed.

Keep '56 Corn Profits High With Good Soil Management

Higher yields per acre from well-fed corn mean lower costs of production and more net return per acre.

PROFITS from 1956 corn crops can be kept high by good soil management including fertilizer use that enables farmers to get bigger yields per acre on fewer acres, reports the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee.

Higher yields per acre mean lower costs of production per bushel, the committee points out. This helps a farmer get more net return, even if prices decline.

"University of Missouri research indicates that by using fertilizer in teamwork with other good soil management practices, farmers of that state can cut the average cost of producing corn from 84 to 58 cents per bushel," says the committee.

"By accomplishing this, farmers could realize bigger profits from a smaller total corn production on fewer acres than they now receive from a larger overall acreage."

1—Keep fertility high by adding sufficient fertilizer containing balanced supplies of nitrogen, phosphate and potash to meet the peak demands of the corn crop during the growing season. A soil test can be a good guide.

2—Match the high fertility with a high stalk population, so the crop can make full use of all the nutrients and moisture the soil can supply. Plant proved, well-adapted hybrid seed.

3—Keep insects under control.

4—Where needed, use mechanical conservation methods such as contouring and strip cropping to keep moisture at home and cut down erosion losses.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Adkins of Lippscomb Road are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son, Donald Ray, March 27. The Adkins now have a fine family of two boys and two girls.

The police of Paris, Ky. recovered G. C. Richardson's new Chevrolet which was stolen from the parking lot of Oak Ridge Baptist Church last Wednesday evening during prayer meeting. Let's learn from this experience and always remove the keys from our cars even when we go to church.

The Intermediate Sunday School Department of Oak Ridge Baptist Church held a skating party at the Walton Rollerdrome last Friday evening which was enjoyed by all.

It was nice to see every one at church Easter Sunday. It would be even nicer if they would attend all year. There were 189 in Sunday School at Oak Ridge Baptist Church and every seat was filled for the morning w rship service.

Taylor Mill Church of Christ had 115 in Sunday School and a full house for church service. They had an Easter egg hunt in Plantation Heights Sunday afternoon, which was enjoyed by all the children of the church.

Mrs. Ed Egger has been ill with a strep throat and is staying with her son, Roscoe while she recovers.

Mrs. O. M. Hunney of Decursey Pike has been ill with bronchitis, but she is improving and able to be out again.

With Easter coming so early, there were few flowers out this year, but the bright yellow daffodils all opened up just in time to brighten up the decorations of the churches and the Easter dinner tables.

Mr. and Mrs. Aldin Steinhauser and infant daughter, Dale Anna, returned to their home in Lexington, last Thursday. This has been visiting Mrs. Steinhauser's mother, Mrs. Estill Webster, since the birth of Dale Anna.

Mrs. Ruby Lipscomb and Mrs. Lizzie Adkins spent Easter with Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Harris.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Mitchell spent last week with their grandchildren in Louisville, Ky.

The Ladies of the Lakes, of Latonia Lakes, plan to hold their annual festival on June 8-9 this year. They wish to let other organizations planning similar festivals know their dates are set far enough in advance so their will be no conflicting dates.

Mrs. Clyde Clark of Harris Pike, has been confined to her home after suffering a deep burn on her leg when a stove lid fell against her limb.

We are happy to report that Robert Rothfuss is home from the Veterans Hospital and slowly improving.

Charles Sewell, fifth and sixth grade teacher at Taylor Mill School, was quite sick at St. Elizabeth Hospital last week. Mrs. Florence Barnes substituted for him.

With the warmer weather, the fish have started biting in the local pay lakes and farm ponds. I would like to propose a law that the fellow who catches the fish has to clean them.

WHITES TOWER

Cecil Clay is still in the hospital with a badly broken leg which seems to have trouble in healing. We hope he gets better soon.

This community was shocked to learn of the death of an old resident of Taylor Mill Pike, Skees Richardson, who died at St. Elizabeth Hospital after a short illness. Skees has a brother in Indianapolis, Ind. and a sister, Sister Mary Herbert of Ashland, who was here to see him just a few days before his death. A faithful old worker has gone to his reward at the ripe old age of 75.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Kidwell of 6408 Taylor Mill, are entertaining a baby boy since March 16.

Mr. and Mrs. Ottis Martin of Route 1, Independence, are the proud parents of a boy, born March 20.

Donald Coppage of Route 1, is yelling down the cistern to get the echo. "Daddy" to see how it sounds since the arrival of a baby girl, March 18.

On March 26, at 3:30 p. m. the Independence 4-H Club held its regular meeting in the Courthouse at Independence. A discussion was had on when and where the 4-H fair would be held. When the 4-H camp would be held and the cost of attending were also discussed. Officers were then elected for 1956, as follows: President, Jerry Binder; vice president, Timmy Stephenson; secretary and treasurer, Peggy Binder; recorder, Janice Smith. The meeting at different homes during the summer was then discussed followed by adjournment.

Independence Homemakers

The Independence Homemakers Club met at the home of Mrs. Charles Davis for the March meeting, with Mrs. Cleo Snelson as co-hostess.

Mrs. Davis had charge of the devotional on the subject, "Am I A Good Parent?" Scripture read, Ephesians 6:1-4. Mrs. Dan Hacker and Mrs. J. C. Reynolds gave the lesson on home furnishings. Mrs. Logan Wayman explained the cost of planting shrubs and grass. An auction sale followed with Mrs. William House as auctioneer.

In attendance were: Mesdames J. C. Reynolds, William House, Logan Wayman, Cleo Snelson, Walter Moser, Dan Hacker, J. E. Beers, Herbert Witt, Vinson Voglpohle, Aaron Neinhaus, John Leslie, Charles Davis. Visitors were Miss Zelma Byerly and Mrs. Catherine Kunkel.

We are sorry to report that Paul Dennis is still nursing a badly broken ankle and we hate to see him out again. We missed him Sunday at our church services.

Rev. Mann delivered two beautiful and very impressive sermons at both the Methodist Church Sunday morning at 9:00 and 11:00. Also had a good attendance at Sunday School, and we hope you all will try to be present again next Sunday.

I am sure everyone in the community joins in the heartfelt Easter day wish that all had smiling in our hearts as well.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Finnell entertained for dinner Sunday his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Finnell, Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernie Cavanaugh and family and Ora Cavanaugh were guests of friends in Covington Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wynford Riley and little daughter of Lexington spent the week end with relatives in the community.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Willoughby and little daughter left for Florida Friday for a several weeks' visit with relatives.

The neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Denney were sorry to see them moving Saturday. They are locating near Piner.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Walking and family visited their son at Maryville Ky. Sunday, where Curtis is in college.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Hanna and sons of Taylor Mill Road, were guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hanna on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Barnett are entertaining him at their home a couple of weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Fe. Goedde are progressing nicely on their new home on State Highway Road.

Joe Sweeney and family received the sad news this week of Mr. Sweeney's brother, John, passing away very suddenly of a heart attack at his home in Upper Wyoming. His funeral was conducted here Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Estes were also guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Estes and J. B. Sunday.

House Cleaning

Mrs. James Meismer bought a lot of Jelled Magic paint, seven rolls of border, paint brush and paint roller. Several came after tobacco canvas and tobacco seed. Buddy Whitson bought Magic Foam to clean his car floor mat and upholstery. Harris Moore took home a can of Bruce's floor cleaner. Helen Stephenson bought more paint and a paint brush. Mrs. Henry Catlett hurried to town to get Henry some bolts for his tractor; he was broken down. A fellow from over in Kenton County needed a [illegible] belt with 9 [illegible] thread and bent with a hook with a hole drilled in it.

Brewster made this for him in a little time. We do a lot of this kind of work [illegible] or a machine shop here. [illegible] needed water hose and galvanized pipe [illegible] [illegible]

[illegible]

Ray W[illegible] mowing machine [illegible] Pentecostal Church [illegible]

This is baby chick time—we have gas brooders, oil brooders and electric brooders, also all sizes of feeders and fountains. We have 100 chick size electric hover for only 16.50. We have two 72 Jamesway gas hovers for only 59.50 each and that old reliable Jamesway oil brooder for 39.00. It will soon be lawn mower time, so be sure and see CONRAD before you buy or trade. You can get a better lawn mower for less money from CONRAD than any other place I know because we have the four best mowers at a lower price and when you buy from CONRAD and it is not perfect, you call CONRAD and we will, like on all other CONRAD hardware items, make them right.

Burt and Annie Powell were in today—Annie has been in all winter with a broken ankle. They bought enough Jelled Magic paint to paint their dining room. Mrs. Pearl Lamn, also from Verona, wanted a gray ceiling for her room, so she decided to mix two colors together to get the light shade of gray. Brewster [illegible] a new linoleum for Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Meadows. [illegible] bought in his sheep shearing combs and [illegible] sharpened; he bought a [illegible]

John Craig was in town today; he bought a collar pad, a plow point, a clevice and a tobacco canvas—we [illegible] him up as he always walks to town. [illegible] and wife were in getting [illegible] [illegible] wall covering for their bathroom. [illegible] Margaret Wilson are doing some painting [illegible] Mr. and Mrs. Clay [illegible] were in today getting a few pieces of hardware. [illegible] of Elliston Rural Route [illegible]

Cancer Crusade Under Way In Boone County; The Goal Is $2,368.00

After weeks of preparation, volunteers will get into action this week in the American Cancer Society's 1956 crusade to control cancer in Boone County.

In Florida, the state of [illegible] was set at $[illegible]. The goal for Boone County, the first under control [illegible] is $2,368.

Many of the volunteers [illegible] their own homes [illegible] other areas with which they [illegible] Leaders solicited, [illegible] trained, are carrying on [illegible] Mrs. W. D. [illegible] Mrs. [illegible] counts, [illegible] ment of fact, they are [illegible] ing literature. This material [illegible] home and [illegible] in the proper light. It points out the great importance of periodic health examinations as a safeguard against that disease, and tells of the [illegible] seven danger signals.

Those attending [illegible] at the home of Mrs. [illegible] Florence chairman and [illegible] Mrs. J. R. Johnson, Mrs. W. H. Weaver, Mrs. [illegible] Erlanger, Mrs. A. B. [illegible] Mrs. T. C. Crume, Mrs. A. H. [illegible] Mrs. Omer Brooks, Hebron [illegible] Mrs. H. [illegible] Mrs. Marvin Kendall, Walton chairman; Mrs. Dan Roberts, Mrs. James Whalin, Mrs. Ralph Carpenter, Mrs. Sam Sleet, Mrs. W. W. Rouse, Mrs. Lorena Myers and Mrs. Julia A. Rouse.

Chairmen of communities unable to attend were Mrs. Frank Rouse, Burlington; Mrs. S. H. Nunnelly, Bracht; Mrs. James Ransom, Grant; Mrs. C. Herbstreit, Constance; Mrs. Grover Ransom, Verona; and Mrs. Dorothy Johnson, Walton.

The fine spirit of all those taking part in this campaign promises complete success. Workers rest their case against cancer on their efforts and on the concern of the people of Boone County in saving lives from man's most cruel enemy.

WILLIAM CULBERTSON

Services for William Robert Culbert son, retired Kenton county farmer, were held Tuesday afternoon at the Wilmington Baptist Church, Fiskburg. Burial in the church cemetery.

Mr. Culbertson, who was 87 years old, died last Saturday at his home on Demossville Route 1. He was a member of Wilmington Baptist Church.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Hattie Mae Daugherty Culbertson; a daughter, Mrs. Iva Spegal of Chandler, Ind.; four sons, Robert Culbertson of Gary, Ind.; Foster Culbertson of Tallahassee, Fla.; Leonard Culbertson of Lebanon, Ohio; and Henry Culbertson of Fiskburg; a sister, Mrs. Belle Sparrow of Crittenden; 25 grandchildren; 27 great grandchildren; and two great-great-grandchildren.

"Fix It, Inc." To Be Presented April 17 At Boone Co. High

The F. H. A. and F. F. A. of Boone County High School, Florence, will present a three act comedy, "Fix It, Inc." on Tuesday, April 17, at 7:30 p. m., in the school auditorium. Tickets are on sale and may be purchased from any member of the cast or any of the FHA or FFA members.

"Fix It, Inc." is outstanding for its unique characters and rapid dialogue, concerning itself with two young college men and a girl, who attempt to create their own places in the world. The plot entails many humorous situations which arrise on the first day of their business experience, as they organize "Fix It Inc" an enterprise dedicated to fixing the ills of the nation.

ATKINSON NAMED DEAN

Rev. Alfred E. Atkinson

At a meeting on Erlanger Circle, of Florence, April 8, plans were made for a training school for church workers in the Methodist Churches in Boone and Kenton counties.

The training school will be held at the Erlanger Methodist Church June 3, 4 and 5, 1956. Rev. Alfred E. Atkinson, pastor of the Walton Methodist church, was named dean of the school.

C. E. HAMBRICK

Services for Claude E. Hambrick Sr., former resident of Florence, were held Tuesday afternoon at the Stith funeral home, Florence. Burial was in Burlington Cemetery.

Mr. Hambrick, who was 61 years old, died last Saturday at his home in Texarkana, Texas, where he was a salesman in a shoe store. A native of Grant county, he lived in Florence most of his life. He was an Army veteran of World War I.

He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Emma Hambrick, Florence; two brothers, Theodore Hambrick, owner of the Hambrick Lumber Co., Florence, and Lehman Hambrick, Florence trucker and excavator; a sister, Mrs. Rebecca Henry of Cincinnati; a son, Charles Hambrick, Jr. of Danville and two daughters, Miss Charlene Hambrick of Danville, and Miss Carmen Hambrick of Lexington.

Bride-to-Be Showered

A shower was given recently in honor of Miss Nancy Yazell, bride-to-be of Walter Ratermann, at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. H. E. Moser, South East Mitchell. Those present were:

Miss Yazell; Mrs. W. C. Howell, Mrs. Jacob Raush, Mrs. Ray Mains, Mrs. John Kahmann, Mrs. Joe Ratermann, Mrs. Elizabeth Stark, Mrs. H. C. Beers, Mrs. Thomas Messingschlager, Miss Patti Messingschlager, Miss Elaine Guttridge, Mrs. Milton Hunter, Mrs. George Waite, Mrs. Cliff Dilthunt, Mrs. Chester Rahschulte, Mrs. Vikki Howell, and Miss Donna Waite.

Many beautiful gifts were received, and delicious buffet refreshments enjoyed by all. Games were played, and everyone wish the bride-to-be much happiness.

The Cecilian 4-H Club of Independence will meet in the church basement on Monday, April 16, at 8:00 p. m.

At the March 28 meeting, Tom Riley discussed the comp and what day the group would be going.

Awarded Coal Contract

The Readnour Coal & Feed concern of Walton, was the successful bidder for the coal contract for all of the Kenton County Schools for the coming year. This speaks well for this outstanding local business.

Kenton 4-H Electric Meeting

Leader Jerry Ehlman, assisted by his father, Eugene Ehlman, held his first year electric project meeting March 1. Participating in this project are: Pat Ross, Buddy Beck, Lynn and Madeline Cross, Richard and Roger Thomas, and Kent Cramer. They completed their pin-up lamp and no fuses were blown.

Taking Tank Training

Army Captain Chester E. Clark, son of William A. Clark, Independence, recently left Fort Riley, Kansas, for tank training at Camp Irwin, Calif. The captain and his unit are scheduled to return to Fort Riley early in May.

The captain, company commander, entered the Army in 1944 and is a veteran of World War II. His wife, Janet, lives in Manhattan, Kansas.

E. R. Mitchell Speaks At April Meeting Of Walton Literary Club

"Possible Growth and Progress In Boone County," was the subject of an interesting talk given by E. R. Mitchell of Covington at the April meeting of the Walton Woman's Literary Club, at the Phoenix Restaurant with Mrs. John Myers as hostess.

Mr. Mitchell, who is an official of the Union Light, Heat & Power Co., declared that Walton is well located as a business center, within easy access to a large city with two railroads and a good highway. The speaker also noted the new school buildings and churches in the community as an example of growth and progress.

Mrs. I. L. Lusby, chairman of the nominating committee, presented the following names of officers to serve for the coming year. President, Mrs. F. S. Thompson; vice president Mrs. W. W. Rouse; secretary, Mrs. Nicholas T. Welsh; treasurer Mrs. G. C. Ransom. The officers were unanimously elected.

Mrs. A. E. Atkinson gave the spiritual guidance with Scripture reading, and closing with prayer.

The president, Mrs. Julia A. Rouse, opened the meeting with the pledge to the flag, followed by the club collect, with Miss Emma Jane Miller leading.

An interesting letter from District Governor Lois Leslie, Greenup, concerning the State and National Federations, was read by Mrs. Rouse.

After adjournment, a delicious dessert course was served.

Members responding to roll call were: Mrs. A. E. Atkinson, Mrs. J. R. Wallace, Mrs. J. C. Bedinger, Mrs. J. S. Webster, Mrs. C. S. Chambers, Mrs. F. S. Thompson, Mrs. J. R. Conrad, Mrs. A. P. Stephens, Mrs. B. W. Franks, Mrs. Sam B. Sleet, Mrs. A. H. Gaines, Mrs. W. D. Scroggin, Mrs. W. K. Grubbs, Mrs. W. W. Rouse, Mrs. A. R. Johnson, Mrs. W. O. Rouse, Mrs. Marvin Kendall, Mrs. Julia A. Rouse, Mrs. D. L. Lusby, Mrs. G. C. Ransom, Miss Emma Jane Miller, Mrs. C. W. Ransler, Mrs. John Myers, Mrs. J. E. McCabe. Guests in attendance were Mrs. Gilbert Groger, Mrs. O. K. Powers, and Mrs. Gertrude Gardt.

K. M. Johnson Improving

Kircher M. Johnson, son of Mrs. Bessie C. Johnson of South Main Street, and a veteran of World War II, is recovering nicely at Booth Hospital, Covington, from recent injuries. He is now able to sit up some, and his family is greatly encouraged at his progress.

Berean Class to Meet

The monthly meeting of the Berean Sunday School Class will be held at the home of Hazel Tungate, on Walton-Nicholson Road, Thursday, April 12, at 8:00 p. m. All members are urged to be present.

JAKE F. CLEEK

Funeral services for Jake F. Cleek, 76, former Boone County Fiscal Court member and a widely known scientific farmer, were held at 10:30 a. m., Saturday, April 7, at his home on Richwood Road, Walton. Rev. Julian Charles, pastor of Richwood Presbyterian Church, was in charge, and was assisted by Rev. Donald Hopkins, a former pastor, who is now at Crescent Springs. Burial was in Highland Cemetery, Fort Mitchell.

Mr. Cleek requested that no flowers be sent, but rather friends make a contribution to their favorite charity.

The deceased, a son of James and Martha Fry Cleek, passed away at his home last Thursday. He was also a flower grower, and had won honors in the Cincinnati Flower Show.

Mr. Cleek was one of the organizers of the Boone County Beagle Club. A graduate of the Ohio Dental College, in Cincinnati, he practiced dentistry for ten years in Walton and Dry Ridge. He gave this up, however, to devote all his time to farming and, at that time, the raising of fine hogs.

Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Emily Hughes Cleek, and a number of cousins.

The Chambers and Grubbs funeral home, Walton, had charge of arrangements.

NEW CAR BURNS

O. J. Struve, a farmer of Richwood Road, Walton, Monday night had a hard luck fishing story.

Mr. Struve said that about 7:00 p. m., when on his way to a fishing lake, driving his new 1956-model car, he noticed the interior filling with smoke. The front seat felt uncomfortably warm.

Stopping the car, he jerked out the front seat and a mass of flames shot up, almost singing his face. He ran to a nearby creek for a hatful of water. "One trip made me realize the futility of it all," Struve said.

State police, seeing his predicament, notified the Walton fire department. All that was left when the department arrived, was a blackened, smouldering hulk.

A short circuit was given as the possible cause of the fire, police said.

April 30 Application Deadline For 1955 Wool Payments

Wool growers are reminded to file their applications for payment under the Wool Incentive Program with their local county ASC office before May 1, 1956, on all wool and lambs and yearlings which were sold during the 1955 marketing year, which runs from March 31, 1955 to April 1, 1956. This announcement was made today by Russell Rector, Chairman of the Kenton County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

Mr. Rector stated that producers who present the necessary sales records when submitting their application will receive an incentive payment which will amount to about one-third of the total value of the wool which they marketed. Actual payment will be made during August or September of this year.

Spends Easter at Home

Verona Lake Ranch Is Sold; To Become A Large-Scale Folk Park

Verona Lake Ranch, Verona, was recently sold to Thurston Moore by Bill Scroggin, and will be developed into a large-scale folk park with home shows every Sunday throughout the summer. Mr. Moore is publisher of the famous "Hillbilly Scrapbooks." He has taken Smokey Warren as a partner, who will serve as master of ceremonies. Warren is well known throughout the East as a radio and TV personality.

The park is now being reconstructed and will feature amusements of all kinds, as well as picnic tables, grills, playground for children, etc.

A big free show will be presented on April 29, which will start shortly after noon. The entertainment will be celebrating the fourth anniversary of the Jimmie Skinner Music Center.

The grand opening will take place Memorial Day (May 30), and will feature headline attractions. Ernest Tubb and his Texas Troubadors will be present, as well as other headliners. The program will begin at 1:00 p. m.

Verona PTA Sponsors Polio Drive April 20th

WILLIS K. ARRASMITH

Willis K. Arrasmith, of Union, Ky., Route 1, died April 5 at his home. A native of Gallatin county, he was 80 years old.

Surviving him are his widow, Mrs. Ida Arrasmith; four daughters, Misses Luttie, Annie and Alva Arrasmith, all at home, and Mrs. Maude McNutt of Covington, three sons, Thomas and Wayne, both at home, and Robert Arrasmith of Phoenix, Ariz.; two brothers, James of Union, and Frank Arrasmith of Florence; two sisters, Mrs. Stella Sullivan of Burlington and Mrs. Hattie Chambers of Dayton, Ohio, and four grandchildren.

Services were conducted at 11 a. m., Saturday at Big Bone Baptist Church, with burial in the church cemetery.

The Chambers and Grubbs funeral home, Florence, had charge of arrangements.

District F.F.A. Day Held at Cynthiana, On Friday, April 6

The Simon Kenton chapter of Future Farmers of America took part in the Northern Kentucky district FFR Day, held last Friday at Harrison County High School, Cynthiana.

Nearly 500 Future Farmers, representing 18 high school chapters, participated in the event.

Ratings of Simon Kenton chapter members who took part in the individual contests were:

Roy Bell, hay, superior, 2nd place; T. L. Stephenson, corn, excellent Richard Wolsing, beef, good; Gerald Elliott, dairy, fair; Frank Barberick, swine, good; T. L. Stephenson, soil and water, good. Omar Hollon, home improvement, superior, 1st place; Gerald Greer, tobacco, superior, 2nd place; Jerry Ehlman, scrapbook, superior, and Larry Smith, public speaking, superior. In the group contests the local chapter rated "good" in chapter meeting team.

Omar Hollon of Crittenden, Route 1, will represent the Simon Kenton chapter in the state contests during the Kentucky FFA's 26th annual convention in Louisville, June 1, 2 and 3. The local chapter will represent the district in "home improvement" at the state contests.

MRS. FLORA GRICE

Mrs. Flora Mullins Grice of Demossville, Route 1, died Thursday, April 5 at her home. A lifelong resident of Kenton county, she was 73 years old.

Mrs. Grice leaves only a son, Roy Alvin Mullins, of Covington.

Services were held Saturday morning at the Allison and Rose funeral home in Covington, with Rev. P. Ennis Taylor, pastor of the Madison Avenue Baptist Church, officiating. Burial was in the Independence Cemetery.

Road Construction Project

Contractors have been invited by the State Department of Highways to bid on a construction project in Boone county. Bids will be opened April 20. The project planned calls for the Constance-Hebron-Petersburg-Belleview Road from Kenton county line to Ky. 1334, at Hunter's Store, 2.000 miles. Bituminous concrete class 1 binder.

ASKS COOPERATION

The Southern Railroad has made a request through Walton's Mayor Hall for all residents to please refrain from throwing trash and rubbage on the railroad property. They have put up new fence along their right-of-way, which certainly adds to the appearance of all properties and they wish to improve their right-of-way by keeping all waste matter off. Mayor Hall warns people against this practice and, if necessary, force will be used to enforce this request.

To Observe Fathers' Night

The Walton-Verona P. T. A. will observe Fathers' Night, April 20, at 7:45 in the school building, at which time coffee and pie will be served.

Robert Ison, superintendent, will give a report of the K. E. A. meeting in Louisville. All parents, both father and mothers, are urged to attend.

Local Victims To Be Seen On Color Films

Last year the Verona P. T. A. sponsored an oyster supper and miscellaneous auction in behalf of the March of Dimes for polio. This was a wonderful success thanks to the warm-hearted response of the community. We had planned to do this again this year, but due to scarlet fever epidemic and bad weather were compelled to postpone it until later.

"This year a fish fry and miscellaneous auction will be held on Friday, April 20. Serving of sandwiches starting at 7:30. There will also be hot dogs, soft drinks, coffee, pie and home made candy. The P.T.A. will appreciate any donations of hand-made articles or bakery goods. There are also numerous things you may like to get rid of that are new that sonmeone else would like to buy and help this worthy cause. Polio is being conquered, thanks to the Salk vaccine. The Foundation will continue for several years as there are 68,000 victims of polio before the vaccine yet to care for. This is done by our dimes and dollars given in this annual March of Dimes drive.

"This year in addition to the auction an added feature will be the showing of colored movies of work being done at a respiratory center in Calumbus, Ohio. The patient will be Carol Ann Harris, who has been there since November 23. This is a place especially prepared for polio victims who require breathing aids of some form. The National Foundation has furnished the wonderful equipment for this center. Besides these pictures, you will see Marion Arch Waller, another polio victim from Verona, being treated at Veterans' Hospital in Cincinnati, Ohio. He is making a wonderful and courageous came-back to a normal and useful place in this world.

"So please come and bring your friends and neighbors."—Pub. Chm.

Simon Kenton P.T.A. Installs New President at April Meet

KENTUCKIANS

IN WASHINGTON

By Gil Kingsbury

A Kentuckian:

Here's something in which members of the Kentucky Daughters of the American Revolution will be interested. In Alexandria, just across the Potomac River from the capitol, lies buried an Unknown Soldier of the rebellion. Recently it was brought to light that the soldier was a Kentuckian, who, wounded in battle, was brought to Alexandria for treatment. There he died. A marker, erected by the American Legion, is on the spot. But the Kentucky DAR might want to do something else. The grave is in the old Presbyterian Meeting House churchyard.

Politic Notes:

A political writer here in the capitol ha, urged Senator Kefauver to look to Governor Happy Chandler for both inspiration and inspiration. Lately, as you know, the ambitious Tennessee senator has complained that the political organizations are opposing him in his quest for the presidential nomination.

That complaint, the political writer replies, Happy Chandler faced organization opposition in last year's gubernatorial primary and won the contest none the less. He intimates that Estes may do likewise.

Pensions:

Kentucky congressmen — the incumbents, that is — are all running for re election but should someone be defeated, he won't necessarily suffer for lack of money.

A congressional pension system provides for as much as $15,000 a year after long service. Of course, the congressman must be about 60 years old (it varies) and he must have served at least six years in harness. And, also, he must have paid six percent of his salary into the fund. The list of those drawing pensions (and how much) is a closely guarded secret.

More Heat:

There's good news for thos Kentucky farmers—and the number is growing each year—who are raising cattle.

The Department of Agriculture tells us that Americans are eating more meat. For example, last year each citizen ate 161 pounds. Back in 1937 it was about 125 pounds.

With the increase in personal income, farm experts expect even greater meat consumption. At the same time, there's been a drop in the sale of potatoes, wheat flour and similar foods.

VERONA

Several of the children of Mrs. L. C. Littrell gathered at her home in honor of her 69th birthday, Sunday. The dinner was prepared by two daughters, and included a large birthday cake with the letters "Happy Birthday, Dear Mother." At the noon hour, all assembled at the large dining table where prayer was offered by Stella Sizemore, after which ample justice was done to all the good things to eat. Among the gifts she received was a large Bible with all the references and maps, which was presented by Stella Sizemore. Late in the afternoon, all departed wishing Mrs. Littrell many more happy birthdays.

Mrs. Laura Lamn and daughters spent Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lamn.

Mrs. Pattie Willeford was calling on Mrs. Flonnie Edrington, Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Renaker were recent guests of Mrs. Lula Cotton and other relatives of Jonesville.

Mrs. Sarah Perry and two children are spending the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Chipman.

Mrs. Susie Glore was visiting her sister, Mrs. Nora Sipple, of Owenton, Friday.

Mrs. Martha Hayden spent Sunday with her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Rich ard Bunstin, and sons, of Erlanger. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Yaney and son, Lloyd, Owenton.

Mr. and Mrs. Herald Dyer and little daughter were calling on his brother, Elvin Dyer, and family, Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Lillian Shields and Mrs. Francis Acra were calling on their sister, Mrs. Allie Chandler, and Mr. Chandler, Friday afternoon. Mr. Chandler remains very ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Yates took their daughter, Nola, to the hospital Saturday and had her tonsils removed. She is getting along fine.

We were sorry to hear of Miss Virginia Vaughn having to be taken to the hospital last week. She was operated on for appendicitis and is getting along as well as can be expected.

Congratulations to Rev. and Mrs. Ray Stewart on the arrival of a little son, born April 4. Rev. Stewart is a former pastor at New Bethel Church in Verona. He is pastor of New Liberty Baptist Church at present.

Mrs. Pattie Waller and son, Billie Mac, were Saturday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lamn.

The Verona Homemakers met with Mrs. Frances McCormick, last Friday. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Jalene Scott in May.

ABSOLUTE AUCTION

Saturday, April 14

1:00 P. M.

Due to ill health, we have listed our farm of 59 acres, more or less, with Col. A. F. Worthington, to be sold at auction on the above date—

Located in Boone County, on Hicks Pike, ¼ Mile Off Route 42, near New Haven School, 2½ Miles from Richwood Off U. S. 25 and 15 Miles from Greater Cincinnati.

This is a beautiful farm and a beautiful location; 4-room house, large 70x40 barn, well watered, plenty of big shade trees—this would be an ideal horse farm; all tractor land and in grass; 1¼ acres tobacco base, with bed burned and canvassed.

Horse-drawn implements, including hay rake, mowing machine, rastus plow, turning plow, hillside plow, disc harrow, 3-horse plow; Farmall tractor with drag, plow and cultivator; hay and straw; 3,000 tobacco sticks; harness; forks, hoes; household and kitchen furniture, including extra good writing desk, and Philgas stove, in good condition; also other items not listed.

Christian Courage

Lesson for April 15, 1956

THERE is an old notion that Fear is the mother of Religion. No one who knows the facts can think of fear as the mother of the Christian religion. For the earliest Christians were among the bravest of men. Their critics, their opponents, even their persecutors, wondered at their courage. It was not as if they slowly gained courage through the years, each generation a little braver than before. From the very beginning, the followers and friends of Christ had the two kinds of courage—moral and physical—needed to stand up against contempt, ridicule and slander; and physical, to stand out against pain and death, all with faith unshaken.

Dr. Foreman

Minority Group

Many persons are physically brave but have little or no moral courage. Some psychologists think that moral courage is more difficult and rarer than the other kind. Be that as it may, we know the earliest Christians had plenty of it. This was after the coming of the Spirit, of course. One of the hard things to stand up against is just being in a minority all the time. Some people, to be sure, can't bear to be in a minority any of the time if they can help it. They will not ride in any vehicle but a bandwagon. They count noses before they make up their minds. They think that ethics can be settled by arithmetic,—that is to say, that whatever most people think is right, must be right. The early Christians knew better. They were always in the minority. Around them crowded the masses of people in the great Roman Empire all of whom worshipped other gods. Back in Jerusalem the Christians were a larger proportion of the population than anywhere else; but even there they were in a despised minority. But these pioneer Christians knew that "one with God is a majority." They were far less interested in being with the biggest crowd than in standing for Truth.

Slander

Another thing that is hard to stand up against, is being misrepresented, maligned, slandered. Jesus said, "Blessed are you when men . . . utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account." This saying must have come to the minds of the first Christians many a time. For they were accused of being crazy, of lying, of being (as we would say) subversive, of being disturbers of the peace, lawless men in general. Even when a man knows his own innocence, it hurts him to be thought guilty. Even today, in most communities the real Christians—those who take their faith seriously and honestly try to live by it,—are in a minority. People who simply try to live by the New Testament will be called "starry-eyed," impractical, if they are not called worse names. Christians who take their religion seriously enough to see that our world needs to be changed in many ways if God's will is to be done on earth, will be called "radicals" and despised if not feared. What is said (for example) by many other young people, about teen-agers who take seriously Christ's ideal of chastity? What is said by business men about a businessman who tries to be Christian in all his relationships? What is said by politicians about a statesman—congressman, senator or even President—who is bold enough to try to be Christian in national or international policy? Some fine Christian Americans have been called traitors simply because they were Christian.

Pressures

Persecution is a special kind of pressure, which is to be the topic of next week's study. But short of positive persecution, there are various pressures which, if not boldly resisted, push Christians off God's highway. The very first Christians felt the pressure of public opinion, of the law, no doubt of the loss of friendship with those who had formerly been close to them. They would not have felt these pressures if they had done one simple thing: keep their faith to themselves. A Christian who never lets any one know he is a Christian is never called on for courage. A Christian who ceases to be one under pressure will have no trouble, maybe, in this world . . . but in the next? Then he will discover the shame of knowing [illegible] him.

You've heard of heredity and environment. You know that the latter usually exercises the stronger influence upon the development of a child.

Then you are face to face with the dilemma of the Church.

The Church can give to every child who comes within its influence the heritage of the Christian faith. It can teach him the truth about God; it can show him the Christian way of life.

But what happens when a child goes home? Will the lesson "stay learned?" Or will it be destroyed by language, attitude and example contrary to all the Church has taught?

It isn't enough to send your child to church school. Become a church-going family! Let Christian truth mold the life of your home and it will mold the life of your child.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest force on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

300 Protest Annexation

Oak Ridge residents attended a meeting of the Taylor Mill Civic Association last Tuesday evening to voice their protest of the proposed annexation of a large area of Kenton county by the City of Covington.

The opinion was expressed that the main purpose of the move by the Covington City Commissioners was to block Water District 1 and force residents to buy water from Covington and to gain the Standard Oil Refinery tax revenue.

The area Covington proposes to annex is South of Latonia, bordered by Dreidsey Pike on the East as far South at Klette Road, then over Klette Road to Taylor Mill Pike, across Senour Road and Fowler Creek Road to Madison Pike and back North on Madison Pike to Covington.

The regular order of business of the association was dispensed with in order that representatives of teh various areas affected could be heard. The general opinion of all these who spoke was that Covington had nothing to offer the residents of that area in the foreseeable future except higher taxes. They were therefore solidly opposed to annexation.

The legal aspects of the situation were explained by James Dressman and Charles Deters, both of whom are attorneys living in the area.

A committee consisting of G. C. Richardson, R. R. Wigener, H. R. Hutchins, Bob Kheintrup, Charles Deters, Kenneth Kelly, and Mrs. Ralph Straub was appointed by the president, Clyde Vincent. This committee was authorized to solicit funds, enjoig council, solicit signatures to necessary petitions and appoint sub-committees. The purpose of the committee is to bring an action in Kenton Circuit Court to protest annexation of this area by the City of Covington.

Fireman Rudd of the Kenton County Board of Education, attended the meeting and explained that annexation would not affect the school districts. The area would still be under the Kenton County Board of Education, which would continue to get the school tax from the area.

The next meeting of the Civic Association was set for April 19, at 8:00 p. m. in the Taylor Mill School.

Ryan-Deaton

Miss Barbara Ryan of Taylor Mill Pike and Keith Deaton of Latonia, were married Saturday, April 7, at St. Anthony Church, Fairfield Hills, by Father Fourre. The bride was lovely in a floor length gown of white lace. Her bridal attendant, Judy Schneider, wore a lovely dress of teal blue crystaline. The groom and his best man, Jack Sample, were in their Air Force uniforms. They are both stationed at Forbes Air Force Base at Topeka, Kan.

The bridal party entered a wedding breakfast at the Golden Goose, given by the bride's aunt, Mrs. E. T. Bishop. A reception was held Saturday evening at the Taylor Mill Fire House, given by the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Ryan.

Mr. and Mrs. Deaton left April 8 for Topeka, where they will live while A3.c Deaton is stationed there.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. John Ryan of Paris, Ky., and Mrs. Ida Maher of Maysville, Ky.

Visit Washington

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Tomlin and Mrs. Mabel Fortner drove to Washington, D. C., to spend a week visiting their son, Robert Tomlin, and to attend the Cherry Blossom Festival.

Second Set of Twins

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Bates of Hands Road, on the birth of their second set of twins. They have twin girls a year old and two older children. The new twins are a boy and a girl.

Staffordsburg Homemakers

Mrs. Melvin Brueggen and Mrs. Clinton Henry showed samples of several kinds of cafe curtains at the April meeting of the Staffordsburg Homemakers Club; also proper length and different ways of treating all size and groups of windows were given.

Mrs. Bluch Rich, president, announced the District meeting will be held in Newport. Members voted to give money to the Heart Fund as a civic project.

Landscape chairman, Mrs. L. J. Rapp, told of spring cultivation for perennials and bulbs, lawn care, pruning of shrubs and renovating vines. Things to do now are control weeds and watch for insects.

Remedies and customs of ancient Egypt from "The Scarlet Cord," were read by Mrs. J. A. Keeney, reading chairman. She also gave a report of the life of Elizabeth Kenny, taken from "And They Shall Walk." The thought for the month, "What Does Home Mean to Me," was read by Mrs. John Shaw.

Members present at the home of Mrs. E. B. Rich were: Mesdames Edith Ware, Emil Stein, Stella Richardson, George Klein, Anthony Wolf, J. A. Keeney, L. J. Rapp, Roy Payne, L. M. Deuser, John Shaw, Floyd Smith, Harry Cooper, Ralph Howard, Thomas Byrne, George Miller, Bluch Rich, Denver Binder, J. C. Beall, Clinton Henry, Melvin Brueggen, and a guest, Mrs. Donald Keeney.

The May meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Stella Richardson.

GAS YOUR TOBACCO BEDS WITH

Dowfume MC-2

Easier, faster, cheaper, better than burning

Treat your beds in 2 hours or less with Dowfume® MC-2. Place and seal the new lower cost, lighter weight plastic cover over the bed and apply. Your job is done. You can fumigate in the spring and plant 48 hours after application.

Gassing with Dowfume MC-2 actually costs much less than burning. And you can use the new low-price cover over and over again.

Dowfume MC-2 kills nematodes and other soil pests faster and gives more effective control of weeds than burning. And it works into the soil to the depth you till, not just the top few inches.

Let us help you plan your seed bed fumigation this year. You'll save money while getting a strong, healthy crop.

GET SUPER CHICK GROWTH ON PURINA SUPER STARTENA

Super Growth. Your chicks should grow up to 5.6% faster on 7.4% less feed per pound of gain than ever before on Purina Startena! That's the kind of results they've been getting on many thousands of chicks in Purina Research tests.

Super Safe. You can order Startena with a built-in coccidiosis control. It's the best control ever tested by Purina Laboratories.

Super Economy. It takes only 2 pounds of Super Startena per light breed chick, 3 pounds per heavy. This is a real saving, because most feeds recommend 3 to 4 pounds of Starter—or more—before the chicks are ready for a growing ration.

BLACK CAT DAY

By the time some of you get this paper it will be Friday, the 13th—Black Cat Day. Some are superstitious enough to not start a job on Friday of any week even if it is not the 13th, but as soon as this weather clears up you had better start even if it is Friday. After the snow Saturday and Sunday it was cool Monday and most everyone wanting to go to work but the ground was too wet. Mr Obermeier, who has the fishing lakes over between Nicholson and Independence had Chick put in some shovel handles. He also repaired a tank sprayer and a broken window. we do a little of everything here in small repairs.

[illegible] Callen was in after a rule and pipe fittings. C O Carlisle was here for a few fittings for a fuel oil tank. Mr Morgan, over on Percival Road, came after angle and bar iron. We had several looking at lawn mowers today. Just as soon as the weather warms up you will be needing lawn mowers. Judge Webster will need a lawn mower because he bought some of that McCullough lawn seed [illegible] Fast seed I say.

[illegible] Margaret Stephenson were buying [illegible] pans, trays and lots of small items. [illegible] Arnold got a lot of Dr. Hess louse killer for his cattle. Mr and Mrs Chas Brown were getting repairs for their washer. they also bought a lot of Armstrong linoleum. We have been picking up several lawn mowers to be overhauled and sharpened. Don't put them off until the last minute. why not trade them in on a new one.

We have a very good selection of hand mowers and power mowers—we have some very good used hand and power mowers too—these are trade ins and I will sell them cheap. Mr Hess from Pendleton county got an axe, and plastic clothes line—he is a customer here real often. Mr Scroggins from Grant county, who bought the Rice apartments, had his rake repaired. Mr Beach, who lives on the A J Stout farm West of Berona, bought a Murdock freeze-proof hydrant and 30 feet of ¾ plastic pipe to put water in a milk house. Bertha Jack bought more linoleum another 9x12 rug. Howard Moore bought a 12x15 Armstrong linoleum.

John Hartman bought 100 lbs. Vigoro for his lawn. We also have McCullough's lawn food in 50 lb. bags for your lawns. Malcolm Simpson also bought fertilizer for his lawn. Put on plenty of lawn seed, fertilizer and cover it with straw, you will have a beautiful lawn. Mrs Owen Flynn was in looking over our power lawn mowers. As soon as the grass is ready we will take over all four makes and let her pick out the one she wants. That is the way to do, just call us and we will bring Eclipse, Mastercut, Sunbeam and Lawn Boy, you can see them in action and pick the one you want.

Edna Combs called for a gallon of Jellet Magic chalmar yellow paint. [illegible] just bought 4 gallons of Jellet Magic paint, rollers and brushes [illegible] house. Mrs. Eltrie Henderson came back for two more [illegible] pink Latex [illegible] wall paint. Mrs. Irene [illegible] and Mrs. Rita Treadway were in this morning. [illegible]

[illegible]

Mrs. [illegible] Scott and daughter came after [illegible] Brewster went [illegible] to repair [illegible] water pump—it was water logged which meant the tank was full of water and no air so he had to force the water out with a tire pump which he put on the air intake valve. then he put in some window glass for Buddy [illegible] out at his house. I started over on Big Bone Road to look at some sheep for my farm at Kensington there was a house trailer with smoke pouring from it as two tires were burning off. then I turned down Richwood Road and found O. J. Struve's new Dodge car burning and no chance to save it. so I turned around and I went down Frogtown Road to Union and out Big Bone Road. when I got to Hueys Corner I ran over a black cat and decided then I was not supposed to take the trip. I went on but couldn't buy sheep.

Ky. Homemakers to Join In Observance Of "Special Week"

Kentucky's 1,600 homemakers clubs with an approximate membership of 35,000 women will join more than 5 million other women throughout the nation in observance of National Home Demonstration Week, April 29 to May 5.

Home demonstration work is an educational program planned by homemakers and carried out cooperatively by them and the Extension Service of the United land grant colleges in the various states, States Department of Agriculture. In Kentucky the program is under the direction of Miss Alda Henning, acting state leader, assisted by five assistant state leaders, 12 specialists in various phases of home economics and 119 home agents working in 116 counties.

The general aim is to strengthen the home and family life by helping women become more efficient homemakers and more effective citizens in their community, the state and nation. Through the program families learn to apply the latest approved methods developed by the home economics research in foods and nutrition, clothing, housing, home furnishings, home management, child care and training, good business practices, health and safety, and marketing and consumer buying.

Attention will be called throughout the state to such projects during Home Demonstration Week. Its motto is "Home improvement, television, garden preparation and window exhibits, the latter made possible through the cooperation of local merchants.

Women are welcome to membership in homemakers clubs except in two counties where maximum membership has been reached, said Miss Henning. Where sufficient interest is indicated additional clubs may be organized. Information on home demonstration work may be had from county home demonstration agents or from Miss Alda Henning, Experiment Station, Lexington, Ky.

PINER HOMEMAKERS

Piner homemakers plan a tea and display for Home Demonstration Week. The tea will be held at the Piner school auditorium Friday, May 4 and is open to the public.

Mrs. James Rutrell was hostess for the April meeting at the home of Mrs. Angelo Pelizzari. Mrs. William Waltermann gave a most interesting lesson on curtains and window treatment. Members exchanged bulbs, plants and seeds for their flower gardens.

RYLAND HOMEMAKERS

Mrs. W. P. Schwall, president of the Ryland Homemakers, presided over the April meeting at the home of Mrs. F. B. Hermes.

Mrs. John A. Rich read the Homemakers creed. Roll call was answered by thirteen members with "Plans for My Garden." Mrs. H. Ward read the devotional, sixth chapter of Proverbs, and a poem, "What Home Means to Me." Mrs. Schwall read a poem, "An Easter Prayer." Mrs. J. H. Lawson gave the garden lesson. April is the time for planting bulbs and sodding lawns.

The lesson on window treatment was given by Mrs. H. Ward and Mrs. J. H. Lawson and suggestions on making of cafe curtains with the styling of different types of windows. A window display for National Home Demonstration Week will be held at the John Below grocery at Verona, the first week in May. Members discussed plans and projects for the coming year.

Members present: Mesdames W. P. Schwall, O. J. Williams, W. A. Damon, J. H. Lawson, F. B. Hermes, John A. Rich, Rudolph Casson, Evert Wilson, Johnm Below, H. Ward, Wm. Bagby, W. B. Barnes, and Miss Ruth Schmidt. One visitor was present, Mrs. Dan Hermes.

The May meeting is to be held in the home of Mrs. W. A. Damon with Mrs. O. J. Williams, co-hostess.

"Is it any pleasure to the Almighty, that thou art righteous? or is in gain to him, that thou makest thy ways perfect?"—Job 22:3

Farm Bureau Meet Tonight

Jack Welch, first vice president of the Kentucky Farm Bureau and Burley tobacco advisor, will be guest speaker at a meeting of the Boone County Farm Bureau at the Courthouse in Burlington, April 19, at 8:00 p. m., according to John E. Crigler, secretary.

Purpose of this meeting is to explain the poundage control of Burley tobacco as it has been worked out to date. The Bureau feels that the question of poundage control is of great interest to tobacco growers and has scheduled this meeting so that growers will better know how to vote in the coming referendum which will probably be held in the coming month.

BIG SALE SATURDAY

The Herbert Farm sale scheduled for this Saturday has caused quite a bit of interest in this section and a large crowd is expected. The property, consisting of a 7-room house, large barn, and 8 acres of level land situated on Walton-Verona and Clarks Fields will be sold at public auction in order to settle the estate. Rex C. Wiseman and sons are conducting the sale. Furniture, farm tools and livestock will also be sold.

Member of Pershing Rifles

Robert Moody Brown, a freshman Arts and Sciences student at the University of Kentucky, is a member of the Pershing Rifles team which will be hosts for the Regimental Drill meet.

About 1,000 cadets representing 16 mid-west colleges and universities will be present for the affair. The featured event of the meet will be a mock Civil War staged by the states Union Squad and UK's Confederates. These two groups will stage an actual Civil War display and then it will be judged the winner.

QUARTET AT BIG BONE

Rev. Bill Ford, pastor of the Big Bone and Hughes Chapel Methodist Churches, has announced that the regular 11 a. m. service on Sunday, April 29, at Big Bone will be something special. The Good News Quartet from Asbury College, Wilmore, Ky. will bring messages in song, and a Professor of Sociology at Asbury, will speak. A joyful day is anticipated and the public is certainly invited.

Invitation is also open to everyone to bring a basket and join in the noon lunch at the Big Bone church.

Poultry Research Is Emphasizing Quality Says University of Ky.

That the poultry section of the Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station at Lexington is developing methods of selection and breeding for quality chickens is seen in records of the past nine years.

In the fall of 1945 experiments were started to find ways of developing better meat stock in chickens, said Prof. W. M. Insko, head of the poultry department. At that time, the chickens were 13 weeks old before they average 3 pounds. For each pound of gain, 3 pounds of feed had been required.

At the present time an average of 3 pounds and liver is reached between 9 and 10 weeks and only 2.7 pounds of feed or less are required per pound of gain. This is a saving in time of 2 to 4 weeks, and of three-fourths pound of feed per pound of gain.

Between 8,000 and 9,000 New Hampshire chicks were hatched on the Experiment Station farm this spring to be foundation flocks for breeding and nutrition work done locally and at the two University substations at Princeton and Quicksand, said Mr. Insko.

From about 5,000 chicks, 1,500 pullets will be held for the growing flock. Of these approximately 1,000 will be housed for layers. Another 3,000 to 4,000 chicks will be used in nutrition projects. Raised on starting and growing feed, they will be divided in the fall into four pens, each flock being given a different feed to determine the best for laying purposes.

The entire egg output from the substations over a two-week period in March was hatched at the Kentucky Experiment Station. Each substation then was sent 1,200 chicks from its own egg supply. As a result, egg size and hatchability can be determined, and the new laying flock for next fall will be started for that station, Mr. Insko explained.

Local Homemakers Hold April Meeting In Lancaster Home

Walton Homemakers held their regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Scott Lancaster, with Mrs. Howard Stephenson as co-hostess. The meeting was opened by the president Mrs. Frank Penick, Sr. The homemakers creed was read in unison after which the homemakers sang was sung. Devotional was given by Mrs. Leo Flynn, "The Living Word." The district meeting will be held in Newport at St. John Evangelical Church and the theme will be "Challenge to Homemakers." Mrs. R. P. Mutchett, State President, will preside, and will give six points on homemaker theme. April 21 is Rally Day for 4-H Club at Burlington. Those attending this meeting wer Mrs. Leo Flynn, Mrs. Anna Lancaster, Mrs. Walter Robinson, Mrs. Fred Thompson, Mrs. Ora Stone, Mrs. Pearl Bedinger, Mrs. Edw. Also the date for the first and second year of electric was given.

Rev. Miller Speaks At Meeting of Simon Kenton FHA Chapter

Guest speaker at a meeting of the Simon Kenton Chapter, Future Homemakers of America, on Thursday, April 5, was the Rev. George Miller, from the Staffordsburg Methodist Church.

He spoke on "Parents Are People." Some of the points Rev. Miller brought out were, "Parents aren't always people. That is, you have to look at the offsprings to see if parents or people. Animals aren't people, but they do bear offsprings. Look at ourselves. Are we people? If we are, then our parents are. But there are some people who act like animals. Thus we arrive at some expressions such as proud as peacocks; some boys are 'wolves,' and we always try to 'ape' one another.

"We sometimes put animals to shame for they don't cause wars. Baby animals pay respect to their parents. Why is the human race as it is? The answer is in three little letters, SIN. The human race today thinks it can solve its problems—the problems of sin. If we aren't obeying our parents, our children will probably not obey us when we become parents. Just remember, parents are human beings, too. The Bible is God's book—it offers a remedy for sin. Sin is the only thing which stands between God and man.

"There are six things which, after 30, we wish we would have known before 21. They are: 1. Physical and mental health after 30 is what we put in our stomach and mind before 21. 2. we wish we had better known how to take care of money. 3. habits are hard to change after 21. 4. we harvest what we have sown. 4. we wish we had known we can't get something for nothing. 5. we need to learn to be absolutely truthful to ourselves, then we will be truthful to our fellowman and 6. the greatest joy comes from serving our fellowman well and from leading a good Christian life.

Rev. Miller closed by saying that the things which are worthwhile take time and for us to remember, if we are going to be good Homemakers in the future, we must first learn to obey our parents, because "Parents Are People."

Grand Jury Returns Four Indictments

The April term of Boone Circuit Court at Burlington, was opened by Squire N. Williams, Jr., a member of the Franklin County bar, on Monday, April 9.

Judge Williams is to preside until Judge Ward Yager, regularly elected judge of the 15th Judicial District, is able to return to the bench. At present he is recovering from an illness at his home in Warsaw.

Judge Williams was introduced to the crowded courtroom by Harlan Heilman, Carrollton, commonwealth attorney for this district.

R. S. Hensley, circuit clerk, who called the court to order, introduced the Rev. Robert B. Wallace, pastor of the Burlington Baptist Church, who invoked divine blessing on the session.

Judge Williams' first official act was to announce the appointment of Albert Parker, John A. Huey and Stanley M. Graves as jury commissioners for the ensuing year. They were instructed to select a total of 300 names from the county tax lists for placement in the jury wheel.

Levi Pennington was appointed foreman of the grand jury. Impaneled with Mr. Pennington were Harry Gulley, Allen Love, Malone Ligon, Willard Becknell, Fritz Shinkle, J. W. Grant, Lewis L. Stephens, Clifford F. Kline, James Brown John Cook, and Mrs. Anna Pearl Gaines.

Judge Williams also impaneled two petit juries.

Four indictments were returned by the grand jury. These were: Richard E. Woodall, office building breaking, bail $2000; David Berry, dwelling house breaking, bond $1500; Chester Lainhart, shooting with intent to kill, bond $10,000; Lillard S. Scott, assault and battery, bond $500.

In the report of inspection of county property, read by Mrs. Gaines, the grand jury reported the courthouse and jail to be in good condition and made no recommendations. It was recommended that the interior of the county infirmary be painted.

Bullittsville Homemakers

Mrs. Robert E. Grant, president of the Bullittsville - Idlewild Homemakers Club, presided over the April meeting. Members voted on the major projects for the coming year.

Mrs. Grant appointed a nominating committee for 1956-57 officers. Mrs. Huey Aylor read a garden planting guide on what, where and how much to plant per person.

There will be a window display of the clubs' projects and work for this year during National Home Demonstration Week, April 30 through May 5. The display will be in Hebron.

The third lesson in refinishing furniture was given by Mrs. Henry Hudson. Miss Nancy Guilfoil, Home Agent, and Mrs. James Johnson, of Indiana, were visitors.

Hostesses were Mrs. Henry Siekman, Mrs. Gilbert Furnish and Mrs. Ralph Pfalzgraf. Present were Mesdames Huey Aylor, Gilbert Furnish, Chester Grant, Robert Grant, Henry Hudson, Willie Jones, Lee Marshall, Harry Matthews, Charles Patrick, Albert Pfalzgraf, Burnam Roberts, Ralph Pfalzgraf, Henry Sikman, John Randall, Norman Fischer, Eugene Randall, Earl Souther, Muro Green, Nick Mikkelsen, Larry Moehring, and Robert W. Mrs. Lois Smith and daughters of Shelbyville, were weekend guests of Mrs. Jill Jaeger.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Dorman and son, Johnny, of Shelbyville, Ky., visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Orel Dorman, of Lipscomb Road, for the weekend.

Jack Yates of Klette Road, went to Blackey, Ky., last week to visit Stuart Robinson High School, where he used to teach. He is now a teacher in Campbell county.

Mrs. H. R. Hutchins was called to the bedside of her mother, Mrs. C. J. Keller of New Orleans, La., last week after her mother suffered a stroke.

Judy and Fran Thompson took a train ride to Lexington, last week to visit relatives. It was the first time either of them had ridden a train and they enjoyed it very much.

R. R. Wegener of 5106 Taylor Mill Pike, Latonia, suffered a heart attack last Monday evening after he had attended the regular meeting of the Taylor Mill Volunteer Fire Department. Mr. Wegener has been a very active worker in both the Civic Association and the Volunteer Fire Department and he would enjoy receiving cards from his many friends during his illness.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Tallent and children, Terry, Carol and Kevin, spent the weekend in London, Ky., visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Meyers. It was supposed to be a fishing trip—the rain ruined the fishing, but a nice, leisurely visit was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

Rain over the weekend caused another postponment to the opening of the hot-rod races at Hilltop Race Bowl.

The drab countryside is again taking on a fresh look with the green grass, the fruit trees all in bloom, the tulips opening up, the pansies, hyacinths and daffodils blooming, we know the spring in finally here.

All you people who love tulips would do well to take a little ride I take every spring, over to Locust Pike, just about a mile from Decoursey. Mr. Dressman is a tulip lover and has a whole hillside covered, with every variety of tulips. It will be a beautiful sight to behold in about two weeks from now.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS
BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

Unto Death

Lesson for April 22, 1956

WHY do people get killed for being Christians? It seems incredible, and it hasn't happened to most Christians. But it does happen. Christianity was perhaps only a few months old when the first martyr, Stephen, met his death at the hands of a mob. Now the peculiar feature of that mob was that it was so respectable. Not a hoodlum in the lot. They were all civic leaders, men high in religious circles. In fact, it was the high court that adjourned and became the stone-throwing mob. They would not have said that they murdered Stephen. They would have said they executed him. But that makes it all the more of a puzzle. A hoodlum might shoot down a good Christian just for meanness, but why should men of distinction kill a man for no other crime than being a Christian?

Dr. Foreman

Blood of the Martyrs

Before trying to answer that question, we might glance through history and see a few other cases. Circumstances vary, but the kind of martyrdom that was Stephen's is always essentially the same. No one ever brings the killers into court. Who would have brought suit against the Sanhedrin for killing Stephen? They were the court. Who could arrest the Emperor Nero for burning the Christians alive in his gardens? Who could have written a letter to the paper (if there had been one) complaining about the mass murders, by great emperors like Diocletian or Marcus Aurelius, of innocent Christians? So it was when Joan of Arc was burned at the stakes, or when "Bloody Mary" was running wild against the Protestants, or when the Russian revolution caused the death of nobody knows how many hundreds of priest, or when the Chinese revolution has brought death to Christians again in our time. The persecutors may be bishops, and arch-bishops, heathen emperors, "people's governments," or African chiefs, they always have the law on their side, and what is more serious, they have public opinion. When the early French missionaries to the American Indians were tomahawked, as so many of them were, does any one suppose that their scalps were buried to destroy traces of the crime? Not a bit of it.—some Indian warrior wore the scalp and was the envy of everybody in his village. Always the murder of the Christians is done with public knowledge.

Persecution Can Be Avoided

We can move a little closer to our question by remembering that the church has not always been persecuted. Sometimes it has been highly praised, welcomed, honored. It may even succeed in running the country. Nobody would dream of persecuting it,—in fact, it may turn the tables and persecute other people. Oh—you say at once—when that happens, it isn't the church of God any more; the true church will always be persecuted; and when it isn't, it is a sign it is no longer the true church. —There is some truth in that, but it is saying too much. A church may be free from persecution and still be largely Christian. However, you can set it down as a rule: Whenever the church, and the people in it, do just what everybody else does and think what every one thinks, then it will not be persecuted.

"I Had a Higher Fuehrer"

Martin Niemoeller is a case in point. He was a hero of World War I who later became a minister. When Hitler took over Germany, Pastor Niemoeller went along with what Hitler did, or at any rate he said nothing, for a long time. And all that time, Martin Niemoeller went right on with his church work undisturbed. Then finally Hitler was too much even for Niemoeller's strong stomach, and he defied Hitler. "I had a higher Fuehrer," he said years later—a higher Leader. So the police came and marched that minister off to jail, one morning after church. You see? The church is never persecuted when all it says to the world around it is "Yes, yes, we agree!" The church has been persecuted, and will be persecuted here in America even, if and when—like Stephen of old—it dares to set above public opinion, custom, "mores," respectabilities, authorities and powers, the [illegible] Lord.

"LIKE FATHER—LIKE SON"

Something's in the making here. Maybe it's a garden. Maybe it's nothing more than a ditch. But what really counts is that father and son are working together happily.

Sonny may be more hindrance than help just now. But, says Dad patiently, "How ever will the boy learn if he doesn't do?"

When you watch, with ebbing patience your child's fumbling efforts to imitate yours, do you ever think about your heavenly Father's patience with you when you are in the wrong?

He's right there, working alongside you too, wanting to show you how to carry on, and staying close by in case you get into trouble.

If you keep in touch with Him through prayer and regular church attendance, you will learn from Him how to live, just as your child learns from you through talking and being with you.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The church is the greatest institution on earth. For the building of character and good citizenship is a social responsibility. Without a living Church neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four definite reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church next Sunday and read your Bible daily.

Milk Handling Goes Bulk Tank . . .
Choring Time and Labor Reduced

MILKING TIME NO PROBLEM NOW — pipe line brings milk from cow to cooler automatically.

By IRA MILLER
Farm Electrification Bureau

Bulk milk tanks have arrived on the farm scene and seem destined to stay. They're the latest in a series of new time and labor-saving contributions to America's dairy farmers. These big tanks cool and store milk at required temperatures until pickup time.

And, speaking of "pickup," it's a far cry from the old days, for milk now can be pumped from the cooler into a tank truck. Milk is tested before being removed and farmers often are paid on the spot for their product.

Most farmers may still carry milk from the barn to the cooler. If so, they only have to handle heavy milk cans once. Others, however, have gone more automatic by installing complete new [illegible] systems. With such systems milk is pumped through [illegible] tubes from milking areas directly to the bulk tank.

There still are some problems to be worked out before bulk handling systems come into more general use. That usually is the case when changes are made in procedures which have been in use for many years. One of these problems concerns the purchase of tank trucks by commercial dairies. Before this can be done on any great scale enough farmers must install bulk tanks to make the operation pay off. Reports from around the country indicate that this is being done rather rapidly in many places.

There are two kinds of bulk milk tanks available—ice bank and direct expansion. The first cools by building up a layer of ice around the inside of the tank; the other operates on the dry cold principle somewhat like a household refrigerator.

With a choice of coolers available it is no wonder that there are strong advocates of each type. The ice bank cooler requires four motors to operate the compressor, condenser, agitator and water circulating pump. The direct expansion type usually requires only two motors—one for the compressor and another for the agitator. However, motors for the direct expansion type are larger than those for the ice bank cooler, which may make a difference in wiring requirements.

So, if you're in the market for a bulk milk tank—a market estimated in the $[illegible] range this year—it is good business to check with your power supplier for guidance in buying the kind that is best suited for your needs.

LUNCH SERVED BY ST. MARY'S CHURCH

INDEPENDENCE News Events . . .

Gathered and edited by Robert X. West, Holly 8601

Gardening Aids

You may want to take note, now that spring gardening is at hand, of some Department of Agriculture publications available from the Government Printing Office, Washington 25, D. C.

Handbook on Insect Enemies of Flowers and Shrubs, price 50 cents. Common Diseases of Important Shade Trees and How to Control Them, 25 cents. Pointers on Making Good Lawns, 5 cents. Roses for Home, 15 cents, and Suburban and Farm Vegetable Gardens, 25 cents.

Just a Thought

Heard about the salesman they discovered sitting up in a tree? He was managing a branch office.

Jobs Daughters, Bethel 8

All officers of Bethel 8 are requested to be present at 2:30 p. m., Sunday, April 22 at the Independence Bank Bldg., Independence to practice for the coming inspection and initiation, which will be held Monday, April 23 at 7:30 p. m. All members are urged, by Joyce A. Cooper, Honored Queen, to attend the Monday evening meeting to help make it a success.

Trottic Tip

Always try to drive as if your family were in the other vehicl.

Post Office Pens

Satisfactory results of the tryout given ball-point pens prompts the Post Office Department to announce it will use ball-points to replace the old scratchy, hand-dip pens in all postal locations. The switch is expected to be completed in about six months.

Bradford O.E.S. Ham Supper

A ham supper will be given by the Ways and Means Committee of Bradford Star Chapter, 493, O.E.S., of Independence.

This supper will be held in the Simon Kenton High School's cafeteria, Saturday evening, April 21. Serving will begin at 5 p. m. and will end approximately at 7 p.m. A donation of $1.25 will be accepted at the door or tickets are available from any member of the chapter. Another feature the members have provided for is to have transportation for orders of food to any shut-in or persons confined to their homes due to sickness etc. A committee has been appointed to deliver these orders to your home. For phone numbers for which to place your orders are Fleetwood 7-8601 or 7-4201.

All members of other Masonic orders should try to be present and the public is cordially invited to this annual wonderful supper. Where good eating is plentiful, you'll find the writer of this column.

To Members of Bradford Star Chapter: It is important that you bring a pie or pies for this occasion and any type of handicraft or handiwork you may have on hand that you wish to donate for the special table that will be available. This will be a great success for the chapter, if there are many variety of articles of this nature for sale to the public. Also, all those who will help in the kitchen are requested to be at Simon Kenton at 3 p. m. and to the ones who desire to service, should be present at 4 p. m. Helpers are needed in both of the above places.

Personal Interest

Mrs. Nell Morgan of Main Street, returnd home from a month's visit in Florida.

Harley Armstrong, Sr. of Main Street, has returned home from a four-weeks stay in the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Norb Schoborg of LLL Highway, are the proud parents of a baby girl, named Brenda Jo.

Mr. and Mrs. George Strause of Staffordsburg Road, are parents of a baby girl. Father George, Mother Joan and Baby Carol are doing nicely.

Mrs. Hanna Dorsey of Main Street, is now convalescing at her home after a short stay in the hospital. Grandma Dorsey fell recently and injured her left shoulder.

Joyce Winburn of Walton, visited Shirley Dennis last week and spent many hours talking about the coming wedding of Shirley and Jerry.

Bill Schmaide of Main Street, has been released from the Veterans Hospital, Cincinnati, and is enjoying much better health than ever before. Billie says that he appreciated the many cards and personal visits received while in the hospital.

Housing Booklet

Programs operated by the Federal Housing Adminstration that tre helpful to the home buyer or builder are described in a new booklet, "This Is the FHA." It is available from the Government Printing Office, Washington 25, D. C. Price, 15 cents.

Moon Bros. Post 275 American Legion

The next regular meeting for members of Moon Bros. Post, 275, will be held Thursday, April 19 at the Legion Home in Independence. All ex-GIs and former members of the American Legion, who desire to join or renew their membership may do so at this meeting.

Independence News

Now that I am again up and going from a recent two-weeks illness, I am hoping to keep the Independence news column continuing each week, as it once was, but, it takes news and items of interest to do this. So, if you have an item that will make good reading, just send it to me—Bob West.

4-H'ers On Farm Program

During the 4-H Week program, the Kenton and Community 4-H Club was honored with an invitation to be on the "Everybody's Farm" program at Mason, Ohio.

Those participating were Bobby and Patsy Jackson, Sandra Lawler, Leader "Boots" Jackson, and Assistant County Agent Tom Riley. The girls received beautiful potted plants. All answered questions about 4-H work put to them by Judy Perkins.

CARD OF THANKS—

I wish to thank all my friends and neighbors for the lovely flowers, cards, food, gifts and prayers while I was in the hospital and since I have been home. May God bless each of you for your kindness.

420 million
...and one to grow on!

OUR NOW-FAMILIAR SLOGAN "Look Ahead—Look South!" is thirteen years old this month. But you have to count more than the candles on this birthday cake. Count, instead, the number of times we have used this hard-working phrase since it was "born."

The total is impressive—for in these past thirteen years we've said "Look Ahead—Look South!" more than 420 million times in leading financial publications and in magazines from coast to coast. During this same period, there have been 4,203 major industrial developments along our lines alone.

Every time we say "Look Ahead—Look South!" it is an invitation to all America to share in the opportunities of the modern Southland. And every invitation is a bid for new industries for the expanding South "to grow on."

For all of us, the economic development of the South is not a thing apart. It's as close to a man as the job he holds, as personal as his take-home pay. The future of the Southland is your future—and ours. It never looked brighter or offered more "to grow on."

GLENCOE

Word was received last week by Mrs Georgia Noel and Mrs. Mintie Snow that their nephew, Ernest Minar, of North Carolina, had passed away.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hudson were six o'clock dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Noel, Sunday evening.

Uncle Charley Pipes is improving slowly.

Revival services started Monday night at the Warsaw Baptist Church. Bro. Roy Johnson will do the preaching, with Tommy Boaz as song leader. You are invited to hear Bro. Johnson and receive a special blessing.

Miss JennieTaylor has returned home after spending two weeks in Covington with her nephew, Leonard Ellis.

A large crowd attended the old time singing at the Glencoe Church of Christ on Glencoe Sunday. Rev. Morris, pastor of Ten Mile Baptist Church, preached.

Sympathy is extended Riley Grass and family in the loss of a dear mother, Mrs. Lue Noel. She was a fine Christian woman and her memory will live on in the lives of friends.

Lawn Mowers

COME TO CONRAD'S . . . OPEN EVERY DAY EXCEPT SUNDAY . . . 8:00 A. M. TO 6:00 P. M.

The grass is ready to cut, so now is the time to get a new lawn mower—we have a hand mower for 16.50, 24.50 and 34.50—we have Eclipse reel type lawn mowers for 154.50 and also Eclipse, Mastercut, Sun-beam and Lawn Boy rotary mowers—check our prices before you buy. We have the best mower for the least money—come in and look them over. If you have an old one to trade in, we will give you all we can on a new one. We have several used mowers in push and power type, we will sell cheap—come to CONRAD for your lawn mowers—if you buy one from CONRAD and it is not satisfactory, just tell CONRAD and he will take care of it—why go to Covington, Erlanger or Florence to buy a lawn mower—and pay more, as some of you have done—and what about the service on it?

Today, we sold lots of fishing tackle, rods, reels, line and all types of fishing equipment. We sold so much paint I know I can't remember half those who bought it—Mr. and Mrs. J. B. McCubbin bought Jelled Magic. Mrs. W. B. Jones bought more rubber base Chief wall paint—she sure likes this paint. Mrs. Lindsay Brashear and Mrs. Richard Webster bought an a lot of hoes and rakes for use to put new handles in. Jim Messmer bought new axe and brug hoe handles. I put in a new shovel handle for John Conrad.

Two fellows came in for a lot of wiring material. Delbert Meissmer had me cut him some angle iron to repair his manure spreader. Findley DeMoss and wife were in also. Mrs. McMillian and Mrs. Flynn. Bill Webb came after white Jelled Magic paint and there was a gallon of green on top of the white so when I looked through these bifocal glasses, I gave him the green instead of white so I don't always reach where I look. Mrs. Kate Sparks bought two quarts of Bolce apple green interior gloss to paint her kitchen. Joe Richardson bought a gallon of 245 Esteron brush killer—he wants to kill some trees.

My wife went to Lexington and I had her bring back from the Chemical Supply Co. some Esteron 99 to spray for killing wild onions, also Esteron 245T for mowing with and to kill trees and woody plants, also some thick and louse killer, some fruit tree spray and sulphur as some of you use in on your plantbeds. I went out to the Walton Sales Barn and there sure was a crowd and the bidding was very good. They sure had the calves and hogs to sell—all colors and sizes. Mr. and Mrs. Martin were buying calves, as they are back in the cattle business again.

We had several customers today. Howard Moore came after felt paper and glue. Joe Richardson, over in Kenton, bought 30' of screen glass, to put over his windows in the turkey house. A fellow from over be-yond Burlington, stopped and bought a lot of aluminum screen wire. Today, Bill Piner came after Jelled Magic paint and border for the two rooms. C. O. Carlisle came after more Jelled Magic paint. George Holly stopped in to get a check cashed—he bought a canoe paddle. Mrs. Edna Combs called for more Jelled Magic paint. Harvey Hughes bought two rolls of fence and barb wire.

Gilbert Smith likes that Bolce liquid satin paint—he bought two more gallons. It really covers and is not expensive. Beckham Shields brought over the wool bags and twine, 75 cents per bag, and twine 1 cent each. We unloaded a rubber tired farm wagon, only 145.00 with tires, set up, ready to go. This is a 3-ton wagon. J. C. Reynolds bought a roll of wood picket fence and 25 lbs. of No. 9 galvanized wire. Spray your clothes with Moth Proofer before putting them away for the summer—we also have moth balls and moth crystals. Now is the time to kill those wild worms—we have the sprays and sprayers.

Just received a new shipment of 20 gallon garbage cans for only 2.95, extra heavy ones, 3.95—get sev-eral of these before they go up. Today, we sold a lot of bed canvas, manure forks, garden rakes, lots of paint, rural mail box, lunch kit, tank sprayer, plastic thum-brush killer, dip and disinfectant, garden plow, breast chums, hose nozzles, post hole digger, flower plants, single trees, lawn fertilizer, flashlight, dishes, pyrex dairy thermometer, non-skid, soft maple bucket, elastrator bands, log chain hook, chain pump, repairs, Sta-Dri, Blondex, plastic pipe, felt paper, wall paper paste, mow-ing machine repairs, wiring material, gate hinges, ball glove, rifle cartridges, and lots of other items.

Elsey Hall and Mrs. Thos. Morgan were buying pets and pans. Jett Austin and wife from Stafford were bought paint and a tool handle. Mrs. Evelyn Sebastian bought a lot of items for her kitchen. A fellow from Williamstown bought a pair of tarpaulins and a pair of truck hoses. Mrs. Arthur Hume bought a lot of paint and curtain rods, also paint brushes. Mr. Richard Howard bought two gallons of Chief rubber base paint for her kitchen, also a new paint roller and pan. Mrs. Melvin Platt bought two gallons of linoleum for her back porch. Mrs. Helen Stephenson bought a lot of rug binder and more paint.

Mr. Tom Huey sent over for a lot of plastic pipe and fittings by Mr. Omer Black. Delmer Reed bought a grub hoe handle for someone to use. Today, Sam Vest, Junior Vest and I took two trucks and went over by Mt. Burlington to get eight tons of sheep and took them down to the farm. I went down after wire and took some old posts and moved it with PTO power-ed post hole digger to set them healthy and free. Twarms. We reopen every day but Sunday. 8 a. m. to 6 p. m.

Late Season No Cause To Worry Over Plant Beds

An adverse season for starting burley beds need not alarm farmers, says Ira Massie, Extension Service tobacco specialist.

The same good management practices [illegible] insect control except [illegible] situation still applies, he noted. Late use of this season will not pose any [illegible] problems.

Many worried farmers, however, applied strong nitrogen fertilizer in beds to push growth. Such action causes large roots and tender plants which will not live well to transplanting, he says.

If the seedbed turns dry after beds have been properly watered properly will take care of the problem. A minimum of 10 barrels of water per 100 square yards of bed will suffice.

Massie said that disease and insect problems will not be any more of a problem of late beds than in normal ones. By the same token they will not be any less. Good management practices will handle this situation.

He said flea beetles and cut worms should be controlled by DDT, grub worms by parathion, and the bluestone time treatments should be administered to prevent wildfire. Strephomycin sulfate, a new product has been used as an efficient of wildfire. Massie noted, and many Kentucky farmers will use it this year.

Evangelistic Rally At Local Methodist Church

Ministers and leading lay members of all Methodist Churches in the Covington District are to attend a meeting in the interest of evangelism in the Walton Methodist Church at 7:30 p. m. Monday, April 30, according to the local pastor, Rev. A. E. Atkinson.

Dr. Robert E. Coleman, head of the Department of Evangelism at Asbury Seminary, Wilmore, will be the principal speaker. Special music will be provided. Dr. H. C. Ogles, District Superintendent, will be present, and invites all persons concerned for the spreading of the good news in the Gospel of Christ to attend this rally.

Pure Gold Class Meets

The Pure Gold Class of the First Baptist Church met April 20 at the home of Patsy Eddins. Those present were Pauline Cotton, Patsy Eddins, Barbara Lowe, Carolyn Watson, Sandra Tackett, Nellie Wells, Sylvia Doy, Patricia Clem and Mrs. Jones. Martha Miller was a visitor.

After the meet cake and ice cream was served. Everyone enjoyed themselves very much. The group was honored to have Mrs. Gay Best play the piano for them.

The next meeting will be held at the church May 18.

Kirtley Named County Campaign Chairman For Senator Clements

The appointment of Ruben E. Kirtley, Union, as chairman of Boone county for Senator Earle C. Clements in the forthcoming May 29 primary was announced in Louisville, by William A. Young, state campaign chairman. Mr. Kirtley was recommended by leading Boone county Democrats. "Under his guidance and with the cooperation of all right-thinking Democrats, Boone county will give Earle Clements a handsome majority in the primary," the Young announcement said.

"The people of Kentucky are entitled to a type of leadership supplied by the senior senator. They are entitled to a record of performance rather than empty promises. They are entitled to have their interests aggressively protected in the chambers and committee rooms of the United States senate," the state chairman added.

"In Senator Clements they will continue to receive such stewardship and Boone county, along with the 119 other counties of the commonwealth, will go forward. Many important measures covering farm, education and highway construction problems are on the congressional agenda and Kentucky cannot afford to be represented and protected by anything less than a top flight man. Such a man is Earle Clements," Mr. Young concluded in his announcement.

Taking Orders For Flowers

The Bykota Sunday School class of the Walton Christian Church is taking orders for flowers for any occasion. Corsages, potted plants, and cut flowers may be had. Orders may be called to Evelyn Kaus, Walton 1483, Maida Holder, Walton 1315, or Ben Duan, Fleetwood 7 5919--

The group will be located in the Gibson Specialty feed store for Mothers Day. All orders will be greatly appreciated, and the earlier you order, the better the selection.

Bake Sale Friday Night

The Kenton Elementary School P. T. A. will hold a bake sale, fish pond and grab bag, Friday, April 27, at 8:00 p. m. in the school cafeteria.

Bond Chairman Gets Treasury Award For Outstanding Sevices

Walter D. Vest, Chairman for Boone County Savings Bond Committee was presented with a Treasury Award for outstanding patriotic service to the bond program.

The "100% Club" Medallion is in recognition of this county's having achieved its 1955 sales goal of $200,000. County sales for the year totalled $205,762 in Series E and H Savings Bonds.

The award was presented at Walton by Hugh P. Finley, Area Sales Manager. He praised the efforts of Mr. Vest as well as the banks, newspapers, radio stations, and other volunteers who made the achievement possible.

"The people of this county are to be congratulated," Mr. Finley said. "For their joint contribution to personal thrift and to a sound national economy. Show me an area where people have good thrift habits and I will show you a progressive community with a sound economy. I have seen this proven many times in my travels over the state."

The silver medal, slightly smaller than a silver dollar, was designed by a master engraver and struck at the government's Philadelphia Mint. The front bears the figure of the Minute Man; the Treasury Seal, and the wording "U. S. Treasury Award." The reverse side carries the inscription, "For Patriotic Service—U. S. Savings Bonds Program." Also engraved on it are Mr. Vest's name and the year. The medallion is mounted on a small transparent stand for resting on a desk or table.

Firemen Answer Two Calls

Saturday morning, Walton firemen made a run to the farm house of Hub Fisher, on U. S. 25, south of town, where soot had ignited and burned out a chimney. No damage was done.

Sunday, at 12:30 p. m., the local fire department was called to the J. T. Campbell house on South Main Street. Children playing with fire had ignited an outbuilding used for coal storage, etc. The fire was out on arrival. This one could have been bad.

Parents are asked to please cooperate with the firemen and keep matches where children can't reach them. The child's life you save may be that of your own.

Special Workshop For Homemakers Is Held In Latonia

A special workshop for Kenton county homemakers on the home freezing of foods was presented on Friday, April 20, by Miss Florence Imlay, nutrition specialist of the Extension Service of the College of Agriculture, Lexington, at Trinity Methodist Church, Latonia.

Miss Imlay stressed the fact that the quality of the food taken out of the freezer is no better than the product before being frozen. Good methods and packaging materials must be used to obtain high quality frozen products.

Demonstrations were given on the freezing of fruits, vegetables and meat. The preparation for freezing and serving ready prepared foods was discussed. Community demonstrations will be given by leaders attending the class.

Kenton county residents may obtain Circular 527, "Home Freezing of Foods," by calling at the office of the Kenton County Home Demonstration Agent, 6 Federal Bldg., Covington.

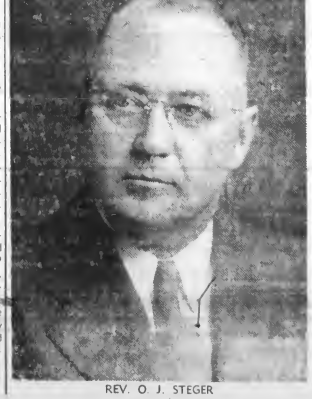
Jan Fields Named Associate Pastor at Florence Bap. Church



At a business meeting Wednesday night, April 18, the Florence Baptist Church extended a call to Jan Fields to become its educational director and associate pastor. Fields accepted the work and will be in charge of the music Sunday, April 29. Rev. R. A. Johnson is pastor of the church.

The church has grown until it is impossible for the pastor to take care of all the duties. Mr. Fields will work with the pastor in an effort to render a greater service for the Lord. Mr. Fields, a fine young Christian, is well known in this area, having spent most of his life in Florence.

A special invitation is extended to every member to be present Sunday morning to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Fields and their daughter. He will sing a special number in the morning worship service.

A vacation Bible School will begin at this church May 28 and continue through June 8. It will begin each evening at 7:00 and close at 9:30 p. m. There will be classes for all ages, two through 16.

Fuel for diesel engines is injected into the cylinders through holes as small as 1 5000th of an inch.

REV. O. J. STEGER

Revival At New Bethel Baptist Church

A revival meeting will begin at the New Bethel Baptist Church, Verona, on Monday, April 30 and continue through Sunday, May 6, with services at 8:00 each evening. Rev. Kelly Kennedy is pastor of the church.

Rev. O. J. Steger, of Covington, is to be the evangelist, and is a man well known in this area. He is a former pastor at Southside Baptist Church of Covington, and First Baptist Church, Newport. Joe Rouse will be in charge of the singing.

A cordial invitation is extended by the pastor and congregation to the general public to worship at these services.

MORGAN CHANDLER

Morgan Chandler, Verona, died at his home Friday, April 20. A native of Owen county, he was a member of New Bethel Baptist Church, Verona, and was active in community and church affairs.

Mr. Chandler came to Verona about ten years ago and was a partner in the firm of Chandler and Hayden, general merchandise. About a year ago the partnership was dissolved and he then operated the Chandler Variety Store. Prior to coming to Verona, he had worked for the Cincinnati Sheet Metal and Roofing Co., for 13 years, and during World War II had worked at the Wright-Patterson Air Field, Dayton, as a pattern maker and sheet metal worker.

Survivors include his widow, Allie Jones Chandler, a daughter, Mrs. LaVerne Burden of Erlanger, one granddaughter, his mother, Mrs. Susie Glore, Verona, three brothers, Curt Chandler of Cincinnati, I. I. Chandler of Owenton, and Thurmond Chandler of Loveland, Ohio, and a sister, Mrs. Arsolia Hayden, Verona.

Services were held Sunday afternoon, April 22 at the New Bethel Baptist Church with the pastor, Rev. Kelly Kennedy, officiating. Burial was in the New Bethel Cemetery.

Hamilton funeral home, Verona, had charge of arrangements.

MRS. MINNIE DAUGHERTY

Mrs. Minnie Daugherty, a member of a family almost all of whom are physicians, died Saturday night at the home of her son, Dr. Harry F. Daugherty, Florence. She was 87 years old and had been ill for the past three years.

The deceased was the widow of Dr. J. F. Daugherty, who practiced medicine for many years in Walton. They resided on Locust Street.

Her survivors include her son; two daughters, Mrs. William C. C. Green of Cincinnati, and Mrs. L. R. Richardson of Bryan, Texas, wife of Dr. L. R. Richardson, professor of biochemistry at Texas A. & M. A second son, Dr. Frank A. Daugherty, Independence, died several years ago. She is also survived by three grandsons, Dr. Joseph F. Daugherty of Florence, Dr. J. Franklin Daugherty of Independence, and Harry K. Daugherty, now studying medicine at the University of Louisville; a granddaughter, Dr. Minnie V. Kratz of Taylor Mill Road, wife of Dr. Robert C. Kratz, a sister, Mrs. Howard Stephens of Independence, two brothers, J. Morton Adams of Milan, Ind., and Samuel W. Adams of Williamsburg, Ohio, and six great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Daugherty was a member of the Grassy Creek Christian Church in Pendleton county.

Services were held Monday afternoon at the Stith funeral home, Florence. Burial was in Gardnersville Cemetery.

Leading Role In Festival

Blue Mountain (Miss.) College's May Festival will be held at 4:00 p. m., Saturday, May 5. Patricia Myers, of Walton, is one of the leading characters in the program, the Magic Doll.

TALENT SHOW MAY 1

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Kenton and Community Volunteer Fire Department will hold a talent show Tuesday, May 1, at 8:00 p. m., in the Visalia School auditorium.

This is expected to be a very good show as Chief Ishmael and Fireman Carl Smith were talent scouting last Saturday evening and think they have come up with some good entertainment.

Literary Club to Meet

Mrs. Forest S. Thompson will entertain at her home for the regular monthly meeting of the Walton Woman's Literary Club, Wednesday, May 2, beginning at 2:30 p. m.

Prom Set for Friday Night

Parents of Walton-Verona students are cordially invited to the Junior-Senior Prom, to be held in the Walton gymnasium, Friday, April 27, at 8:00 p. m. Music will be furnished by the Cliff Losh band of WLW-T.

Burlington Rd. Homemakers

The April meeting of the Burlington Road Homemakers Club, Florence, was held in the home of Mrs. Russell Wilmhoff, Lloyd Avenue, with Mrs. Richard Ammon co-hostess.

Plans were completed for the National Homemakers Club display at the Denham durg store, April 30 through May 5.

The May meeting will be held with Mrs. Louise Edrington as hostess at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Marie Miller, of Belleview.

"Hometown Jubilee" Scheduled for May 4-5

Becomes Practical Nurse

Mrs. C. T. Pickett

Mrs. C. T. Pickett, Covington, the daughter of Mrs. Ora Stone of High Street, has completed sixteen months of training at Seton School of Practical Nursing at Good Samaritan Hospital, Cincinnati, having graduated in December. She is now nursing at St. Elizabeth Hospital, Covington.

Revival Scheduled At Methodist Church To Begin On Tuesday

Beginning Tuesday, May 1 and continuing through Sunday, May 13, a meeting for evangelism and revival will be held in the Walton Methodist Church.

The evangelist will be Dr. E. C. Overley, who has served as pastor of various churches in Kentucky and as president of Union College, Barbourville. He has, for the last 20 years, been active as an evanglist and will bring the message each evening at 8:00.

Ivan and Evelyn Insko

The song leader and singers for the meeting will be Ivan and Evelyn Insko, a talented young couple, who need no introduction for they have been in Walton before, when their messages in song were a great help and inspiration to many.

The pastor, Rev. A. E. Atkinson, invites you to attend the meetings each night at 8:00. Come every night you are able, and bring someone else with you. "Come with us and we will do thee good."—Numbers 10:29.

FOOD TRAINING SCHOOL

A food training school will be held in Florence, at the Old Town Hall, corner Main Street and Dortha Avenue, beginning April 30 and continuing through May 3, from 2:00 to 3:30 p. m., daily. Films will be shown, charts and other interesting material will be discussed.

All restaurant owners, school cafeteria managers and their employees are urged to attend. A certificate will be issued by the State Health Department to all who attend at least three sessions.

This is another free service of the Boone County Health Department.

At High School Gym; Sponsored by Legion

Commander Truett R. DeMoisey of the local American Legion is general chairman and casting director for the staging of the Legion's benefit show, "Hometown Jubilee," an all-star comedy revue to be presented in the Walton-Verona High School auditorium on Friday and Saturday nights, May 4 and 5, at 8:00 each evening. Tickets are on sale by members of the Walton Legion Post. Proceeds will be used to buy material for their new building.

When the curtain rises on "Hometown Jubilee," it brings a two-hour fun-fest to Walton. Our village's most charming and talented young women will appear in chorus and drill numbers. A "golden wedding" couple will be honored each evening of the show, and will be interviewed by a local citizen impersonating Bob Hope.

The remainder of the evening's entertainment takes the honored couple on a "trip down memory lane," recalling events of the past 50 years.

"Hometown Jubilee" salutes our county with an inspiring patriotic number, complete with pretty girls in colorful costumes, who appear in a military drill; our town, our schools, and our churches.

A professional director, Mrs. Ann Shaw, who has had special training in the production of "Hometown Jubilee," will direct the show.

KING-QUEEN CONTEST

A contest to select Walton's little King and Queen of "Hometown Jubilee" will be held in conjunction with the hilarious all-star variety revue being presented by The American Legion Post at the high school auditorium on May 4-5, at 8:00 each evening.

The boys and girls are among the most excited about the show, since a great many are taking part and most of the others probably will be on hand to see their friends and playmates on stage. Boys and girls entered in the contest are up to five years of age. It is one-cent a vote and winners will be crowned.

Voting containers and pictures of candidates have been placed in stores and other places of business with headquarters at the Brakefield Drug Store. Standings of the candidates will be posted daily. Anyone wishing to enter a little boy or girl in the contest is asked to call Mrs. Earl Waters, contest chairman, Walton 567.

Bake Sale On April 28

The Ladies Altar Society of All Saints Church and St. Patrick Church will conduct a bake sale, Saturday, April 28, at Ryan's Hardware Store. Mrs. Dorothy Ryan, president of the society, announced that a large variety of home baked goods will be offered in the morning and afternoon of the sale.

Simon Kenton Band Boosters Elect Officers For the Coming Year

The band boosters of Simon Kenton High School, Independence, held their last meeting for the year in the school cafeteria on Monday, April 16. Mrs. Bryant Rust and her retiring officers presided.

The following officers were installed for next year: Mrs. Ruby Worthington, president; Mr. Shirlie Moffett, vice-president; Mrs. Minnie Litcher, secretary, and Mrs. Virginia Watson, treasurer.

"We say thanks to the retiring officers for a job well done, and to the other members of the club for a very successful year. We feel sure that the new officers will have the full cooperation of everyone that we have had in the past year," stated the publicity chairman.

"As our band and their capable director, Mr. Roden, wend their way to the State Music Festival in May at Lexington, we hope they each do their very best to maintain their last year's 'superior' rating, and we ask God to watch over them for a safe journey," the publicity chairman added.

"TREE-SHADED" AREAS PRESENTING PROBLEMS

Shaded areas under trees frequently present a problem to home owners who like to maintain a well-kept lawn. To improve those unsightly places, Prof. N. R. Elliott, extension specialist in horticulture at the University of Kentucky, recommends Kentucky bluegrass seed, fertilizer and plenty of water. His experience has been that shady-lawn grass seed dies out in late June, July and August, due to extreme heat and humidity.

Kentucky bluegrass grows best where there is plenty of light and air, a situation which is lacking under many trees, Mr. Elliott noted. His first recommendation is to remove some of the lower branches to permit better circulation of air. Then with a steel rake, loosen the soil in preparation for grass seed and fertilizer.

About one pound of Kentucky bluegrass seed to 1,000 square feet of surface should be planted. The fertilizer (15 pounds to 1,000 square feet) should be a high-grade, complete one, such as 6-8-6 or better. Its application four times a year—in late May, September, November and February—is recommended, with watering done as necessary to soak the soil to a depth of several inches.

Church Must Grow

Lesson for April 29, 1956

A CLUB can close its membership list at any time. It can decide not to accept any more new members for six years, or sixty. But if a church decides to do the same, it is not a church any more, only a club. A church that is for good reasons not growing may be a true church of Christ; but a church that does not want to grow is certainly no church that Christ would recognize. "GO," Jesus said, into all the world. A church that has no Go about it, a church whose horizon is limited by its own parking lot, a church without a outreach, is a parody on a true church. It is not the real thing.

Dr. Foreman

Hurdles and Handicaps

The early Christian church was surely the real thing. It was a going, and therefore a growing church. But it could have had if it wanted, all the mouldy excuses which lazy churches offer nowdays to explain why they don't reach out. For example, the early Christians could have said, "We can't reach out, we haven't any money." But they managed to get around, or at any rate some of them did. They could have complained, "We have a shortage of ministers." Well, they did, but they had no shortage of laymen. By the time the distinguished apostles got down to Samaria they found an enthusiastic layman Philip had been there already and got a work started. The church could have said, "We can't afford to send missionaries all the way to Africa." They couldn't, to be sure. But what they could do was to make a Christian of an African in their own country, trusting that he would take the gospel back to his own people. (And he did, the tradition tells us.) A track man does not complain about seeing hurdles in front of him; he jumps over them. A good golfer does not "go home mad" because he has to play with a handicap against him. He takes it as a compliment and a challenge. So the early church took their hurdles and handicaps as challenges.

Laymen and Clergy

When you see a present-day church with no outreach, one of the reasons may be that the people leave all the outreaching to the minister. He is supposed to be interested in missions, sure, that's his business. But the people—well, we have a hard enough time raising money with our bazaar just for the preacher's salary, you can't expect us to think about missions! In fact, one has seen churches where the only really "active member" was the preacher. Now the early Christians talked no such nonsense. They did not have the hard-and-fast division into "laity" and "clergy" that churches today have, even if they use other words like "member" and "preacher," or "pew holder" and "pulpit orator." The Apostles, it is true, were men set apart. But the outreach of the early church was mostly done by people who were not Apostles. And so far as we hear in the book of Acts, the Apostles did not dress differently from any one else. They did not claim exemption from taxation, they did not claim reduced rates at stores or when traveling. They were not given titles like Reverend or Doctor—everybody called them just Paul or Peter or whatever, without so much as a "Mr." in front of their names. They worked at outreach, yes, but the point is, they were not looked on as professional outreachers while the "laymen" were professional sit-backers!

Multitudes and Lonely Man

The early church reached out in two ways. They went where the crowds were, and also they went to far lonely places. We hear about crowds in Jerusalem and Samaria and elsewhere. We also have the story of Philip going down to a desert road where his only congregation was one lonely puzzled foreigner. The going church today, the outreaching church, the New Testament kind of church, also will be reaching out to the multitudes, and to the lonely man. It will be sending missionaries into great cities, in our land and overseas, working among overcrowded tenements and swarming streets. It will be reaching out to cowhands on the open ranges, to lighthouse keepers' families along the seacoast, to little villages on the edge of the Arctic and under the dripping tropical rainforests.

The sun makes golden patterns across the tiled floor, and there seems something ageless and of wondrous beauty in the vaulted arches of solid stone. Here there is sanctuary, freedom, at least temporarily, from the worries of the outer world.

In every great life, there have been times of reflection and meditation. There have been moments of solitude to renew a flagging spirit with the infinite power of God, to find an inner peace which comes from another world.

In every life, there are times when sanctuary is needed. There are moments when the quiet witness of the Holy House is more eloquent than all the words in the world.

Often a step into the shadowed quiet of a church brings a resurgence of faith and courage that sets life on a new and greater course. This is the miracle of sanctuary—a miracle that can happen TO YOU!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is a great force in the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong church neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to get to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

The ideal weather the past few days has gotten the farmers busy plowing, disking and sowing plantbeds, so tobacco will probably be a little late this year. However, plants that have been sowed have not even sprouted, as the weather has been too cold, so taken as a whole, we are about as well off as those early birds who sowed in cold, damp ground.

Hog jowl and greens are on the bill-of-fare and what could be better for your health than vitamin packed dandelions, shepherd sprout, water cress and wild lettuce. The medicinal value is said to be great.

Sorry to hear of our friend, Bob Wegener's illness, and hope he will soon be OK again and rearing to go.

From the look of the heavy bloom on peach and pear trees there should be a heavy crop, providing they don't get killed by cold weather in the next two weeks, which seems unlikely now.

Jess Webster and wife put out 2,000 strawberry plants this week. They are of the everbearing variety and should provide a nice income on their investment if they have no bad luck.

KENTUCKIANS IN WASHINGTON

By Gil Kingsbury

Back to School:

We haven't said anything recently about school problems, but the other day the White House Conference on Education gave its report to the President. Some of the facts revealed concern Kentucky.

For example, a lot of folks say that our state contributes very little to the local school districts. Money-wise that statement might be true, but in speaking of percentages Kentucky ranks slightly above the average. For example, across the nation the various states contribute 41 percent of the money to local school districts. In Kentucky the percentage is 42 percent.

Other Ratings

The state ranks the most for the school districts in North Carolina which gives each district 74 percent of its money. On the other end of the list is Nebraska which contributes only 4 per cent.

Just a word of caution on what states the local districts have to levy heavy taxes and state help is not needed. Apparently Nebraska is in that category. In fact the schools which seem to have the better school systems rank below the national average in state contributions.

Classrooms:

The report to the President from the conference noted the number of classrooms in each state. How many do you believe Kentucky has? 21,490. California, as you might expect, has more classrooms than any other state with some 80,000, while New York has about 72,000. At the bottom of the list is tiny Delaware with a few under 2,000.

How Many Needed:

All states, according to the document given the White House need more classrooms and Kentucky educators suggested that our people need something over 10,000. In fact, the commonwealth ranks near the top in that category.

Texas has put in a request for a whopping 43,000, while down near the bottom of the list is rugged New Hampshire with a modest demand and need of 600 classrooms.

One thing can be drawn from the entire report. All states have educational problems and Kentucky's demands it's complement right in the conserve. In short, we are off in the same boat paddling upstream against the many current.

Piner Baptist WMS Meets

The W. M. S. of Piner Baptist Church met at the home of Mrs. Artie Tungate for the monthly April meeting. The business session was called to order by the president, Mrs. Christine Oliver. Fourteen members and five visitors answered roll call with scripture verses.

The community missions chairman reported two folks spent a day going to quick lots 48 cents in food and entertainment. A motion was made to give $20.00 to the purchase of a church bus.

The Royal Service program, "To Them It Is Given the Mighty to Serve," was given by the ladies with Mrs. Agnes McMillian in charge. Those taking part were Mrs. Lennie Pritchard and Mrs. Ida Mae Cook. Several folks in the Mt. Zion area have been sick with the flu.

Walton Socials . .

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Thornton and two children of Hamilton, Ohio, were the Saturday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lauderback, Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Stephenson and little daughter are vacationing in Florida, and visiting his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. John Jamieson at Bradenburg.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wilder have moved to the Pearl Johnson apartment.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Baker of Independence, were the Friday evening guests of his mother, Mrs. Daisy Yelton.

Mrs. Dora Bridell spent a few days last week with Mrs. Lena Mann and Miss Linda Bush in Covington.

Mrs. Malcolm Simpson attended a meeting for Chevrolet accountants at the Netherland Plaza, Cincinnati, last Thursday.

Mr. Mayne Simpson spent last Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Weeks of Covington. Mr. Weeks is recuperating from a recent illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Elbert McIntyre and two sons, Tommy and Dunnie, and Mrs. Ida attended the funeral of Earl Bozeman at Russell Springs last Tuesday. He was the husband of Joyce Mayse Bozeman and the son of Mrs. Pearl Connelly, a former resident of Walton.

Miss Nancy Osborne of Cincinnati spent several days last week with her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Bush.

Hughes Chapel WSCS Meets

The Hughes Chapel Methodist Church W. S. C. S. met for a regular meeting with Mrs. Clarence Struve on April 11. After a delicious dinner, on which Mrs. Struve was assisted by her family, the meeting was called to order by Mrs. Shirley Guard. The program on "Witnessing at Daily Work," was led by Mrs. Guard, assisted by Mrs. Elisha Allen, Mrs. Lula Hudson, Mrs. Pearl Bedinger, and Mrs. Clarence Struve. Mrs. Pearl Bedinger closed with prayer. Mrs. Guard reported that a hug box of supplies was sent from Mrs. Joe Woods' to Rev. John Lewis. Mrs. Elisha Allen invited the society for the May meeting to her home.

Election of officers for the new year (June 1, 1956 to May 31, 1957) resulted in the unanimous election of the officers who were named last year.

Visitors present were Mrs. Virginia Warren and Mrs. Carole Hankinson and children.

Just A Thought

The only reason a great number of families don't own an elephant is that they have never been offered an elephant for a dollar down and a dollar a week.

Teenage Club

The next regular meeting of the Independence Teenage Canteen will be Friday, April 27 at 7:30 p. m., in the American Legion Home located on the north edge of town.

Officers and members cordially invite all teenagers and their parents to attend and to become members. The meetings are scheduled to be held every Friday evening.

Home Planning

Got some thoughts about what homes ought to be like to meet present day habits in family living? The Federal Housing Administrator is asking housewives to write him their ideas. He plans to invite 100 of the letter writers to Washington. They'll sit down with housing officials and building industry representatives to thresh out answers to what is sound in building innovations. The Government will pay their travel costs and $12 a day living expense. Letters should be sent to Albert M. Cole, Federal Housing Administrator, Washington 25, D. C.

Thanks and Appreciation

Members of Bradford O. E. S., 493, wish to express their thanks and appreciation to all persons attending the recent ham supper, given by the above organization in the Simon Kenton High School cafeteria.

The supper was a great success and more attended this annual affair than ever before. The group would like to thank members for their donations of handicraft work, pies and cakes, and their help in the kitchen and in the serving of meals.

Chiggers

You lost a formula for a solution to cure the taking of chiggers and a method of treating your clothes with a solution that will withstand laundering. Write to Dr. Dan Smoot at Agricultural Experiment Station, Chiggers, How to Fight Them, and can be had without charge by writing the Office of Information, USDA, Washington 25, D. C.

Bradford O.E.S. 493

The Order of the Eastern Star Bradford Chapter 493 will meet Tuesday, May 1 at 7:45 p. m. at the Independence Bank Bldg. Helen West, Worthy Matron and Robert West, Worthy Patron will preside.

Chili Supper

A chili supper will be given Saturday evening, April 28, in the basement of the Independence Christian Church. This supper is given by the Sunshine Girls Sunday School class and service will begin at 5 p. m. and continue until about 7 p. m. A donation of 50c will be accepted at the door, and soft drinks will be available for the children. Pie or cake and coffee are also added with the chili.

Personal Interest

Tom Finney of Scott Subdivision, is taking it easy since having been under a doctor's care, but Tom is making plans for a trip to the river to do some fishing.

Bob Carr of Pleasure Ile Subdivision was confined to his home for a few days due to stomach trouble. He is now back at work again.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Reynolds, Taylor Mill Road, had as guests recently Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hall of Charlestown, Ind. Last weekend Mr. and Mrs. Orel Pfetter of Jeffersonville, Ind. were dinner guests. The Pfetters are newlyweds.

Teenage Canteen

At the last meeting of the Teenage Canteen members were instructed by the noted dance instructor, Bobby Zieg, for it the Canteen is going to have some of the well known dance steps of this day. All members who were present had a very enjoyable time and a fine evening. Parents of many members were present and some were dancing.

Bobby Zieg and his partner will return to the Canteen on Friday evening, May 11. All members, their parents and their parents are cordially invited. Refreshments are to be sold in the canteen.

By All Kentuckians To Be Your New Representative In CONGRESS FROM THE FIFTH DISTRICT

On Tuesday, May 29, YOU Can Qualify For A Citizen's

REWARD

With a Vote for Morris Weintraub

in the Democratic Primary

CAPABLE QUALIFIED EXPERIENCED

HE'LL GIVE YOU ACTIVE AND VIGOROUS SERVICE

Here's the Record of ACTION Morris Weintraub Has Made in Over SIXTEEN YEARS OF SERVICE TO THE PEOPLE AND THE STATE OF KENTUCKY:

For 16 years he has served as a Representative in the Legislature at Frankfort where—in every session—he has shown courage and ability to fight for what he believes is right and just!

He fought against the "gag" rule in the Legislature; and it was because of his fight and efforts the modern set of rules which now governs that legislature was adopted. WEINTRAUB WAS CITED BY HIS FELLOW-LAWMAKERS IN A FORMAL RESOLUTION FOR THIS GREAT KENTUCKY ACHIEVEMENT!

He stood up to Governors when he thought they were wrong AND EVERY ONE OF THEM RESPECTED HIM FOR IT!

He was voted by the entire group of press representatives at Frankfort—newspapermen who are in a position to hear and see and know—as THE MOST VALUABLE MEMBER OF THE KENTUCKY HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES! He has also been voted as "THE MOST CAPABLE and able all-round representative," as well as "The best speaker" in the House!

He has consistently fought for his voters and to protect the people against high gas, electric, and telephone rates. ALMOST SINGLE-HANDED, MORRIS WEINTRAUB IS CREDITED WITH THE FIGHT AGAINST THE UTILITIES THAT WON FOR THE PEOPLE OF NORTHERN KENTUCKY A REFUND OF MORE THAN $2,500,000!

When YOU VOTE in the Democratic Primary, YOU'LL HAVE A CHANCE THIS YEAR TO VOTE FOR A REPRESENTATIVE IN CONGRESS WHO WILL BE YOUR VOICE IN WASHINGTON . . . A KENTUCKIAN WHO IS YOUNG (46 years old) AND ACTIVE AND ENERGETIC, YET MATURE IN JUDGMENT, EXPERIENCE, AND RESPONSIBILITY TO THE PEOPLE WHO ELECT HIM.

Morris Weintraub was born in Kentucky, raised in Kentucky, and has practiced law in Kentucky for more than 25 years. He will speak up and fight for YOU. He is afraid of no man. He wants and welcomes your support. Talk to your family, friends, and neighbors. If you want to organize a WEINTRAUB FOR CONGRESS Club in your community, write:

CONRAD IS OPEN EVERY DAY BUT SUNDAY, 8 A. M. TO 6 P. M

APRIL IS OUT

April is about over and I believe most of you will be glad because it has been so cold and rainy. Can you remember back when everyone sowed their plant beds in February? Today is the 24th of April and some are still burning plant beds. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kennedy came in some time ago and wanted to trade a coal range in on a coal heating stove but we could not use the coal range but last week Chick sent them a buyer for the coal range—Bobby Mrs. Kennedy called for us to bring down that coal heater. Kurt Richter called for us to send over 15 steel fence posts. So Brewster took them over and went over to Mr. Florence's on Verona-Crittenden Road. His water pump was water logged, so Brewster took the water out of the tank and started it again.

Anna Pearl Johnson bought three gallons of Latex base wall paint. Phil Harrison from Grant County got a Taylor Tot. He is an old bachelor, but he said he may need it. Some fellow stopped in after a heavy twisted tip for clevice. Otis Elsea's wife came after 18 large screen cloths (is making a shed). Mr. and Mrs. Johnson from Crittenden bought several items. She wanted a large enameled kettle—could not find one but she found one in that front table. There is so much in there we do miss a lot.

Mrs. Speagle, also from Crittenden, bought plastic clothes line and clothes pins. We have been having a lot of smokers and some buyers for lawn mowers—everyone says we sure have the selection and the price. So give us a call before you buy. Brewster will bring them out and show you what we have. We are proud of our line of lawn mowers—we have no junk—if they are not the best, we will see what is wrong. Come to CONRAD'S!

Do you suppose warm weather will ever come? We had customers buying oil heater wicks and small gas heaters. That wind we had cold everyone came in chilled. It went out in the truck sale, put on a sweater, a corduroy coat and an overcoat, on the 17th of April but it felt like January, only the ground wasn't frozen. Mrs. R. A. Turner bought five quarts of Jelled Magic paint and a paint roller. Mrs. Agnes Atha called for us to send her a hand lawn mower by Everett Jones. Mrs. Florence Woods at Richwood called for a pint of black enamel to paint her screens—Mrs. Eva Dean took it to her.

Another cold, windy day and not many customers—only for repairs and paint. A fellow over on Shaw Road said he had been several places for some 20 bolts and two U bolts, which Chick made for him. Harold Rosenstiel needed two rods made for his lime spreader and Chick made these for him. Clarence Combs needed more Magic paint. Virgil Mullins over beyond Verona bought nine cans of Dowfume to prepare his planthed for tobacco seed. There are a lot of planthed's to be prepared yet and no ground plowed yet. Someone is going to get busy some of these days before long.

Today we sold more fishing tackle—everyone tells us we have the best assortment they have seen. We have rods and reels complete for 2.95 to 19.95. We have Penguin Aerial reels at 1.25 value for 7.95 while they last. Toby Chick sold a three burner Perfection oil cook stove and Brewster and Chick filled it with to Mrs. Sutton at Little Sugar Creek on U.S. 42. On the way back we picked up Mrs. Agnes Atha's power lawn mower—it was lone and had forgot about it. by the time we got to the store even tell that, but Brewster fixed it.

Bobby brought some equipment in and today—called Mack. I just can't keep track of it. Bobby can't keep up with it. Mack Walker bought a right Latex paint. Mrs. Walter Hall bought two quarts of paint, but we were out of the Latex base wall paint. Be sure to get the Latex base wall paint for your kitchen walls as washable jet. Pearl West came after window glass and a Sunbeam battery. Mr. Lockridge over on Pond Hill bought a new lawn mower. Looks like the rain we had in the area Paul Nesbitt bought Weedone weed killer to spray his wall with it.

Alberta Whitney got a paint sprayer but it leaks. I washed it and thought that was it. Bobby washed and took it to me with her. J. C. Reynolds bought five gallons of white to paint his chicken house and a 5" brush to paint his house trim. Mr. T. E. Crume was in today for some of that Rid-O-Rust—he says we have used this liquid more than any and some of my customers will not use anything else—it is very sensible as prices and covers everything with a satin finish at last. He all other Blue Paint is wonderful.

Mrs. Lindsey Bradshaw and Mrs. Robert Webster were in—one just had broken the handle out of her axe. Chick put her in a new one. Russell and Kate Sparks traded my power lawn mowers over—they want one in a few days. Kenneth Stamper bought a power lawn mower and I took it with him. A fellow who lives east of Hunt came in with the biggest bag he bought 20 lb. of hardware—that I believe he said he was raising pheasants. Clarence Wood picked out my bicycles and bought one that has been. John Higgerd on bought 22 cartridges for his new rifle. Jack Combs just came after more seed. Dowfume he tried it burn some with brush but it was too wet.

Simon Kenton FHA Holds 11th Annual Banquet For Mothers

The Simon Kenton Future Homemakers recently their eleventh annual banquet in special honor of their mothers. Dixie Barbarick extended the welcome to the mothers and guests and introduced Mrs. Sharmin Broderick in response with excellent comment. A appreciation for this occasion. A. Cowgill, Superintendent of Kenton County Schools, gave the invocation.

A delicious fried chicken dinner was prepared by Miss Launtine Stephens and her assistants. Toasts were served and graciously by the Future Farmers waiters under the guidance of their adviser, John I. Gray.

Degrees of achievement were awarded in a special candlelight ceremony conducted by Jo Ann Heideman, Betty Nesbitt, and Jacqui Fosbelt. Junior Homemakers degrees were awarded to Karen Crum, Jean Elliott, Millie Palmer, Mildred Hibbard, Pat Jones, Sharon Meyer, Joyce Moffett, Colleen Nevil, Judith Norman, Jane Pollard, Geneva Riddell, Juanita Riddell, Judy Rohmiller, Shirley Snyder, Jackie Suttle, Violet Switzer, Mary Thompson, Becky Wall, Carolyn Marty Williams.

Chapter Homemakers degrees were conferred on Dixie Barbarick, Marilyn Friedman, Jo Ann Heideman, Betty Nesbitt, and Nancy Patrick. Dianna Bishard, Sandra Riddell, Glenda Schuetz, Carol Winburn, Alene Wolfinberger.

Elected members receiving the State Homemakers degree at the state meeting next June will be Jo Ann Heideman and Marilyn Friedman.

Members of the cafeteria staff, the waiters and the custodians were given tokens of appreciation. These were presented by Mena Sallee.

Boutonnieres and corsages were presented by Shirley Snyder and Violet Switzer to the chapter mother, Mrs. William Heideman, the president, Jo Ann Heideman, chapter advisor, Mrs. Gayle McElroy, speaker, Mrs. Mildred Ritte, chapter beau, Gene Smith, and Supt. I. A. Cowgill.

A red rose was presented to the three honorary members, Mrs. Leonard Cook, Miss Helen Richardson, and John I. Gray, Jr.

Other special guests receiving roses were Mrs. R. C. Hinsdale, Miss Elma Taylor, Melvin Schnur, Mrs. T. A. Gardner, Mrs. V. Wolfinbarger, Mrs. Jessie Mass, Mrs. Franklin Luscomb, Mr. John Gray, Jr., Rev. and Mrs. John L. Smith, a former Beta, Fred Griffin, former president, Miss Lou Ann Elliott, and former second vice president, Miss Rita Williams.

Highlights of the F.H.A. chapter were given by Dixie Barbarick, while the budget and financial report were given by Jozetta Flickinger.

Mrs. Mildred Ritte, a psychology and sociology teacher at Dixie Heights High School, gave a very interesting talk on "The Value of Homemaking Training."

During the program, Jozetta Flickinger and Jean Elliott led the group in singing, while the banquet ended with the F.H.A. prayer.—Reporter.

Kenton Countians Win In 4-H Public Speaking Contest

Among the blue ribbon winners in the Northern Kentucky 4-H Club District Public Speaking contest were two Kenton county club members, Miss Peggy Binder and Robert Wainscott. The contest was scheduled in connection with the annual District 4-H Spring Rally, held at Dry Ridge, April 27.

Miss Peggy Binder, 6466 Taylor Mill Road, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Binder. She spoke on the topic "Juvenile Delinquency." Miss Binder has been a 4-H Club member for four years, serving as secretary of the Independence 4-H Club for the past two years.

Robert Wainscott is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wainscott, Route 1, Morning View. Robert chose as his topic, "The Contribution of 4-H Club Work to Good Citizenship." He has been a 4-H Club member for six years and is presently enrolled in the garden project.

CONRAD IS OPEN EVERY DAY BUT SUNDAY, 8 A. M. TO 6 P. M.

APRIL IS OUT

April is about over and I believe most of you will be glad because it has been so cold and rainy. Can you remember back when everyone sowed their plant beds in February? Today is the 24th of April and some are still burning plant beds. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kennedy came in some time ago and wanted to trade a coal range in on a coal heating stove, but we could not use the coal range, but last week Chick sent them a buyer for the coal range—today, Mrs. Kennedy called for us to bring down that coal heater. Kurt Richter called for us to send over 15 steel fence posts. So Brewster took them over and went over to Mr. Florence's on Verona-Crittenden Road—his water pump was water logged, so Brewster took the water out of the tank and started it again.

Anna Pearl Johnson bought three gallons of Latex base wall paint. Phil Harrison from Grant county got a Taylor-Tot—he is an old bachelor, but he said he may need it. Some fellow stopped in after a heavy twisted tractor clevice. Otis Davis' wife came after 18 large screws—he is making a drag. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson from Crittenden bought several items—she wanted a large enameled kettle—I could not find one but she found one on that front table. There is so much on there we do miss a lot.

Mrs. Speagle, also from Crittenden, bought plastic clothes line and clothes pins. We have been having a lot of lookers and some buyers for lawn mowers—everyone says we sure have the selection and the price, so give us a call before you buy. Brewster will bring them out and show you what we have. We are proud of our line of lawn mowers—we have no junk—if they are not the best, we will see what is wrong. Come to CONRAD'S!

Do you suppose warm weather will ever come? We had customers buying oil heater wicks and small gas heaters. That wind was so cold everyone came in chilled. I went out to the stock sole, put on a sweater, a corduroy coat and an overcoat, on the 17th of April but it felt like January, only the ground wasn't frozen. Mrs. R. A. Turner bought five quarts of Jelled Magic paint and a paint roller. Mrs. Agnes Atha called for us to send her a hand lawn mower by Everett Jones. Mrs. Florence Woods at Richwood called for a pint of black enamel to paint her screens—Mrs. Eva Dean took it to her.

Another cold, windy day and not many customers—only for repairs and paint. A fellow over on Show Road said he had been several places for some 20" bolts and two U bolts, which Chick made for him. Harold Rosenstiel needed two rods made for his lime spreader and Chick made these for him. Clarence Combs needed more Jelled Magic paint. Virgil Mullins over beyond Verona, bought nine cans of Diwfume to prepare his plantbed for tobacco seed. There are a lot of plantbeds to be prepared yet and no ground plowed yet—someone is going to get busy some of these days before long.

Today we sold more fishing tackle—everyone tells us we have the best assortment they have seen. We have rods and reels, complete, for 2.95 to 19.95. We have Pflueger Akron reels, a 11.25 value for 7.95 while they last. Today Chick sold a three-burner Perfection oil cook stove and Brewster and I took it down to Mrs. Sutton at Little Sugar Creek on U.S. 42. On the way back we picked up Mrs. Agnes Atha's power lawn mower—it was loose and had spread apart so far the reel was loose and the roller even fell out, but Brewster fixed it.

Bolce brought down a shipment of paint today—Jelled Magic liquid satin interior gloss and Bolce quick drying enamel—he is adding a lot of new colors to the interior gloss. Mrs. Walter Hon bought pink Latex base wall paint. Mrs. Richard Howard bought two quarts of pink liquid satin wall paint—she said that the Latex base wall paint she put for her kitchen made a wonderful job. Sleet West came after window glass and a lantern battery. Mr. Goodridge over on Piner hill, bought a new padlock—someone broke the one he had on his garage. Paul Nead bought Weedone weed killer to kill some wild onions—this will do it!

Alberta Whaley just came in, said she had to have a washer, so she bought that yellow Bar-in washer and took it home with her. J. C. Reynolds bought five gallons of white creosote, a gallon of thinner and a 5" brush to paint his board fences. Mrs. T. C. Crume was up today for some of that Bolce liquid satin paint—we have sold this liquid satin for years and some of my customers will not use anything else. It is reasonable in price and covers everything with a satin finish—it is like all other Bolce paint, wonderful!

Mrs. Lindsay Brashear and Mrs. Robert Webster were on—George had broken the handle out of her axe so Chick put her in a new one. Russell and Kate Sparks looked my power lawn mowers over—they want one in a few days. Kenneth Stamper bought a power lawn mower and took it with him. A fellow who lives over at Piner came in with the biggest dog—he bought 20' of hardware cloth. I believe he said he is raising pheasants. Clarence Gadd looked over my bicycles and bought one for his boy. John Hopperton bought 22 cartridges for his new rifle. Geo. Dawkins just came after nine cans of Diwfume—he tried to burn one with brush but it was too wet.

Simon Kenton FHA Holds 11th Annual Banquet For Mothers

The Simon Kenton Future Homemakers recently their eleventh annual banquet in special honor of their mothers. Dixie Barberick extended the welcome to the mothers and guests, and her mother, Mrs. Sherman Barberick responded with excellent comments of appreciation for this occasion. J. A. Caywood, Superintendent of Kenton County Schools, gave the invocation.

A delicious fried chicken dinner was prepared by Mrs. Leintine Stephens and her cafeteria staff, and it was served most graciously by the Future Farmer waiters, under the guidance of their advisor, John I. Gray.

Degrees of achievement were awarded in a special candlelight ceremony conducted by Jo Ann Heideman, Betty Northcutt and Juanita Riddell. Junior Homemakers degrees were awarded to Karen Cain, Jean Elliott, Millie Fulmer, Mildred Gabbard, Pat Jones, Sharon Meyer, Joyce Moffett, Collen Nevil, Judith Norman, Jane Pollard, Geneva Riddell, Juanita Riddell, Judy Rohmiller, Shirley Saylor, Jackie Sipple, Violet Switzer, Mary Thompson, Becky Wilkinson, Marty Williams.

Chapter Homemakers degrees were conferred on Dixie Barberick, Marilyn Friedman, Jo Ann Heideman, Betty Northcutt, Nora Penick, Donna Richardson, Juanita Riddell, Donna Schuster, Carol Winburn, Alene Wolfinbarger.

Chapter members receiving the State Homemakers degrees at the state meeting in June will be Jo Ann Heideman and Marilyn Friedman.

Members of the cafeteria staff, the waiters, and the custodians were given tokens of appreciation. These were presented by Mona Sallee.

Boutonnieres and corsages were presented by Shirley Saylor and Violet Switzer to the chapter mother, Mrs. William Heideman, the president, Jo Ann Heideman, chapter advisor, Mrs. Gayle McElroy, speaker, Mrs. Mildred Riffe, chapter beau, Gene Smith, and Supt. J. A. Caywood.

A red rose was presented to the three honorary members: Mrs. Leonard Cook, Jr., Miss Helen Richardson, and John I. Gray, Jr.

Other special guests receiving roses were Mrs. R. C. Hinsdale, Miss Elma Taylor, Malvin Sebree, Mrs. T. A. Gardner, Mrs. V. Wolfinbarger, Miss Jessie Moss, Mrs. Franklin Lipscomb, Mrs. John Gray, Jr., Rev. and Mrs. John L. Smith, a former beau, Fred Griffin, former president, Miss Lou Ann Elliott, and former second vice president, Miss Rita Williams.

Highlights of the F.H.A. chapter were given by Dixie Barberick, while the budget and financial report were given by Jozetta Flickinger.

Mrs. Mildred Riffe, a psychology and sociology teacher at Dixie Heights High School, gave a very interesting talk on "The Value of Homemaking Training."

During the program, Jozetta Flickinger and Jean Elliott led the group in singing, while the banquet ended with the F.H.A. prayer.—Reporter

Kenton Countians Win In 4-H Public Speaking Contest

Among the blue ribbon winners in the Northern Kentucky 4-H Club District Public Speaking contest were two Kenton county club members, Miss Peggy Binder and Robert Wainscott. The contest was scheduled in connection with the annual District 4-H Spring Rally, held at Dry Ridge, April 27.

Miss Peggy Binder, 6466 Taylor Mill Road, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Binder. She spoke on the topic "Juvenile Delinquency." Miss Binder has been a 4-H Club member for four years, serving as secretary of the Independence 4-H Club for the past two years.

Robert Woinscott is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wainscott, Route 1, Morning View. Robert chose as his topic, "The Contribution of 4-H Club Work to Good Citizenship." He has been a 4-H Club member for six yeqrs and is presently enrolled in the garden project.

The play is produced by special arrangement with The Dramatic Publishing Company, Chicago, and is directed by George Edmundson.

"Girl Shy" is about a young college boy whose father has picked a wife for him. He gets involved with another girl and the results are hilarious.

Pretty Wedding Is Solemnized Saturday At the Goshen Church

Saturday evening, April 28, at 7:30 p. m., a very pretty and impressive wedding was solemnized at the Goshen Christian Church, Piner, when Margie Daniels, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Daniels, Crittenden, became the bride of Robert McPheron, Florence.

Rev. Albert Morgan, pastor, performed the double ring ceremony. The bride's only attendant was Martha Auton. Mrs. Ruby Worthington sang "I Love You Truly," with Mrs. Roberta Steinhauser at the piano.

The happy couple are honeymooning at Mammoth Cave and other points in Southern Kentucky.

Mrs. McPheron made her home with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Johnson.

Mr. McPheron, who is in the U. S. Navy, is stationed in New York.

DICKERSON-RHODES

The marriage of Miss Joyce Mae Dickerson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Dickerson of Beaver Lick, to Pfc. Ellsworth Rhodes, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Rhodes, Elsmere, was solemnized Thursday, April 19 at 4:00 p. m., in the Church of Christ, Elsmere, with the Rev. A. Holtzbaur officiating.

Serving as maid of honor was the bride's sister, Miss Judy Dickerson, and the best man was Pvt. Robert Nolan.

Following the ceremony a reception for the immediate families was held at the home of the groom's parents.

After a brief honeymoon, the groom returned to Fort Sill, Okla., where he is stationed with the Army.

Firemen's Social At Kenton, Saturday; Picnic June 29-30

The Kenton and Community Volunteer Fire Department will hold its regular monthly social Saturday, May 5, beginning at 8:30 p. m., in the Fire House at Kenton. Chairman Charles Grizzell announced refreshments would be served. Proceeds will go to the fire department.

The Ladies Auxiliary of the fire department will meet Monday night at the fire house and all members are requested to attend as they are working on the firemen's picnic, to be held on June 29-30, at Thornhill Lake, Kenton. Bonnie Lou, Rudy Hansen and the Klotz Bros. will be the featured attractions this year.

The Ladies Auxiliary and the firemen welcome any support that anyone can give them on this picnic, as this is the main money-making affair, which keeps the fire department in business and helps maintain the emergency ambulance for those who should need one.

The Ladies Auxiliary meets the first Monday night of the month at 8:00; the firemen the second and fourth Monday nights at 8:00, and the life squad meets the first Wednesday night of the month at 8:00. All meetings are held at the fire house and anyone is welcome to attend, according to Chief Cecil Ishmael.

O. E. S. to Sponsor Film

The Walton Easter Star Chapter is sponsoring the picture, "Glory," at the James Theater, Walton, on May 9-10. You may purchase tickets from any member of the order, priced at 25c and 50c. The show starts at 8 p. m.

Dinner To Be Held Again Next Year

The Walton-Verona Alumni Association held its get-together dinner last Saturday evening at the new school. A delicious dinner was prepared by the P.T.A. and served in the gymnasium. The gym, decorated by the junior class for the Junior-Senior Prom, on Friday evening, was very impressive with its pink and black decorations.

About 160 graduates, past and present teachers, guest and five students representing the 1956 graduating class were present.

Following the dinner, Bob Hall, president, opened a short business session by recognizing the only family having three generations to graduate from the local high school. They were Mrs. Viola Roberts, Dan Roberts and Charles Roberts. Mrs. Helen Jones gave a review of facts concerning the alumni and recognized the different classes represented, which included forty-five out of a possible fifty-four. Mrs. Maida Holder recognized the teachers, past and present, and each was asked to say a few words.

The alumni voted to continue with the dinner next year, and to have a membership dues of $1.00 per year.

The program was then turned over to Dan Roberts for the highlight of the evening, the presenting of a television set to the honor guest, Miss Jean Chambers. Miss Chambers has taught school for about 47 years, and most of that time was spent in the Walton district.

Charles Chambers represented the oldest graduating class present, 1904. Miss Mattie Hudson, graduate of 1902, was unable to be present. There was no graduating class in 1903.

Some of the former teachers present were Robert Bond, Lawrence McCartt, Miss Louise Conrad, Miss Kathryn Scott, Mrs. Jean Shetler, Homer Lee Osborne, Miss Mary Humphrey, Mrs. Pattie Waller, Miss Mary West, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Allphin, Miss Jean Chambers, James Vest, Mrs. Nannie Siekman, Mrs. Julia Rouse, and Asa M. Rouse. Many of the present faculty members were also present, including Supt. and Mrs. Robert Ison and Principal and Mrs. James Smith.

All are looking forward to the dinner again next year, and it is hoped that more graduates will be present.

Unit of the Banklick Baptist Church To Be Dedicated On Sunday

The New Banklick Baptist Church will dedicate the first unit of their new building on Sunday, May 6, at 2:30 p. m. They are inviting all of the people of Northern Kentucky to attend this notable event.

After the disasterous fire of February 1954 which destroyed the church building, the people held services in the parsonage. In April, 1955, work began on the new building. The building now completed is to be used for worship services at present, but future plans include an auditorium on the front. When the building is fully completed, the present unit will be used as an educational plant.

Former pastor, Bro. Simeon Webster, will speak at 11:00 a. m. in the morning worship service. During the time Bro. Webster served the church it was greatly strengthened and the parsonage was built. Bro. Webster is now pastor of the Salem Baptist Church in Owen county.

Bro. Chase Jennings, Baptist Missionary in Northern Kentucky, who served as interim pastor in 1954-55, will give the dedication address at the afternoon service. Bro. Jennings guided the church during the planning of the new building.

Others on the program for the Sunday afternoon service at 2:30 will be Bro. Roy Johnson, pastor of Florence Baptist Church; Bro. T. H. Shelton, pastor of Latonia Baptist Church, and Bro. Arthur Ruscher of Latonia Baptist Church. Bro. Ruscher will bring the message to the church in the evening worship at 8:00.

Boone Victors Announced in 4-H Club Rally

Two hundred sixty 4-H'ers, leaders and parents attended the Boone County 4-H Rally, held recently at Burlington, says Nancy Guilfoil, Home Demonstration Agent, and Ed McCandless, Assistant County Agent.

Nancy Prigge, Boone County High, was chosen over-all champion for her semi-tailored olive green print cotton costume. Over 111 girls modeled in the style revue. Conversion

Lesson for May 6, 1956

CONVERSION is a religious word, but it wasn't originally, and isn't exclusively so now. We have all heard of people converted to communism, or from it. A young man drives a convertible,—that is, a car which can be changed from open to closed, or back again. A business man converts a factory from war production to peace production. Conversion, in short, means change. But as Christians use the word, they do not mean just any kind of change. Every Christian's life, if it is a growing life, is a changing life. People who never become Christians at all may change their lives in various ways. The specially Christian meaning of "conversion" refers to the basic change from being non-Christian, sub-Christian or un-Christian to being a Christian. Dr. Foreman

Was Paul Peculiar?

Probably the most famous conversion in the history of Christianity was that of the man who later became the Apostle Paul. He was called Saul at the time, while as for being an apostle, he was on the contrary something rather worse than a "bad egg." He was an apostle of hate, prosecuting and persecuting people for no other sin or crime than merely being Christians. His conversion was sudden, spectacular and dramatic in the extreme. It was so impressive that to this day there are some who think that if you are not converted in the way in which Paul was converted, you can hardly have been converted at all. On the contrary, the one God who works in Nature in so many varied ways, works in men in varied ways too. Just as there are no two people exactly alike, so it would be surprising if any two conversion-experiences were exactly alike. Paul was a special case, and God dealt with him in a special way. One might almost say God had to hit Saul on the head and knock him down, to bring him to his senses. There were many features of that conversion that seldom if ever occur in other cases.

From . . . to . . .

First and all-inclusive, in the universal features of Saul's conversion, is the fact that this experience meant a turning around. His life pointed in a different direction ever after. Conversion means turning, and turning means a new course, a new destination, a new road. He turned from a negative to a positive life,—from being against, to being for. His entire energy had been spent in hating Christ and Christians. Afterwards his entire energy was devoted to the service of Christ and Christians. Before his conversion Saul was chiefly noted for his eagerness to tear down. Afterwards one of his favorite words, and favorite occupations, was "building up." He was turned from pride to humility, from trying to get what he wanted, to trying to do what Christ wanted. Before, he was a masterless man; afterwards, he himself often said of himself that he was a "slave" of Christ. But it was precisely in being body-and-soul devoted to Christ for life, here and forever, that he found the freedom from evil in his own life for which, as a masterless man, he had sought in vain. In these and in other ways, the conversion of Saul was not peculiar. All true conversion is a turning, from a negative, empty, destructive and fruitless life, to the "life in Christ," a positive, loving, constructive, brotherly life with much fruit of service.

The Thing, Not the Word

The word "conversion" occurs only once in the whole Bible (King James translation)—Acts 15:3. All the words together, like "convert," connected with this, make only fourteen out of the thousands of words in the Bible. But the thing is there, and that is the important point. One way of putting it is suggested by the story in Acts 9, which of course does not use the word "conversion." What happened there? Saul came into contact with Jesus; and instead of hating him any more, he worshipped him. He called him "Lord." That's conversion. But not all of it. Paul in later years told this story twice (that we know of—there must have been other times): Acts 22 and 26. He said about it: "I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision." Conversion is response to the touch of God. Conversion begins when we first take orders from Him.

INDEPENDENCE R-1

This entire community was saddened to learn of the death of Billy Masters, which occurred at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chrutcher Master Friday evening. The family has the sympathy of this entire community.

We are glad to learn Stevie Rapp has returned home from the hospital following an appendix operation early last week. We wish him a speedy recovery.

Remember the W.S.C.S. will meet next Sunday evening, May 6, at 8 p. m. at the Staffordsburg church. The society will put on a film of missionary work in India. The entire church and community are invited to be with us. Everyone welcome. Refreshments will be served in the basement at the close of the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Winford Riley and little daughter of Lexington, spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Riley.

Mrs. Louella Smith of Crestwood, spent the weekend with her sister, Miss Emma Yates, and was a visitor at the church services at Staffordsburg. We are always glad to welcome our former members back and to visit with us in their old home church.

Mrs. Grace Cooper and daughter, Joyce, returned to Lexington, Sunday to attend the Youth Assembly.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Parsons and children were Sunday afternoon callers on Mr. and Mrs. Howard Willoughby and little daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Rapp visited one day this past week with Mr. Rapp's sister, Minnie, and were glad to find her much improved. Miss Minnie has been a patient at the Baptist Rest Home in Newport for a couple months.

Mrs. Dawson Losey, her son Robert, her daughters and husbands motored to Madison, Ind., Sunday sight-seeing.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Losey spent the weekend with Mrs. Losey's parents in Owenton.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Keeney attended a family get-together with their nephew, Harold Stephens, and family of Newport, Saturday evening.

Several folks from this community attended the Beck sale Saturday near Morning View.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Keeney and little son called on Mr. and Mrs. Paul Damon, Sunday. We are glad to learn Mr. Damon goes back to the doctor this week to have the cast removed from his foot. We hope he will find it in good condition.

NOTICE . . .

To Friends and Policyholders of the Aleen C. Conner Insurance Agency:

I have volunteered to the said agency the service of accepting payment of premiums and depositing same in a special bank account in the agency name. This service is maintained solely for the convenience of friends and policyholders of the Aleen C. Conner Agency. GLENCOE

Sympathy is extended Delbert Kinman and wife in the loss of a darling little baby.

Mr. and Mrs. Kendall Elliott were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lona Higgins.

Jack and Ester Elliott's little baby is home from the hospital and doing very nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mershon of Folsome, called on Mr. and Mrs. Walter Noel, Sunday afternoon.

The revival closed at the Warsaw Baptist Church. Ray Johnson from Florence did the preaching. Twenty-five were added to the church in the one week revival.

Mrs. Bill Snow, Sr. is not so well. The doctor called to see her. She has been in a wheel chair for many years. Her address is Erlanger, Route 4, if you want to drop her a card.

Independence Homemakers

The Independence Homemakers Club met at the home of Mrs. Dan Hacker. Mrs. Charles Davis gave the devotional from Proverbs 6:20-23, and read a poem, "What Does Home Mean To Me?" Window treatments and casement windows were discussed by Mrs. J. C. Reynolds and Mrs. Aaron Neinhaus, as well as the proper selection of material and new ideas in the making of cafe curtains.

Mrs. Logan Wayman gave the garden lesson. Present were: Mesdames Aaron Neinhaus, Charles Davis, Frank Cox, Logan Wayman, J. C. Reynolds, John Leslie, J. E. Beers, Cleo Snelson, Herbert Witt, William House, Flora Summey, Catherine Kunkel, Vinson Vogelpohle, Dan Hacker. The May meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Walter Moser.

OAK RIDGE

—Call FL. 7-6881—

Oak Ridge Homemakers:

Mrs. Homer Harris entertained the Oak Ridge Homemakers Club at the home of her mother-in-law, Mrs. E. C. Harris, Lipscomb Road, April 17. Mrs. I. E. Monn read the gardening report for the month. Mrs. Orvan Douglas and Mrs. Orville Lusby were selected to attend the demonstration lesson on home freezing.

One of the members, Mrs. W. B. Wheeler, celebrated her 50th wedding anniversary April 24, and the club presented her with a gold thimble in appreciation of her efforts in teaching sewing and various forms of needlework to other members of the club.

The citizenship project of the month was a graduation gift of Miss Gertrude Dorman, who will graduate from Simon Kenton High School this spring in spite of the handicaps she has suffered from an attack of polio three years ago.

The lesson on cafe curtains and window treatment was presented by Mrs. W. C. Tallent and Mrs. T. B. Renaker.

For the May meeting, the club will have a special guest, Miss Edith Bunce, a district nurse from the Isle of Wight, England, who is in Kentucky visiting her sister, Miss Olice Bunce, a frontier nurse in Perry county. Miss Edith Bunce is a member of the Wroxall W. I. on the Isle of Wight, which is, in England, the equivalent of the Homemakers Clubs in this country.

Taylor Mill Civic Association:

A special meeting of the Taylor Mill Civic Association was held at the school on April 19. Over 300 attended the meeting to hear the report of the anti-annexation committee. The committee reported that they had elected Charles Deters chairman. Mr. Deters and James Dressman are working as attorneys for the group and are preparing as many legal blocks as possible to prevent the annexation of the area by the City of Covington.

Petitions protesting the annexation have been widely circulated in the area and more than 80 percent of the property owners have been contacted, and thus far, only three people have been found who favored annexation.

Another meeting of the association will be held this (Thursday) evening at 8:00, in the Taylor Mill School.

The hot-rod races are under way at Hilltop with action each Sunday afternoon. From the traffic on Taylor Mill after the races, attendance must be good.

Rev. Sigurd Bryan spoke at the mid-week prayer service at Oak Ridge Baptist Church recently and gave a very inspiring message. Bro. Bryan held a revival at Oak Ridge last October and he is well loved by the congregation.

Sunday School attendance at Oak Ridge Baptist Church averaged 153 for the month of April. Plans are being made to complete the church building. The young men's class recently had Mr. Coppage level off the ground between the church and Latonia Lakes so they can make a softball field for the teams to practice on.

Over 260 women, representing all the Baptist Churches in the North Bend Association, attended the quarterly meeting of the Women's Missionary Union, at the Decoursey Baptist Church on April 26. Mrs. Arthur Ammon, Associational president, presided over the business session. Devotionals were given by Bro. Robert Hollingsworth and Mrs. Tackett, wife of the pastor of the Walton Baptist Church. Mrs. Neville Claxon, missionary from Nigeria, gave an interesting talk on the need of the gospel and christianity in Africa.

The P.T.A. of Taylor Mill School had a very successful dinner last Saturday night. They sold out of nearly everything. The food was delicious and it was a good chance to see old friends. The parents of the children in Taylor Mill School really believe in supporting the activities of the school. There are nearly as many fathers at the P.T.A. meetings as there are mothers. If all parents took that much interest in the activities and welfare of their children there wouldn't be any juvenile delinquency.

Thurston and Georgianna Moore opened their Verona Lake Ranch, Sunday with more than 3,000 attending. Some fishermen reported very good luck. The musicians were kept busy. The Moores have many friends and several of them pitched in to help at the refreshment stands. I imagine Georgianna was tired as she worked all day Saturday at the P.T.A. dinner at Taylor Mill School and all day Sunday at the ranch, and that is hard work.

Several men from the Erlanger office of the Commonwealth Life Insurance Company, went on a fishing trip to Cumberland Lake, last weekend. They caught about 40 nice crappie.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Crawford and H. R. Hutchins went to the double-header at Crosley Field, Sunday. It is nice to see the Reds winning their ball games for a change.

We are sorry to be losing some good neighbors, Arnold and Katherine Perry, who are moving to Florida; Mrs. Ruby Lipscomb and sister, Mrs. Lizzie Selsor, moved to Hamilton, Ohio, Monday—they intend to move to Florida soon, and Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Roberts have moved to Covington.

Mrs. Edwin Kelly of Hands Road, is a patient at St. Elizabeth Hospital, where she underwent surgery Saturday. We wish her a speedy recovery. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Recker, of Florida, are visiting at her home to be with her at this time.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Tomlin of Lipscomb Road, are having a new basement put under their house.

CRITTENDEN

The Crittenden alumni banquet will be held May 12 at the Crittenden school auditorium. All graduates are urged to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gleason of Bridgetown, Ohio, are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a son last week. Mrs. Gleason is the former Alledine Doud, daughter of Mrs. Lydia Doud and the late Charley Doud. This is their first child.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Richerson and baby moved to Covington, in the Ida Spence homes.

Mr. and Mrs. George Roberts sold their home on Violette Road to Mrs. Dorothy Stone.

Tommie Bowen sold his house on Main Street to Mr. and Mrs. Lester (Jack) Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Belew spent the weekend with their son, Rev. Wendell Belew, and Mrs. Belew at Mount Vernon, Ky.

Mrs. Walter Cooke spent Thursday night with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Ella Wallace at Portland.

Mrs. Joe Reed was the Sunday guest of Mrs. Nan Schneider.

Walter Maddox returned home Sunday from Owentan Hospital, much improved.

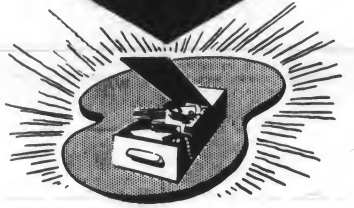
Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Gordon and three children spent Sunday with relatives at Owenton.

Joe Reed and two sons attended the baseball games in Cincinnati, Sunday.

Everett Glass moved from the J. T. Cook apartment to Mrs. Letha Brawner's, and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Clements moved from the Smith apartment to J. T. Cooke's.

Mrs. Kenneth Holbrook and little son, Kenny, were in Covington, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Duncan entertained the B.W.C. of the Baptist Church on Friday evening.



Mr. and Mrs. Billy Ray Hitch of Covington, spent the weekend with his mother, Mrs. Bertha Hitch, and sons.

Mrs. Dorothy Stone spent the weekend with her sister, Mrs. George Anness, and Mr. Anness at Mt. Zion.

Mr. and Mrs. William Dance and two children of Dayton, Ohio, were the weekend guests of his sister, Mrs. Lorena Hutsell, and daughter, Virginia.

Independence News

Personal Interest:

Mr. and Mrs Bernard Cavanaugh and children, Mary Ann, Jimmy and Kaffy, also Mrs Leona Cavanaugh and Miss Helen Burke of Newport, spent Saturday evening with Mr and Mrs James Burke. A delightful chicken dinner was served celebrating Mr Burke's birthday. The evening was spent playing games and everyone enjoyed a wonderful time.

Miss Helen Burke will be leaving soon for a month's vacation in Phoenix, Ariz.

Mr. and Mrs. Lucian White, Latonia Lakes, called on Mrs. Dairy Richardson, Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Junior Finnell was one of the many guests from this area on the Ruth Lyons show last Thursday.

Bethel 8, Jobs Daughters:

A combined inspection and initiation was held Monday evening, April 23, by officers and members of Bethel 8, Jobs Daughters, with Joyce Cooper, Honored Queen, presiding.

Mrs. Gladys Truitt, Grand Guardian, assisted by Ernest R. Penick, associate Grand Guardian, Grand Council of the Order of Job Daughters, were inspecting officers and both were very pleased for the good work put on by each and every officer and member.

Other Grand officers attending were Mrs. Louise Jackson, Mrs. Mary Coleman and Louis P. Lee, Sr. Among the distinguished guests attending were Mr. and Mrs. John Stephenson, who will be having a banquet for the institution of a new Bethel in Walton, May 19—Mr. Stephenson is now Worthy Patron of the Walton Order of Eastern Star; Helen West, Worthy Matron, and Robert X. West, Worthy Patron, Bradford O.E.S. Chapter, 493, and Mrs. Jeanetta Beers, Past Matron of Bradford Chapter.

"Good work," "well done," were the compliments extended officers and members by the visitors and special guests. A delightful hour of refreshments was enjoyed by all.

Many Thanks:

The many interesting items of interest that hove been sent or given me recently hos helped tremendously in keeping the Independence column as newsy as it used to be. I want to thank all those who are helping me in obtaining good reading materiol and hope you will continue to send me your items.—Bob West

Bradford O.E.S., 493:

Members of Bredford O.E.S. Chapter will hold their next stated meeting on Tuesday, May 8, at 7:45 p. m., in the Independence Bank Bldg.

This meeting will be devoted to "friendship night" and all members of the order are cordially invited to attend. Helen West, Worthy Matron, and Robert West, Worthy Patron, will be the presiding officers.

American Legion Dance:

Members of Moon Bros. Post, 275, American Legion, will hold their monthly dance Saturday evening, May 5, at the Legion Home in Independence. All proceeds from these dances are turned over to the building improvement committee, which in time will provide the people of this community one of the best outing spots for an evening of entertainment that any Legion Home can provide.

The public is invited to attend and a $2.00 per person donation will be accepted at the door. Music will begin at 9 p. m. and a variety of dance music will be available.

Members of this organization are doing their utmost to help the teenagers and the Boy Scouts in this area. To show appreciation for their good work, we should strive to enlarge the Legion's membership and to attend many of their functions that in turn will benefit us in the future. By attending this dance and their annual picnic, which will be the latter part of May, we will be doing the members a great favor and will be enjoying ourselves among friends and neighbors. Reservations are accepted by phone (FL 7-6781) so why not make up a party of friends and enjoy yourselves.

Trip to Old Masons Home:

All members and friends of the Independence Masonic organizations desiring to attend the Old Masons Home and various other points of interest near Shelbyville, are to be at the Independence Bank Building at 7:15 a. m., Sunday, May 6. Transportation will be available for those without. Bring a basket lunch for the noon meal.

This has been an annual event for many years for the above organizations and each year more and more persons are attending for the many hours of delightful travel and the good times after arriving at the destination. A guest speaker will be on hand for the church service Sunday morning. So pack your lunch and be at the bank for a day of wholesome enjoyment.

Just A Thought:

The way to get along with women is to let them think they are having their own way—and the way to do that is to let them have it.

CARD OF THANKS—

We wish to express our thanks and appreciation to our many friends and neighbors who were so kind and thoughtful during the illness and death of our husband and father, Morgan Chandler. Especially to Dr J M Huey, Dr Bowling, Dr Carl Kumpe and Dr Edward Mersch for medical care, to Bro Kelly Kennedy and Bro. Ray Stewart for their prayers and consoling words; to Fred Hamilton for the wonderful way he conducted the funeral services, to all that sent flowers, and to those who donated money toward flags for the church in his memory; to Charley Ryan and Lawrence Farrell for digging the grave, the many who brought in food, and helped in so many ways. Your kindness shall never be forgotten.

READ THIS ABOUT ATHLETE'S FOOT

The writer of this ad had athlete's foot several years ago. Was miserable with the pain of burning and swelling. One bottle of T-4-L Solution cleared it up. Now I keep it on hand to use only when my toes begin to itch. Have never had the disease again. I can't promise that you who have athlete's foot will get my results but there is a mighty fine chance. In fact, the makers of T-4-L have built a nice business on that chance. Their records show that repeat sales are far in the majority. T-4-L is especially made for, and is advertised only for athlete's foot, even tho' it is good for similar itches. Just give it a try. Your 40c back at any drug store if not completely pleased. INDEPENDENCE

Of Interest to Vets:

Congress is being asked to set up a system of old-age pensions for veterans. The general idea is to provide monthly pensions for veterans regardless of whether they have disabilities resulting from their service. Some plans now in consideration would limit pensions to veterans of World War I, and others would include men who served during World War II and the Korean conflict. Most of the proposals would place a limit on the income of veterans. The proposals vary as to whether payments could start at 60, 62 or 65.

Under certain conditions, a veteran of World War I or II or the Korean conflict could, after reaching age 65, draw a monthly pension of $105 or $150 if blind or helpless and needing a regular attendant. This plan is sponsored by the American Legion.

A veteran could still work, so long as his total income was not more than $1800, if he had no dependents, or not more than $3000 if he had a wife or other dependents. Actually, this plan is an expansion of a present program of pensions for veterans without service disabilities who are totally and permanently disabled. The plan would raise these pensions and also provide pensions for veterans beginning at 65, disabled or not.

The Veterans of Foreign Wars is backing another bill, limited to veterans of World War I. Base payments would be $100 a month at age 62, with higher amounts for those who served overseas and those who are blind or helpless. Income limits would be $2400 for those without dependents and $3600 for those with dependents. Veterans of World War I is sponsoring a proposal to pay $100 a month to all veterans at World War I at age 60 or over, regardless of income.

The Disabled American Veterans and the American Veterans Committee (AMVETS) are opposed to any new pension programs. Instead, they think existing compensation should be increased for veterans with service disabilities and their dependents. These proposals are in addition to other bills.

Payments made in connection with service-connected injuries and diseases are called "compensation," while service disability is not involved, payments are called "pensions."

Rural Mail Box Improvement Week:

The Post Office Department has designated the week beginning with the third Monday in May of each year as Rural Mail Box Improvement Week. This year the week of May 21-26 will be observed.

Rural boxes improperly erected or in unserviceable condition retard delivery of mail and expose it to weather. The Department wishes to encourage rural patrons to provide suitable receptacles, erected and maintained for easy and safe accessibility, presenting a neat appearance, and affording protection of mail. Names of box owners and/or users should be inscribed on the side, visible to the carrier, and boxes and supports should be kept painted.

WHITES TOWER

The last few days of warm weather and rains have started growing things to jumping, but very little planting has been done owing to the heavy rains in our community. A little dry weather would be very welcome just now.

The regular 4-H meeting was held April 23 at 3:30 p. m. at the Independence Courthouse. There were nine members present, with vice president, Tommy Stephens, presiding. Peggy Binder, secretary, read the minutes of the previous meeting, which were approved as read. The meeting was then open for business, where we discussed our intended camping trip and the speech events. Tommy Stephens and Peggy Binder were selected to go from Independence. We then elected two committees, one to choose a name for the club, and the other for setting dates for future meetings.—Secretary

Peggy Binder and Robert Wainscott attended the district meeting of the 4-H Club last week at the Dry Ridge Christian Church, where each delivered a speech at the meeting. Robert's subject was "Democracy," while Peggy spoke on "Juvenile Delinquency." Each was awarded the blue ribbon as second award.

Mrs. Schadler is home from the hospital and is much better, according to reports.

Florence Homemakers

Plans were made at the April meeting of the Florence Homemakers Club to hold a bake sale at Denham's Drug Store, Saturday, May 5, beginning at 9:30 a. m.

The project on "Furniture Refinishing," has been moving along nicely and a final worshop is planned for Wednesday, May 16, at 10:30 a. m. at the home of Mrs. John Martin, 323 Graves Ave., Erlanger.

During National Home Demonstration Week (April 30-May 5) a piece of furniture, in the process of being refinished by a member of the club, is being displayed in the window of the Denham Drug Store, along with other articles made by the Burlington Road and Stringtown Homemaker Clubs.

Members attending the April meeting were: Mesdames Roy Lutes, John Schram, Grant Maddox, John Martin, Frances Dempsey, Mae Griffin, Thomas Randall, William Kwozalla, Charles Luchte, O. R. Osmun, Mable Sayre, Clyde Arnold, Love Cook Ryder, William Foote, Don Shadrack, D. L. Eger, H. F. Wesler, W. H. Wisler, and Misses Jane Scott, Evelyn Tanner, and Nancy Guilfoil.

The next regular meeting will be held May 22 at 10:30 a. m., at the home of Mrs. Love Cook Ryder, 21 Shelby St., Florence.

IS YOUR SUBSCRIPTION PAID?

Stringtown Homemakers

Mrs. Bobby Hodges opened the April 26 meeting of the Stringtown Homemakers meeting with a devational reading taken from the book of Proverbs.

The hostess for the day was Mrs. Chester Henderson, who opened her home on Lee St., Florence, to members of the club. At this time Mrs. Gilbert Ogden was welcomed as a new member.

Mrs. Eugene Fightmaster, president, urged all members to see that their children were given proper immunization shots. Attention was called to the coming Immunization Week in May. Many children's lives are saved and the spread of contagious diseases checked because of the availability of these shots.

The president appointed Mrs. Jerry Rouse, Mrs. Bobby Hodges, and Mrs. James Loftin as the nominating committee for forthcoming elections.

Mrs. Leroy Abbott gave a report on the Spring Advisory Council meeting, attended in the absence of the president. The council adopted two main goals for the year 1956-57. The first, Clean up and beautify rural roads, and second, some means of drawing parents and youth together in the Boone County High School.

Those guests who enjoyed the second lesson on leather craft, were Mesdames Leroy Abbott, Eugene Fightmaster, Bobby Hodges, Don Mager, Perry Renaker, Alfred Roberts, Jerry Rouse, Robert Rowland, Jewel Scott, James Loftin, Carl Overpeck, the hostess, and a guest, Miss Nancy Guilfoil.

The May 24 meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Jerry Rouse, 23 Lloyd Ave., Florence.

CARD OF THANKS—

I wish to thank all my friends for the lovely cards and flowers and the friends who came to see me while I was in the hospital; thanks to Chambers & Grubbs for their kind service, and the ones who remembered me in their prayers. God bless each one of you for your kindness.

NORMAL SPINE HEALTH A NECESSITY

By Dr. G. C. Donohoo

Perhaps you find it difficult to understand why Chiropractors confine their work to the spine, when remote parts of the body are diseased. But you find nothing strange about pushing a button on the wall to light a globe suspended from the ceiling. The procedure is practically the same.

Connection is made between the sources of energy, the brain or dynamo, and the body or electric globe. It makes no difference whether it be heart, stomach, kidneys or some other organ. Normal functions of all organs, muscles and tissues of the body depend upon supply of the vital nerve energy conveyed to them over the nervous system from the brain which generates this energy. Nerves emit from between vertebrae so when falls, jars or strains misplace a vertebrae, pressure on nerves is produced which interferes with normal function, creating disease.

Adjusting misplaced vertebrae is like pushing the button to produce light. It restores flow of vital energy and health is the natural result.

To you it may seem miraculous that we can adjust vertebrae and regulate blood pressure, relieve constipation, sinus, stomach or kidney trouble, and in fact, most of the ills to which humanity is subjected.

Instead of treating effects, the scientific Chiropractor seeks the cause responsible for effect, known as disease, and by proper adjustments eliminate the cause.

Health is your natural heritage. Thousands of men, women and children realize from experience the health benefits obtained by keeping the spine in normal condition.

(One of a series of articles published in the public interest to explain and illustrate the practice of scientific Chiropractic by Dr. G. C. Donohoo, whose offices are located in Walton and Florence. Telephone ATlantic 3-5371).

BLUE GRASS

That bluegrass in your yard is growing and with a little warmer temperature it will really grow—if you need some bluegrass seed or a mixture of grass seed, we have it. Then you are going to need a new lawn mower, and we have, and we are proud to have, four of the best lawn mowers on the market this year— we have Eclipse, Mastercut, Sunbeam and Lawn Boy. If these four won't do the job and give the service, then we will give up on power lawn mowers. We have sold several of those Dille-McGuire hand mowers for 16.50 and we have that Eclipse hand mower that sharpens itself. When you have thick bluegrass to cut you must have a good lawn mower.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Rapp from Staffordsburg came over and traded me their old power lawn mower I had sold them several years ago for a power driven Mastercut rotary mower. Charley Sutton came up today and bought a push type Mastercut to mow his yard and the one at the cemetery. He is 74 years old and real active. Ed Elmore came for those angle irons we had and drilled for him for his truck flat. John Cain stopped in today, he was taking a lot of young hogs to Lexington. Brewster went out to Mrs. Dawson Chambers today and put up 23 new plastic shades —he also took her a lot of broader tape. He also adjusted Mrs. Atherton's brooder over at the corner of Green Road and Ky. 16.

Then he and Red laid a new linoleum in the Methodist parsonage for Rev. Atkinson. After that Brewster took two lawn mowers over to Dow Williams Brown at Piner. Bobby Stallback bought a new handle for his wheelbarrow. Chick sold some fellow a paint lawn mower, chicken haunts and wiring material. Mrs. Rivard, over on Independence and Banklick Road, called us that she and Mark Williams wanted a water system put in at each of their dairy milk houses before Saturday—I saw John Wood and sent him over there to lay out the digging and then he will put in two of those Dayton combination water pump and water heaters—these are Jet water systems and 12 gallon electric water heaters all in one unit.

Mr. and Mrs. Forest Marsh bought a Dayton water system for their house and milk house. The milk inspector says you must have electric water system on your milk house, so give us a try before you buy, we sell and service Dayton water systems. Mrs. Rose up at Frogstool Inn, bought a hand lawn mower. Jim Hudson bought a Mastercut power mower. Mrs. Virgil Whaley sent down after a lot of Jelled magic paint. She must like this paint as she has used a lot of it. We sold more linoleum and paint today, also a lot of plastic window shade. Ray Kenney came up after bluestone lime and some water pipe to use on his posthole digger. Sherman Vastine from over on Rich Road, came after a Dayton water system—he took the water system and went home to measure his pipe.

Mr. and Mrs. Fisk were over again today for more paint. The ladies fan is much of their jelled Magic and Bilce paint. I just can't keep it in stock. Mr. and Mrs. William Heart were here with their chauffeur Ethel Breeden. Mr. and Mrs. James Elliston came over and we had a lawn mower trade—they took that Sunbeam mower. Nigel Ballard who has a farm over on Rt. 16 bought two rolls of fence and staples. Marvin Pate who has used a lot of Bilce paint, started with two gallons of out-side white and a gallon of linseed oil—he is starting on that new home.

John Wood and Ike Cullen put in the two combination Dayton water heaters and water pumps for Mrs. Rivard and Mark Williams over in Ashton Court. Mr. Brewster has been in the one for Forest March. Mr. Vastine on Rich Road, is still working on his. We sold four Dayton water systems so far today. We have water heaters and two water heaters that are a bargain. We have only a few of those combination units left. Better hurry and get that water heater and one unit for the Sun. You milk shippers are going to have to have the water system, so buy a dayton—they are the best—price is right and we do our best to give you service when they quit.

Mrs. Ray Hall stated that her power lawn mower wasn't doing what she had Brewster take her on their mower and we bought her a new check it over. Mrs. Jane Hawes called in. Bert in Bert-in-Bilt next Saturday wanted Brewster to clean and start her oil heater so when he was there, she wanted him to bring in her power mower for a tune up and sharpen the blade. Looking Huey but me get a new pair of tires for his Eclipse basket reel type mower. William Allen bought a shearing head to put on his clipping machine and some extra knives and combs. He is ready to shear sheep.

Charlie Weaver was in today but I did not get to talk with him. Mrs. Ross Scott was here for a dairy pitcher pump and then bought a power mower—you must get him to mow your yard. Robert Mayes, up on Linden Street bought a new power mower. He purchased under Brewster's hauls and Junior moved to Florence. Capel and Ben Berry son were here getting a lot of Bilce pipe, a freeze proof hydrant and a lot of pipe fittings for the Hazel Sebree farm. Cecil Sargent over at the R. T. Hester farm bought a lot of Dayton and Tru-Flo plumbing. Joe Neumeister also bought bluestone, lime and paint. Leif.

Spence Is Candidate For Re-nomination As Congressman

In announcing his candidacy for renomination as U. S. Representative, Brent Spence, Ft. Thomas, made the following statement:

"I announce my candidacy for renomination as Representative to the U. S. Congress from the Fifth District of Kentucky.

"There are but 16 major committees of the House of Representatives and the Banking and Currency Committee, of which I am chairman, is one of the most powerful. Because of my long service this responsibility and privilege has been mine for nine years. Many important bills have been referred to the committee and now the following bills are being considered for enactment at this session: bills to give relief to the victims of disasters caused by floods, to furnish assistance to those who are in depressed areas where many are unemployed and are suffering because they are unable to obtain the necessities of life, and for the allocation of additional funds to the Commodity Credit Corporation which through its purchase and loan programs furnishes money to the cooperatives to support the price of tobacco and other agricultural products.

"Because of the many important measures that may be considered by the committee and the Congress, I find it impossible to come home for any length of time to carry on my campaign and I must look to my friends to help me.

"I am deeply grateful to the people of the Fifth District for the confidence they have placed in me and for their many kindnesses to me through the years.

"If reelected to Congress I will use all my energy, influence, and ability to aid in the enactment of legislation that will assure the prosperity and happiness of the people of Northern Kentucky.

"I earnestly ask that all my friends look after my interest back home while I am looking after their interests in Washington, and go to the polls on the new Primary date, Tuesday, May 29, and cast their votes for me."

The Happy Helpers class of the local Methodist Church will hold its regular meeting Tuesday evening, May 15, at the church with a pot-luck supper at

Walton Merchants Win

The Walton Merchants won the first practice game of the season Sunday afternoon when they turned back Rural Daxol Gas of Florence, 2-0. The locals were aided greatly by the fine pitching of George Anderson, who in seven innings, struck out 13 men, and allowed only three hits. He was aided by the hitting of James Cole, who had two hits, and Clifford Johnson, who had a triple in the first inning.

The Walton Merchants open the season Friday night, May 11, at 8:30 p. m. with the New Haven Boosters at New Haven, in the Boone County Fast-Pitch League. They also play Folsom Sunday afternoon at the Verona ball park. Game time is 2:30. No admission will be charged.

District Utopia Meet Held At Florence On Saturday, April 28th

The Northern Kentucky District Utopia Conference was held at the Boone County High School, Florence, on Saturday, April 28, with the Boone County Utopia Club as host. There were over 90 Utopia members, guests and friends in attendance, according to Joe Clawson of Boone county.

Bruce Ferguson, Union, was toastmaster of the banquet, which was served by members of the Future Homemakers of Boone County. The tables were decorated with spring flowers and carried out the Utopia colors of blue and green.

At the business meeting, there was a discussion of the objects of Utopia Clubs, which included leadership training, agricultural and home education, recreation and rural living, etc. The district voted to make a study of the objects and report to the state organization.

"Pop"—Jones gave a report on the many activities of the clubs and the State Utopia camp, scholarships and the State Utopia trip, which will be made to New York this summer. Miss Lucille Bell was elected District secretary for the coming year.

The entertainment and recreation was enjoyed by all. The district includes Boone, Campbell, Gallatin and Kenton counties.

PRE-SCHOOL CLINIC HERE

A Pre School Clinic will be held on May 15, from 9:00 a. m. to 12:00 noon, at the Walton School for children entering the first grade this fall at Walton, Verona, and All Saints Schools.

All children entering school must have a physical examination, and smallpox vaccinations. If you do desire, you may go to your family physician.

Dr. Virginia Kratz will be the examining physician. This is a free service of the Boone County Health Department with offices at Florence.

W-V JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

The junior class of Walton-Verona High School will present, "The Remarkable Incident at Carson Corners," a three-act dramatization by Kristin Sergel, on Friday, May 11, at 8:00 p. m., in the school adutarium.

Don C. Rogers, Assistant Superintendent of Schools, Chicago, Ill., had this to say about the play: "This play has a powerful message, and skillfully develops how many—the janitor, the doctor, the business leader, the parents—are stunned with the realization of their own contributory responsibility for a tragedy. I finished reading it choked with emotion."

This production promises a very worthwhile evening, and a large crowd is expected to be present.

Mrs. Cooney Speaker At May Meeting Of Wa-Na Club, Monday

The Wa-Na Club met at the Walton Christian Church, Monday, May 7.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. James Falls. The president then led the group in repeating the pledge to the flag and the club collect.

Mrs. Carl Conner gave the spiritual guidance, which was the life story of Warner Solomon. He was a famous religious artist, who is well known for his portrait of Jesus.

Following a short business meeting, the president turned the meeting over to the guest speaker, Mrs. J. J. Cooney of Covington.

Mrs. Cooney is the Art Director for the Fifth District of the Kentucky Federation of Woman's Clubs and is a teacher at the Baker-Hunt Art School. She showed many interesting slides on various phases of art, such as painting, wire sculpture, ceramics, and many others.

Immediately after the program, refreshments of cake, cofee and tea were served to the following guests, which included members of the Walton Woman's Literary Club, and members: Mrs. J. J. Cooney, Mrs. Julia A. Rouse, Mrs. Lorena Myers, Mrs. Wendell W. Rouse, Mrs. Marvin Kendall, Mrs. Wallace Grubbs, Mrs. William Scroggin, Mrs. Jack Rouse, Mrs. Joe Tackett, Mrs. Clayton Jones, Mrs. James Falls, Mrs. Asa Rouse, Mrs. James Whitson, Mrs. Eldred Steinhauser, Mrs. Gayle McElroy, Mrs. James Webster, Mrs. Charles Prather, Mrs. Ward Rice, Mrs. Dwight Maddox, and the hostesses, Mrs. Wallace S. Taxpayers Urged To Make Inspection

County tax books will be open for inspection by taxpayers during the period, May 7 through May 12, Wilton E. Stephens, Boone County Tax Commissioner, announced.

Mr. Stephens urged as many taxpayers who desire to do so to make inspection of their assessments before the Board of Tax Supervisors convenes on Monday, May 14.

Members of the board, appointed by County Judge C. L. Cropper, are: M. G. Martin, Florence; Harry L. Allphin, Walton, and John E. Crigler, Hebron.

Mr. Stephens said the tentative assessment of the county for this year has been set at $36,447,005. This represents an increase over last year of $4,985,310. The largest increase, he said, was on intangibles, such as stocks and bonds. This amounts to $3,054,700. The next largest increase is on real estate, amounting to $2,128,120. Overall decreases totalled appraximately $197,510.

Despite the increase in such assessments, Mr. Stephens explained the county had a loss in livestock assessments of $113,700. The decrease is due to the decline in livestock prices and the fact that so many of the residents are going out the farming business entirely.

Another loss was in household furnishings, amounting to $310,405. This was due, he said, to the amendment passed by the legislature which did away entirely with assessments on household furniture.

By contrast with the 1956 tax assessment, Mr. Stephens said that in 1933, the total assessment for Boone county was $10,202,830. "This will give the people an idea of the growth of our county," he added.

RE-OBLIGATION NIGHT

The Wilmington Ladge, 362, will hold Re-obligatian Night, on Monday, May 14, at 8:00 p. m., in the lodge hall, with Edgar L. Colstan acting as master. All members are urged to attend.

On Saturday, at the Wilmington Lodge, there will be a third degree raising, starting at 7:00 p. m. Master Edgar L. Colstan will confer the first section and the Wilmington degree team will give the second sction, under the direction of Gaynor Caldwell. All Masons are invited.

Refinishing Picture Frames Studied by Kenton Homemakers

Directions for applying basic processes for finishing new and old picture frames were given to home furnishing leaders of the Kenton County Homemakers Association, April 25, in the recreation room of the Trinity Methadist Church, Latonia, by Mrs. Mary E. Burroughs, home furnishing specialist from the College of Agriculture, University of Kentucky.

Many interesting old frames were repaired and refinished by the leaders. Various methods were used in the processing, such as glazing, texturing rubbed color, natural and antique finishes. Demonstrations will be given by leaders in the various communities of the county.

Leaders attending the session were: Mesdames Dan Marshall, R. I. Tretter, F. M. Powers, Raymond McHale, Howard Beeson, Wayne Giltner, Arnald L. Motz, Earl Maegly, H. L. Hodges, Robert L. Lange, Russell Mueller, Robert Conley, George L. Brady, Fred Ficke, Edward Smith, Gurney Mitchell, James Miller, Oakley Hammond, F. T. Evans, Harry Champ, Edward Carder, Carl Rekow, J. C. WHITES TOWER

Bob Mathis of "Camp Hungry," is making extensive improvements at his home on Schumaker Road. Jess Webster is doing the work, which consists of a new front porch and storm doors.

Chris Weinel of Fowler Creek Road, was a business visitor at "Lide-A-Wee" farm last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lafe Miller (nee Jeanie Cook) are the proud parents of an 8-pound baby girl, born last week.

Scrap iron must be bringing a good price now from the number of trucks you see going by with high loads. One informant tells me that $1.25 per cwt is the price, which is not low by any means.

We beg your pardon for reminiscing a little about the early 1900's and if we may, we would like to say that at that time we lived at Rabbit Hash, Ky. and wrote a few items each week for the Boone County Recorder of which W. L. Riddell was publisher, and a finer man we know we will never meet. At that time C. G. Riddell was the only merchant we had at our little town and he used to carry the boys over during the summer for groceries until they sold their tobacco crops. If any who read this remember these things, I would like to hear from them as I am writing a short history of the early days of Rabbit Hash.

The Tower is like any other community which is written up by its correspondents on the paper. We wait to see who is written up and why. Oh, of course we have our critics. We hear them on the party line and they say, did you know that he or she, as the case may be, always writes up their own family first. Well, that is the fault of those who criticize. They never call up an item and then wonder why we don't write them up. Come on friends, we are just tickled pink when you call up an item of news and we never have refused to write up an item you call in. We have no way of knowing what happened at your home over the week end. Call us up, we need your help.

Two new families moved into the Tower, Sunday, and we are going to lose one of our old residents. Mr. and Mrs. Frakes next door, have sold out and will move shortly to Covington, where Mr. Frakes will be closer to his work, which is in Cincinnati.

The Reds have the fans all steamed up as they are winning those one run games this year, instead of losing them as formerly. No one but Smoky Alston, manager of the Dodgers, is picking the Reds to cause a lot of trouble to the pennant contenders. Wouldn't it be just wonderful if our boys could go all the way.

Property Owners To Get Payments from State Fund

Claims totalling more than $15,000 to 200 claimants in 57 counties will be paid from the State Livestock fund to property owners for losses due to the depredation of dogs (principally for destruction of sheep) during the first three months of 1956, Commissioner of Agriculture Ben J. Butler, Frankfort, reported today.

Butler said the payments had been approved by the Dog Law Advisory Committee of which he is chairman. Local counties in which claims were allowed are Boone, one claim, $20, Grant county, three claims, $160, and Kenton county, one claim, $20.

IS BACKACHE KIDNEY TROUBLE?

By Dr. G. C. Donohoo

Many people have the idea that backache is caused by a kidney ailment and they take something to purge the kidney but many times the backache is persistent even after such measures are taken. In reality very few backaches are caused by the kidneys for only in rare kidney diseases is there any pain whatever in the back.

Pain or backache between the hips and in the lower part of the back is caused by pressure on spinal nerves caused by a misplaced spinal joint, and to be permanently rid of the persisten, nagging backache, the cause of the weakness must be dealth with. A man, aged 30, consulted a local scientific chiropractor recently about a backache he had experienced four years. Thorough Chiroprocti examination revealed decided curvature of the spine, pinching vital nerves in lower back, which was basic cause of pain.

The spine was straightened by painless Chiropractic adjustments. Patient noticed relief the second day and at the end of 8 weeks patient was dismissed with all backache gone.

Remember that few backaches are caused by kidneys but are basically caused by misplaced spinal joints and your Chiropractor specializes in correction of these conditions.

(One of a series of articles published in the public interest to explain and illustrate the practice of scientific Chiropractic by Dr. G. C. Donohoo, who has offices in Walton and Florence. Phone AT 3-5371).

OAK RIDGE

Mr. and Mrs. George Springer of Lansford, Pa., visited Mr. and Mrs. Houston Ishmal of Taylor Mill Pike, last weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Metcalfe of Taylor Mill Pike, entertained his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Metcalfe, last Sunday.

The musical program presented by pupils of all the county elementary schools at Simon Kenton gymnasium last Sunday was certainly beautiful. The children sang so well together and they all looked so nice in their dark skirts or pants and white shirts or blouses. Miss Riggs had done an excellent job of training them to sing together. The boys and girls from Bramley put on a beautiful exhibit of precision marching.

The nice weather has at last presented an opportunity for the farmers to get their gardens plowed and planted. It has also caused the fish to start biting in the local ponds. We can do with some nice weather for a change.

CARD OF THANKS—

I wish to express my sincere thanks and appreciation to my many friends, white and colored, my relatives, ministers, Dr. Huey, Zion Baptist prayer band, Zion Baptist missionary, Walton Homemakers Club No. 2, Community Club of Erlonger, Community Bible class, Bluegrass Chapter 61 O.E.S., brother Masons,, my church. I thank you all for prayers, gifts, visits, food, flowers, letters, beautiful cards, and the many kind deeds done for me during my illness at home and at St. Elizabeth Hospital. Your kindness will never be forgotten. I will always remember you in my prayers. May the Lord bless you all.

INDEPENDENCE

To Property Owners In Independence:

Each and every person who owns property within the city limits of Independence, Kentucky are urgently requested to be present at a meeting to be held by the businessmen and headed by Orie Ware, attorney, Thursday evening, May 10, at 8:00 p. m., in the Court House in Independence.

It is to your advantage that you be present to learn what will be happening that will affect you and/or your property. Remember, "United We Stand, Divided We Fail."

Visit to Masons Home, Veachland:

Approximately 50 persons from this area attended the church services and picnic sponsored by the Wilfard Scottish Rite Club last Sunday, May 6, at the Old Masons Home, Veachland, Ky.

Arriving at the destination at 10:30 a. m., the Sunday morning church service commenced with Allie Allnutt, chairman of the club, giving a few delightful introductory remarks on the purpose of the club, its annual events and the sincere gladness of having been requested by the superintendent of the home to return again this year for the club's church services and outing. The guest speaker, J. Ewing Bashford, a prominent member of the Scottish Rite organization in Covington, gave a very good rendition on the subject, "We the Children of God." Special music by Alice Works and songs by members of Bethel 8, Jobs Daughters, were also very good and enjoyed by all.

A buffet meal was prepared by the ladies in the group after which all were escorted through the various farm buildings, the new hospital section, which consists of the most modern devices and comforts for its patients, the living quarters, which one sector is for men, another for husband and wife, the recreation and sun rooms and the cafeteria were also viewed, along with the surrounding gardens and grounds. Every part was commended on for its cleanliness and pleasant surroundings.

Hickory Grove WMS:

The Hickory Grove W.M.S. met at the church Tuesday evening, May 1 at 8 p. m., with nine members present. They were Mrs. W. E. Durr, Mrs. Anna Winel, Mrs. Janetta Neuspickle, Mrs. Martha Maddox, Mrs. Violet Lipscomb, Mrs. Mildred Papp, Mrs. J. C. Reynolds, Mrs. Rudolph Casson, and Mrs. Ralph Jump. The lesson, "Onward Christian Soldiers," was given by members and was very interesting. We plan to start a Y.W.A. for our young ladies class soon, with the help of the Walton church. We are sure it will be a success and this class is scheduled to be at the church at 8 p. m., June 5 for its first meeting. Everyone interested in the Y.W.A. should try to be present.

Streptomycin Sulfate Controlls Wildfire

Streptomycin sulfate has been tried in a limited way the past two years for controlling wildfire in tobacco beds. This material has been useful to prevent the disease and is also helpful in eradicating wildfire, according to Joe Claxon, County Agent in Boone county.

In Kentucky, farmers who have practiced fall plowing of tobacco beds, ditching to prevent overflow of surface water, and applying bluestone-lime, have been successful in most years in the control of wildfire in plant beds.

If wildfire occurs it is recommended that streptomycin sulfate be tried. The recommended rate is given on the container and manufacturers' directions should be followed. The material should be sprayed on the plants with a compressed air sprayer. A thorough coverage is desirable, but an overdose may result in burning.

Spray the solution directly on the plants as soon as wildfire is discovered and repeat if necessary to give control. In case of rain occuring within a 24-hour period after the streptomycin sulfat is applied, spraying should be repeated.

Streptomycin sulfate comes as a wettable powder. It is marketed under several trade names and if of different chemical strengths ranging from 7.5 to 30 percent. The active chemical is highly soluble in water and is compatible in spray mixtures with other chemicals.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK

The housewife who wants new flavor tricks in foods will not overlook the abundant supply of bacon now available. Its trantalizing, smoky fragrance and flavor give something extra-special to a broiled open cheese sandwich, or when added in crisp bits to a tossed salad.

The lowered retail price of 12 to 15 cents a pound over a year ago is the result of heavy hog marketings, says the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

High quality bacon is firm, the fat is white, and the lean is bright, pinkish red. A width of 1 1/2 inches usually is preferred. Wider slices generally have too much fat, and narrower ones may be too lean.

While bacon, like other cured pork products, may be stored longer than the fresh pork, the fat will become rancid if held too long. Bacon should be eaten within a week for best quality, although it will keep 3 or 4 weeks at 38 degrees.

Mrs. Pearl Haak, food specialist at the University of Kentucky, suggests the following vegetable combinations with the French dressing for spring salads. Each may be made tastier with 1/2 cup of crisp bacon bits sprinkled over the top just before serving.

Spring Salad Combinations

1. Two cups of leaf or head lettuce and 2 cups spinach, torn in bit sizes, 1/2 cup sliced radishes and 1/4 sliced spring onions.

2. Three cups of finely shredded crisp cabbage, 1/4 cup chopped green pepper, and 1 cup chopped red apple.

3. Three cups torn spinach, 1 cup shredded cabbage and 1/4 cup thinly sliced onion.

FREE AUTO INSURANCE IS VIOLATION: THURMAN

Commissioner of Insurance Carl P. Thurman, Frankfort, warned automobile dealers and insurance companies that a practice of offering free accident insurance to buyers as a gimmick to sell automobiles is a positive violation of law. He warned a Louisville insurance agency that the practice must be discontinued immediately.

He said that "insurance is not an article, but rather a service and the assured should have free selection of the company and agent by whom the service is provided."

NOTICE

TO ALL VOTERS IN THE COMING PRIMARY

TUESDAY, MAY 29, 1956

Re-elect Earle C. Clements to the United States Senate.

He does not tell you one thing when he is a candidate and then ignore his promises after he is elected.

He works for a reduction of your taxes instead of increosing them.

He is not allied with the gambling element and does not approve of taking the tax off of the race track gamblers and putting it on the farmers, wage earners, and business men.

He sands at the top in the Senate and his influence and "know how" means o lot to the people of Kentucky. It would take a new Senator many years to reach the standing in the Senate now enjoyed by Senator Clements and be appointed to major committees in the Senote.

He will not be o "yes man" and jump at the crack of the whip by any DICTATOR.

He never fails to reply promptly to any letter from his constituents.

The Primory Election was moved up from August to May 29 to deceive you again in voting before you begin paying the increase in State income taxes July 1.

Since the deoth of Senator Barkley, it is more important than ever to keep an experienced man in the Senate.

—Clements Campaign Committee

FEDERAL LAND BANK LOANS

FEDERAL LAND BANK LOANS—

The LONG term and LOW interest rate of a Federal Land Bank loan makes is stand out among all farm real estate loans available today.

LONG term means you'll have 20, 33, 34½ or even 40 years to repay. And, there's no penalty for paying ahead of schedule.

LOW interest rate means your 4% interest rate can never go higher during the life of your loan. Dividends, as paid, have the net effect of reducing this even further for you get back part of what you pay in as interest.

Came in now and learn about the LONG term and LOW interest features of a FEDERAL LAND BANK LOAN.

OUR DUTY IS CLEAR

Frankness, like charity, should begin at home. That is why it seems strange that while Democrats on a national scale are making the physical condition of the President an important issue in the national campaign, they strive to ignore the same discussion of the incumbent Congressman from the Fifth District of Kentucky.

Brent Spence, who has served Kentucky in Congress since 1931 is a venerated figure on the political scene. At 82 or 83 years of age, he has earned the graceful retirement which his current dynamic young opponent Morris Weintraub so eloquently seeks to secure for him.

For obvious reasons of good taste, and the respect which a younger man must show an elderly person, Morris Weintraub, who is 46, has attempted to ignore Brent Spence's age and the pace of activity this age dictates.

Whether Morris Weintraub—who has been one of the most outspoken legislators in the Kentucky House of Representatives for 16 years—continues with this "tread softly" approach to facts or not, we think it is time someone pointed them out to the voters.

We live in a fast moving and changing world, and a Congressman (or any citizen, for that matter) has to step lively and think quickly to just stay in the running. At his age, Spence shouldn't be expected to run, act or think as a younger man.

Morris Weintraub has the qualifications, the experience and the ability to take over and do the job well. He is active and vigorous. His almost single-handed job of securing a refund of $2,500,000 for the gas and electric users of Northern Kentucky several years ago is an outstanding achievement. He has held various public offices, including that of Judge Pro Tem of the Campbell County Court. He learned much about farm problems, when a number of years ago, he served as United States Conciliation Commissioner under the Frazier-Lemke Federal Law, which was designed to give aid and assistance to farmers in distress. He has had 25 years practice as an active lawyer.

It is this editor's opinion that sending Brent Spence back to Washington may be doing him a disservice. It's the duty of the voters to place the welfare of the state and nation above personal likes or dislikes. It's our duty to vote for Weintraub for Congress, not alone because he is qualified, able and experienced, but because we love Spence so much.

For All Men

Lesson for May 13, 1956

STRANGE as it seems, one of the hardest things for Christians to get through their heads and into their hearts, is that the Gospel is for all men. Some people have actually believed that God has two lists, and everybody's name is on one or the other; one list is of the people whom God intends to save, and the other is the list of those whom He has no intention of saving. This notion is out of line with the New Testament, especially such a clear statement as 1 Timothy 2:4: "God our Savior, who desires all men to be saved." Others, as we all know, somewhere back in their minds are very slow to believe that the Gospel is really for all men.

Dr. Foreman

"The Believers Were Amazed"

Prejudice is not new in the world, not new in the church. The very first Christians had their prejudices and some of them never recovered from them. We are told that the Roman army officer Cornelius, and his whole household—presumably servants as well as family—were converted, the believers who came from Jerusalem with Simon Peter were amazed, "because the gift of the Holy Spirit had been poured out even on Gentiles." These Jerusalem believers were all Jews, and Cornelius and his household were all Romans—or some other race perhaps Egyptian or Greek—and Jews had long supposed that being the "chosen people" meant that God would have dealings with them, and with them alone, of all the races in the world. The "Gospel" was for God's people; and the Romans weren't God's people—as those first believers saw it. So when it was obvious that some Romans had accepted God, and God accepted them.

Prejudice, Modern Style

Is the Gospel for all men? No, some would seem to be saying. Only for white people. If it is for anybody else, let it be somewhere else but where white people worship. The gospel can't be preached to any ears but white ears in the white man's church. A preacher in a large all-white congregation reports having received grateful telephone calls from members of another race—men and women who don't get very much out of the sermons in the only churches where they are admitted; so they have stopped going to church and have to "make do" with the radio. Is the Gospel for all men? No, a great many American church members seem to be saying when the offering plates are passed. These members may spend generously for their own congregation. They will put out big money to build an educational plant, or an entire new church. They will buy the preacher a new car. But money for missions? Not a cent from some of these people.

God Loves All Sorts

It was not only the first believers who were "amazed" that Romans could become Christians. Believers today are shocked from time to time in the same way. The fliers in the great war who were shot down over jungles, expecting a death, only to find in those rain-forests people singing Christian hymns; the prisoner in a Japanese concentration camp who found that one of his guards knew Jesus; the traveler in Russia who finds that there are real Russian Christians even today; these have been amazed too. But such surprises occur not only across the seas; they can happen across the tracks. Many persons show that they don't expect the Gospel to do any good except to some one kind of people. For example, everybody knew Billy Graham could reach the masses of Englishmen, the ordinary kind that will flock to a sports arena to see any kind of sensation. But when Billy Graham proposed to visit Cambridge University, many people advised him not to go. You'll never get anywhere with university students, he was told. It's the old story, the Gospel is for some people, not for all. Sometimes it's the other way around. People well-polished with education and filled with culture to the eyeglasses, don't want certain "other kinds" of people in their church; it might "lower the tone!" No—God loves all sorts; and if we profess to be his people, we had better learn to love other sorts than our own.

READ THIS ABOUT ATHLETE'S FOOT

The writer of this ad had athlete's foot several years ago. Was miserable with the pain of burning and swelling. One bottle at T-4-L Solution cleared it up. Now I keep it on hand to use only when my toes begin to itch. Have never had the disease again. I can't promise that you who have athlete's foot will get my results but there is a mighty fine chance. In fact, the makers of T-4-L have built a nice business on that chance. Their records show that repeat sales are far in the majority. T-4-L is especially made for, and is advertised only for athlete's foot, even tho' it is good for similar itches. Just give it a try. Your 40c back at any drug store if not completely pleased. Next Sunday Is Her Day!

Who better deserves our love and affection than Mother? This week end we can prove it with some kindly word and deed.

Mother rates high in our bank, too. We try to prove it every time she steps through our front door.

Mothers' Day

Open Every Day But Sunday, 8:00 A. M. to 6:00 P. M.

Sunday is Mothers Day and we have a lot of mothers to be remembered—some have passed on and lots of them are still here to worry about us. Everyone should remember their mother every day but especially Sunday as one day set aside each year for Mother. A nice bunch of flowers, a potted plant or, here at CONRAD Hardware we have a lot of nice gifts she could use to make her life happier and easier. Just a little remembrance from you to Mother and she will never forget, because she would give you the last thing she had, if you needed it.

Omer Kite came up after some fence. Mrs. Anna McCabe sent for two rolls of field fence. James T. Veal bought an Eclipse power mower. Rev. Price, the Baptist pastor at Gardnersville, bought a power mower. Scott Lancaster is still buying Bolce paint—he is a booster for Bolce paint. Mr. and Mrs. Steinhauser over in Kenton came over the stock sale—they stopped in and bought a bridle, a shovel, and some Jelled Magic paint. Mr. and Mrs. Kurt Richter stopped in and bought a tobacco bed canvas and ordered 20 mile steel fence posts.

Ruth Worthington was here today looking at poultry fountains and checking on her lawn mower. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Smallwood, from Flingsville, bought gate hinges and aluminum kettles. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Baker, Jr. bought a New Perfection 30" electric range, a square aluminum tub, Maytag washer and a 9x12 Armstrong rug—these young folks are just 17 and 18, starting housekeeping, but they are buying the best—it will last them a long time. John Rice called—he was having lawn mower trouble so Brewster took care of him. He also took Opal Robinson a gallon of that Jelled Magic paint.

Elmo Hedges, from Dry Ridge, was a customer—he says's real often. Remley Williams bought wall bags, twine and several other items. Manford Craft came after his lawn mower we had repaired. Mrs. Margaret Wilson bought a Mastercut power mower for someone at her house to keep the lawn mowed. Emmet Ward bought a 100 chick size electric brooder—I believe he will have some fried chicken before long. Mr. and Mrs. Mann from over in Kenton county, bought a Mastercut power mower. We are selling power mowers now because we have the mowers and the price.

We have several used hand mowers just sharpened and in good condition. Mrs. T. C. Crume from Florence bought a lot of paint, a utility cart on wheels, several plastic articles such as water pail, dish pan, dish drain and dust pan. Brewster took a screen door over to Mrs. Bischoff on U. S. 42 and installed it for her, then he took a power lawn mower over to Mrs. Powers on Ky. 17 between Nicholson and Independence—she was over here and selected the Eclipse mower with the electric starter—all you do is plug this one into a plug and the gas motor starts.

Mrs. Belle Willard, from Verona, came over with Harold Rosenstiel—she selected a beautiful Armstrong linoleum rug to be delivered later. Shelby Acra got a 28' extension ladder—he does painting after working hours. Don't be misled by other types of water proofing, always buy the best and it is cheaper—use Sta-Dri for your walls—after this past winter you know where your leaks in the basement walls are—so now use Sta-Dri, it really seals and comes in several beautiful colors.

I went to Cincinnati today and going down the highway I just saw that most everyone that operated any kind of a business sold lawn mowers. Several years ago when a person wanted to buy a lawn mower he went to a hardware store in the cities or a general store in the country store but now everyone sells lawn mowers—all makes and all prices. But I believe we can sell you the best quality lawn mower for the least money and if it is not a good one, we will take care of it. We have several used hand mowers, cheap, all sharpened and adjusted, ready to use. Matthew Sleet and I had a lawn mower trade—I got the old Toro reel type and he got the Eclipse rotary.

Russell Piner bought ten gallons of that good Bolce outside white, a gallon of Bolce heavy grade aluminum, a gallon of linseed oil and a gallon of turpentine. A lady said today they had always used another brand of paint, but they want $6.70 per gallon this year—If I can get her to try a gallon of Bolce painters pure paint for $4.95 per gallon, she will never use that $6.70 paint again. When you buy Bolce paint, you pay for paint, not a large percent for the advertising like a lot of other brands of paint.

Chas. Kohler bought a large size skil electric hand saw. Neuman Armstrong and his great grandson were in today—I like to get Neuman started on politics. Delanor Johnson came after Bluestone lime and DDT. He planted, also Cyngas to kill the ground hogs. Omer Kite, Bill Slayback and Ralph Sparks had a fox chase night out here on my driveway—you never heard such a fox chase as Omer was telling Bob and Ralph—they were really running and you could nearly hear the dogs bark.

Slayback came after a plow point, Sparks came after a new pair of fence pliers, he had chipped the jaws on his but when they got to chasing foxes, they all stopped right here in my side door—I finally got Omer started down enough to get him five gallons of Bolce outside white paint.

Achievement Contest Open To Kentucky 4-H Club Members

Kentucky 4-H Club members can win $310.00 in prizes in the 1956 State Achievement Contest in Home Economics and Agriculture.

The competition, one of five in the farm incentive programs of The Courier-Journal, The Louisville Times and WHAS, Inc., was announced by Barry Bingham, president of the newspapers and radio-television station, and by I. W. Whitehouse, state leader of 4-H Clubs.

To submit entries members must be at least 15 years old and have been active in 4-H Club work for four years or more. Previous contest winners are not eligible.

Prizes in both the home-making section for girls and the agriculture section for boys are: First, $60; second, $40; third, $30; and fourth, $25. The eight winners and their parents will be guests of honor, with all expenses paid, at the Farm Awards Luncheon next spring, in Louisville, where the prizes will be presented.

Winners will be selected on the basis of projects, leadership, and participation in club, community and county activities. Deadline for reports is October, 1956. Contest details may be obtained from county or home demonstration extension agents.

BOWMAN WINS SUNDAY

Before a crowd of 2143, Stan Bowman, for the third time this season, won the feature modified stock car race Sunday at Hilltop Race Bowl, Kenton county. In a duel for second place Chester Pratt nosed out Frankie Mack.

Dennis Sizemore won the jalopy feature; Le-nard Kentra, who set a track record last week, won the first heat; Hubert King, the second, and J. R. Penick, the third.

Walton Kindergarten To Present Program Thursday, May 24

The Walton Kindergarten, sponsored by the Wa-Na Club, will have its third annual program in the Kindergarten room at the Walton Methodist Church, Thursday, May 24 at 7:30 p. m. The program will be a review of some of the activities enjoyed by the children during the year. The same program will be presented at 10:00 a. m. for relatives and friends who will be unable to attend in the evening.

On Friday, May 25, at 12:00 noon, the children will enjoy a picnic luncheon at the home of their teacher, Mrs. James S. Webster of High School Court.

Cotton Bros. Meet In Neb.

A 2c. Kenneth E. Cotton, of the U. S. Air Force, has returned to the states after spending a year in Iceland, and is now stationed at Offutt Air Force Base in Nebraska, with his brother, A/1c Emery E. Cotton, also with the U. S. Air Force. Both are sons of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Cotton, Park Avenue, Walton.

Cecilian 4-H Club Meets

The Cecilian 4-H Club met in the church basement at Independence, on Monday, April 16, at 8:00 p. m. A special feature was a film about how we would like in 1975. It showed how the homes would look, how the cars would look, as well as airplans and other things. Everyone liked the picture very much.

It was decided to held the next meeting on May 21, at 8:00 p. m.

Special Services Saturday

Special services will be held Saturday night, May 19, at 7:30 p. m., in the Community Pentecostal Church of God, Whites Tower.

Rev. O. A. Morgan will bring the message. There will be special music and singing, according to the pastor, Rev. Ellis Rowland. Everyone is invited.

District Conservation Meet

Fifth District Junior Conservation Clubs of the Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources, under the Junior Club Supervisors, Billy Bell and Wilmer T. Lynn, met at the Gallatin County Game and Fish Club grounds near Napoleon, Friday, May 4. Eighty-one boys and girls, picked from previously held county contests, competed for the privilege of entering the state contests.

Among the local winners were: James Stephenson, Walton-Verona, runner up in the one-man plinking rifle (junior); Roscoe Goebring, Glencoe, runner-up in girls' plinking rifle; Mike Hurdon, Kenton County Boys' Club, winner of the M-O-Skeet junior boys, and Billy Dorning, Kenton County Boys Club, winner in the junior-boat casting event.

Northern Kentucky 4-H Club Camp To Be Held June 11-15

Its camping time again in Boone county and northern Kentucky, according to Nancy Guilfoil, Home Demonstration Agent and Ed McCandless, Assistant County Agent. This year the District 4-H Club camp will be held June 11-15, at YMCA Camp Ernst in Boone county.

Each year the 4-H Club camp gets bigger and better. This year, in addition to the swimming pool, softball diamond, boating area, recreation center, and cabins, there will be two blacktop tennis courts that can be used for tennis, badminton, and folk games.

Swimming will be taught again this year by the YMCA staff, so anyone wishing to learn how to swim will have an excellent opportunity to do so. There will also be a swimming period for advanced swimming.

A complete summary of events and activities taking place at the camp are swimming, softball, boating, archery, volley ball, badminton, casting, folk games, and nature hikes. Handicraft projects will me making lamps and silhouettes.

Camp will begin Monday, June 11 and close Friday, June 15. Registration will be from 2:30 to 4:00 p. m., Monday. Total cost of camp will be $9.66, which includes insurance for each of the campers.

The first forty to turn in their money at the County Agent's office, Burlington, will get to go to camp. Forty is Boone county's quota, so get your reservations in early so you won't be left out of the fun.

Ham Dinner Saturday

The Walton Chapter of Eastern Star will sponsor a ham dinner Saturday, May 19, in Fellowship Hall of Walton Christian Church. Dinner service from 5:30 to 7:30 p. m., $1.25 for adults and 75 cents for children.

Proceeds from the dinner will go to the newly formed Bethel 13 of Job's Daughters. The dinner is open to the public.

Annual Banquet Of Kenton Utopia Clubs Scheduled for May 23

The Reverend Paul Brinker, director of rural life work in the Covington Diocese, will be the principal speaker at the annual banquet of the Utopia Clubs of Kentrin county, to be held on Wednesday evening, May 23, at the Y. M. C. A. in Covington. The event is scheduled for 7:00 p. m. Master of Ceremonies will be Robert Scott, president of the Crescent Springs Utopia Club.

After the evening's agenda will be entertainment furnished by Patsy and Bobby Jackson, Kenton Community 4-H Club members. Folk games, following the program, will be directed by Dale Bee, Cincinnati Gas & Electric Co.

Kenton county has 52 members enrolled in Utopia work. Utopia clubs are organizations for rural young people and they have as their objectives: (1) educational programs for members, (2) development of leadership, and (3) organized group recreation. Utopia club work is sponsored by the Agricultural Extension Service.

Aid to Boone County Needy

Residents of Boone county received $5,417 in April under Kentucky's three public assistance programs—old age assistance, aid to dependent children and aid to the needy blind—it was announced today by Commissioner of Economic Security Vega E. Barnes. Payments included old age assistance, $4,637, aid to dependent children, $548, and aid to needy blind, $232.

Walton Merchants Win First 2 Softball Games; Play Folsom

In the first game of the regular season, the Walton Merchants softball team defeated the New Haven Boosters by the score of 6-1. The locals were again led to victory by the beautiful pitching of George Anderson. In the seven innings worked by Anderson, he struck out 16 men and allowed but one infield hit. For the winners, Harvey Kennady had two hits and drive in three of the winners' six runs.

Sunday afternoon, the Merchants traveled to the Verona ball park where they played Folsom in a practice game. The Walton team had four runs on six hits. Anderson struck out eight men in the seven innings worked. Folsom had one run on three hits. The Merchants were aided by the hitting of Charlie Roberts, who collected a two-bagger in the fourth inning with the bases full. Other hits for Walton were by Willett, two; Black, one; Ray Johnson, one, and Rice, one.

Saturday night the Walton Merchants travel to Folsom to play a night game. Game time is 8:00 p. m.

Baptist Church Observes Youth Week

John Ashcraft

Robert Evans

The First Baptist Church, Walton, is observing Youth Week, May 13-20. About 75 of the young people are participating. Beginning last Sunday evening, the young people took charge of the service. The youth deacons took their places, the youth choir, directed by Miss Joyce Winburn, brought the music, and one of the young men, John Ashcraft, brought a splendid message, entitled "Defense at Youth."

They will conclude the week by having complete charge of the services next Sunday morning.

All classes from the primary department will be taught by young people. The youth deacons will serve, the choir will be composed of young people and directed by Miss Winburn, and another of the young man, Robert Evans, will bring the morning message.

You are invited to attend next Sunday morning and see the youth in action.

VERNON W. FORT

Services for Vernor Wallace Fort, a grocery store operator at Morris Station, Kenton county, were held Monday afternoon at the Swindler funeral home, Independence. Burial was in the Independence Cemetery.

Mr. Fort, who was 43 years old, died last Thursday at Jewish Hospital, Cincinnati. A resident of Wilson Road, Walton, Route 1, he was a native of Marion, Ky.

Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Ruth Redmand Fort, two daughters, Miss Bernice Fort of Covington, and Miss Dollie Fort at home, a son, Donald Lee Fort, U. S. Army, in Germany, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy R. Fort, Walton, three sisters, Mrs. Edna Mae Fort, at home, Mrs. Helen Blair, of Cynthiana, and Mrs. Dolores Brockman of Covington; two brothers, Charles Fort of Covington, and Glynn Fort, Brisbee, Fla.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH

A Vacation Bible School will be held at the Walton Christian Church for the week starting June 4 and ending June 8, with graduation exercises June 9, at 7:30 p. m.

The time for the classes, each day, will be from 9:00 to 11:30 a. m., and the age limit will be from three years through 16, and all children are welcome.

"We have tried," said Lloyd Clements, Superintendent of the Sunday School, "to plan a program which will be enjoyable to everyone, and we hope we can have a good attendance."

Job's Daughters Institution

A Bethel of International Order of Jobs Daughters will be instituted at the Masonic Hall, Walton, on Saturday, May 19, at 3:00 p. m., by the Grand Guardian Council. Mrs. Gladys Truitt of Ludlow, Grand Guardian, and Ernest Penick, of Covington, Associate Grand Guardian, will have charge of the institution. Officers of the Burlington Bethel, No. 10, will exemplify the ritualistic work for the institution.

The group will recess at 5:30, for a dinner at the Walton Christion Church. Serving will be from 5:30 to 7:30 p. m., and is open to the public.

At 7:30, installation of officers of the new Bethel will be held in the Masonic Hall. Anyone desiring to attend may do so.

Mission at All Saints Church

The Reverend Himothy Hurley of the Passionist Fathers, Chicago, Ill., will conduct a week's Mission in All Saints Church, Walton, from May 27 to June 3. Father Timothy, one of the most noted preachers of the Passionist Fathers, will preach at services each evening at 8:00, beginning Sunday, May 27.

A Mission offers a wonderful opportunity to increase in the knowledge and love of God's truths. It's singular purpose is to restore to the friendship of God, those who need God's grace.

A cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend these services, the Rev. Charles A. Donovan, pastor, announced.

Spence Introduces Bill To Increase CCC Borrowing Authority

Brent Spence, U. S. Representative, introduced a bill to increase the borrowing authority of the Commodity Credit Corporation, and hos this to say on the subject:

"May 9, I introduced a bill which authorizes a two billion dollar increase in the borrowing authority of the Commodity Credit Corporation. These funds are needed to support prices of tobacco and other basic agricultural commodities. The price support of tobacco is mandatory at 90% of parity. Price support operations by cooperatives are carried out with funds advanced by the Commodity Credit Corporation. The bill would provide funds needed for this purpose through June 30 of next year.

"The Commodity Credit Corporation was organized and created by legislation over which the House Banking and Currency Committee, of which I am chairman, has jurisdiction. This Corporation is the Federal agency by which, through its loan and purchase program, the price of tobacco and other basic agricultural products are supported. Purchases are made by cooperatives, such as the Burley Tobacco Growers Cooperative Association, which acts as agents of the Commodity Credit Corporation. In the post I have introduced bills that would give this corporation sufficient funds to carry out its program and in the Amendments to the Defense Production Act of the 82nd Congress the bill which I introduced carried a mandatory provision for 90% support price of tobacco and other agricultural products. I have always fought for the rigid support price for tobacco and other agricultural products. Because of my position as Chairman of the Banking and Currency Committee, I have been able to do very effective work in that respect."

RIDER-SLAYBACK

Willis Boyd Slayback and Miss Donna Mae Rider were married in the Big Bone Baptist Church, Saturday, May 12, at 7:30 p. m. The ceremony was performed by Rev. James McClure.

A small reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Slayback, Jr., brother of the groom. After a short trip, they will reside near Verona.

Flowers For Memorial Day

The Bykota Sunday School Class of the Walton Christian Church will take orders for cut flowers, vases, and baskets for Memorial Day, until Monday, May 28. Call your orders to Maida Holder, Walton 1315, or Evlyn Rouse, Walton 1483. Orders can be picked up on Tuesday afternoon, May 29, at the Colston-Speagle building. Potted plants will also be available on Tuesday only, from 2:00 until 6:00 p. m. Your orders will be greatly appreciated.

Programs Scheduled At School Auditorium

Twenty-one graduates of the Walton-Verona High School will start their graduation exercises this Sunday with Baccalaureate at the high school auditorium, and continuing through May 25, when the Commencement will be held at the same place.

The Bacculaureate service will feature a message by the pastor of the Walton Methodist Church, Rev. A. E. Atkinson. Others on the program are Rev. J. R. Tackett, Supt. Robert Ison, a trio composed of Mrs. Dorothy Beighle, Mrs. Nancy Watson and Mrs. Fay Conner, and Dr. Revis. All music is under the direction of Virginia Brewer and Lucille Hudson.

Class night will be held Tuesday evening at the school, and will feature a circus atmosphere with everything in the sawdust vein.

Dr. Lyman V. Ginger will be the principal speaker for Commencement, Friday night, May 25. Rev. Kelly Kennedy, the Dykema double trio, Principal James S. Smith, Supt. Ison, and Rev. C. A. Donovan will also be on the program. All programs will begin at 8:00.

BOONE GARDEN CLUB

The Boone County Garden Club held its May meeting on the 8th, as guests of the T. C. Crume Nursery & Landscaping Co., on Highway 32, Florence. After refreshments, served by the co-hostesses, Mesdames Wallace Grubbs, Clarence Luchte, John Jacobson, and T. C. Crume, the meeting was devoted to plans and appointment of committees for the annual flower show and rose luncheon to be held at the Community Center, Florence, on June 12. Details will appear in subsequent issues of this paper. Guests from Walton, Mrs. Julia A. Rouse and Mrs. Wendell W. Rouse, were welcomed by members.

The club president, Mrs. Chaney, asks that all members who have not contributed one dollar to the Permanent Home Fund do so, and please contact Mrs. Harold Conner before the next meeting. The president said, "We want to be a 100% club and get an award for this project from the State Federation."

Legion Auxiliary Holds Regular Meet In Walton City Bldg.

"The regular meeting of Johnson-McElroy was held May 8, at the City Bldg.

"The meeting was opened by the pledge of allegiance to the flag by the president, Georgia Stephenson. Ten members were present and one visitor, Mrs. Morris, which we were glad to have with us.

"Parade plans were discussed, also the unit made plans for buying four tables and some chairs for the new Legion home when completed.

"A note was read to the Auxiliary from Mrs. Margaret Wilson with a donation of five dollars to the unit which we were most appreciative. Seventy-six books have been donated to the unit by the Wa-Na Club for the veterans hospital at Fort Thomas, also Mrs. Dearborn, in Kenton-county, and Mrs. Charles Ryan, of Verona, have doriated books for V. A. hospital.

"We have another new member, Mrs. Anna Burden, who we are very glad to have in our unit.

"All persons knowing themselves eligible to join the Legion Auxiliary, contact any member or come to the meeting which are held at the City Bldg. the second Tuesday of each month. Visitors are welcome."—Pub. Chm.

BODY BY FISHER

The meaningful emblem of Body by Fisher

When you see "sterling" on silver you know what it means—solid silver, all the way through.

And when you see the medallion "Body by Fisher" on an automobile it means much the same thing—quality all the way through, in things unseen as well as on the visible, gleaming surface.

The significance of this emblem cannot be tested on the showroom floor. Its meaning was not built up in a day but only after long years in which owners learned that "Body by Fisher" was a veritable symbol of solid, enduring satisfaction.

Only one who has owned a Chevrolet for several years can fully know the deep sense of satisfaction this emblem pledges. It is the warranty of an inner soundness that your eye or your touch cannot test. And only Chevrolet in the low-price field is entitled to wear the small, proud plaque that proclaims "Body by Fisher."

Spence Can Retire On $9456 A Year!

WASHINGTON (Special) — It will be of interest to the voters of the Fifth Congressional District of Kentucky to know that, based upon information received from the Retirement Division of the United States Civil Service Commission, Washington, D.C., Brent Spence is eligible for a pension of $9456 a year, or $181.84 a week!—for the rest of his life.

He would receive this in the event he retired or if he was not re-elected at the coming election. Under the Retirement laws, he would not be required to perform duties or work of any kind.

The information is based on the length of service, which in the case of Mr. Spence started on March 4, 1931, and would end January 2, 1957, in the event he retired or was not re-elected.

Observers pointed out that with this pension of $9456.00 a year, or $181.84 a week, Mr. Spence would have no financial problems and would be able to live a life of dignity and ease. This certainly would be sufficient to maintain him, when contrasted with the fact that most farmers, workers and small business-men do not earn this amount even after working a full year and then out of their earnings they must first pay all taxes, and then what is left is for the support of their family and home.

Your Body and Your Car

By DR. G. C. DONOHOO

Even if you bought the most perfect gasoline and motor oil, your automobile would stall if through failure of operation of the electric system, the spark plugs did not produce the electric spark at the exact time and point necessary for ignition. Therefore, if your car stalls, your mechanic examines the car not only to see if gas and oil are flowing readily, but also to see if there is anything wrong with the wiring system. For if the wires are not just right or if there is a short, the electricity cannot reach the point it should serve.

In an onalogous fashion the human body approximates the motor car. The nerves of the body carry the "electricity" to supply the necessary stimuli to different parts of the body. If there is any interference with the normal transmissions of these impulses, the organ inervated "stalls" until it again receives its normal quota of impulses.

Hence, just as one has one's car thoroughly overhauled yearly at least, so it is but common sense to have a mechanic look over your body at least once a year. Your Body Mechanic is your Chiropractor.

(One of a series of articles published by Dr. G. C. Donohoo, with offices at Walton and Florence, in the public interest to explain and illustrate the practice of scientific Chiropractic. Phone AT 3-5371).

WHITES TOWER

A Mr.Inabitt and wife of Decoursey Ave., Latonia, have purchased the Frakes home here and will move to it shortly.

Garden planting is the No. 1 job now, and that means a late garden this yeor.

Mrs. Hannah Dorsey is much better at this writing. She was quite ill last week.

Regardless of where the Reds finish this yeor, the team as a whole is going to have a lot to say about where the pennant will fly this year. With that bunch of sluggers anything can happen. One more 20-game winning pitcher and there's no doubt where the flag would go.

If you want any of those fat Hampshire pigs from Bide-A-Wee, better get them this week as hog prices are going up every day, the quotations Friday for fat hogs being $15.60. That is an increase of $4.60 per cwt. since April. Eight went out the past week, so we have only fifteen left.

Bro. Bob Brumbach and wife of the Amity Baptist Church, left Sunday for a week's vacation with Mrs. Brumbach's parents, who live on the Gulf coast. Deep sea fishing will be one of the thrills he will get as his wife's father runs a fishing outfit for tourists at this Florida resort.

We understand that a new subdivision is being laid out on a hillside in the Tower.

Mrs. Keeney and Mrs. Pruett took away four of our Hampshire pigs for their meat to put away this fall.

Master Jerry Binder received honorable mention for his saxophone playing at the Williamstown 4-H Club District meeting, May 10.

A good shower of rain would be a blessing now, as some of the ground broken is in a pretty cloddy condition.

Visitors to the farm during the weekend were Mary and Linda Ward of Covington, Bud Ryle and wife of Cincinnati, Mrs. Brumbach and family and Mrs. Chas. Dorsey of Independence, Mr. and Mrs. Fogely and Charlie Sturgle and friend of Covington.

Stringtown Homemokers

The Stringtown Woman's Club at Florence, held their April meeting at Cabana, Erlanger. County Judge C. L. Cropper gave a very interesting and informative talk on legislation. Judge Cropper spoke mainly about county government and how it is composed of the some branches at State and National governments—the Legislative, Administrative, and Judicial. The county judge is Judge of the County Court, Quarterly Court, Juvenile Court, Probate Court, and the presiding officer of the Fiscal Court. Following his talk, Judge Cropper answered many questions regarding county government, wills, estates, taxes.

During the business meeting, Mrs. Rector Jones, president, announced that the installation of officers for the ensuing year will be held at Cabana, May 28, at 8:00 p. m. Mrs. Howard Bary, guest, will speak on the Federated Woman's Clubs.

The following members anu guests enjoyed Judge Cropper's talk and the social hour which followed: Mesdames Richard Ammon, William Shotwell, Ted Williams, Jr., Robert Ammon, Andrew Johnson, Ben Zimmer, H. M. Crist, Joseph Weaver, Robert Howard, Arthur Collins, Charles Crone, John Revel, Rector Jones, Joseph Dringenburg, William Tupman, James Minor, Harvey Berry, Floyd Kells, E. R. Royek, and Miss Mary Nusbaum. Guests were Mrs. Robert Groger and Mrs. Max Wander.

Green Clover 4-H Club

At the rally, April 21, the following members of the Green Clover 4-H Club of All Saints School, Walton, were awarded blue ribbons in sewing. Apron and pot-holder, Rita Wimsatt, Shirley Ryan, Mary Batkin, and Gertrude Butler, while Joyce Rice was given a red ribbon. Jimmy and Dickie Poole, Merle Cuzick, Larry Hornsby and Terry Botkin judged cattle, and will receive a dollar, through mail, for their good judgment.

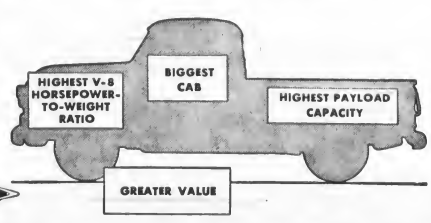
Your best buy is DODGE...and we can prove it!

Buying a new truck is pretty serious business—not exactly a dime-store affair. So why risk not getting the best buy?

Doesn't it make sense to take a few minutes and check to see for yourself just how much more Dodge actually gives you per dollar?



You'll find Dodge leads other makes in the really important ways. For example, when you buy a Dodge, you get:

1. Maximum hauling power. Dodge sets the pace for the entire industry in many models!
2. Top payload capacities—up to 22% more!
3. Lowest operating costs. Exclusive V-8 Power-Dome combustion milks extra miles from every gallon, practically eliminates power-robbing carbon.
4. Sharpest turning—makes parking easier, cuts time loss in maneuvering through traffic.
5. Biggest cab—for real comfort on even the longest hauls.
6. Low cost—lower than any other make for many models.

Do right by yourself—take a few minutes to look into DODGE before you buy your new truck. After all, why pay more and get less?

INDEPENDENCE R-1

We are glad to report the sick of our community are all on the road to recovery. James Burke is home from the hospital recovering from an operation.

The farmers of our community would welcome a good rain.

Rev. Miller delivered a very impressive Mothers' Day sermon at Staffordsburg, Sunday morning.

Remember next Sunday, May 20, all members of the Staffordsburg church, 18 years and over are requested to be present at the 11 a. m. service to vote on the building of a new church, or to vote on remodeling the church that is there now. We hope all members will be present. Come out and vote, which ever way you feel you should, but do come and vote, it will be a secret ballot.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Lasey spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Will House, of Independence. Mr. House is still on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Richardson and children of Williamstown, were guests Sunday of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Richardson.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Parsons and children were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Riley.

Rev. and Mrs. Roy Martin and children of LaGrange, spent a couple of days with the latter's, parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Barnett.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hanna are entertaining Mr. Hanna's aunt, Mrs. Tom Swinford, of near Crestwood, Ky. They also had other guests Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Wynford Riley and little daughter of Lexington, spent several days with relatives in this community the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Matthews of Cynthiana, and Mr. and Mrs. George Arnold and children of Walton.

Several of the W.S.C.S. ladies of the Staffordsburg church are planning to attend the district meeting at First Church, Covington, May 18.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Keeney and little son spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Damon.

The Staffordsburg Homemakers met Tuesday of last week with Mrs. Stella Richardson. The club is planning Home Administration Week next Tuesday evening, the 21, at 8 p. m. at the Taylor Mill School. They are also putting on a film. The public is invited. Try to attend. Refreshments will be served at the close of the meeting.

Notice To Contractors:

The City of Walton will receive sealed bids up to 8:00 p. m., of the 11th day of June, 1956, for furnishing certain items of material and labor for the improvement of Chambers Avenue, in said city. The approximate quantities are as follows: Roadway excavation (nominal) 450 lineal feet by 30 feet width; 175 tons of 1½" stone and dust rolled in place; 1050 gallons of asphalt cement, 80 tons No. 9 chips; 1325 tons MC 3 road oil; 36 lineal feet reinforced concrete pipe, 18", one tone headwall.

Plans and specifications may be secured at the office of the City Clerk or from Noel Walton, C. E. Burlington, Ky.

WHY SHOULD KENTUCKY RELINQUISH LEADERSHIP IN THE UNITED STATES SENATE?

RE-ELECT

EARLE C. CLEMENTS, United States Senator

Senator Clements is a veteran statesman whose intelligence and leadership are respected and well known to all who are familiar with workings of our great democracy. After eight (8) years as football coach at Morganfield High School, he began a career in public service which has seen him hold office and serve with esteem in almost every level of government.

He has been Union County Sheriff, Clerk, and Judge, State Senator and Governor, and is now a very highly ranked United States Senator.

Kentucky Democracy has been speaking in the Upper Chamber of Congress with the voices of two of the ablest leaders of our day, Senator Alben Barkley and Senator Earle Clements. They pulled together and formed a great team. With the passing of the beloved "Veep," someone with less experience must take his place, filling the shoes of one of Kentucky's greatest men. With God's blessing let us hope this substitute will be able to carry on. Practically everyone agrees that this is not the time to remove Senator Clements. Under the circumstances much if not practically all of the burden will now be on him. This he does not mind. His whale life, even his only hobby is that of public service. He is honest, truthful, sincere, able and experienced to give you the representation in Congress you deserve.

Earle Clements makes only one promise, the same promise he always makes and the same he always keeps, to strive to the very best of his ability to give to the people whom he represents the voice they deserve in government.

Problem Church

Lesson for May 20, 1956

Dr. Foreman

THERE are two different kinds of problems with children, as every father and mother know. One is the kind of problem you have with a sickly child, who has allergies, won't eat, play or sleep the way a healthy child should; perhaps a retarded child. The other is the kind of problem you have with a child who seems sometimes to be altogether too healthy; growing too fast to keep up with, noisy and hungry, perhaps ahead of his grade in school. The problems of growth may be even more difficult than the problems of illness; but all the same, the problems of development are more to be desired than the problems of decay.

Will the World Swallow the Church?

The Christian church at Antioch, one of the great cities of the world at that time, had its problems, but they were all the kind of problem that goes with growth. Dr. C. R. Erdman in his book on Acts points out that in this church we meet with four new things: a new name for the believers (Christians), a new kind of church (of which more presently), a new leadership, and a new center of missionary activity. Another new thing, which indeed was the mother of the others, was the new kind of city in which the church there found itself. Up to the time the church began in Antioch, the largest city where there were sizable groups of Christians was Jerusalem. That was a city which, so to speak, made religion a specialty. The long-time religion of Jerusalem led right up to Christianity. But what about Antioch. That was a pagan city, religions of many kinds flourished there, and none of them led up to Christianity at all. If the environment at Jerusalem was partly favorable to Christianity, the atmosphere of Antioch seemed more than likely to smother it. Religion in that city was what it is for some cities today—not by any means the most important interest. Antioch was a big business town, a central city for trade and transportation. People were much more interested in getting rich than they were in religion.

Uncongenial People

One of the problems, now at Antioch, was whether it would be possible to include in the same church groups of persons so different as the Greeks and the Jews. That had not bothered the Palestine church, because there the various races and nationalities kept to themselves. The Jerusalem church was all Jewish, the Samaritan church all Samaritan, and so on. But in big cities people mix and mingle pretty freely, and so it was in Antioch. Would different races, backgrounds, and so on, mix in one church? Somewhat to Barnabas' surprise, maybe, they did. When Christians are really what they aim and claim to be, the church becomes the "fellowship of the uncongenial." People who ordinarily have nothing in common, discover that if they have Christ in common, they are bound by a tie stronger than any other in the world.

Leadership

When Barnabas went up there to Antioch, commissioned by the church in Jerusalem to look around and use his judgment about what to do, we read that he "saw the grace of God and was glad." But the grace of God, in man or church, does not iron out all the problems. We have to think. And Barnabas must have thought long and hard about one problem which concerns every church large or small: leadership. Barnabas could easily have taken on a smaller church; but that one at Antioch was just too big for one man, any one man. He could have picked up some assistants there, no doubt, and stayed as top man; or he could have invited in one of the Jerusalem leaders. But he needed more than raw "chaplain's assistants." And the Jerusalem leaders would have felt pretty strange in an inter-racial church. So Barnabas took a rather difficult trip, all the way to Tarsus in Cilicia, just to get a man he had never forgotten; the then unknown (or, if known, suspected) Saul. The future of a church depends on its leadership. Blessed is the church with a pulpit committee as wise and far-seeing as Barnabas!

I LEARN FROM WATCHING MAMA

The school of experience has a wide reputation, and many are those who are proud to be its alumni.

But there is another school, an elementary school. And though it's less heralded, it turns out eager scholars year after year.

It hasn't really any name, and certainly no ivy-covered halls. Classes are held in the students' own homes. And the tuition is a wealth of love contributed by pupil and teacher alike.

But this is the best preparatory school in the world. For whatever it teaches has a place in the life of its graduates forever.

And the most encouraging sign on the spiritual horizons of America is the greater emphasis now being placed on the Bible, prayer, and religious education in the school of "watching mama!"

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. In a democracy it is spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

READ THIS ABOUT ATHLETE'S FOOT

The writer of this ad had athlete's foot several years ago. Was miserable with the pain of burning and swelling. One bottle of T-4-L Solution cleared it up. Now I keep it on hand to use only when my toes begin to itch. Have never had the disease again. I can't promise that you who have athlete's foot will get my results but there is a mighty fine chance. In fact, the makers of T-4-L have built a nice business on that chance. Their records show that repeat sales are far in the majority. T-4-L is especially made for, and is advertised only for athlete's foot, even tho' it is good for similar itches. Just give it a try. Your 40c back at any drug store if not completely pleased. FEDERAL LAND BANK LOANS

FEDERAL LAND BANK LOANS—

The LONG term and LOW interest rate of a Federal Land Bank loan makes is stand out among all farm real estate loans available today.

LONG term means you'll have 20, 33, 34½ or even 40 years to repay. And, there's no penalty for paying ahead of schedule.

LOW interest rate means your 4% interest rate can never go higher during the life of your loan. Dividends, as paid, have the net effect of reducing this even further for you get back part of what you pay in as interest.

Come in now and learn about the LONG term and LOW interest features of a FEDERAL LAND BANK LOAN.

The Grass Is Growing!

Open Every Day But Sunday, 8:00 A. M. to 6:00 P. M.

The grass is growing and the lawn mowers are running. Some still using the hand mowers, which we have in stock at 16.50, 24.50 and 34.50, as well as some used ones, sharpened, ready to use, at 7.50. Then we have that old reliable 20" reel type Eclipse for 137.50, then we have Eclipse 21" for 129.50, a 19" for 109.50 and 99.50, then a 21" Mastercut for 109.50 and a 19" for 99.50; then a 21" Lawn Boy with 2-cycle Johnson outboard motor for 109.50—and we have a few 20" rotary mowers for 89.50, also a Sunbeam self-propelled for 159.50.

Otis Scott, over in Kenton county, bought a Hanson tractor sprayer—the sprayer that sprays 50' at a time and has a pump with nylon rollers which gives real service. Mrs. Jay Webster was over and I showed her my power lawn mowers—she said bring over one of each kind, so Brewster took over the mowers and showed them what they would do—they kept the Sunbeam, which most of the ladies select, because they know what Sunbeam products are. Everett Bickers called for a lot of screen wire and some Bolce paint.

Mrs. Marion Stephenson bought a lot of Bolce paint—her daughter-in-law, Helen, was with her. Here came Mrs. Ben Hopperton, Mrs. Stanley Robinson and Mrs. Chas. Vest after that good paint we sell—Mrs. Vest bought 2 quarts of clover pink to trim her house. Mrs. Robinson bought Jelled Magic for the inside of her house. Elmer Richards wanted to know if we had any bargains in lawn mowers, so Chick took him to the warehouse and sold him one. Brewster went up to Crittenden and installed nine new Venetian blinds for Lester Wilson, who just bought that new house that Tammy Bowen had for sale on U. S. 25.

Brewster and Red took Maynard Meadows a new Hoffman 52-gallon electric water heater. They also cut and delivered Mrs. Clayton Jones 10 new plastic window shades. Mrs. Ben Simpson was my first customer for Mothers' Day, and she bought gifts for two mothers—her's and his. Mrs. Leonard Cook bought her some tools—a hand saw, a hammer, a garden hoe and other tools—every time she wanted tools they had gone to one of the farms. Ed Elmore, who is always building and repairing, bought a heavy duty 1/2" electric drill and some drill bits.

Mrs. James Gross bought new linoleum for her bathroom. Mrs. Arthur Linton bought a lot of 9' wide linoleum, a gray flowered pattern, very nice. Mrs. Agnes Atha called for a lot of screen wire. Dan Bedinger bought a Mastercut rotary power mower. I took his old mower in and sold it to Mr. Givins. Brewster went over and put up a new mail box for Mrs. Sophia Rauckhorst, then went back this afternoon and repaired her water pump. Mrs. John Tomlin came after more Jelled Magic paint—she has used a lot of our paint and will need more.

Rev. Price, over at Gardiersville, drove in the driveway and said his new power lawn mower, he bought last week, would not start, so Chick took it out of the car, gave it a crank, and off it went—that preacher must gave gotten it hot and it had to cool off. We had a busy day today—Brewster and Red were helping shear sheep, Chick and I had all we wanted, and we did a little of everything. Some lawn mower trouble, some buying fishing tackle (Mr. Vastine, over in Kenton, came after more plastic pipe and fittings—we sell so much of this plastic pipe.

I have a bargain in a 66" double-bowl kitchen sink for 129.00—this is a very nice sink, complete with faucets and strainer. We still have a few Dayton jet water systems for 89.50, and I have one more combination water pump and water heater for 159.50—all these have advanced in price, so get these while they last. Les Williams and Harold Callen came in just as we were about to close for pipe and fittings to hook up a water pipe. Gilbert Maxwell bought a lot of Bolce liquid satin paint for the interior of his house.

Mrs. Revel Osborne, on South Main Street, came in after some pink paint to paint her flower pots—she wanted Bolce paint, as she said she really liked Bolce paint and she had used it for years. Mrs. William Spillman, in the large gray brick house south of Crittenden, came down hunting a 12x15 bird linoleum rug that she had seen in the Sunday Enquirer that could be bought at CONRAD HARDWARE. Mrs. Carmical, up in Mint Rust's apartment, bought a Taylor-Tot. Mrs. Ed Jones bought clover pink for her cabinets and it should make a wonderful job.

We had several lookers for lawn mowers—we have the best mowers for the least money and we do our best to keep our customers satisfied. My good friend and customer, Mr. Rapp at Staffordsburg, bought a 159.00 self-propelled power mower—he could not get it started every time he wanted to use it, and he would have to call his son to help him—he brought it over and I rolled him out a new one—can you ask for any more? That Eclipse with the electric starter really does work and the ladies sure love it because all you do is plug it in, same as the starter on your car.

Mrs. Cooper, who now lives at Piner, and her husband is in the Army, bought an Eclipse rotary lawn mower with the electric starter. Don't go to other towns or cities to buy a lawn mower, when CONRAD has the four best on the market for the least money. If you buy here, we'll fix it or have it done.

First Time Voters Endorse Weintraub

Formation of the "First Time Voters of Kentucky," and the endorsement of Morris Weintraub for Congress, was announced by Thomas J. Broering, of Bellevue, who was elected as first president of the organization, which consists of young men and women 18 years and older who have registered to vote under the Constitutional Amendment adopted last November by the voters of Kentucky.

Speaking for the First Time Voters of Kentucky, Mr. Broering who is 19 years old, said: "The youth of Kentucky are grateful for the opportunity given them to vote. Kentucky is the second of the 48 states to grant this privilege to young men and women between the ages of 18 and 21 years. We accept this trust, and we shall not take it lightly. We will justify the confidence the people of Kentucky placed in us. Our interest will be for the betterment of our community, state and nation—through the use of the ballot box."

Young Mr. Broering continued: "At this time we want to thank Morris Weintraub who, as our State Representative, helped secure this right for us. He recognized, as did the majority of our people, that the youth of Kentucky, who can be called upon to give their lives in defense of their country, ought to have the right and the common sence to vote.

"We have analyzed the candidates who have announced themselves for Congress. As the youth of our great state we would like to make a recommendation to our fellow citizens—both young and old. The job of Congressman is a hard one. It requires patience and physical ability. As the future citizens of our State and Nation, we feel that we must have men in Congress who express themselves in terms of today's time and thinking. We live in the age of the atom and H bombs, the jet, radio and television—all coupled with foreign relations and domestic problems. This requires a person to be active, alert and one who is able to move about.

"We have nothing against Mr. Spence. In fact, he took office long before we were born. We feel that a change is needed. We need a man whose future lies ahead of him—not behind him. We need a Congressman who will think, act and express the wishes of the people he represents in the light of TODAY—not yesterday!

"We have therefore decided," concluded Mr. Broering, "that Morris Weintraub would be the man to represent all of the people as Congressman. He has the experience, the ability and the qualifications to do the job—and do it well. He is active and vigorous. He will make a good Congressman. He will act and fight for all of us. He understands modern times—because he is part of it. If you elect Mr. Weintraub as your Congressman, you can rest assured that you will have a strong, active voice in Washington to represent you. We urge not only the young voters, but our parents and friends, to vote for Mr. Weintraub as our new, strong voice in Congress."

Boone County DAR Chooses Officers at Regular May Meet

The May meeting of the Boone County Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, was held in the home of the Regent, Mrs. Roy C. Nestor, Florence, with Mrs. Virginia Goodridge, Mrs. Clarence Wolfe, Mrs. Rufus Tanner, and Miss Edna Goodridge as co-hostesses.

Members voted to again participate in the Blue Ribbon Health Day at the Colored School in Burlington. Fourteen children will receive blue ribbons this year, in addition to a gift for each child. The D.A.R. will serve refreshments.

Mrs. Davis Gaines, chairman of the good citizens committee, introduced Miss Judy Feagan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Feagan, Walton, Star Route, who is the "Good Citizen" from Boone County High School, Florence. She was selected for this honor by her fellow students and the faculty.

The slate of new officers for the next three years was read and recommended by the chairman of the nominating committee, Mrs. J. P. Brothers, and elected unanimously. Mrs. Samuel Denham, Sr., will be Regent, with Mrs. J. B. Wolfe as Vice Regent; Mrs. Ashlin Logan, Recording Secretary; Mrs. Ronald Crume, Corresponding Secretary; Mrs. William Tupman, Treasurer; Mrs. Roy C. Nestor, Registrar; Mrs. Louis Braun, Historian; Mrs. Rufus Tanner, Librarian, and Mrs. Clarence Wolfe, Chaplain.

The program was supplied by a representative of Loring Andrews Co., Cincinnati, who discussed Lenox China, and showed actual displays. This ware is said to be the choice of the Presidential mansions of the United States, Mexico, and Cuba.

Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Johnson spent the weekend with their granddaughter, Mrs. William Parman, and Mr. Parman in Cleveland, Ohia.

Simon Kenton Valedictorian

Libby Russell

Miss Libby Russell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Russell, Piner, is the valedictorian of the 1956 graduating class at Simon Kenton High School in Independence.

Graduation exercises are to be held on Friday evening in the schol auditorium. Miss Russell plans to enter University of Kentucky this fall.

Residents Asked To Wear A Poppy On Friday-Saturday

Mayor R. M. Hall has issued a proclamation designating May 25 and 26 as Poppy Day in Walton, when the little red flowers, made by disabled veterans, will be on sale by the local American Legion Auxiliary.

The American Legion adopted the resolution at its National Convention in Cleveland, September 27-29, 1920, making the poppy its Memorial Day flower.

This Memorial flower is in memory of all veterans who have served in World Wors I, II and the Korean conflict, and to aid the war's living victims.

In 1922 the first poppies made by American veterans were produced in the hospitals in Minnesota, and this work has steadily expanded until poppies are being made in more than eighty hospitals and disabled veterans work rooms in forty different states.

The making of these poppies give the disabled veteran something to do with their own hands, while on the other hand the money derived by the sale of the poppies enables the Auxiliary to help an ex-service man or his family, or used in child welfare.

The Girl Scouts will make a house-to house canvas on Friday afternoon. When a Girl Scout or Auxiliary worker meets you on the street or comes to your door, please do not say no, because when you give your donation you in turn are doing something for someone who did so much for you—the veteran.

The poppy display window will be in the drug store this year.

Members of the Legion Auxiliary will be on the streets Friday and Soturday with poppies; any donation, large or small, will be greatly appreciated by the Auxiliary members.

FIREMEN'S DINNER

The 19th Annual Firemen's Dinner given by the Independence Community Fire Department will be held Saturday, May 26 at the Simon Kenton School. Delicious roast beef or chicken will be served at $1.25 per person. They will serve from 5 to 9 p. m. with the public cordially invited. Proceeds go to further the fire department.

Cemetery Meeting May 28

The Richwood Cemetery Association will hold their annual meeting May 28 at the Richwood Church at 10 a. m. for the purpose of conducting regular business and the election of one director.

Bible School at Staffordsburg

The Staffordsburg Methodist Church Vacation Bible School will start Monday, May 28, and continue through Tuesday, June 5.

MRS. IVA HUME

Mrs. Iva Hume, member of a pioneer Boone County family and a local historian, died Friday at Booth hospital, in Covington. She was a resident of Nicholson.

Mrs. Hume had written a number of articles on the history of Independence and of Boone County. She was active in tracing the genealogy of local families. She was a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution and of the United Daughters of the Confederacy.

Mrs. Hume, who was 84 years old, was the mother of Robert Hume, Dry Ridge, agricultural agent for Grant Co. and of Philip Hume, Fort Thomas, president of the Keller States Advertising Agency, Cincinnati.

Besides her two sons, she leaves a sister, Mrs. Lulu Watson, Covington.

Services were held Monday at the residence. Burial in Independence cemetery. The Eckler funeral home was in charge.

OWEN LAWSON

Owen Lawson, a retired track worker for the L&N Railroad, died Monday at St. Elizabeth Hospital, Covington. He was 86 years old and had been retired for a number of years. His home was on Fowler Creek Road, Kenton county.

Survivors include seven sons, Frank, Ernest and Edward Lawson, all of Covington, Albert Lawson of Berry, Amos Lawson of Devon, two daughters, Mrs. Emma Lawson and Mrs. Ida Banfield, both of Covington; a brother, Charles Lawson of Falmouth, a sister, Mrs. Mary Milner of Hebron; 32 grandchildren, and 17 great-grandchildren. Mr. Lawson's wife, Laura, died in 1941.

Services were held Wednesday afternoon at the Boyd (Ky.) Methodist Church of which he was a member. Burial was in the Pythian Cemetery at Berry.

METHODIST BIBLE SCHOOL

The Walton Methodist Church will hold its daily Vacation Bible School from June 4 through June 15. All children between the ages of four and 14 years may attend. Enrollment for those who wish to attend must be completed at Sunday School, May 27, to ensure that adequate books and materials are available for each pupil.

The theme for the course is based on the forthcoming Olympic games, "Champions for Christ."

HARRY JACKSON

Services for Harry Jackson, Independence, Route 1, were held Wednesday afternoon at the Radel funeral home in Covington. Burial was in Floral Hills Cemetery, Kenton county.

Mr. Jackson, who was 74 years old, died Sunday at his home. A native of Dry Ridge, he had lived in Kenton county for 50 years.

He was a member of Golden Rule Lodge, Free and Accepted Masons; Latonia Council, Junior Order of United American Mechanics, and Licking Valley Council, Daughters of America.

He leaves his widow, Mrs. Bertha Jackson; a son, William Jackson, Covington; six step-daughters, Mrs. Hazel Tippett, Mrs. Dorothy Mills, Mrs. Beatrice Edelbroich, Mrs. Emma Klaiss and Mrs. Odella Meyers; all of Covington, and Mrs. Lillian Heeg of Cincinnati; three stepsons, Lafayette Mullikin of Covington, Richard Mullikin of Verona, and Vance Mullikin of Independence; four grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren.

Revival At Staffordsburg

Rev. Harry W. Wood

Primary Election To Be Held Next Tuesday; Bates Opposes Clements

Past Service Major Platform of Spence, Seeking Renomination

Representative Brent Spence has entered the final days of his current campaign for renomination with his record of service during the past 26 years as the major item in his platform.

He is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congressman from the Fifth District at the Primary Election to be held on Tuesday, May 29. Mr. Spence entered Congress in 1931 after an outstanding career as an attorney. He served eight years as City Solicitor of Newport and four years as a member of the Kentucky State Senate before going to Congress.

The Fort Thomas Congressman has been Chairman for nine years of the Banking and Currency Committee, which is one of the most powerful of the 16 committees in the National House of Representatives. As he again sought approval of the voters, Mr. Spence remarked, "I ask that my constituents examine my record before casting their votes on Tuesday of next week. The Banking and Currency Committee handles important legislation which affects the money and welfare of every citizen. My activity has ever been to guard the interests of the people. That is why we advanced legislation which insures the people's money deposited in banks and building associations, and it is also why we have in recent weeks pushed legislation to prevent big bank holding companies from gobbling up small banks."

"My record shows that I have always actively supported legislation to bring higher prices for tobacco and other farm products. Agriculture is one of the major items in our economy and we must see that the farmer always receives sufficient prices for his products if our Nation is to prosper."

"I believe that Congress is an instrument of the people and its every action should be to protect the people and bring them the type of legislation that will increase their happiness and general welfare."

"Members of Congress become of greater value to their districts through longer terms of service. I can do more for the people of the Fifth District today than I could during my early years in Congress. I submit to the people that a senior Congressman with established contacts can do more for them than a junior Congressman, who must sit on the sidelines during his first years and watch helplessly while the choice benefits go to other sections."

Social Security Adm. Must Know Earings Of Some Youngsters

Each summer many young people under 18 years of age secure employment during the vacation period. Some of them are recipients of Social Security monthly insurance payments made to a parent or guardin on their behalf. If they earn even one cent over $1200 in a year, this must be reported to the Social Security Administration, according to a statement made by Joseph T. Ware, District Manager at Covington.

Also is a child beneficiary enters the army, navy or marine corps, the Social Security Administration must be notified.

These notifications may be sent direct to the office at Birmingham or at Chicago, from which the checks come, on the special, postage-free post cards given to every beneficiary, or they may be given by the parent or guardian personally at the Covington district office, which services all of northern Kentucky. This office is now located at 729 Scott Blvd. HEmlock 1-5274.

HEALTH CLINIC MAY 31

Clinic at the Boone County Health Department will be held Thursday morning May 31, instead of Wednesday, because of the holiday. All parents who want their children to have typhoid shots can come in on Wednesday morning 9 a. m. to 12 noon for them.

To Show Proofs Today

Proofs of the photographs taken recently by Woltz Studios, Inc., of Des Moines, Iowa, for publication in this newspaper, will be shown today (May 24) at the Walton City Hall, from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Your child's picture will appear in this newspaper only if you call in person and select your favorit proof. You are not obligated to purchase photographs, but if you care to place an order, it is customary to make a small deposit.

Food Service School Held at Florence Is Very Well Attended

A very successful food service school was conducted in Boone County at the Community Center in Florence, April 30 through May 3rd.

The class was conducted by J. C. Stewart, State Area Sanitation, and W. H. Jones, Sanitarian of the local health department.

The course included the following: Lesson 1, Bacteria; Lesson 2, Food Service; Lesson 3, Dishwashing and housekeeping; Lesson 4, Refrigeration, Rodent and Insect Control.

The sessions were one and one-half hours long with attendance as follows: Monday, April 30, eighteen; Tuesday, May 1, twenty-eight; Wednesday, May 2, twenty-two; Thursday, May 3, fifteen.

Equipment used in conducting the school were flip charts, blackboard and films with sound projector.

Much interest as shown in the class, many questions were asked by the group with someone always having the answer.

Owners and operators of the Food establishments requested that another school be conducted in the near future for the benefit of their employees who could not attend this one.

CONFERENCE SPEAKER

Dr. J. A. Engle

Dr. J. A. Engle, pictured above, will be one of the speakers at the District Conference to be held at the Bellevue Methodist Church, Saturday and Sunday, May 26-27, which will be attended by the pastor and the official delegates of the local Methodist Church, along with pastors and delegates of the other 50 Methodist Churches of Northern Kentucky.

Besides the Missionary message to be presented by Dr. Engle, an executive of the General Board of Missions of New York, Dr. Clovis G. Chappell, author of many books and one of America's best known preachers, will deliver three sermons each day of the two-day session.

A special feature of the conference will be the observance of "Youth Night," Saturday evening, May 26, when Dr. Chappell will deliver a special sermon to young people and the Northern Kentucky Youth Choir, under the direction of Jerry Tritsch, Covington, will render special musical numbers.

The public is cordially invited to attend.

Buys Registered Angus

W. D. Johnson, Beaver Road, Walton, recently purchased ten purebred Aberdeen-Angus cows and a bull from the C. D. Cotton Estate, Dry Ridge, Ky.

Spence and Weintraub For Congressional Seat

The political pot in Kentucky is boiling and has been that way for some time over the primary elections that are set for Tuesday, May 29, in which the Democrats will name a candidate for U. S. Senator and U. S. Representative. The Republicans will also name a man for each of these posts.

The Democrats have Earle Clements, present senior Senator; James L. Delk, and Joe Bates striving for the Senatorial nomination. Morris Weintraub and the veteran Brent Spence are battling for the Representative nomination.

On the Republican side, the contest for Senator is between Thurstan Morton, Granville Thomas, and Julian Golden, while for Representative, there is Jule Appel and Edward Hayes.

The Senator's race is a hot one between Clements and Bates, the Chandler-backed candidate. Of course Mr. Spence, the veteran warrior, is fighting hard to stave off the newcomer, Weintraub. The Republican race is not causing too much concern, as the race is fairly well set.

Voting places in the various precincts will be as usual. All voters are urged to participate in these contests as this is the only American way.

WILLIAM H. ELLIS

Services for William H. Ellis, 712 Winston Drive, Sunny Acres, Kenton County, were held at the T. M. Swindler funeral home. Burial was in the Independence cemetery. Rev. Morris Coers officiated.

Mr. Ellis, who was 82 years old, died Saturday at his residence. He was a retired air inspector for the L.&N. Railroad. He was a member of Covington Lodge, Free and Accepted Masons, and Kishmee Grotto Lodge, Covington.

Surviving him are his widow, Mrs. Mary Ella Ellis; a sister, Mrs. Lottie Marshall, Boone County, and a grandchild.

Weintraub Predicts Victory In Primary Set For May 29th

Confident that the voters of the Fifth Congressional District of Kentucky want a younger, more active and vigorous man in Congress this time, Morris Weintraub, State Representative, and candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress in Tuesday's Primary election, today said:

"I feel confident that I will win the Democratic nomination for Congress. I have travelled over the District, and while I haven't met all of the voters—which I would like to have done, I talked and shook hands with thousands of them. Almost without exception, they told me that while they had nothing personal against Mr. Spence, they felt that at almost the age of 84 years he should not have run this time, bcause he is now too old for the job. They recognize that the job of being a Congressman requires a person who is alert, virgorous, active and on his toes at all times. They felt that Mr. Spence should have retired and not run this time. As you probably read in the paper, win or lost, Mr. Spence is eligible to receive a pension the rest of his life, in the sum of $9456.00 a year, which means $181.84 a week.

"As I said during my campaign, I feel I am qualified for the job of being your Congressman. I served for 16 years in the Kentucky Legislature, where, at all times, I fought for your rights. I have been a lawyer for 25 years. I have made no pledges or rash promises, other than to tell the people that if they will honor me with the office of Congressman, I can assure them they will never regret having voted for me. My future lies ahead of me—not behind me! I must do good. I will do good.

Concluding, Mr. Weintraub said: "I want t thank all of those who have been so kind and pleasant to me during this campaign. I hope that you will give me the chance to be your Congressman and serve you."

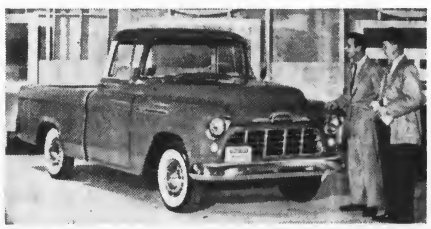
What to WATCH for when selecting the most modern truck for your job!



If you're in the market for a new truck, you can start your "shopping tour" right on this page! The salesman shown here is pointing out modern features that increase efficiency on the job and give you more truck for your dollars.

So take a moment to follow him around in this on-paper demonstration. Then you'll know what to look for—and you'll find it right here, at your Chevrolet dealer's!

WATCH for modern cab design

Chevrolet truck cabs offer greater comfort, panoramic windshield for better vision and modern concealed Safety Steps.

WATCH for advanced Work Styling

The long, low, forward-sweeping lines of new Chevrolet trucks provide modern truck beauty that's good advertising for your business. Each weight class has its own distinctive styling.

WATCH for automatic transmissions

In 3000-4000 Series models there's famous HYDRA-MATIC. And for 5000 through 10000 Series models there's exclusive, revolutionary POWERMATIC! Both are extra-cost options.

WATCH for Ball-Gear steering

Modern Ball-Gear steering, featured in all Chevrolet Task-Force trucks, makes your job easier at every turn! In this precision steering gear, scores of polished steel balls minimize steering friction.

WATCH for modern short-stroke V8's

There's a new V8—either standard or optional at extra cost—for every model. They're compact, efficient engines, too—the leaders in their respective classes for horsepower-per-pound!

You'll find modern features everywhere! For example, there are famous Chevrolet high-compression 6's—the world's most popular truck engines! A great new 5-speed transmission, optional at extra cost, handles tough jobs with ease in a wide range of models. New Triple-Torque tandem options for heavy-duty trucks hike G.V.W.'s up to 32,000 lbs. . . . G.C.W.'s up to 50,000 lbs. Certainly, there are many things that point up Chevrolet truck modernity . . . many reasons why anything less than Chevy is an old-fashioned truck!

KENTUCKIANS

IN WASHINGTON

By Gil Kingsbury

Gasoline Tax

This is merely a note to those Kentucky farmers who get refunds on gasoline and other motor fuel used on the farms. Refunds will be available on all such fuel used between the first of January and July 30 of this year.

Application forms, provided by Uncle Sam, should be obtained at extension offices, banks and post offices. And to be on the safe side, it is wise to save those sales slips to back up your claim.

Convention Coverage

Several Kentucky radio and television stations are among the 400 seeking credentials to cover the national presidential conventions this coming summer.

One such request comes from Frankfort and the application lists Charles Blackburn as a reporter-commentator. No further identification is added, but there is a Charles Blackburn active in the official family of Governor Chandler. And Happy, the world knows, is available for Democratic presidential nomination.

Among those serving on the committee to screen all the applications is Julian Goodman of Glasgow, now one of the top network executives in the nation capital.

Prosperity?

Recently the nation was told about a booming prosperity and a rosy outlook for the future.

However, Kentucky's Eugene Siler, congressman farm the Eighth District, told the House recently some alarming things about economic conditions in the eastern part of the state. The population is dwindling as workers move elsewhere to seek jobs. Income is down 40 percent, compared to the remainder of the state.

The congressman pointed out that if some disaster struck another part of the world, American would spring to its aid. Why not, he asks, help our depressed area in this country?

A PRAYER

When the Senate returned to Washington following the funeral of Senator Barkley, Rev. Frederick Harris, Senate chaplain, offered beautiful prayer at the opening session.

In part, he said:

"We remember gratefully today now that an honored seat in this Chamber is vacant that freedom's holy light, which is America, was his creed, and that he dedicated every power of his being for its defense. Proudly he walked around freedom's ramparts which he helped to watch, perceiving with alert eyes the dire dangers which threatened her very survival in these days of her most crucial test."
